Foreword

Goods and Services Tax (GST) came into effect from 1st July 2017 through the implementation of the One Hundred and First Amendment of the Constitution of India. It is one of the most significant indirect tax reforms since independence of our country. It subsumed many existing indirect taxes levied by the Central and State Governments making the structure of indirect taxes much simpler than before. It is a comprehensive, multi-stage, destination-based tax. The tax rates, rules and regulations are decided by the GST Council which consists of the Union Finance Minister and Finance Ministers of all the State Governments and Union Territories.

The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) has always been a forerunner in taking initiatives towards educating and supporting the various stakeholders in implementing GST in the best possible manner. As a partner in nation-building, the ICAI always strives for smooth execution of the rules, regulations and laws as introduced and amended from time to time by the Government. Through its technical expertise and other resources, ICAI tries its best to let the members keep up to date with regular amendments which are specifically found in a new law like GST.

I am happy to note that the GST & Indirect Taxes Committee of ICAI has come out with the 10th revised edition of its flagship publication viz., “Background Material on GST”. This publication contains detailed analysis of the GST law and includes various MCQs, FAQs, flowcharts, diagrams, etc. for easy comprehension. This publication is updated with the amendments made in the GST law till 31st December 2021.

I appreciate and commend the efforts put in by CA Rajendra Kumar P, Chairman, CA Sushil K. Goyal, Vice-Chairman, all members of the GST & Indirect Taxes Committee and all those who have contributed towards bringing out this publication on time for the benefit of the members and other stakeholders at large.

I am positive that this publication will help the members and stakeholders at large in proper understanding of the GST law.

President, ICAI

Preface

In contrast to the earlier indirect taxes which were collected from the point of origin, Goods and Services Tax (GST) came as a change, as the collection of this tax takes place from the point of consumption. The Centre as well as the States impose this tax on a transaction simultaneously making it a joint effort. The transaction ought to be a supply which can be a sale, transfer, barter, exchange, etc., for GST to be levied thereon. The GST law has undergone numerous amendments since its introduction four and a half years ago on July 1, 2017.

Being the largest professional accounting body of India and a partner in nation-building, the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) considers its responsibility to support the Government in implementing the GST law in letter and spirit. The GST and Indirect Taxes Committee of ICAI has been disseminating the knowledge of GST amongst members and other stakeholders as also building the capacities of members in the area of GST through technical publications, GST Newsletter, Certificate Course, Virtual CPE meetings, Webcasts, E-Learnings, etc.

The “Background Material on GST” is one such comprehensive publication which contains detailed and in-depth analysis of the entire GST law. Senior and erudite experts of the profession have contributed towards the development of this publication and have been continually involved in the regular updation of the same. It gives me immense pleasure to share with our readers the 10th revised edition of the Background Material on GST which is one of the most popular publication of our Committee. The subject matter of this publication is based on GST law updated with amendments made vide the Finance Act, 2021 and includes relevant notifications, circulars, orders etc. issued till 31st December 2021.

We are extremely thankful to CA Nihar N Jambusaria, President and CA (Dr.) Debashis Mitra, Vice-President, ICAI for their continued support and encouragement for the initiatives of the Committee. We also extend our special thanks to the team of our experts namely, of CA A Jatin Christopher, CA Bharath Kumar A Bohra, CA Gajendra Maheshwari, CA Ganesh Prabhu B, CA (Dr.) Gaurav Gupta, CA Harini Sridharan, CA P Sankaran, CA R S Balaji , CA Raghavan Ramabadran, CA Saradha H, CA Shaikh Abdul Samad Ahmad, CA Shankara Narayanan, CA. Shubham Khaitan, CA V V Sampath Kumar, CA Viral M Khandhar, CA Virendra Chauhan and CA Vishal G. Poddar for updating the Background Material. We would also like to thank the members of our Committee who have always been part of all our endeavors. Last but not the least, we also appreciate and acknowledge the technical and administrative support provided by the Secretariat of the Committee in revising this publication.

We are confident that this publication will help the readers in understanding and appreciating the finer nuances of the GST law. Though all efforts have been taken in developing and revising this Background Material, the possibilities of inadvertent errors/omissions cannot be ruled out.

We request the readers to bring such errors/omissions, if any, to our notice. We will be glad to receive your valuable feedback at gst@icai.in. We also request you to make use of the various resources available on our website <https://idtc.icai.org> and share your suggestions/inputs on the same.

Section 2(97)	Definition of 'return'
Section 39	Furnishing of returns
Chapter VIII of the CGST Rules, 2017	Returns

59.1 Introduction

In terms of section 2(11) of the Act, "assessment" means determination of tax liability under this Act and includes self-assessment, re-assessment, provisional assessment, summary assessment and best judgement assessment. It is important to note that there is no provision permitting a proper officer to re-assess the tax liability of a taxable person. The provisions of the law permit a registered person to rectify any incorrect particulars furnished in the returns. In terms of section 39(9), if a registered person discovers any omission or incorrect particulars furnished in a return, he is required to rectify such omission or incorrect particulars in the return to be furnished for the tax period during which such omission or incorrect particulars as are noticed (on payment of due interest), unless the same is as a result of scrutiny, audit, inspection or enforcement activity by the tax authorities, or such rectification is time barred (i.e., after the due date for furnishing of return for the month of September or second quarter following the end of the financial year, or the actual date of furnishing of relevant Annual Returns, whichever is earlier). As such, reference to such re-assessment in the definition may have to be suitably read down.

It is normally understood that an assessment is conducted by a proper officer. In terms of section 2(91) of the CGST Act, 2017, a “proper officer” in relation to any function to be performed under this Act, means the Commissioner or the officer of the central tax who is assigned that function by the Commissioner. The CGST Act contemplates the following types of assessments:

- Self-assessment (section 59)
- Provisional assessment (section 60)
- Scrutiny of returns filed by registered taxable persons (section 61)
- Assessment of non-filers of returns (section 62)
- Assessment of unregistered persons (section 63)
- Summary assessment in certain special cases (section 64)
  - (i) Self-assessment in terms of section 59 refers to the assessment made by registered person himself / itself while all other assessments are undertaken by tax authorities.
  - (ii) Provisional Assessment under section 60 is an assessment undertaken at the instance of the registered person. Provisional assessment is followed by a final assessment.
  - (iii) Scrutiny assessment under section 61 is a form of re-assessment (since self-assessment is made by the registered person himself / itself). A scrutiny of returns conducted by the proper officer who checks for the correctness of the returns filed and intimates the registered person of any discrepancies noticed.
  - (iv) Assessment of non-filers under section 62 and assessment of un-registered persons under section 63 are in the nature of best judgement assessments.
  - (v) Summary assessment under section 64 is a form of protective assessment based on information gathered from the tax authorities in a particular case.

59.2 Analysis

Self-assessment means an assessment by the registered person himself and not an assessment conducted or carried out by the proper officer. The GST regime continues to promote the scheme of self-assessment. Hence, every registered person would be required to assess his tax dues in accordance with the provisions of GST Act and report the basis of calculation of tax dues to the tax administrators, by filing periodic tax returns.

Tax which is self-assessed consists of self-determination of (i) supply not excluded by Schedule III (ii) taxability of supply not covering alcohol, five specified petro products or securities (iii) classification – goods or services (iv) exemption (v) liability on taxable person on forward charge and not on recipient on reverse charge basis (vi) valuation with inclusions and exclusions (vii) admissibility of input tax credit and (viii) determination of 'net tax' liability. This liability stands 'disclosed' in returns filed under section 37 in Form GSTR -1 and liability disclosed is 'discharge' in returns filed under section 39 in Form GSTR -3B. Any assessment, even self-assessment, requires an assessment order. It has been held in CCE v. Flock (India) Pvt. Ltd. (2000) 120 ELT 285 (SC) and in Priya Blue Industries Ltd. v. CC (2004) 172 ELT 145 (SC) that any lis must arise out of an order of assessment. In a self-assessment tax system, the determination of liability may be done privately in the invoice issued under section 31. For this reason, experts hold the view that the invoice (tax invoice or bill of supply) is the self-determination document prepared by the Registered Person in terms of the authority conferred by section 59.

The provisions of the law permit a registered person to rectify any incorrect particulars furnished in the returns. In terms of section 39(9), if a registered person discovers any omission or incorrect particulars furnished in a return, he is required to rectify such omission or incorrect particulars in the return to be furnished for the tax period during which such omission or incorrect particulars are noticed (on payment of due interest), unless the same is as a result of scrutiny, audit, inspection or enforcement activity by the tax authorities, or such rectification is time barred (i.e., after the due date for furnishing of return for the month of September or second quarter following the end of the financial year, or the actual date of furnishing of relevant Annual Returns, whichever is earlier). Further, Para 4 of Circular No. 26/2017 dated 29.12.17, clarifies that in case of summary returns like Form GSTR-3B, where there are no separate tables for reflecting tax effects of amendments for past periods are available, the figures pertaining to the current month can be adjusted for past month amendments, so long as the amount is not negative. These provisions exhort the concept of self-assessment.

It is important to note that 'self-assessment' does not confer authority of an assessing officer (called proper officer) on the taxpayer. The taxpayer must exercise this liberty to assess tax liability voluntarily with the perils of interest and penalty for any miscalculation or misinterpretations without usurping the role of Proper Officer.

For instance, if tax is charged in excess and the same has been reported in Form GSTR -1 and paid in Form GSTR -3B, whether the taxpayer on realizing the error, is required to file a refund claim under section 54 or free to adjust the excess with any other dues. And if the tax is correctly charged but error is in Form GSTR -1 and Form GSTR -3B, whether the taxpayer is still liable to file refund under section 54 or does section 59 permit the taxpayer to suo-moto adjust the excess by reducing any other tax payable.

Experts are of the view that taxpayer must submit to the jurisdiction of Proper Officer to examine and sanction refund in case the tax charged to customer is in excess by filing a refund application and limit suo moto rectification only in respect of errors of reporting noted in GSTR-1 and/or 3B but not in tax invoice issued to the customer.

The point therefore is the 'limits' to this authority of self-assessment cannot be lost sight of while complying with GST law. Self-assessment does not mean 'unsupervised self-administration'.

59.3 Comparative Review

The principles of self-assessment were there in the central excise law , service tax law as well as VAT Laws.

Rule 6 of Central Excise Rules provided that the assessee shall himself assess the duty payable on excisable goods (except in the case of cigarettes). As regards service tax, the concept of self-assessment was envisaged in section 70 of the Act which provided that every person liable to pay service tax shall himself assess the tax due on services provided by him. State VAT laws also provided for filing of returns and payment of VAT on self-assessment basis [For instance, section 20 of MVAT Act, 2002 or section 38 of the Karnataka VAT Act, 2003]

59.5 Issues and Concerns

In respect of discharge of any additional tax liability that may arise on account of any re-working or re-computation etc., (for example - Reversal of input tax credit on account of obtaining completion certificate required under any law for the time being in force by a builder in the construction sector), the proportionate input tax credit ought to be reversed (in this example, in case of unsold flats). The quantum of reversal of taxes relating to the pre-GST regime cannot be reflected in the GST returns, since the credit had been availed under the erstwhile laws (which may or may not have been carried forward as transitional credit). In so far as GST returns are concerned (presently Form GSTR-3B), the return does not permit / allow a registered person to enter the proportionate reversal of credit.

Reference may be had to section 75(12) where 'undisputed arrears' permits recovery action by tax authorities without affording an opportunity to be heard. Finance Act, 2021 has inserted an explanation to section 75(12)<sup>1</sup> which essentially permits direct access to recovery provisions in section 79 when there is a liability 'disclosed' in Form GSTR-1 which is not 'discharged' in Form GSTR-3B, even without issuing a show cause notice. There have been several decisions of High Courts striking down recovery action without issuing notices such as Mahadeo Construction Ltd. v. Uol (2020) 77 GSTR 133 (Jhar.), Refex Industries Ltd. v. ACCE (2020) 74 GSTR 274 (Mad.) and Uol v. LC Infra Projects Pvt. Ltd. (2020) 81 GSTR 281 (Kar). In spite of these decisions, Finance Act, 2021 made this amendment empowering aggressive tax administration. Revenue's perspective shared by experts is that when tax is self-assessed and disclosed in Form GSTR-1 but not discharged in Form GSTR-3B, there remains no further reason to give yet another opportunity (notice) to explain why the amount of self-assessed liability that the Registered Person has voluntarily disclosed in Form GSTR-1 should not be recovered if rectification is not carried out within 3 months (as required by section 78 before taking any recovery action under 79) but left undischarged in Form GSTR-3B. Clearly, undischarged self-assessed and voluntarily disclosed liability is an 'undisputed arrear' and not a 'disputed arrear' to attract the requirement of issuing a notice. This vires of this amendment is yet to come before the Courts and stand the test of law. If the Courts grant their seal of approval, experts caution that there would be aggressive tax administration and Registered Persons must exercise great caution in filing Form GSTR-1 and not only in filing Form GSTR-3B. To err is human, but to leave errors unrectified for more than 3 months attracts the wrath of this new amendment.

59.6 FAQs

Q1. Who is the person responsible to make self-assessment of taxes payable under the Act?

Ans. Every registered person shall self-assess the taxes payable under this Act and furnish a return for each tax period as specified under section 39.

60. PROVISIONAL ASSESSMENT

- (1) Subject to the provision of sub-section (2), where the taxable person is unable to determine the value of goods or services or both or determine the rate of tax applicable thereto, he may request the proper officer in writing giving reasons for payment of tax on a provisional basis and the proper officer shall pass an order within a period not later than ninety days from the date of receipt of such request, allowing payment of tax on provisional basis at such rate or on such value as may be specified by him.
- (2) The payment of tax on provisional basis may be allowed, if the taxable person executes a bond in such form as may be prescribed, and with such surety or security as the proper officer may deem fit, binding the taxable person for payment of the difference between the amount of tax as may be finally assessed and the amount of tax provisionally assessed.
- (3) The proper officer shall, within a period not exceeding six months from the date of the communication of the order issued under sub-Section (1), pass the final assessment order after taking into account such information as may be required for finalizing the assessment:

PROVIDED that the period specified in this sub-section may, on sufficient cause being shown and for reasons to be recorded in writing, be extended by the Joint/Additional Commissioner for a further period not exceeding six months and by the Commissioner for such further period not exceeding four years.

- (4) The registered person shall be liable to pay interest on any tax payable on the supply of goods or services or both under provisional assessment but not paid on the due date specified under sub-section (7) of section 39 or the rules made thereunder, at the rate specified under sub-Section (1) of Section 50, from the first day after the due date of payment of tax in respect of the said supply of goods or services or both till the date of actual payment, whether such amount is paid before or after the issuance of order for final assessment.
- (5) Where the registered person is entitled to a refund consequent to the order of final assessment under sub-Section (3), subject to the provisions of sub-Section (8) of Section 54, interest shall be paid on such refund as provided in Section 56.

Section 2(11)	Definition of assessment
Section 39	Furnishing of returns
Section 50	Interest on delayed payment of tax
Section 54	Refund of Tax
Section 56	Interest on delayed refunds

60.1 Introduction

Provisional assessment can be resorted to in the following situations:

- (i) At the outside, “unable to determine” does not mean “difficult”. It is inability due to unavailability of facts relevant for determination of tax liability. For eg., if the rate of tax was dependent on ‘percentage of copper content’, then unless this fact (percentage of copper content) is determined by a laboratory, neither the taxpayer nor the tax administration can arrive at the applicable rate of tax. This is just one example and there are others. Provisional assessment cannot be treated to be a substitute for Advance Ruling.
- (ii) It would be abdication of self-assessment responsibility by taxpayers to ‘claim’ inability to determine tax liability and remarkably place that responsibility upon before the Proper Officer. Except for facts, inability to determine tax liability on account of interpretation of law does not come within the scope of section 60.

60.2 Analysis

The facility of provisional assessment is available only in cases of valuation and determination of rate of tax. The provisions of this section cannot be extended for any other purpose or subject matter. For example, there may be uncertainty about the kind of tax (IGST or CGST-SGST) applicable, time of supply, supplies to be treated as “supply of goods” or “supply of services”, [determination of mixed or composite supply is a rate dispute], admissibility of ITC, quantum of reversal of ITC, whether a particular action is supply or not. In the aforesaid kind or classes of cases, recourse is not available to provisional assessment.

Procedure

- (i) In terms of rule 98(1), the process of provisional assessment commences on furnishing of an application by the registered person along with necessary supporting documents in Form GST ASMT-01, electronically through the common portal. The provisional assessment cannot be resorted to by the Proper Officer on suo-motu basis.
- (ii) The Proper Officer will thereafter issue a notice in Form GST ASMT-02. As per ASMT-2, reply is required to be given within 15 days to the registered person and if required seek additional information or documents. At this stage the proceedings will be deemed to have commenced and the applicant required to file his objections / make submissions in Form GST ASMT – 03. The registered person can also appear in person and be heard provided he makes a specific request for a personal hearing.
- (iii) On due consideration of the reply so filed, and after providing a reasonable opportunity of being heard, the Proper Officer must issue an order in Form GST ASMT-04, by allowing payment of tax on provisional basis, indicating the value or rate or both on the basis of which assessment is allowed on a provisional basis. The Proper Officer, in the normal course, cannot pass an order rejecting the application of provisional assessment. Since section 60(1) employs the term ‘shall’ pass order ‘allowing’ payment of tax provisionally. The word “shall” in this circumstance cannot be construed as “may”.
- (iv) The order so passed should also indicate the amount for which bond has to be executed in Form GST ASMT – 05 by the applicant. Security has to be furnished in the form of bank guarantee not exceeding 25% of the bond ‘amount’ which shall include IGST, CGST, SGST or UTGST and cess (if any) payable in respect of the transaction. A bond furnished to the Proper Officer under State Goods and Services Tax Act or Integrated Goods and Services Tax Act shall be deemed to be a bond furnished under the provisions of Central Goods and Services Tax Act and the rules made thereunder.

If the bond and security prescribed in ASMT-05 are not furnished within the period specified in the notice, the provisional assessment permitted in ASMT-04 shall lapse.

Finalization of provisional assessment

Once the above process is complete the Proper Officer by issue of a notice in Form GST ASMT-06, will call for information and records required for finalization of assessment. On conclusion of the due process of hearing, a final assessment order shall be passed by the Proper Officer in Form GST ASMT-07, specifying the amount payable or refundable to the registered person within a period of 6 months from the date of communication of provisional assessment order. However, on sufficient cause being shown and for reasons to be recorded in writing, this period can be extended by the Joint / Additional Commissioner or by the Commissioner for such further period as mentioned hereunder

Additional / Joint Commissioner	Maximum of 6 months
Commissioner	Maximum of 4 years

It may be noted that, in the statement of outward supply to be furnished by a registered person under section 37(1) i.e., in Form GSTR-1, the invoices in respect of which tax is paid under provisional assessment are required to be mentioned.

Further, CBIC vide Circular No. 122/41/2019-GST dated 5th November, 2019 clarified the implementation of the electronic generation of Document Identification Number (DIN) for all communications sent by its offices to taxpayers. Therefore, no communication of provisional assessment order is made without a computer-generated Document Identification Number, on or after 8th November, 2019.

Interest liability

If the amount of tax determined to be payable under final assessment order, is more than the tax which is already paid along with the return filed in terms of section 39, the registered person shall be liable to pay interest on the shortfall, at the rates specified in section 50(1) of the Act [i.e. @18%], from the first day after the due date of payment of tax in respect of the said goods and/or services or both, till the date of actual payment, irrespective of whether such shortfall is paid before or after the issuance of order for final assessment<sup>2</sup>. Likewise, when the registered person is entitled to refund consequent upon the order of final assessment, interest shall be paid on such refund at the rates specified in proviso to section 56 [@ 9%] because refund is arising out of an order of the adjudicating authority. The interest on refund shall run from the 61st day from the date of receipt of application for refund till the date of refund.

As such, the registered person must avail this opportunity of provisional assessment after much thought and careful consideration. Any claim for refund of taxes paid in excess under this section would be processed in accordance with section 54 (refund provision) and is subject to the concept of "unjust enrichment under section 54(8)(e). Hence, where the registered person has not borne the incidence of tax and has passed on the burden to some other person, then instead of granting refund to the applicant, it shall be credited to the consumer welfare fund. Except for authorizing refund, this section does not by itself sanction refund. The application for refund is required to be made within 2 years from the relevant date defined in clause (f) of Explanation 2 to section 54 i.e., within 2 years from the date of adjustment of tax after the final assessment.

Release of Security consequent to Finalization

On conclusion of the final assessment order, the applicant can file an application under rule 98(6) in Form GST ASMT- 08 for release of security furnished. On receipt of such application, the Proper Officer ought to release the security furnished, after ensuring that the payment of the amount specified in the final assessment order and issue an order in Form GST ASMT-09. This order has to be issued within a period of 7 working days from the date of receipt of the application for release of security.

Rejection of Application

If a taxpayer's application seeking provisional assessment FAILS to establish the 'facts affecting' the determination of tax liability, then it is open to the Proper Officer to reject the application. In all other cases, since the taxpayer is imperilled by interest liability, the Proper Officer would not reject the application.

60.3 Comparison with equivalent provisions under other laws

Section 60 of the CGST Act is broadly drafted on the lines of the erstwhile provisions of Central Excise and Service Tax laws. A provisional assessment is permitted under Central Excise Act and also under the Finance Act 1994 and is governed by the procedure contained in rule 7 of the Central Excise Rules or as the case may be, rule 6(4)/(4A)/(4B)/(5) of Service Tax Rules. Under both these Acts, provisional assessment is carried out only at the instance of the assessee.

Under the State VAT Acts, the concept of provisional assessment "at the instance of assessee", is not prevalent. Some State Acts have used this term to cover the cases of best-judgment assessment done by the tax authorities, in the absence of returns or records. For instance, refer section 32 of Gujarat Value Added Tax Act or section 40 of the Orissa Value Added Tax Act.

60.4 Issues and Concerns

The provisional assessment provides a discretionary power to the Joint Commissioner or the Additional Commissioner and Commissioner to extend the proceedings or pass the order or decree up to 6 months or 4 years as the case may be. If for any reason, the time limit stands extended till the 4th year, the registered person shall have to pay interest from the due date of original return filed under section 39(7) of the CGST Act, inspite of the taxable person paying tax as per provisional order passed by Proper Officer.

60.5 FAQs

Q1. When is a taxable person permitted to pay tax on a provisional basis?

Ans. Tax payments can be made on a provisional basis only when a Proper Officer passes an order permitting the same. For this purpose, the registered person has to make a written request to the Proper Officer, giving reasons for payment of tax on a provisional basis. The reasons for this purpose may be where the registered person is unable to determine the value of goods and/ or services or determine the applicable tax rate, etc. Further, the registered person may also be required to execute a bond in the prescribed form, with such surety or security as the Proper Officer may deem fit.

Q2. What is the outer time by which final assessment is required to be made?

Ans. It is the responsibility of the Proper Officer to pass the final assessment order after taking into account such information as may be required for finalizing the assessment, within six months from the date of the communication of the order for provisional assessment. However, on sufficient cause being shown and for reasons to be recorded in writing, the timelines may be extended by the Joint/Additional Commissioner for a further period not exceeding six months and by the Commissioner for such further period not exceeding 4 years as he may deem fit.

61.1 Introduction

Section 61 deals with the powers vested in the proper officer to scrutinize the returns filed by registered persons with a view to verify the correctness of the return. In legal parlance, it is considered to be a pre-adjudication process. The process of adjudication is provided in sections 73 to 75 of the Act.

61.2 Analysis

At the outset, it is important to recognize that e-mail or text messages cannot be sent to taxpayer if a query arises in the mind of the Proper Officer with respect to the returns filed. It has been noted that such informal communication has been sent and even responded by taxpayers. Scrutiny of returns requires the following ingredients:

- Returns – Identify which is a 'return' in respect of which scrutiny is being carried out. Return is defined in section 2(97) which does not refer to any specific section but states 'any' return 'prescribed or otherwise required to be furnished'. This requires careful consideration as there is room to gloss over this important document. Any of the "GSTR" series of documents will be a 'return' to which scrutiny provisions will apply. Experts are of the view that once Form GSTR 9 or 9A has been filed, no further scrutiny of the underlying returns (say, Form GSTR 1/3B) can be taken up for scrutiny .as the information may, as it was filed or altered and now reported in GSTR 9/9A. Scrutinizing documents that are no longer current (Form GSTR 1/3B) or already rectified in another return filed later in time (GSTR 9/9A) may be an exercise in futility.;

- Proper officer – only the proper officer under whose jurisdiction taxpayer is registered and filing returns is authorized to scrutinize returns. Any cross-empowered officer may collect or access the returns but is not vested with authority under section 61 to scrutinize. Such officer may even scrutinize and take action under other provisions but not under section 61. Reference may be made to the detailed discussion regarding listing of jurisdiction and powers conferred under sections 3 to 6 of CGST Act along with relevant notifications and related circulars.
- Discrepancy – is an inconsistency or inaccuracy which is an important requirement to invoke section 61 that the Proper Officer must 'discover' from within the returns itself. Section 61 does not permit investigation into new things not emerging from the returns as there are other provisions with check and balance to undertake investigations. It is a clear provision 'conferring jurisdiction' by this expression 'discrepancy'. Discrepancy is not a doubt or confusion about what might have been the transactions carried out by the taxpayer. Discrepancy is a 'lack of compatibility' arising from within the returns and not from any external source of additional information. Any inquiry without this jurisdiction makes the entire proceedings void. Where a notice is issued under section 61, care must be taken to identify whether the issue involved can pass the test of being a 'discrepancy'. While self-assessment has been stated NOT to be 'unsupervised self-administration' system, at the same time, self-assessment does not empower wide-ranging assessment in the name of scrutiny. The scope is large but not unlimited scope that proper officer is permitted to carry out in the name of scrutiny under section 61. Responding to notice under section 61 does not amount to admission of wrong doing.
- Resolution – taxpayer may take three routes (a) admission and rectification or explanation (b) non-admission and (c) admission but inaction by taxpayer. Based on this, further steps to be taken by the proper officer are prescribed. Proper officer cannot routinely call for books and records of the taxpayer. He can invoke section 65 or 66 to audit the books of the taxpayer, but those sections have other pre-requisites (which are discussed later). Carrying out an inspection is not permissible without prior permission from the JC there's a special ingredient of 'reason to believe' contained in section 67 (discussed later). The most important aspect is that the Proper Officer CANNOT carry out any assessment under section 61. Care must be taken to object to any attempt at carrying out assessment where tax liability is being determined on an apprehension based on the discrepancy. Discrepancy must conclude and be resolved in one of the three ways specified in the section. There can be no 'order of demand' arising out of section 61 itself. Yes, scrutiny can give rise to a show cause notice under section 73 or 74 which will be adjudicated on its own merits but the proceedings under section 61 will conclude.

Now, to reiterate the process permitted under section 61, when a return furnished by a registered person is selected for scrutiny, the Proper Officer scrutinizes the same with reference to the information available with him, and in case of any discrepancy, he shall issue a notice to the said person in Form GST ASMT-10, under Rule 99(1), informing him of such discrepancy and seeking his explanation thereto. The proper officer shall quantify the amount of tax, interest and any other amount payable in relation to such discrepancy, wherever possible.

An explanation shall be furnished by the registered person, in reply to the aforesaid notice, within a maximum period of 30 days from the date of service of the notice or such further period as may be permitted by the proper officer.

The registered person may accept the discrepancy mentioned in the notice issued under rule 99(1), and pay the tax, interest and any other amount arising from such discrepancy and inform the same OR furnish an explanation for the discrepancy in Form GST ASMT- 11 to the proper officer.

Where the explanation furnished by the registered person or the information submitted under Rule 99(2) is found to be acceptable, the Proper Officer shall inform the registered person in Form GST ASMT-12.

In case, an explanation is not furnished OR the explanation furnished is not satisfactory, OR after accepting discrepancies, the registered person fails to take corrective measures in his return for the month in which the discrepancy is accepted by him, the proper officer, may, take recourse to any of the following provisions:

- Initiate departmental audit as per section 65 of the Act
- Initiate special audit as per section 66 of the Act
- Initiate inspection, search and seizure as per section 67 of the Act
- Issue show cause notice under section 73 and 74 of the CGST Act.

The first stage in return scrutiny denotes a prima facie scrutiny, in order to ascertain whether the information furnished by the assessee in returns is prima facie valid and not internally inconsistent or inadequate. The second stage appears to be a detailed assessment calling for records and determination of tax liability under sections 73 to 75.

While doing so, the proper officer is entitled to exercise the powers vested in him under section 67 of the Act, which deals with the power of inspection, search and seizure.

From the language employed in section 67, it appears that these powers are required to be exercised not in a routine manner, but only under circumstances when there is reasonable belief regarding suppression or intention to evade tax.

It's important to note that section 61(3) emphatically provides that in case the explanation given by the tax payer in response to discrepancies informed by the Proper Officer, if found acceptable, the registered person shall be informed accordingly in Form GST ASMT-12 and no further action shall be taken in this regard.

Taking pointers from the annual returns, following is an illustrative list of what may or may not constitute a 'discrepancy' to be taken up for scrutiny under section 61:

Likely to be a 'discrepancy' for scrutiny	Unlikely to be a 'discrepancy' for scrutiny
Tariff notification prescribing credit restriction or credit ban, but credit found to be taken in returns.	Whether turnover reported as 'exports' has been billed in foreign currency or not
'Net tax' payable being 'negative' throughout the year indicative of missing value addition or possibly investments in capital goods when inverted rate structure not known to exist .	EWB known to be generated for inward supply of motor vehicles, but no credit found to have been disallowed or reversed as ineligible.
Taxpayer eligible to deemed value under rule 32 found to be paying tax at 18%.	Balance sheet containing 'amounts received from clients' but tax not found to be paid against 'receipt voucher'.
Form GSTR 2A showing inward supplies at 3% rate of tax but no outward supplies appearing at 3% rate of tax.	Balance sheet showing 'other service income' but no turnover reported under chapter 99
Tax paid via DRC 03 for 2017-18 utilizing credit	Tax paid via DRC 03 for 2019-20 relating to RCM under section 9(4) for the year 2018-19
Taxpayer operating SEZ unit found to have paid IGST and claimed input tax credit without availing tax-free inward supplies	Company operating SEZ unit found to claim all inward supplies under section 9(3) or 9(4) for 2017-18 to qualify as 'zero-rated'.
Taxpayer involved in non-seasonal trading business filed 'nil' returns for 6 months of the year.	Taxpayer involved in trading of goods found to have paid 'nil' tax under section 9(3) at 5% towards GTA services likely to have been availed.
Turnover in Forms GSTR 1 and GSTR 3B mismatch or credit in Forms GSTR 2A and GSTR 3B mismatch.	Taxpayer reported to have received notices from creditors under IBC, 2016 but no credit reversals reported under rule 37.
Sale of scrap reported by taxpayer (authorized service centre or electronics dealer) without any inward supplies under section 9(4) for 2017-18	EWB raised for outward movement of goods by taxpayer with outward supplies only under Chapter 99.
Regular changes in outward supplies but no payment found towards 'interest'.	'Nil' EWB generated throughout the year.

Caution is advised that above instances are meant to be a general guide to help readers differentiate when questions arise 'from the returns' and qualify to be treated as a discrepancy and scrutinized under section 61 and when questions, though valid, cannot be taken up for scrutiny under section 61. Also, these instances are not based on any circulars or Court decisions but prepared based on an understanding of the underlying issues for various contributors.

61.3 Comparative Review

The provisions as to scrutiny of returns existed also in the Service Tax / Central Excise and State VAT laws. For example, rule 12(3) of Central Excise Rules provided that, the 'proper officer' may on the basis of information contained in the return filed by the assessee under rule 12(1) and after such further enquiry as he may consider necessary, scrutinize the correctness of the duty assessed by the assessee on the goods removed, in the manner to be prescribed by the Board. CBIC has issued guidelines for detailed scrutiny of Central Excise Returns vide Circular No. 1004/11/2015-CX dated 21-7-2015 and also issued guidelines for detailed scrutiny of service tax returns vide Circular No. 18/4/2015-ST dated 30-06-2015

61.4 Issues and Concerns

While filing the returns, the registered person should ensure that the value of exempted supplies as well as non-taxable supplies, if any, made by him is properly disclosed or else the same may be considered as suppression of information and a notice under section 73 or 74 would stand issued or the proper officer can take recourse for conducting an audit or special audit, as the case may be.

In view of the procedures under earlier tax regime, tax authorities are known to make routing verification in the name of scrutiny under section 61 by calling for 'books and records' and entertaining 'personal hearing' to examine the correctness of returns filed. It is for the Registered Person to cite the embargo in section 160(2) and refrain from (i) entertaining such proceedings and (ii) to question the validity of such proceedings at the earliest opportunity. By responding to the requests, the Registered Persons stand to forfeit their right to lawful action under the lawful provisions of law.

61.5 FAQs

- Q1. Describe the recourse that may be taken by the officer in case proper explanation is not furnished for the discrepancy in the return.
- Ans. In case, satisfactory explanation is not obtained or after accepting discrepancies, the registered person fails to take corrective measures in his return for the month for which the discrepancy is accepted by him, the proper officer may take recourse to any of the following provisions:
- (a) Conduct audit at the place of business of the registered person in a manner provided in section 65 of the Act.
  - (b) Direct such registered person by notice in writing to provide his records including audited books of account examined and audited by a Chartered Accountant or Cost

Accountant under section 66 of the Act.

- (c) Undertake procedures of inspection, search and seizure under section 67 of the Act.
- (d) Issue notice under sections 73 to 75 of the Act.

Q2. What does section 61 deal with?

Ans. Section 61 deals with scrutiny of returns filed by registered persons to verify the correctness of such returns.

Q3. What the Proper Officer is required to do, if the information obtained from the assessee under section 61 is found to be satisfactory?

Ans. In case the explanation is found acceptable, the registered person shall be informed accordingly in Form GST ASMT-12 and no further action be taken in this regard.

61.6 MCQs

Q1. Where the tax authorities notice a discrepancy in the details during the scrutiny of returns, the registered person:

- (a) would be liable for interest if he is unable to prove that the discrepancy did not arise on his account and it was a fault of another person
- (b) is required to provide satisfactory/ acceptable explanation for the same within 30 days or any extended timelines as may be permitted
- (c) must prepare documents to set right the discrepancy.
- (d) Both (a) and (b)

Ans. (b) is required to provide satisfactory/ acceptable explanation for the same within 30 days or any extended timelines as may be permitted

Q2. If the information obtained from the taxable person is not found to be satisfactory by the proper officer, he can pass an assessment order under section 61 raising demand of disputed tax demand.

- (a) True
- (b) False

Ans. (b) False

Q3. What is the time limit after which action under section 61 cannot be taken?

- (a) 30 days from filing of return or such further period as may be decided by the Proper Officer.
- (b) No time limit
- (c) Time limit mentioned in section 73 or 74 of the Act.
- (d) None of the above

Ans. (c) Time limit mentioned in section 73 or 74 of the Act.

Q.4 What is the time limit, within which the registered person should take corrective measures after accepting the discrepancies communicated to him by proper officer?

- (a) reasonable time
- (b) 30 days from the date of communication of the discrepancy.
- (c) 30 days from date of acceptance of the discrepancy
- (d) date of filing of the return for the month in which the discrepancy is accepted

Ans. (d) date of filing of the return for the month in which the discrepancy is accepted.

62.1 Introduction

This section commences with a non obstante clause, meaning whenever the provisions of section 73 or 74 applies the provisions of section 62 of the Act cannot be invoked. However, the provisions of section 62 can be invoked only in case of registered taxable persons who have failed to file returns, as required under section 39 or as the case may be, or final return on cancellation of registration under section 45 of the Act. Issuance of notice under section 46 operates as a pre-condition for initiating proceedings under section 62 of the Act. However, section 62 cannot be invoked for non-filing of Form GSTR-1 or GSTR-9.

62.2 Analysis of Provisions

Non-compliance with the notice issued under Section 46 paves the way for initiating the proceedings under this section. So, a notice under section 46 is inescapable and compulsory for any action under section 62 to be taken up. Please note that with the applicability of 'service by email' and 'service on portal' are permitted in GST, it is imperative to look out for any such notice being sent to registered email or posted on portal. If the assessee fails to furnish the return within 15 days of issue of notice under section 46 then the Proper Officer may assess the tax liability in accordance with the provisions of Rule 100 i.e. to the best of his judgment, taking into account all the relevant material available on record, and issue an assessment order. This is also known as 'best judgment assessment'. It can be completed without giving notice of hearing to the assessee. However best judgment assessment should be made on the basis of material available or material gathered by Proper Officer.

Please note that only returns under sections 39 and 45 are covered by section 62. Annual Returns filed under section 44 cannot be treated under section 62. Non-filing of Annual Returns will attract penalty and hence there can be no 'best judgement assessment' on this basis. It is important to question any order under section 62 as to 'how was jurisdiction acquired' for such a proceeding. In other words, non-filing of GSTR 3 (or GSTR 3B) and GSTR 10 (final return) will attract best judgement assessment. Failure to file GSTR 1 does not attract section 62. Reference may be had to newly enacted section 43A where outward supplies returned will be deemed to be tax payable and attracts recovery actions.

Order under section 62 must be issued within a period of five years from the date specified under section 44 for furnishing Annual Returns for the financial year to which the tax not paid relates. Section 44(1) states that due date for furnishing the Annual Returns is on or before 31st December following the end of financial year to which such Annual Returns pertains. However, extension of due date for furnishing the Annual Returns may be considered.

Non-issuance of notice under Section 46 closes the door for invoking Section 62 although other provisions are available to recover the tax dues. If, however, a registered person furnishes a 'valid return' within 30 days of the service of assessment order, the said assessment order shall be 'deemed to be withdrawn'. 'Valid return' is defined in Section 2(117) to mean a return filed under Section 39(1) of the Act on which self-assessed tax has been paid in full. Valid return may not (or does not necessarily imply to) be perfect in all respects and is, therefore, not barred from containing (inadvertent) errors. In other words, presence of such errors does not render the return 'defective' and become non-existent in the eyes of law. Erroneous return is also a valid return. Errors may be of omission or commission. Experts advise that care must be taken to file such valid return free of errors and after order passed under section 62 being vacated, Proper Officer would take up proceedings based on such valid returns under section 61.

Section 62 starts with the words 'notwithstanding anything contrary to section 73 and 74'. Section 73 and 74 mandates issue of SCN and providing opportunity of being heard before passing order for demanding tax. Further, tax can be demanded for the period as prescribed in section 74, if the existence of omissions and commissions, as mentioned under section 74, are proved. The pre-condition of issuing SCN, providing opportunity of being heard for demanding tax for the period prescribed under section 74 in the presence of omissions and commissions listed under section 74 is sought to be overcome by the non-obstante clause under section 62. The assessment under section 62 however can be made only upto 5 years from the due date of furnishing of Annual Returns under section 44. Consequence of late fee under Section 47 and interest under Section 50 will both be applicable in cases of conclusion of best judgement assessment made under this Section, even if the assessment order under section 62 is withdrawn.

Best Judgement Assessment

'Best judgement assessment' must not be 'worst' judgement assessment, that is, the determination of tax liability cannot be outlandish estimation of turnover based on some arbitrary growth rate oblivious of the nature of business activities and prevalent market conditions. Some experts are of the view that where turnover projection is made based on turnover of previous months, there is nothing in section 62 to indicate that corresponding credits, also on estimate basis, should not be included in arriving at liability on 'best' judgement basis. Best judgement assessment must not be worst judgement and determine high turnover ignoring seasonal downward variations and even benefit of estimate of credits available on proportionate basis. There is nothing in the law to support view that 'tax liability' to be determined on best judgement basis should be 'gross liability' and not 'net tax liability'. Courts will have final say in the matter and when one has failed to file returns, it is scarce that such a taxpayer can find favour of Courts in the manner of arriving at best tax liability.

Another important aspect is, in case an order of best judgement is passed under section 62 and returns are not filed within 30 days, the order becomes final and even if returns are filed subsequently, the order CANNOT be withdrawn. Only remedy will be to file such returns and also prefer appeal under section 107.

As section 107 prescribes maximum 3 months days to file appeal before First Appellate Authority who has a further time limit of 1 month to condone explainable delay in filing appeal. Now, if after date of order under section 62, a time of more than 5 months (30 days to file returns after order PLUS 3 months to file appeal PLUS 1 month of delay in filing appeal that may be condoned) has passed, then the demand arising from this best judgement order will be final and payable. And this will be recoverable even if in fact there were no real taxable supplies made during the relevant tax period. Care must be taken to monitor email or portal service of orders under section 62 so as to avoid such irreversible demands due to lapse of time to redress.

An order passed under this section shall be communicated to the registered person in FORM GST- ASMT 13 + DRC 7. Since DRC7 will also be issued, best judgement assessment under section 62 proceeds on the understanding that the demand made in order in ASMT13 will lead to recovery of tax assessed. It is for this reason that if a valid return is not filed within 30 days to vacate this order, to set aside this demand will be to file appeal under section 107 is the only remedy.

62.3 Comparison with equivalent provisions in other laws

It appears that section 62 of the CGST Act is incorporated predominantly on the basis of provisions contained in the erstwhile State VAT Acts.

Section 72 of the Finance Act, 1994 provides for assessment of persons liable to pay service tax, but who has failed to furnish return under section 70, of the Act. However, procedure contained in section 72 requires that every such person shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard before the order is passed.

62.4 Issues and Concerns

The consequence of non-filing of returns may lead to adverse GST compliance rating which will have an impact on the matters such as claiming of refund. Registered persons who are non-filers of returns will always be under the scanner of the authorities for every activity carried out by such registered person. Further, it also affects the vendor relationship due to non-compliance of the provisions of the GST laws.

A non-filer would not have filed his periodic returns and therefore the annual returns in Form GSTR- 9 and reconciliation statement in Form GSTR- 9C would not be possible. However, if they have filed returns for part of the year then annual returns could be filed considering such filed returns and based on his books of accounts.

62.5 FAQs

Q1. Whether the proper officer is required to give any notice to the taxable person before completing the assessment under section 62?

Ans. The assessment under section 62 can be initiated only after the service of notice under section 46 i.e., notice to return defaulters.

Q2. If a registered person files a return after receipt of notice under section 46 but fails to make the payment disclosed by him in the return, can assessment order under section 62 be passed in this case?

Ans. An assessment order under section 62 is deemed to have been withdrawn if the registered person furnishes a valid return (including payment of taxes).

62.6 MCQs

Q1. The proper officer can complete the assessment under section 62 without issuing any notice to the registered taxable person before passing the assessment order.

- (a) True
- (b) False

Ans. (b) False

Q2. What is the time limit for issuing an order under section 62?

- (a) 9 months from the end of the financial year.
- (b) 3 years for cases covered under section 73 or 5 years for cases covered under section 74
- (c) 5 years for cases covered under section 73 or 3 years for cases covered under section 74
- (d) 5 years from the due date of filing annual returns.

Ans. (d) 5 years from the due date of filing annual returns

Q3. An assessment order under section 62 shall be deemed to be cancelled:

- (a) Where the registered person furnishes a valid return within 30 days of the service of the assessment order.
- (b) Where the registered person furnishes a valid return within 90 days of the service of the assessment order.

- (c) Assessment order under section 46 cannot be cancelled.
- (d) Where assessee intimates to the proper officer that he has filed valid return.
- Ans. (a) Where the registered person furnishes a valid return within 30 days of the service of the assessment order.
- Q4. After serving of notice under section 46, the proper officer is not required to give notice of hearing to the registered person before passing the assessment order.
- (a) True
- (b) False
- Ans. (a) True.

63.1 Introduction

This section commences with a non obstante clause, meaning whenever the provisions of section 73 or 74 apply the provisions of section 63 of the Act cannot be invoked. This section is applicable to unregistered persons i.e., persons who are liable to obtain registration under section 22 and have failed to obtain registration, will come within scope of this section. This provision also covers cases where registration was cancelled under section 29(2). Section 29(2) of the Act covers the following five instances where registration may be cancelled by the Proper Officer:

- (a) a person who contravenes the provisions of this Act or Rules made thereunder; or
- (b) a composition person who fails to furnish returns for three consecutive tax periods; or
- (c) a person other than a composition person who fails to furnish returns for six consecutive months or
- (d) a person who has sought voluntary registration but has failed to commence business within 6 months; or
- (e) where registration has been obtained by way of fraud, willful misstatement or suppression of facts.

63.2 Analysis

This is a remarkable provision where even when a taxable person is 'unregistered', the Proper Officer is vested with jurisdiction not only to identify the taxable transactions but also pass an order of assessment on best judgement basis and fasten an enforceable demand. This section too begins with the phrase "Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in section 73 or section 74". It therefore permits assessment under section 63 to be carried out independent of section 73 and section 74, however, the procedures contained in section 73 or 74 to the extent they are not inconsistent such as section 73(5) or 74(5) are to be followed while completing this assessment. As in the case of section 62, section 63 too mandates a period of limitation of 5 years from due date applicable for filing the annual returns for the financial year to which the unpaid tax relates.

It is interesting to note the following ingredients for this section 63 to be attracted:

- Taxable person – is the one in respect of whom this procedure may be adopted. As a result, all ingredients to establish a person to constitute ‘taxable person’ as per section 2(107) must be satisfied. In the absence of SCN, proper officer appears to come under great scrutiny for invoking this jurisdiction. All aspects that the Proper Officer admitted at the time of invoking these provisions will need to stand scrutiny. But that would be the proceedings by way of response to the notice granting opportunity under section 63 (not section 73 or 74) or in further appellate proceedings;
- Fails to obtain registration – is a positive act on the part of such taxable person. ‘Fail’ is not the same as ‘omits’ to obtain registration. Clearly, being conscious of the requirement to obtain registration will be required and as such come up for examination. While no ‘intent’ needs to be established for such failure, but clearly it cannot be supported merely on account of an inference about taxability or bona fide view on non-taxability of a transaction or judicial interpretation.
- Registration cancelled but liable to pay tax – here, reference is provided to cancellation under section 29(2). Section 29(2) is one where ‘cancellation’ is done by Proper Officer. It is not taxable person’s responsibility if the Proper Officers decides to cancel registration (in the five circumstances specified) and then proceed to invoke jurisdiction under section 63 to pass a best judgement order. It is a wonder that on one hand the Proper Officer will cancel registration under section 29(2) and then proceed to fasten a demand on the taxable person by an assessment order under section 63 without issuing an SCN. Experts view that the use of this section will come in for severe judicial scrutiny for failure to retain the registration and issue SCN on all grounds that would afford taxable person not only to defend the continuation of registration but also suspected tax liabilities. It would be appropriate for the Proper Officer to ‘suspend’ registration under rule 21-A (2) instead of cancelling the registration.

Refer discussion on ‘best judgement assessment’ under section 62.

For assessment under this section, notice has to be issued as per rule 100(2) in Form GST ASMT-14 + DRC 01 by the Proper Officer. The notice would contain the reasons / grounds on which the assessment is proposed to be made on best judgment basis. The registered person is allowed a time period of 15 days to furnish his reply, if any. After considering the said explanation, the order has to be passed in Form GST ASMT- 15 + DRC 07.

Special attention is to be paid to the appended forms in DRC1 with the order which contains the detailed grounds on which the said best judgement assessment would be passed and then DRC7 would accompany final demand (see rule 100(2) for details).

63.3 Comparison with equivalent provisions in other laws:

Section 23(4) of the MVAT Act contains similar provision as contained in section 63 of the CGST Act.

63.4 Issues and Concerns

The application of the aforesaid section is a discretionary power vested in the officer when it comes to his notice that a person although liable to registered has not obtained registration. The powers vested in the section 63 can be invoked only when the Proper Officer is in possession of information that is material for initiating the proceedings.

An unregistered person does not qualify as a registered person under section 2(94) of the CGST Act, 2017 and hence annual returns and audit are not applicable for him.

Judicial Review

Any procedure that side-steps the 'rule of law' in the form of issuing a SCN is always open for judicial review for (a) illegality, (b) irrationality, (c) procedural impropriety and (d) proportionality. Judicial review is a remedy in public law where the HC or the SC will interfere when failure of a public authority in discharging its duties takes place. Civilized society must declare its 'law' and implement those laws with 'certainty'. Uncertainty of both the law and procedure, – are the hallmarks of a society where there's absence of 'rule of law' (which is also referred as 'due process'). The concept of 'rule of law' is well guarded in Article 21 of our Constitution.

It is important to invoke Court intervention when reason for judicial review (four causes stated above) are present and this must be brought to Court's attention. When the Proper Officer who is to follow the 'rule of law' is found to violate these four grounds, then Courts are not reluctant to issue 'writ' or other suitable direction. The High Court which has powers of judicial review will not go into appreciating evidence or verification of claims, etc. It will only issue a writ to the public authority and:

- (a) command the public authority to (i) do what it ought to do or (ii) abstain from doing what it is attempting to do;
- (b) censure the public authority carrying role of administrative tribunal (i) not to steer from vested jurisdiction (ii) deviate from following natural justice (iii) supervise and oversee discharge of that role and (iv) avoid manifest error in law or procedure;
- (c) prohibit proceedings before public authority that are not yet concluded that would result in illegality (any of four causes listed earlier) if the said proceedings were permitted to continue;
- (d) question 'authority' of the public authority's right at the threshold when any proceedings are commenced.

A rough test laid down in SL Hegde v. MB Tirumale AIR 1960 SC 137 is that where it does not take prolonged arguments to bring it (cause for intervention by SC or HC) to the surface, the court will resort to the power of judicial review.. High Courts will reject the petition if it is not found to be maintainable on grounds such as (a) petitioner lacking any locus to approach Court (b) availability of alternate remedy (c) mere apprehension of any violation without any real basis and (d) inordinate delay in approaching the Court. High Courts have power not only to protect any instance of violation of fundamental rights but also craft a remedy that threatens to be an affront to the 'rule of law' that is committed in the Constitution.

64.1 Introduction

The word “summary assessment” is generally used in a tax legislation to denote ‘fast track assessment’ based on the return filed by the assessee. It allows the tax officer to make prima facie adjustments based on errors or factors based on the available information without an occasion for calling for further information from an assessee or inspecting his records. In the GST Act, it is used to denote those assessments which are completed ex-parte and on priority basis when there is reason to believe that there will be loss of tax revenue, if such assessment is delayed. This provision is only the first step in invoking the machinery provided to enforce recovery of dues from potential defaulters, and this requires an assessment of the tax liability. Such assessments are commonly known as protective assessments which in a sense protects Government revenue. This section pre-supposes the fact that the proper officer must be in possession of sufficient grounds to believe that any delay will adversely affect the Revenue.

64.2 Analysis

Summary assessment can be undertaken in case the following conditions are satisfied:

- The proper officer must have evidence that there may be a tax liability. It is this ingredient that furnishes jurisdiction for the proper officer to invoke section 64. Experts hold the view that the ‘evidence’ is not merely ‘reason to believe’ but something more. And if it were merely ‘reason to believe’, then that would not have been open for examination in further proceedings. Since it refers to something more by the words ‘evidence’ that supports Proper Officer’s expectation of plausible tax liability, then such evidentiary material can be called in for examination in further proceedings. Proper Officer’s apprehension that there may be tax payable is not sufficient to vest him with necessary jurisdiction; and
- The proper officer has obtained prior permission of Additional / Joint Commissioner to assess the tax liability summarily. The Proper Officer must have sufficient ground to believe that any delay in passing assessment order would result in loss of revenue. Now, steps proposed by the Proper Officer require to be fettered with some checks. Checks on the exercise of this authority are ensured by permission from ADC/JC who would appreciate the quality of such evidence and then grant permission. Once ADC/JC has granted permission, the Proper Officer may proceed to pass the assessment order. Examination of the evidence after summary assessment order has been passed would only help in establishing impropriety of the entire proceedings in judicial review.

Summary assessment under this section of the CGST Act can therefore be construed in some sense as a ‘protective assessment’ carried out in special circumstances, where there are sufficient grounds to believe that taxable person will fail to make payment of any tax, penalty or interest, if the assessment is not completed immediately. Such failure to pay tax, interest or penalty must be due to reasons attributable to the taxpayer (ex: insolvency, instances of defaulting, absconding etc). Hence, summary assessment under this section is not a substitute for assessment that are nearing the time limitation prescribed for issue of SCN. Further, mere possibility of non-payment cannot be a ground for resorting to summary assessment, unless there are factors indicating that such non-payment pertains to admitted or undisputed tax liability. As per the provision of rule 100(3) the summary assessment order should be in Form GST ASMT-16 + DRC 07.

This section appears to overlap with sections 62 and 63. However, note the following :

- Persons who have obtained registration but have failed to file returns will come within the operation of section 62; and
- Persons who are liable to obtain registration but have failed to seek registration or whose registration has been cancelled under section 29(2) will attract section 63.

Section 64, however, requires the ingredients discussed earlier to exist in order to resort to summary assessment. It should be noted that along with summary assessment order, a demand order in DRC-07 is also to be passed for proceeding with recovery unless further appeal is filed under section 107 to stay the demand.

The section allows the person who is assessed and is served with the order so passed, to come forward and make an application in accordance with Rule 100(4) in Form GST ASMT-17 to the Additional / Joint Commissioner, who will examine the same and if the Additional/ Joint Commissioner is satisfied, the summary assessment order may be withdrawn. As regards the contents of this application, it may be understood that the applicant may attempt to challenge the facts or reasons for the belief about risk of revenue loss and further accept to be available to respond, if proceedings under section 73/74 were to be undertaken. Besides, the Additional / Joint Commissioner may, on his own motion, withdraw such order and follow the procedure laid down in section 73 or as the case may be section 74 for determination of taxes not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or where input tax credit has been wrongly availed or utilised if he considers that such order is erroneous.

From the above, it appears that every summary assessment order so withdrawn under sub-section (2), may be followed by a notice under section 73 or as the case may be section 74 of the Act.

On receipt of application, the Proper Officer has to pass the order of withdrawal or, rejection of the application in accordance with Rule 100(5) in Form GST ASMT-18.

Many times, summary assessments are undertaken in circumstances, when a taxable person to whom liability pertains is not ascertainable. In such cases, the law provides that, if the liability pertains to supply of goods, then the person in charge of such goods shall be deemed to be the taxable person liable to be assessed and pay tax and the amount due on completion of summary assessment. There is no deeming provision when unpaid tax liability relates to supply of services.

Within 30 days from passing of such summary assessment order, based on application to ADC/JC by the taxable person, such order may be withdrawn. The main aspect of this provision in section 64(2), is the 'time limit' of 30 days provided to make this application. An order passed under 64(2) is an appealable order to be carried before First Appellate Authority under section 107.

Summary assessment is NOT the same as best judgement assessment. Summary assessment must be based on qualitative data and records far superior to that in the case of best judgement assessment. Experts opine that determination of tax liability in this case would not be able to allow credits as Proper Officer may not be in a position to ensure that conditions of section 16(2) are satisfied. However, while arriving at the tax liability, credit availed cannot be glossed over and must be adjusted to arrive at the final net tax liability. Experts hold the view that in examining the meaning of the expression 'tax liability' all related provisions of sections from 61 to 64 will be highly debated in the Courts in the days to come.

64.3 Issues and Concerns

The law provides for treating the person in charge of goods as the "taxable person" in cases where the person liable to pay tax cannot be ascertained. This provision will require the transporter to take due care to ensure that his position in terms of compliance with the law will not be compromised, while several transporters may themselves be unaware of the provisions of the law.

64.4 FAQs

Q1. When can Summary Assessment be initiated?

Ans. Summary assessments can be initiated by a Proper Officer on seeking permission from the Additional Commissioner / Joint Commissioner and proving that the taxable person is liable to pay tax.

64.5 MCQs

Q1. What is the time period within which a person can apply to the Additional/ Joint Commissioner for withdrawal of such order under this Section?

- (a) 30 days
- (b) 45 days
- (c) 60 days
- (d) No time limit.

Ans. (a) 30 days

65.1 Introduction

- (a) Audit of records of taxpayers is the bed rock for the proper functioning of a self-assessment-based tax system. This provision provides for audit of the business transactions of any registered person. It is an important tool in the tax administration to ensure compliance of law and prevent revenue leakage.
- (b) In terms of section 2(13) of the CGST Act, 2017, 'audit' means the examination of records, returns and other documents maintained or furnished by the registered person under this Act or the rules made thereunder or under any other law for the time being in force to verify the correctness of turnover declared, taxes paid, refund claimed and input tax credit availed, and to assess his compliance with the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder.
- (c) The following three types of audits are envisaged under the GST laws:
- (i) The first type of audit is to be done by a Chartered Accountant or a Cost Accountant under section 35(5) where the turnover exceeds certain threshold as specified in rule 80(3) of CGST Rules, 2017 i.e., ₹ 5 Crores of aggregate turnover for FY 2018-19 vide Notification No. 16/2020-CT dt. 23rd March, 2020. It was ₹ 2 Crores for FY 2017-18. However, the same has been omitted vide Finance Act, 2021 through Notification No. 29/2021 dt. 30th July, 2021 w.e.f 01.08.2021.
  - (ii) The second type of audit is to be done by the Commissioner or any officer authorised by him in terms of section 65 of the CGST Act, 2017 read with section 20(xiv) of the IGST Act, 2017 and section 21(xv) of UTGST Act, 2017.
  - (iii) The third type of audit is called the special audit and is to be conducted under the mandate of section 66 of CGST Act, 2017 read with rule 102 of CGST Rules, 2017.

65.2 Analysis

It is probably for the first time in the history of an indirect tax statute that the term 'audit' has been defined. 'Audit' means examination of records, returns and other documents maintained or furnished by the registered person. Hence audit cannot be conducted in case of unregistered person even if he was required to be registered. In the process of audit of records, returns and other documents to be examined, may be those maintained or furnished under this Act or Rules or any other law for the time being in force.

In an audit, examination is done to verify the correctness of the following:

1. Turnover declared by the supplier
2. Taxes paid by the supplier
3. Refund claimed by the supplier
4. Input tax credit availed by the supplier
5. Classification of goods or service by the supplier.

In an audit, examination is also done to assess the compliance with the provisions of this Act or rules.

While this Chapter discusses sections 65 and 66, the audit to be conducted by a Chartered Accountant under section 35 has been dealt with in Chapter 8 of this Background material.

- (a) Section 65 authorizes conduct of audit by the Commissioner or any other officer authorized by him of the transactions of the registered persons only. The Commissioner may issue a general order or a specific order, to authorize officers to conduct such audit. Rule 101(1) provides that the period of audit under sub-section (1) of Section 65 shall be a financial year (or part thereof) or multiples thereof. The frequency and manner for conducting such audit are yet to be prescribed. Normally, such issues could have been dealt with by way of issue of Office orders or circular instructions. It is important to note that the said order of Commissioner must be specific to the auditee and the tax period selected for audit. Any error and deficiency in such orders would abort any preparatory step taken by the audit officer and preparation to respond taken by the auditee.

The audit will be conducted at the place of business of the registered person or office of tax authorities. Intimation of audit is to be issued to the registered person at least 15 working days in advance in accordance with Rule 101(2) in Form GST ADT-01 and the audit is to be completed within 3 months from the date of its commencement, which may be extended by the Commissioner, where required, by a further period not exceeding 6 months.

Commencement of Audit =
Date on which the records and other documents called for by tax authorities are made available by registered person	OR	Actual institution of audit at the place of business whichever is later

- (b) The Commissioner is required to record the reasons in writing for grant of any such extension.
- (c) During the course of audit, the authorized officer may require the registered person to afford him the necessary facility to verify the books of account and also to furnish the required information and render assistance for the timely completion of the audit.
- (d) According to rule 101(4), the proper officer may inform discrepancies noticed during the audit to the registered person and the registered person shall reply to discrepancies. The proper officer shall finalize findings only after due consideration of the reply of the registered person.
- (e) Some of the best practices to be adopted for GST audit among others could be:
Evaluation of the internal control vis-a-vis GST would indicate the area to be focused. This could be done by verifying:

- (a) The statutory audit report which has specific disclosure in regard to maintenance of record, stock and fixed assets.
- (b) The information system audit report and the internal audit report.
- (c) Internal control questionnaire designed for GST compliance.
  - (i) The use of generalised audit software to aid the GST audit would ensure modern practice of risk-based audit.
  - (ii) The reconciliation of the books of account or reports from the ERP's to the return is imperative.
  - (iii) The review of the gross trial balance for detecting any income being set off with expenses.
  - (iv) Review of purchases/expenses to examine the applicability of reverse charge on goods/services. The foreign exchange outgo reconciliation would also be necessary for identifying the liability of import of services.
  - (v) Quantitative reconciliation of stock transfer within the State or for supplies to job workers under exemption.
  - (vi) Ratio analysis could provide vital clues on areas of non-compliance.
- (f) On audit completion, information is required to be provided to the registered person including the findings during the audit as per section 65(6) read with Rule 101(5) in Form GST ADT-02 within thirty days. In cases where tax liability is identified during the audit or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilized by the auditee, the proper officer may initiate action under section 73 or 74. Audit cannot conclude automatically resulting in a demand. Independent application of mind is necessary for a valid demand to be raised.
- (g) It is important to identify that audit under section 65 can commence in a routine manner although 100 per cent audit of given taxpayer or all taxpayers in the same industry would not be feasible. Unlike the scope and limitation on the powers under sections 61 to 64, the scope and coverage under section 65 can extend from scrutiny all the way to investigation. New discoveries may be made but not 'spot recovery'. Show cause notice under section 73 or 74 or 76 is a must for any demand to be entertained by the taxpayer.

65.3 Comparative Review

1. The central excise law empowers the Central Government to make provision for verification of records of the assessee. However, the GST Act itself specifically provides for audit of registered persons. In EA 2000, the Director General of Audit supervises the audit functions. Separate Audit Commissionerates have been constituted with effect from 15.10.2014 which will plan, delegate and administer the audit. The audit of the assessee is carried out through visits by 'audit groups' which consist of Superintendents and Inspectors.

2. The audit groups shall prepare a master file of the assessee and collect the relevant information and documents. Desk review shall be done before forming the audit plan. As planned, audit will be conducted and corrections and improvements shall be suggested to the assessee.
3. The draft audit report would be discussed and communicated to the assessee and willingness of the assessee to accept the demand etc., the same shall be placed before the monitoring committee. If the assessee does not accept the audit para, adjudication process will be initiated by the jurisdictional GST Officer.

65.4 FAQs

- Q1. Whether audit is mandatory in case of every registered person?
- Ans. No, it is not mandatory. It will be applicable only in cases where the appropriate authorities authorize the same by issue of general / specific orders.
- Q2. Whether any prior intimation is required before conducting the audit?
- Ans. Yes, prior intimation is required and the taxable person should be informed at least 15 days prior to conduct of audit in Form GST ADT-01.
- Q3. What is the period within which the audit is to be completed?
- Ans. The audit is required to be completed within 3 months from the date of its commencement or within the extended period, of upto 6 months in cases where the Commissioner is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that the audit cannot be completed within 3 months.
- Q4. What is meant by commencement of audit?
- Ans. It means the date on which the records and documents requisitioned by the tax authorities are made available by the registered person or the actual institution of audit at the place of business whichever is later
- Q5. What are the obligations of the taxable person when he receives the notice of audit?
- Ans. The taxable person should afford necessary facility / information / assistance / documents to the audit party for the smooth conduct of audit and its timely completion.
- Q6. What would be the action by the proper officer upon conclusion of the audit?
- Ans. The proper office must within 30 days inform the registered person (i.e., the auditee) about his findings, reasons for findings and his rights and obligations in respect of such findings.
- Q7. A notice for audit was served to M/s. ABC Ltd, on 20.05.2021. The required information was furnished by M/s. ABC Ltd, on 25.08.2021. The audit officers visited the place of business on 26.09.2021. What is the last date within which the audit is to be completed?
- Ans. It will be 3 months from 26.09.2021, viz., 26.12.2021 or within an extended period which can be granted by Commissioner (maximum period of 6 months) by recording the reasons in writing. (Even a shorter period of extension is permissible.)

- (1) If at any stage of scrutiny, enquiry, investigation or any other proceedings before him, any officer not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner, having regard to the nature and complexity of the case and interest of revenue, is of the opinion that the value has not been correctly declared or the credit availed is not within the normal limits, he may, with the prior approval of the Commissioner, direct such registered person by a communication in writing to get his records including books of account examined and audited by a Chartered Accountant or a Cost Accountant as may be nominated by the Commissioner.
- (2) The Chartered Accountant or Cost Accountant so nominated shall, within the period of ninety days, submit a report of such audit duly signed and certified by him to the said Assistant Commissioner mentioning therein such other particulars as may be specified: Provided that the Assistant Commissioner may, on an application made to him in this behalf by the registered person or the Chartered Accountant or Cost Accountant or for any material and sufficient reason, extend the said period by a further period of ninety days.
- (3) The provision of sub-Section (1) shall have effect notwithstanding that the accounts of the registered person have been audited under any other provision of this Act or any other law for the time being in force.
- (4) The registered person shall be given an opportunity of being heard in respect of any material gathered on the basis of special audit under sub-Section (1) which is proposed to be used in any proceedings against him under this Act or the rules made thereunder.
- (5) The expenses of the examination and audit of records under sub-Section (1), including the remuneration of such Chartered Accountant or Cost Accountant, shall be determined and paid by the Commissioner and such determination shall be final.
- (6) Where the special audit conducted under sub-Section (1) results in detection of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded, or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised, the proper officer may initiate action under Section 73 or 74.

Extract of the CGST Rules, 2017*102. Special Audit.

- 1) Where special audit is required to be conducted in accordance with the provisions of section 66, the officer referred to in the said section shall issue a direction in Form GST ADT-03 to the registered person to get his records audited by a Chartered Accountant or a Cost Accountant specified in the said direction.
- 2) On conclusion of the special audit, the registered person shall be informed of the findings of the special audit in Form GST ADT-04.

66.1 Introduction

Availing the services of experts is an age-old practice and a due process of law. These experts have done yeoman service to the process of delivering justice. One such facility extended by the Act is in section 66 where an officer not below the rank of an Assistant Commissioner, duly approved, may avail the services of a Chartered Accountant or Cost Accountant to conduct a detailed examination of specific areas of operations of a registered person. Similar provisions exist under the income tax law as well.

66.2 Analysis

- (a) Availing the services of the expert be it a Chartered Accountant or Cost Accountant is permitted by this section only when the officer (considering the nature and complexity of the business and in the interest of revenue) is of the opinion that:
- value has not been correctly declared; or
  - credit availed is not within the normal limits.
- It would be interesting to know how these 'subjective' conclusions will be drawn and how the proper officers determine what is the normal limit of input credit availed.
- (b) An Assistant Commissioner who nurses an opinion on the above two aspects, after commencement and before completion of any scrutiny, enquiry, investigation or any other proceedings under the Act, may direct a registered person to get his books of accounts audited by an expert. Such direction is to be issued in accordance with the provision of Rule 102(1) in Form GST ADT-03
- (c) The Assistant Commissioner needs to obtain prior permission of the Commissioner to issue such direction to the taxable person
- (d) Identifying and appointing the expert is not left to the registered person whose audit is to be conducted but the expert is to be nominated by the Commissioner.
- (e) The Chartered Accountant or the Cost Accountant so appointed shall submit the audit report, mentioning the specified particulars therein, within a period of 90 days, to the Assistant Commissioner in accordance with provisions of rule 102(2) in Form GST ADT-04.

- (f) In the event of an application to the Assistant Commissioner by Chartered Accountant or the Cost Accountant or the registered person seeking an extension, or for any material or sufficient reason, the due date of submission of audit report may be extended by another 90 days.
- (g) Section 66(3) states that special audit may be initiated notwithstanding that the accounts of the registered person have been audited under any other provisions of this Act or any other law for the time being in force. While the report in respect of the special audit under this section is to be submitted directly to the Assistant Commissioner, the registered person is to be provided an opportunity of being heard in respect of any material gathered in the special audit which is proposed to be used in any proceedings under this Act. This provision does not appear to clearly state whether the registered person is entitled to receive a copy of the entire audit report or only extracts or merely inferences from the audit. However, the observance of the principles of natural justice in the proceedings arising from this audit would not fail the taxable person on this aspect.
- (h) The remuneration to the expert is to be determined and paid by the Commissioner whose decision will be final.
- (i) As in the case of audit under section 65, no demand of tax, even ad interim, is permitted on completion of the special audit under this section. In case any possible tax liability is identified during the audit, procedure under section 73 or 74 as the case may be is to be followed.

Law relating to Central Excise

- (a) Similar provision existed under the Central Excise law. Unduly large proportion of credit availed considering the nature of the industry is a reason for an audit. This could also be a reason for special audit under GST also. The availing or utilization of CENVAT credit by reason of fraud, collusion or any willful mis-statement or suppression of facts can also be the reason for issuing notice for special audit. Under GST law, no special audit will be directed for wrong utilization of the credit, but wrong availment alone without any reason of fraud, collusion or any willful mis-statement or suppression of facts is sufficient to issue notice for special audit.
- (b) Under Central Excise law, the permission is given by the Principal Chief Commissioner or the Chief Commissioner of Central Excise. Under GST Act, the said permission is to be given by the Commissioner.
- (c) Under Central Excise law, the period within which the Chartered Accountant or the Cost Accountant should submit the audit report is not specified but the maximum extended period within which the audit report should be submitted remains to be 180 days. Under CGST Act, the audit report shall normally be submitted within 90 days and the further extension could be for another 90 days.

Law relating to Service Tax

- (a) The authority to direct the special audit rests with the Principal Commissioner or the Commissioner.
- (b) The special audit may be initiated where person liable to pay service tax -
  - (i) has failed to declare or determine the value of taxable service correctly; or transporting goods or the owner or the operator of warehouse or godown or any other place.

- (2) Where the proper officer, not below the rank of Joint Commissioner, either pursuant to an inspection carried out under sub-section (1) or otherwise, has reasons to believe that any goods liable to confiscation or any documents or books or things, which in his opinion shall be useful for or relevant to any proceedings under this Act, are secreted in any place, he may authorise in writing any other officer of Central tax to search and seize or may himself search and seize such goods, documents, books or things:

Provided that where it is not practicable to seize any such goods, the proper officer, or any officer authorized by him, may serve on the owner or the custodian of the goods an order that he shall not remove, part with, or otherwise deal with the goods except with the previous permission of such officer:

Provided further that the documents or books or things so seized shall be retained by such officer only for so long as may be necessary for their examination and for any inquiry or proceedings under this Act.

- (3) The documents, books or things referred to in sub-section (2) or any other documents, books or things produced by a taxable person or any other person, which have not been relied upon for the issue of notice under this Act or the rules made thereunder, shall be returned to such person within a period not exceeding thirty days of the issue of the said notice.
- (4) The officer authorized under sub-section (2) shall have the power to seal or break open the door of any premises or to break open any almirah, electronic devices, box, receptacle in which any goods, accounts, registers or documents of the person are suspected to be concealed, where access to such premises, almirah, electronic devices, box or receptacle is denied.
- (5) The person from whose custody any documents are seized under sub-section (2) shall be entitled to make copies thereof or take extracts therefrom in the presence of an authorized officer at such place and time as such officer may indicate in this behalf except where making such copies or taking such extracts may, in the opinion of the proper officer, prejudicially affect the investigation.
- (6) The goods so seized under sub-section (2) shall be released, on a provisional basis, upon execution of a bond and furnishing of a security, in such manner and of such quantum, respectively, as may be prescribed or on payment of applicable tax, interest and penalty payable, as the case may be.
- (7) Where any goods are seized under sub-section (2) and no notice in respect thereof is given within six months of the seizure of the goods, the goods shall be returned to the person from whose possession they were seized:

Provided that the period of six months may, on sufficient cause being shown, be extended by the proper officer for a further period not exceeding six months

- (8) The Government may, having regard to the perishable or hazardous nature of any goods, depreciation in the value of the goods with the passage of time, constraints of storage space for the goods or any other relevant considerations, by notification, specify the goods or class of goods which shall, as soon as may be after its seizure under sub-section (2), be disposed of by the proper officer in such manner as may be prescribed.
- (9) Where any goods, being goods specified under sub-section (8), have been seized by a proper officer, or any officer authorized by him under sub-section (2), he shall prepare an inventory of such goods in such manner as may be prescribed.
- (10) The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), relating to search and seizure, shall, so far as may be, apply to search and seizure under this section subject to the modification that sub-section (5) of section 165 of the said Code shall have effect as if for the word "Magistrate", wherever it occurs, the word "Commissioner" were substituted.
- (11) Where the proper officer has reasons to believe that any person has evaded or is attempting to evade the payment of any tax, he may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, seize the accounts, registers or documents of such person produced before him and shall grant a receipt for the same, and shall retain the same for so long as may be necessary in connection with any proceedings under this Act or the rules made thereunder for prosecution.
- (12) The Commissioner or an officer authorised by him may cause purchase of any goods or services or both by any person authorised by him from the business premises of any taxable person, to check the issue of tax invoices or bills of supply by such taxable person, and on return of goods so purchased by such officer, such taxable person or any person in charge of the business premises shall refund the amount so paid towards the goods after cancelling any tax invoice or bill of supply issued earlier.

Extract of the CGST Rules, 2017*139. Inspection, Search and Seizure

- (1) Where the proper officer not below the rank of a Joint Commissioner has reasons to believe that a place of business or any other place is to be visited for the purposes of inspection or search or, as the case may be, seizure in accordance with the provisions of section 67, he shall issue an authorisation in Form GST INS-01 authorising any other officer subordinate to him to conduct the inspection or search or, as the case may be, seizure of goods, documents, books or things liable to confiscation.
- (2) Where any goods, documents, books or things are liable for seizure under sub-section (2) of section 67, the proper officer or an authorised officer shall make an order of seizure in Form GST INS-02.

- (3) The proper officer or an authorised officer may entrust upon the owner or the custodian of goods, from whose custody such goods or things are seized, the custody of such goods or things for safe upkeep and the said person shall not remove, part with, or otherwise deal with the goods or things except with the previous permission of such officer.
- (4) Where it is not practicable to seize any such goods, the proper officer or the authorised officer may serve on the owner or the custodian of the goods, an order of prohibition in Form GST INS-03 that he shall not remove, part with, or otherwise deal with the goods except with the previous permission of such officer.
- (5) The officer seizing the goods, documents, books or things shall prepare an inventory of such goods or documents or books or things containing, inter alia, description, quantity or unit, make, mark or model, where applicable, and get it signed by the person from whom such goods or documents or books or things are seized.

140. Bond and security for release of seized goods

- (1) The seized goods may be released on a provisional basis upon execution of a bond for the value of the goods in Form GST INS-04 and furnishing of a security in the form of a bank guarantee equivalent to the amount of applicable tax, interest and penalty payable.

Explanation.- For the purposes of the rules under the provisions of this Chapter, the "applicable tax" shall include Central tax and State tax or Central tax and the Union Territory tax, as the case may be and the cess, if any, payable under the Goods and Services Tax (Compensation to States) Act, 2017 (15 of 2017).

- (2) In case the person to whom the goods were released provisionally fails to produce the goods at the appointed date and place indicated by the proper officer, the security shall be encashed and adjusted against the tax, interest and penalty and fine, if any, payable in respect of such goods.

141. Procedure in respect of seized goods

- (1) Where the goods or things seized are of perishable or hazardous nature, and if the taxable person pays an amount equivalent to the market price of such goods or things or the amount of tax, interest and penalty that is or may become payable by the taxable person, whichever is lower, such goods or, as the case may be, things shall be released forthwith, by an order in Form GST INS-05, on proof of payment.
- (2) Where the taxable person fails to pay the amount referred to in sub-rule (1) in respect of the said goods or things, the '[proper officer] may dispose of such goods or things and the amount realized thereby shall be adjusted against the tax, interest, penalty, or any other amount payable in respect of such goods or things.

67.1 Analysis

- (i) Inspection: A proper officer not below the rank of Joint Commissioner, may issue an authorisation (in Form GST INS-01) to any other subordinate officer to carry out an inspection of any place of business, if such proper officer 'has reasons to believe' that:
- (a) the taxable person:
    - (i) has suppressed any transaction of supply of goods or services or both; or
    - (ii) has suppressed information relating to stock in hand; or
    - (iii) has claimed input tax credit in excess of his entitlement; or
    - (iv) has contravened any of the provisions of the GST law, with an intent to evade taxes;
  - (b) any person engaged in the business of transporting goods or an owner or operator of a warehouse or a godown or any other place-:
    - (i) is keeping goods which have escaped payment of tax; or
    - (ii) has kept his accounts or goods in such a manner as is likely to cause evasion of tax payable under the GST law
- (ii) Understanding of reasons to believe: The phrase 'reasons to believe' has been interpreted by various courts distinguishing it from 'reason to suspect'.

In the case of Crompton Greaves Ltd. v. State of Gujarat, [2000] 120 STC 510, the High Court observed that, “these words suggest that belief must be that of honest and reasonable person based upon reasonable grounds and that the Commissioner may act under this section on direct or circumstantial evidence not on mere suspicion, gossip or rumor.

The powers under the present section are wide but not plenary; the words of the section are ‘reason to believe’ and not ‘reason to suspect’. The word “believe” is a much stronger word than “suspect”. Although these reasons cannot be called into question to prevent an inspection, later during adjudication, any “palpable absence” of reasons to believe can be brought out to challenge the correctness of inspection. However, experts hold the view that inspection can be non-specific and general investigation may lead to findings that were not the ‘reasons to believe’ at the start of this exercise.

Analyzing section 67(2) of the CGST Act, the High Court of Delhi in a recent judgment of R.J. Trading Co. v. Commissioner of CGST, Delhi North & Ors., W.P. (C) No. 4847/ 2021 has held that the belief of the concerned authority should be based on an actionable material actually perused. However, in the absence of a clue that ‘any’ goods of the petitioner or ‘any’ documents or books or things would be useful, for formation of a reason to believe, the very trigger for conducting the search and seizure was held as flawed and unsustainable.

Search and seizure: A proper officer not below the rank of Joint Commissioner, may issue an authorisation (in Form GST INS-01) to any other officer subordinate to him (or himself) to search and seize any goods / documents / books / things<sup>2</sup> which in his opinion would be useful for / relevant to proceedings under the GST Law, when he has reason to believe that any goods liable to confiscation are secreted in any place.

Important points to note in respect of search and seizure

- (a) The order of seizure shall be made in form GST INS-02.
- (b) The owner or custodian of the goods may be entrusted upon the custody of such goods or things for safe upkeep.
- (c) Where it is not practicable to seize such goods, an order of prohibition (In Form GST INS-03) may be served on the person / custodian of the goods that he shall not remove, part with, or otherwise deal with the goods except with the previous permission of the officer.
- (d) Seizure of the accounts, registers or documents produced before proper officer: If the proper officer has reasons to believe that any person has evaded or is attempting to evade the taxes, the officer may seize the accounts, registers or documents of the said person produced before him on recording the reasons in writing and granting a receipt of such seizure to such person. In this regard, it may be noted that the seized accounts / registers / documents can be retained for any period in respect of any proceedings for prosecution.

(iii) The following are important aspects in respect of goods or documents or books or things which have been seized by the officer:

(a) Retention: The said office -

- (i) shall retain the documents or books or things so seized so long as may be necessary for their examination and for any inquiry or proceedings under this Act; i.e., relied upon documents (RUD)
- (ii) shall return the documents, books or things seized or produced by a taxable or any other person on which no reliance has been placed for issuing notice, within a period of 30 days from the date of issue of notice.

(b) Power to seal/break upon (where access is denied): If the officer authorised to conduct search and seizure is denied access to any premises, almirah, electronic devices, box, receptacle in which any goods, accounts, registers or documents of the person are suspected to be concealed, then he shall have the power to:

- seal or break open the door of any premises; or
- break open any almirah, electronic devices, box, receptacle

(c) Inventory of seized goods etc.-The officer seizing the goods, documents, books or things shall prepare an inventory of such items containing, inter alia, description, quantity or unit, make, mark or model, where applicable, and get it signed by the person from whom such goods or documents or books or things are seized.

(d) Copies or extract of seized documents:

- (a) The person from whose custody, documents are seized is entitled to:
  - (i) make copies or
  - (ii) take extract of such documentsin the presence of an authorized officer at such place and time as may be indicated by such officer.
- (b) However, copies or extracts may be denied if the officer believes that such an act will prejudicially affect the investigation

(e) Provisional release of seized goods: The goods so seized shall be released on a provisional basis, upon:

- (a) execution of bond in Form GST INS -04 for the value of the goods and
  - (b) furnishing of security in the form of bank guarantee equal to the amount of applicable tax (incl. SGST / UTGST / IGST / Cess) + interest + penalty
- or on payment of applicable tax, interest and penalty payable, as the case may be.

Once the goods are provisionally released and where the person fails to produce the goods at the appointed date and place indicated by the proper officer, the security shall be encashed and adjusted against the liabilities in respect of such goods.

An important point to note here is that provisional release of goods has to be mandatorily taken by the concerned person within one month of executing the bond. In case of failure to do so, the proper officer has the power to dispose off the said goods as per Notification No. 27/2018-Central Tax dated 13.06.2018 [Sl. No. 17 of the Schedule appended to such notification]

(f) Release of perishable or hazardous goods or things: Where the goods or things seized are of perishable or hazardous in nature, and if the taxable person:

- pays an amount equivalent to the market price of such goods or things; or
- the amount of tax, interest and penalty that is or may become payable by the taxable person, whichever is lower, such goods or things shall be released forthwith, by an order in Form GST INS-05, on proof of payment.

Where the taxable person fails to pay the above amount, the <sup>3</sup>[proper officer] may dispose of such goods or things and the amount realized thereby shall be adjusted against the tax, interest, penalty, or any other amount payable in respect of such goods or things.

(g) Return of seized goods: If no notice has been issued within 6 months (or an extended period of another 6 months by the proper officer, on the basis of sufficient grounds), the seized goods/exhibits ought to be returned to the person from whom the goods were seized.

(h) Disposal of seized goods: The Government may, by way of a notification, specify the goods or class of goods which are to be disposed of by the proper officer as soon as the same have been seized where:

- (a) the goods are of perishable nature; or
- (b) the goods are of hazardous nature; or
- (c) the goods would depreciate in value with the passage of time; or
- (d) there are constraints of storage space; or
- (e) any other relevant considerations as may be prescribed.

The Proper Officer shall also maintain an inventory of the said specified goods in the prescribed manner.

The CBIC, vide Notification No 27/2018-Central Tax dated 13.06.2018 has specified the following 17 categories of goods / class of goods in this regard:

1. Salt and hygroscopic substances
2. Raw (wet and salted) hides and skins
3. Newspapers and periodicals
4. Menthol, Camphor, Saffron
5. Re-fills for ball-point pens
6. Lighter fuel, including lighters with gas, not having arrangement for refilling
7. Cells, batteries and rechargeable batteries
8. Petroleum products
9. Dangerous drugs and psychotropic substances
10. Bulk drugs and chemicals falling under Section VI of the First Schedule to the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 (51 of 1975)
11. Pharmaceutical products falling within Chapter 30 of the First Schedule to the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 (51 of 1975)
12. Fireworks
13. Red Sander
14. Sandalwood
15. All taxable goods falling within Chapters 1 to 24 of the First Schedule to the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 (51 of 1975)
16. All unclaimed/abandoned goods which are liable to rapid depreciation in value on account of fast change in technology or new models etc.
17. Any goods seized by the proper officer under section 67 of the said Act, which are to be provisionally released under sub-section (6) of section 67 of the said Act, but provisional release has not been taken by the concerned person within a period of one month from the date of execution of the bond for provisional release.

- (i) Applicability of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973: The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 relating to search and seizure shall be applicable to the GST Laws and in section 165(5) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the word 'Magistrate' should be read as 'Commissioner' for the purposes of the GST laws.

The CBIC has reiterated the guidelines regarding procedure to be followed during search operations vide Circular: 01/2020-21/GST-Investigation dated 02.02.2021

Following are some of the relevant guidelines to be adhered to by the officials while carrying out search proceedings:

- (a) Search should be carried out with proper search authorization issued by the competent authority, who shall record valid and justifiable reasons in the file.
  - (b) Following the instructions related to generation of document identification number (DIN) by the officer authorizing the search.
  - (c) The premises shall be searched only on the authority of a valid search warrant
  - (d) A lady officer shall form part of a search conducted at residences
  - (e) Search to be conducted in the presence of two or more individual witnesses
  - (f) A panchnama containing true account of the search with the list of documents/ goods/ things recovered should be made
  - (g) In sensitive premises, videography of the search proceeding may also be done
  - (h) Appropriate COVID-19 pandemic protocol as provided by the government should be followed
- (j) Surprise Check: The Commissioner or an officer authorized by him can further authorize any other person to purchase any goods and / or services from the business premises of any taxable person in order to check the manner of issuance of tax invoices / bills of supply. The taxable person or any person in charge of the business premises shall refund the tax paid thereon when the goods so purchased are returned (no time limit prescribed in this regard) after cancelling the tax invoice or any bills of supply issued earlier in this regard. The do's and don't's can be summed up as under:

The Proper Officer can:

Inspect: any place of business of the taxable person who has evaded the tax or is attempting to evade the tax or of the transporter who transported such tax evading goods or godown/warehouse operator in which such tax evading goods or accounts relating thereto have been stored

Search & seize: the goods or any documents or books or things which are liable for confiscation and which will be instrumental in the proceedings under this act during the enquiry period.

Seal or Break: open the door of any premises, storage, electronic devices, box or receptacle where goods, books of accounts etc. are suspected to be concealed when access to the same is denied to the said officer.

The difference between seizure and confiscation (in terms of section 130) can be summed up as under to appreciate the areas of similarity and difference:

Criteria	Seizure (section 67)	Confiscation (section 130)
Applicability	Any goods, documents, books or things	Only offending goods
Manner	Actual custody or constructive custody	Actual custody
Authority	Held in trust, no change of ownership	Held in trust, no change of ownership unless adjudication completed
Duration of holding	Until required for examination / inquiry / proceedings. If no notice issued, 6 months (and a further period of 6 months if extended by proper officer)	Until issue of notice for adjudication and opportunity to pay penalty-in-lieu of confiscation
Conclusion	Return articles that are not 'offending articles'	Title to pass and vest with Central Government as per order of adjudication

67.2. Comparative review

1. Similar powers relating to inspection, search and seizure is present in all the erstwhile indirect tax laws viz., Finance Act, 1994 (Service tax), Central Excise Act (CE Act), 1944 and in most of the State VAT laws.
2. Interestingly, under the CE Act, provision has been made to safeguard the interest of the taxable person against harassment by way of irregular search and seizure by the tax officers. Section 22 of the CE Act prescribes a fine up to Rs 2,000/- on an officer who conducts vexatious search, inspection etc. This provision is conspicuously absent in the CGST Act.

67.3. Issues and concerns

1. While the law provides for seizure of goods liable to confiscation, documents, books and things. It does not impose on the proper officer a duty to explain to the person from whom the same are seized, as to what were the reasons for doing so. This may cause undue hardship to the taxable persons.
2. It may be noted that the provisions relating to checking of issuance of tax invoice / bill of supply merely provides for return of goods, and the question of return or cancellation of service does not arise. Therefore, the tax paid on any services received for test-checks cannot be refunded and shall be a cost to the Revenue.

67.4. FAQs

Q1. Under what circumstances there can be inspection, search or seizure operations?

Ans. Initiation of action under this section is when the proper officer not below the rank of Joint Commissioner 'has reasons to believe that -

- (a) the taxable person has suppressed any transaction of supply of goods or services or stock in hand or claimed excess input tax credit or has contravened any of the statutory provisions to evade payment under GST law;
- (b) any person engaged in the business of transportation of goods or an owner or operator of a warehouse or godown or any other place is keeping goods which have escaped tax payment or has kept his accounts or goods in a manner likely to cause tax evasion.

Q2. What is the meaning of the phrase 'reason to believe'?

Ans. The phrase 'reason to believe' has been interpreted by various courts distinguishing it from 'reason to suspect'. In the case of Crompton Greaves Ltd. v. State of Gujarat, [2000] 120 STC 510, the High Court observed that, "these words suggest that belief must be that of honest and reasonable person based upon reasonable grounds, and that the Commissioner may act under this section on direct or circumstantial evidence not on mere suspicion, gossip or rumor. The powers under the present section are wide but not plenary; the words of the section are 'reason to believe' and not 'reason to suspect'."

Q3. Whether goods seized can be released on provisional basis?

Ans. The goods seized can be released on provisional basis upon execution of a bond for the value of the goods and furnishing of a security in the form of bank guarantee equivalent to the amount of applicable tax, interest and penalty payable; or upon payment of applicable tax, interest and penalty payable as the case may be.

Q4. For how long can the goods as well as other documents, books and things that are relied upon for issuance of notice, can be retained by the proper officer?

Ans. The goods seized can be retained for a maximum period of 6 months (and additional 6 months in the case of sufficient cause) of the seizure, in case a notice is not issued.

In respect of documents, books and other things no specific time period has been prescribed. These can, therefore, be retained as long as may be necessary for their examination and for any inquiry or proceedings. Goods to be retained until provisionally released by the concerned person upon furnishing of proper bond and security.

Q5. What goods / class of goods can be disposed off by the proper officer, having regard to the perishable or hazardous nature of the goods, etc.?

Ans. All goods / class of goods specified in Notification No. 27/2018-Central Tax dated 13.06.2018.

Explanation 2.- For the purposes of this rule, the consignment value of goods shall be the value, determined in accordance with the provisions of section 15, declared in an invoice, a bill of supply or a delivery challan, as the case may be, issued in respect of the said consignment and also includes the Central tax, State or Union territory tax, integrated tax and cess charged, if any, in the document and shall exclude the value of exempt supply of goods where the invoice is issued in respect of both exempt and taxable supply of goods.

(2) Where the goods are transported by the registered person as a consignor or the recipient of supply as the consignee, whether in his own conveyance or a hired one or a public conveyance, by road, the said person shall generate the e-way bill in Form GST EWB-01 electronically on the common portal after furnishing information in Part B of Form GST EWB-01.

(2A) Where the goods are transported by railways or by air or vessel, the e-way bill shall be generated by the registered person, being the supplier or the recipient, who shall, either before or after the commencement of movement, furnish, on the common portal, the information in Part B of Form GST EWB-01:

Provided that where the goods are transported by railways, the railways shall not deliver the goods unless the e-way bill required under these rules is produced at the time of delivery.

(3) Where the e-way bill is not generated under sub-rule (2) and the goods are handed over to a transporter for transportation by road, the registered person shall furnish the information relating to the transporter on the common portal and the e-way bill shall be generated by the transporter on the said portal on the basis of the information furnished by the registered person in Part A of Form GST EWB-01:

Provided that the registered person or, the transporter may, at his option, generate and carry the e-way bill even if the value of the consignment is less than fifty thousand rupees:

Provided further that where the movement is caused by an unregistered person either in his own conveyance or a hired one or through a transporter, he or the transporter may, at their option, generate the e-way bill in Form GST EWB-01 on the common portal in the manner specified in this rule:

Provided also that where the goods are transported for a distance of upto fifty kilometers within the State or Union territory from the place of business of the consignor to the place of business of the transporter for further transportation, the supplier or the recipient, or as the case may be, the transporter may not furnish the details of conveyance in Part B of Form GST EWB-01.

Explanation 1. – For the purposes of this sub-rule, where the goods are supplied by an unregistered supplier to a recipient who is registered, the movement shall be said to be caused by such recipient if the recipient is known at the time of commencement of the movement of goods.

Explanation 2. - The e-way bill shall not be valid for movement of goods by road unless the information in Part-B of Form GST EWB-01 has been furnished except in the case of movements covered under the third proviso to sub-rule (3) and the proviso to sub-rule (5).

- (4) Upon generation of the e-way bill on the common portal, a unique e-way bill number (EBN) shall be made available to the supplier, the recipient and the transporter on the common portal.
- (5) Where the goods are transferred from one conveyance to another, the consignor or the recipient, who has provided information in Part A of the Form GST EWB-01, or the transporter shall, before such transfer and further movement of goods, update the details of conveyance in the e-way bill on the common portal in Part B of Form GST EWB-01:

Provided that where the goods are transported for a distance of upto fifty kilometers within the State or Union territory from the place of business of the transporter finally to the place of business of the consignee, the details of the conveyance may not be updated in the e-way bill.

- (5A) The consignor or the recipient, who has furnished the information in Part A of Form GST EWB-01, or the transporter, may assign the e-way bill number to another registered or enrolled transporter for updating the information in Part B of Form GST EWB-01 for further movement of the consignment:

Provided that after the details of the conveyance have been updated by the transporter in Part B of Form GST EWB-01, the consignor or recipient, as the case may be, who has furnished the information in Part A of Form GST EWB-01 shall not be allowed to assign the e-way bill number to another transporter.

- (6) After e-way bill has been generated in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (1), where multiple consignments are intended to be transported in one conveyance, the transporter may indicate the serial number of e-way bills generated in respect of each such consignment electronically on the common portal and a consolidated e-way bill in Form GST EWB-02 maybe generated by him on the said common portal prior to the movement of goods.
- (7) Where the consignor or the consignee has not generated the e-way bill in Form GST EWB-01 and the aggregate of the consignment value of goods carried in the conveyance is more than fifty thousand rupees, the transporter, except in case of transportation of goods by railways, air and vessel, shall, in respect of inter-State supply, generate the e-way bill in Form GST EWB-01 on the basis of invoice or bill of supply or delivery challan, as the case may be, and may also generate a consolidated e-way bill in Form GST EWB-02 on the common portal prior to the movement of goods:

Provided that where the goods to be transported are supplied through an e-commerce operator or a courier agency, the information in Part A of Form GST EWB-01 may be furnished by such e-commerce operator or courier agency.

- (8) The information furnished in Part A of Form GST EWB-01 shall be made available to the registered supplier on the common portal who may utilize the same for furnishing the details in Form GSTR-1:

Provided that when the information has been furnished by an unregistered supplier or an unregistered recipient in Form GST EWB-01, he shall be informed electronically, if the mobile number or the e-mail is available.

- (9) Where an e-way bill has been generated under this rule, but goods are either not transported or are not transported as per the details furnished in the e-way bill, the e-way bill may be cancelled electronically on the common portal within twenty-four hours of generation of the e-way bill:

Provided that an e-way bill cannot be cancelled if it has been verified in transit in accordance with the provisions of rule 138B:

Provided further that the unique number generated under sub-rule (1) shall be valid for a period of fifteen days for updation of Part B of Form GST EWB-01.

- (10) An e-way bill or a consolidated e-way bill generated under this rule shall be valid for the period as mentioned in column (3) of the Table below from the relevant date, for the distance, within the country, the goods have to be transported, as mentioned in column (2) of the said Table:-

Other Updates available on the EWB portal

- (1) Representations have been received from various trade bodies stating that they are not able to generate EWB for movement of those goods where their principal supply is classifiable as a service, since there is no provision for generating e-way bill by entering SAC (Service Accounting Code-Chapter 99) alone on the e- way bill portal.
- (2) To overcome this issue, the taxpayers are advised as below:
  - (a) Rule 138 of CGST Rules, 2017, inter alia, states “Information to be furnished prior to commencement of movement of goods and generation of e-way bill.-(1) Every registered person who causes movement of goods of consignment value exceeding fifty thousand rupees....” Thus, e-way bill is required to be generated for the movement of goods.
  - (b) Therefore, in cases where the principal supply is purely a supply of service and involving no movement of goods, the e-way bill is not required to be generated.
  - (c) However, in cases where along with the principal supply of service, movement of some goods is also involved, e-way bill may be generated. Such situations may arise in cases of supply of services like printing services, works contract services, catering services, pandal or shamiana services, etc. In such cases, e-way bill may be generated by entering the details of HSN code of the goods, along with SAC (Service Accounting Code) of services involved.

Section 68 of CGST Act stipulates that the person in charge of a conveyance carrying any consignment of goods of value exceeding a specified amount shall carry with him the prescribed documents and devices (invoice or bill of supply or delivery challan, as the case may be, also bill of entry in case of import of goods) which shall be validated in the prescribed manner. If such conveyance is intercepted by the proper officer at any place, the person in charge of the conveyance shall have to produce the documents and devices for verification and also allow the inspection of goods.

Rules 138 to 138E of the CGST Rules lay down, in detail, the provisions relating to e-way bills. As per the said provisions, in case of transportation of goods by road, an e-way bill is required to be generated before the commencement of movement of the consignment. In case of transportation of goods by road, the person in charge of a conveyance shall also carry a copy of the e-way bill in physical form or the e-way bill number in electronic form or mapped to a Radio Frequency Identification Device embedded on to the conveyance in such manner as may be notified by the Commissioner.

When there is any document-deficiency, then consequences spelt out in section 129 will immediately follow like detention, seizure and release of goods and conveyances in transit. Section 130 provides for the confiscation of goods or conveyances and imposition of penalty.

The following notes under ‘Analysis’ provide information to help in better understanding the procedural and practical aspects of e-way bill under GST.

(i) Applicability

E-way bill (“EWB”) is not required for all transactions undertaken by a taxable person. It is required only for those transactions which involve movement of goods. Every registered person (supplier or recipient) who causes movement of goods whose consignment value exceeds fifty thousand rupees (States may have different limits for intra-state movement) is required to generate e-way bill electronically before the commencement of such movement. Such movement of goods may be:

- in relation to a supply; or
- for reasons other than supply; or
- due to inward supply from an unregistered person.

Some transactions involving movement of goods are deemed to be a supply of services such as leasing of goods, or supply of food & beverages, etc. and hence will require EWB.

EWB prescribed under CGST Act will apply to all inter-State movement of goods and the EWB prescribed under SGST Acts will apply to intra-State movement of goods.

Furnishing of information in EWB

EWB shall be in two parts- Part A and Part B. Information relating to the relevant goods should be furnished in Part A of Form GST EWB-01 along with such other information as may be required on the common portal. After furnishing of such information, a unique number is generated on the said portal which remains valid for a period of fifteen days for updating Part B of Form GST EWB-01.

The information in Part A can be furnished by the following persons:

- registered person (supplier or the recipient); or
- transporter, on an authorization received from the registered person; or
- by an e-commerce operator or courier agency on an authorization from the consignor where the goods to be transported are supplied through them.

Bar on EWB facility for return-default

No person shall be allowed to furnish information in Part-A of Form GST EWB-01 in respect of any outward movement of goods of a registered person where composition taxable person or those <sup>35</sup>[availing the benefit of Notification No. 02/2019– CT (Rate), dt. 7.3.2019] fails to furnish the <sup>36</sup>[statement in Form GST CMP-08] for two consecutive quarters and a regular taxable person fails to file returns for two consecutive tax periods<sup>37</sup> or statement of outward supplies for any two months or quarters, as the case may be<sup>38</sup> (<sup>39</sup>Rule 138E). It is relevant to note that generation of EWB will be barred for defaulting supplier GSTIN only and not on recipient or transporter. The bar on EWB facility will not involve any procedure of giving notice and conducting a hearing. After the EWB facility is barred, an application in Form GST EWB-05 may be made by the registered person requesting to allow this facility and order permitting/rejection of the application would be issued by the Commissioner in Form GST EWB-06 following a procedure of personal hearing.

The EWB is generated after furnishing the details of conveyance in PART B of EWB-01 and a unique EWB number (EBN) is made available to the supplier, the recipient and the transporter on the common portal.

However, according to Explanation 1 to Rule 138(3), where the goods are supplied by an unregistered supplier to a registered recipient, the movement shall be said to be caused by such recipient (i.e., registered person) if the recipient is known at the time of commencement of the movement of goods.

When details of conveyance in Part B is not required to be furnished

Where the goods are transported for a distance of up to 50 kms within the State or Union territory:

- from the place of business of the consignor to the place of business of the transporter for further transportation;
- from the place of business of the transporter finally to the place of business of the consignee

The EWB shall not be valid for movement of goods by road unless the information in Part-B of Form GST EWB-01 has been furnished except in the case of movements as mentioned above. [Explanation 2 to Rule 138(3)].

(ii) Transport

Transport or movement of goods must be distinguished from 'delivery' of goods. Transport and delivery seem synonymous, but they are not. Movement or journey is a part of transportation and it can be said that transportation has commenced as soon as the consignor hands over the goods with clear and irrevocable instructions to a carrier to put them on its journey to a specified destination and hand them over to a specified (or altered) consignee (or his order). At this point, the actual journey or movement has not even begun but transportation has already begun. After the journey commences, it can be interrupted or be continuous, but transportation continues to remain in-progress. Likewise, journey may end but transportation would still be in progress. Now, transportation will conclude only when the instructions of the consignor have been satisfactorily discharged by the carrier on handing over the goods to the consignee (or his order). EWB is required 'before' commencement of transportation regardless of commencement of journey. Delivery is that legal responsibility where title is transferred, as section 10(1) (a) inter alia provides that, "movement terminates for delivery.....". Delivery assumes legal significance which must carefully be observed in each transaction.

(iii) Place of delivery

Form GST EWB 01 requires 'place of delivery' to be specified. This term is not to be misconstrued to be 'place of supply'. EWB is intended to create contemporaneous trail of physical movement of the goods. It is not meant to address the legalistic concept of 'place of supply' which can vastly differ from 'place of delivery'. Though physical movement of the goods may be from one location to another, in the eyes of law, 'place of supply' could very well be the location of the recipient. So, it is not conceivable for EWB to require information about 'place of supply' but very simply, the 'place of delivery' or 'destination of journey'. In fact, it can be seen that, when GSTIN of recipient is incorporated, the place of delivery will auto-populated.

One who effects supply is the supplier and consignor is one who causes movement of the goods. Very often supplier and consignor may be the same person, but not always. Supplier may be the mind behind the supply but warehouse keeper could still be the consignor. Similarly, recipient is defined in section 2(93) to be the one who pays consideration, but such person may not always be a consignee.

(iv) Consignment Value

Transaction value is understood from section 15, whereas the value referred to in the EWB provisions happens to be 'consignment value' – i.e., where the consignment value exceeds the threshold limit, an EWB becomes mandatory. This 'consignment value' is computed so as to be the transaction value plus applicable GST, but excluding the value of any exempt supplies (in case of a tax-invoice-cum-bill-of-supply). It must be noted that EWB itself requires both these values to be specified – transaction value as well as GST amount. In this regard, it is relevant to note that the consignment value must contain the measure of value of section 15 in all cases. This means, supplies where the consideration is in non-monetary terms, would also require the issuance of EWB. Refer to the discussions in Chapter 5 of this BGM to understand the valuation principles in respect of supplies not having a consideration in wholly monetary terms. For example, equipment costing Rs. 100 lacs moved inter-State under a monthly lease of Rs. 5 lacs would require an EWB to be carried along. In such case, it is suggested that to curb practical difficulties during the transit, a challan for value of goods of Rs. 100 lacs be prepared and the same value be declared in EWB.

In the following cases, an EWB shall be required to be issued regardless of the consignment value:

- ✓ Where goods are sent by a principal located in one State / UT to a job worker located in any other State / UT – the e-way bill shall be generated either by the principal or the registered job worker [Third proviso to rule 138(1) of the CGST Rules];
- ✓ Where handicraft goods are transported from one State / UT to another by a person who has been exempted from the requirement of obtaining registration under section 24(i) and (ii) [Fourth proviso to rule 138 (1) of the CGST Rules].

(v) Non-EWB Goods

No EWB is required to be generated in respect of exempt goods and specific cases covered under rule 138(14). It may be noted that movement of goods exempted under Notification No. 2/2017- Central Tax (Rate) dated June 28.2017 except de-oiled cake, do not require EWB pursuant to rule 138(14)(e) of CGST Rules. Moreover, movement of goods notified under clause (d) of rule 138(14) of State/UT GST Rules will also be excluded under the Central GST Rules. This also acknowledges that State/UT GST Rules are stand-alone on the requirements of EWB in respect of intra-State movement and the Central GST Rules are limited only in respect of inter-State movement. EWB is not even required when there is a supply without any movement of goods [See section 10(1)(c) of the IGST Act, 2017].

For example, where goods move from a DTA unit to SEZ unit or vice-versa located in the same State, there will be no requirement to generate an e-way bill, if the same has been exempted by the particular State under rule 138(14)(d) of the CGST Rules.[Circular No. 47/21/2018-GST dated 28.06.2018].

Such exclusion from EWB is allowed to all kinds of goods, if the value is up to Rs.50,000 or the threshold prescribed (refer “Threshold - State EWB” heading in this Chapter) in the case of intra-State supplies.

Care should be taken not to misapply the threshold limit prescribed by States for use of EWB to inter-State movement. This discretion enjoyed by States in prescribing exceptions (to the CGST Rules) is limited to movement within the respective State.

Summary of ‘no EWB’

NO EWB REQUIRED	SHORT NOTES
(a) Where the goods being transported are specified in Annexure	8-items listed in Annexure
(b) Where the goods are being transported by a non-motorised conveyance	Non-motorized conveyance
(c) Where the goods are being transported from the customs port, airport, air cargo complex and land customs station to an inland container depot or a container freight station for clearance by Customs	Port-to-Port transfers (for customs clearance)
(d) In respect of movement of goods within such areas as are notified under clause (d) of sub-rule (14) of rule 138 of the State or Union territory Goods and Services Tax Rules in that particular State or Union territory	State-list of EWB exemption
(e) Where the goods, other than de-oiled cake, being transported, are specified in the Schedule appended to Notification No. 2/2017- Central tax (Rate) dated the 28th June, 2017	Goods exempt from GST also exempt from EWB

(f) Where the goods being transported are alcoholic liquor for human consumption, petroleum crude, high speed diesel, motor spirit (commonly known as petrol), natural gas or aviation turbine fuel	6-items of non-taxable goods
(g) Where the supply of goods being transported is treated as “no supply” under Schedule III of the Act	Schedule III items
(h) Where the goods are being transported— (i) under customs bond from an inland container depot or a container freight station to a customs port, airport, air cargo complex and land customs station, or from one customs station or customs port to another customs station or customs port, or (ii) under customs supervision or under customs seal	Transport under Customs control
(i) Where the goods being transported are transit cargo from or to Nepal or Bhutan	Transit cargo (Nepal/Bhutan)
(j) Where the goods being transported are exempt from tax under Notification No. 7/2017-Central Tax (Rate), dated 28th June 2017 and Notification No. 26/2017-Central Tax (Rate), dated the 21 st September, 2017	Transport between CSD Canteens and Nuclear Power Corporation
(k) Any movement of goods caused by defence formation under Ministry of Defence as a consignor or consignee	Transport under MOD control/formation
(l) Where the consignor of goods is the Central Government, Government of any State or a local authority for transport of goods by rail	Rail-transport ‘by’ Government or LA
(m) Where empty cargo containers are being transported	Empty cargo containers
(n) Where the goods are being transported upto a distance of twenty kilometres from the place of the business of the consignor to a weighbridge for weighment or from the weighbridge back to the place of the business of the said consignor subject to the condition that the movement of goods is accompanied by a delivery challan issued in accordance with rule 55.	Weighment and back (upto 20 kms)
(o) Where empty cylinders for packing of liquefied petroleum gas are being moved for reasons other than supply	Empty LPG cylinders (other than supply)

(vi) EWBs effect on place of supply

Inter-State movement or inter-State supply are two distinct terms. By the fiction in section 7 of IGST Act, several transactions are considered to be inter-State supplies but, for the limited purposes of EWB, their actual movement alone determines whether it is inter-State movement (attracting Central EWB) or intra-State movement (attracting State/UT EWB). Here, we may notice that various States/UTs have synchronized their movement to ensure ease of movement whether inter-State or intra-State. EWB is required whether or not the movement of goods is pursuant to supply of goods or of services or inward supply from an unregistered person.

- Illustration 1: Goods imported from China arrive at Mumbai port. These goods are transported from Mumbai port to the factory in Pune. This is an inter-State supply from China to Pune, but it is an intra-State movement from Mumbai to Pune. Requirement of EWB is to be determined under the State GST Law.
- Illustration 2: Goods are sold from Lucknow by a supplier to customer in Delhi with instructions for these goods to be delivered to job-worker in Noida. This is an inter-State supply from Lucknow to Delhi but an intra-State movement within UP. Requirement of EWB to be determined under the State GST Law.
- Illustration 3: Generator installed in the basement of building being sold to landlord on termination of lease agreement. EWB will not be required as there is 'no movement' in this supply.
- Illustration 4: Contractor carrying portable crane to customer's site, both located in same State, as part of the works to be undertaken will require EWB as the movement of crane even though the movement (on its own or in any another motorized conveyance) is not for making supply of crane itself but for supply of services using such crane.
- Illustration 5: Laptop carried by an employee of a company in Delhi, having no other branches, to client-location in Bangalore on business. This movement is not supply but is incidental to 'services of employee to employer' under Schedule III. EWB will not be required for this movement. Contract-staff carrying company-laptop not excluded from EWB requirement.
- Illustration 6: Empty LPG cylinders transported from dealer to the bottling plant of the oil company, is 'excluded' from the requirements of EWB. Thus, EWB will not be required for this movement but will be required for movement of cylinders supplied by the fabricator to the oil company.

(vii) Portal registration

Registration on www.ewaybillgst.gov.in (Notification No. 9/2018-CT dated 23.01.2018) is not to be understood as a registration under section 22 of the CGST Act. It may also be noted that a registration under section 22 does not automatically create a registration on this portal. Persons who are already registered under section 22 are also required to register on this portal. Registration on the portal merely refers to creation of user login for use of the features on this portal.

Even a transporter who is not registered under section 22 is allowed to register on this portal for the limited purposes of updating information in Part B of EWB (called 'enrolment'). Such transporters are issued TRANSIN registration. Considering that TRANSIN is required only for the purposes of updating EWB information, a consignor or consignee is also permitted to obtain TRANSIN.

It is advisable for every GSTIN-holder to obtain an enrolment with a TRANSIN ID. This will help in modifying information in Part B of the EWB if and when required, to obtain extension of validity in case of bona fide delay, and most importantly, reporting detention.

(viii) Reasons for transportation

Reasons for transportation must be one of the following:

Supply | Export or Import | Job Work | SKD or CKD | Recipient not known |
Line Sales | Sales Return | Exhibition or fairs | For own use | Others

One must exercise caution while selecting the appropriate reason, since this information is expected to be linked with the returns filed by the registered person in order to correctly differentiate a mere movement of goods from a supply thereof, as it creates a contemporaneous trail of the movement. Use of EWB limits any possibility of fictitious transactions being recorded or included after lapse of time.

The person causing movement is required to prepare EWB. As a corollary, one who prepared EWB could be implied to be the one who caused movement of the goods. Considering the ingredients applicable in each clause under section 10(1) to determine 'place of supply', it is important that EWB generation is not causally undertaken. One must be mindful of the effect it could have on the place of supply declared. If EWB is wrongly prepared or prepared by a wrong distinct person, this may adversely impact the person who is going to report the supply or the nature of the supply in the GST returns.

(x) 'Bill-to-ship-to' (BTST) transactions

Although bill-to-ship-to transactions could sometimes result in twin-supply transactions, they require a single EWB since the movement is singular. In the e-way bill form, there are two portions under the 'TO' section-

- in the left-hand-side: 'Billing To' GSTIN and trade name should be entered; and
- in the right-hand-side: 'Ship to' address of the destination of the movement should be entered.
- the other details as per invoice should be entered.

In case ship-to State is different from the bill-to State, the tax components are entered as per the details of the bill-to person (bill-to State), i.e., if the bill-to location is inter-State for the supplier, IGST is entered and if the bill-to person is located in the same State as the supplier, SGST and CGST are entered irrespective of the place of delivery (whether within the State or outside the State).

In a typical “bill-to-ship-to” model of supply, three persons are involved, namely:

- ‘A’ is the person who has ordered ‘B’ to send goods directly to ‘C’.
- ‘B’ is the person who is sending goods directly to ‘C’ on instructions of ‘A’.
- ‘C’ is the recipient of goods.

In this complete scenario, two supplies are involved and accordingly two tax invoices are required to be issued:

- Invoice -1, which would be issued by ‘B’ to ‘A’.
- Invoice -2 which would be issued by ‘A’ to ‘C’.

It is clarified that as per the CGST Rules, 2017 either ‘A’ or ‘B’ can generate the e-way bill, but it may be noted that only one e-way bill is required to be generated as per the following procedure:

Case -1: Where e-way bill is generated by ‘B’, the following fields shall be filled in Part A of GST Form EWB-01:

1.	Bill From:	In this field details of ‘B’ are to be filled.
2.	Dispatch From:	This is the place from where goods are actually dispatched. It may be the principal or additional place of business of ‘B’.
3.	Bill To:	In this field, details of ‘A’ are to be filled.
4.	Ship to:	In this field, address of ‘C’ is to be filled.
5.	Invoice Details:	Details of Invoice-1 are to be filled

Case -2: Where e-way bill is generated by ‘A’, the following fields shall be filled in Part A of GST Form EWB-01:

1.	Bill From:	In this field details of ‘A’ are to be filled.
2.	Dispatch From:	This is the place from where goods are actually dispatched. It may be the principal or additional place of business of ‘B’.
3.	Bill To:	In this field details of ‘C’ are to be filled.
4.	Ship to:	In this field address of ‘C’ is to be filled.
5.	Invoice Details:	Details of Invoice-2 are to be filled

Illustration 7: Goods supplied from Baroda to an intermediate in Chennai but directly delivered to Kolkata. EWB to be generated 'before' commencement of movement with 'bill to Chennai' and 'ship to Kolkata' with the GSTIN of original supplier (Baroda) and intermediate (Chennai).

Illustration 8: Car sold by dealer in Bangalore to Bank in Mumbai but delivered to lessee in Bangalore. EWB to be issued 'before' commencement of movement with 'bill to Mumbai' and 'ship to Bangalore'.

Illustration 9: Water cans supplied by dealer in Road no.1 to caterer registered in Road no.2 and delivered to central kitchen in Road no.10 and then carried to marriage hall in Road no.12. EWB to be issued 'before' commencement of movement with 'bill to Road no.2' and 'ship to Road no.10'. Since there is an interval of time after delivery of water cans from dealer to central kitchen, this is not a transaction that is inter-linked in two movements. Subsequent movement of entire catering articles involves another EWB independent of the earlier EWB.

(xi) 'Bill from-ship from' (BFSF) transactions

Such a situation arises where the supplier prepares the bill from his business premises to the consignee, but moves the consignment from some other premises to the consignee, based on business requirements. In alignment with the procedure specified in the preceding paragraph, the system provides a mechanism for this situation as well. In the e-way bill form, there are two portions under 'From' section:

- In the left-hand-side: 'Bill From' supplier's GSTIN and trade name should be entered; and
- In the right-hand-side: 'Dispatch From', address of the dispatching place should be entered.
- The other details should be entered as per the invoice.

(xii) EWB to impact classification (BTST-BFSF)

Use of EWB can impact the classification of the goods in-transit supplies. Although it may seem like a rule that since the goods procured from the original supplier and resupplied on back-to-back basis, the classification (and hence rate of tax) should remain the same. It is true but with the following exceptions:

- Goods procured from various suppliers and delivered to end customer's site for undertaking supply of services involving goods such as leasing, works contract, etc. Without questioning the nature of supply – inter-State or intra-State – carefully consider the impact on the classification of the goods. Classification of the outward supply by the intermediate supplier to end customer need not mirror the classification of the original supplier. Clearly, nothing has been done as yet by the intermediate supplier on the goods to discharge his supply obligations but the EWB must carry the correct HSN. The intermediate supplier may supply the goods on a back-to-back basis but they may not issue invoice on back-to-back basis as milestone-based invoice may be required as per contract. Care should therefore be taken not to 'copy' the HSN applied by the original supplier even though the supply to end customer is in-transit, whether undertaken as BTST or BFSF.

Illustration 10: Cement (HSN 2523) supplied by dealer is billed to contractor but delivered to customer's site on 'in-transit' basis, Contractor's EWB must follow HSN 9954 along with HSN 2523 and not HSN 2523 alone.

- Goods procured from original supplier and delivered to end customer's site which is not a supply or has already been subject to tax such as publishing, contract manufacturing, job-work, warranty fulfilment, etc.

Illustration 11: In the case of printed books being sent by publisher to dealer, the HSN code to be applied will be HSN 9989 along with relevant HSN under Chapter 49 and not HSN 49 alone that is applicable to printed books (relevant kind).

It is important to bear in mind that in BTST or BFSF transactions, the details in EWB may not be the same as the tax Invoice for the supply, if any. EWB is for 'movement' and tax invoice is for 'supply'. Movement of goods is recognized in the EWB itself to be 'other than supply'. Hence, exact mirroring of the EWB and the tax invoice is not always possible. Classification too is not static and can undergo change as the other aspects in EWB.

(xiii) EWB Formula

EWBs follow a time-distance-acceptance based formula and has a validity period linked to the distance the goods have to travel and finally accepted by the recipient. Unless accepted / rejected within 72 hours, the EWB is deemed to be accepted. An EWB can only be cancelled within 24 hours of generation (unless the carriage has been intercepted / the goods delivered, prior to such time). Thus, EWB introduces a sense of urgency in the process of movement and promptly recording the transactions.

This requires better preparation and organizing information required to be included in EWBs so that when the goods are put in movement, the information is correct, complete and free of errors. Booking sales in the last few days of the month may not be easy unless supported by a timely dispatch of goods along with EWB.

(xiv) Watch 'portal' continuously

One needs to watch the portal continuously and 'accept' or 'reject' an EWB. If not, every EWB uploaded with GSTIN, will be 'deemed to be accepted'. Considering that EWBs become 'valid' from the time Part-B is entered, they will appear as soon as EBN is generated with just Part-A information. Monitoring portal regularly is important. Creation of sub-users for this purpose may be beneficial based on projects or SBUs where single GSTIN is used in a State. In order to monitor, POs issued must be available on-hand to be able to 'reject' any unknown or unrecognized EWBs. It is important to bear in mind those service-POs involving goods will also reflect on the portal against said GSTIN and must not be rejected as it would interrupt transportation. EWB process now assumes great significance, particularly service contracts involving goods.

(xv) Reporting detention

Detention of goods is required to be reported by TRANSIN-holder if detention exceeds thirty (30) minutes in GST EWB 04. This will report the detention to the superior officer who will need to resolve the reasons for detention.

The consequences are provided in section 129 as follows:

- notice (followed by order) of detention
- opportunity to pay tax and penalty as prescribed in each case [section 129(1) limits]
- furnishing bond plus security is involved in case of detention [section 67(6) applies]

Payment of tax and penalty is treated as 'conclusion' of the underlying proceedings. As such, care should be taken not to pay tax and penalty in haste as it implies admission of wrong-doing. These sweeping penalty provisions take away the discretion and do not allow elaborate opportunity to prove bona-fides. Absence of prescribed documents implies wrong-doing attracting the prescribed penalties to their full extent. The transporter needs to be equipped with sufficient pre-check mechanisms about the documentation and availability of EWB or ability to furnish bond and security to prevent detention and continue transportation.

Identifying transporter with this knowledge and understanding is strongly recommended. Earlier suggestion for supplier or recipient with GSTIN to additionally obtain TRANSIN or transporter id will facilitate in meeting and addressing detention issues if the transporter is unable to explain the facts. Although the powers of detention show severity, Government assures that it will be used sparingly and in sectors where there is rampant violation. Care must be taken to make an overall sensitive assessment of products / sectors involved and adopt suitable measures so as to avoid detention.

No confiscation in case of minor typographical mistakes

It has been clarified vide Circular No. 64/38/2018-GST dt. 14.09.2018 that in case a consignment of goods is accompanied by an invoice or any other specified document and

- not an e-way bill - proceeding under section 129 of the CGST Act may be initiated.
- also an e-way bill- proceedings under section 129 of the CGST Act may not be initiated, inter alia, in the following situations:
  - (a) spelling mistakes in the name of the consignor or the consignee but the GSTIN, wherever applicable, is correct;

- (b) error in the pin-code but the address of the consignor and the consignee mentioned is correct, subject to the condition that the error in the PIN code should not have the effect of increasing the validity period of the e-way bill;
- (c) error in the address of the consignee to the extent that the locality and other details of the consignee are correct;
- (d) error in one or two digits of the document number mentioned in the e-way bill;
- (e) error in 4 or 6 digits level of HSN where the first 2 digits of HSN are correct and the rate of tax mentioned is correct; and
- (f) error in one or two digits/characters of the vehicle number.

In the above situations, penalty to the tune of Rs. 500/- each under section 125 of the CGST Act and the respective State GST Act should be imposed (Rs.1000/- under the IGST Act) in Form GST DRC-07 for every consignment. A record of all such consignments where proceedings under section 129 of the CGST Act have not been invoked in view of the situations listed in Paragraph 5 above shall be sent by the proper officer to his controlling officer on a weekly basis.

(xvi) Effective date – Central EWB

Central GST Rules address only inter-State movement (not necessarily inter-State supply). EWB system was implemented with effect from 1st April, 2018 in case of inter-State movement. It is to be noted that EWBs must be in harmony with the tax charged in respect of the supply involved. In case of an in-transit supply, it has been clarified that one EWB will suffice for the entire movement involved, though the goods may take a different (and direct) route to the final destination. Imports also require EWB but by the consignee who causes the movement of goods from the port to the final location. Exports will require EWB up to the port but where recipient is an 'unregistered person'.

(xvii) Effective date – State EWB

States/Union Territories have notified EWB requirements for intra State movement as under:

Threshold Limit for EWB in case of Intra State Supply	State(s)	Union Territories
Consignment value above Rs. 1,00,000	West Bengal; Tamil Nadu, Delhi, Bihar, Maharashtra
Consignment value above Rs. 50,000	Andhra Pradesh, Arunachal Pradesh, Assam, Chhattisgarh, Goa, Gujarat, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh, Jharkhand, Karnataka, Kerala, Madhya	Lakshadweep, Daman and Diu, Andaman and Nicobar Islands,

	Pradesh, Meghalaya, Manipur, Mizoram, Nagaland, Odisha, Punjab, Rajasthan, Sikkim, Telangana, Uttarakhand, Uttar Pradesh, Puducherry	Dadra and Nagar Haveli, Chandigarh, Jammu & Kashmir
--	--	---

However, inter-State movement must follow the threshold of Rs. 50,000 prescribed under the CGST Act and registered persons in any State where a relaxation is granted, cannot rely on the State threshold for inter-state movement.

Transfer of goods from one conveyance to another

In such cases, the consignor or the recipient, who has provided information in Part A or the transporter shall, before such transfer and further movement of goods, update the details of conveyance on common portal in Part B.

Assignment of e-way bill number EBN

The consignor or the recipient, who has furnished the information in Part A or the transporter, may assign the EBN to another registered or enrolled transporter for updating the information in Part B for further movement of the consignment. However, after the details of the conveyance have been updated by the transporter in Part B, the consignor or recipient, as the case may be, who has furnished the information in Part A, shall not be allowed to assign the EBN to another transporter.

Transportation of multiple consignments in one conveyance:

In such cases, the transporter may, prior to the movement of goods, generate a consolidated EWB in Form GST EWB-02, indicating the serial number of EWBs generated in respect of each such consignment electronically on the common portal.

Making available information furnished in EWB

The information furnished in Part A shall be made available to the registered supplier on the common portal. He may utilize the same for furnishing the details in Form GSTR-1.

When the information has been furnished by an unregistered supplier or an unregistered recipient in Form GST EWB-01, he shall be informed electronically, if the mobile number or the e-mail is available.

Validity of EWB

The validity of an EWB or a consolidated EWB depends upon the distance the goods have to be transported within the country from the relevant date.

Validity period of EWB is one day upto 200<sup>41</sup> km and one additional day for every 200<sup>42</sup> km or part thereof thereafter. In case of over dimensional cargo <sup>43</sup>[or multimodal shipment in which at least one leg involves transport by ship], the limit is 20 km instead of 200 km.

The EWB generated under rule 138 of the CGST rule or of the SGST/UTGST Rules of any State or Union Territory shall be valid in every State and Union Territory.

“Relevant date” shall mean the date on which the EWB has been generated and the period of validity shall be counted from the time at which the EWB has been generated and each day shall be counted as the period expiring at midnight of the day immediately following the date of generation of EWB.

The expression “over dimensional cargo” shall mean a cargo carried as a single indivisible unit and which exceeds the dimensional limits prescribed in rule 93 of the Central Motor Vehicle Rules, 1989, made under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 (59 of 1988).

Extension of validity period:

- The Commissioner may, on the recommendations of the Council, by notification, extend the validity period of an EWB for certain categories of goods as may be specified therein.
- Where, under circumstances of an exceptional nature, including trans-shipment, the goods cannot be transported within the validity period of the EWB, the transporter may extend the validity period after updating the details in Part B, if required.
- <sup>44</sup>[The validity of the EWB may be extended within eight hours from the time of its expiry].

E-way bill in case of storing of goods in godown of transporter- Clarification vide Circular No. 61/35/2018 dated 04.09.2018 (relevant paras)

Para 3: As per rule 138 of the CGST Rules, EWB is a document which is required for the movement of goods from the supplier’s place of business to the recipient taxpayer’s place of business. Therefore, the goods in movement including when they are stored in the transporter’s godown (even if the godown is located in the recipient taxpayer’s city/town) prior to delivery shall always be accompanied by a valid e-way bill.

Para 4: Further, section 2(85) of the CGST Act defines the “place of business” to include “a place from where the business is ordinarily carried out, and includes a warehouse, a godown or any other place where a taxable person stores his goods, supplies or receives goods or services or both”. An additional place of business is the place of business from where taxpayer carries out business related activities within the State, in addition to the principal place of business.

Para 5: Thus, in case the consignee/ recipient taxpayer stores his goods in godown of the transporter, then the transporter's godown has to be declared as an additional place of business by the recipient taxpayer. In such cases, mere declaration by the recipient taxpayer to this effect with the concurrence of the transporter in the said declaration will suffice. Where the transporter's godown has been declared as the additional place of business by the recipient taxpayer, the transportation under the e-way bill shall be deemed to be concluded once the goods have reached the transporter's godown (recipient taxpayer' additional place of business). Hence, e-way bill validity in such cases will not be required to be extended.

Para 6: Further, whenever the goods are transported from the transporters' godown, which has been declared as the additional place of business of the recipient taxpayer, to any other premises of the recipient taxpayer then, the relevant provisions of the e-way bill rules shall apply. Hence, whenever the goods move from the transporter's godown (i.e., recipient taxpayer's additional place of business) to the recipient taxpayer's any other place of business, a valid e-way bill shall be required, as per the extant State-specific e-way bill rules.

Carrying of documents and devices by person in charge of a conveyance- Section 68(1) read with Rule 138 and 138A

The person in charge of the conveyance carrying goods of consignment value exceeding Rs. 50,000/- shall carry—

- (a) the invoice or bill of supply or delivery challan, as the case may be;
- (b) a copy of the EWB in physical form or the EBN in electronic form or mapped to a Radio Frequency Identification Device (RFID) embedded on to the conveyance in such manner as may be notified by the Commissioner. As per Circular No. 41/15/2018 dt. 13/04.2018, an e-way bill number (EBN) may be available with the person in charge of the conveyance in the form of a printout, SMS or it may be written on an invoice. All these forms of having an e-way bill are valid. However, this requirement of EWB is not applicable in case of movement of goods by rail or by air or vessel.
- (c) <sup>45</sup>in case of imported goods, a copy of the bill of entry filed by the importer of such goods and shall indicate the number and date of the bill of entry in Part A.

Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (b) above, where circumstances so warrant, the Commissioner may, by notification, require the person-in-charge of the conveyance to carry the following documents instead of the EWB:

- (a) tax invoice or bill of supply or bill of entry; or
- (b) a delivery challan, where the goods are transported for reasons other than by way of supply.

In case, invoice is issued in the manner prescribed under sub-rule (4) of rule 48, the Quick Response (QR) code having an embedded Invoice Reference Number (IRN) in it, may be produced electronically, for verification by the proper officer in lieu of the physical copy of such tax invoice.

Where the registered person uploads the invoice as stated above, the information in Part A of Form GST EWB-01 shall be auto-populated by the common portal on the basis of the information furnished in Form GST INV-1.

The Commissioner may, by notification, require a class of transporters to obtain a unique RFID and get the said device embedded on to the conveyance and map the EWB to the said RFID prior to the movement of goods.

Validation of documents- Section 68(2)

The details of documents required to be carried by the person in charge of conveyance shall be validated in the prescribed manner.

Interception and verification- Section 68(3) read with Rule 138B, 138C and Circular No. 41/15/2018-GST dt. 13.04.2018

The Jurisdictional Commissioner or an officer empowered by him in this behalf shall, by an order, designate officer/officers as the proper officer/officers to conduct interception and inspection of conveyances and goods in the jurisdictional area specified in such order. Such an authorisation shall include verification of EWB in physical or electronic form for all inter-State and intra-State movement of goods. As per Circular No. 3/3/2017-GST dt. 05.07.2017, officers designed as 'Inspectors' have been assigned such powers by the Board.

Where any conveyance is intercepted by the proper officer at any place, he may require the person in charge of the said conveyance to produce the documents and devices stated above for verification, and the said person shall be liable to produce the same and also allow the inspection of goods. The proper officer shall verify such documents and where, prima facie, no discrepancies are found, the conveyance shall be allowed to move further. Wherever a facility exists to verify the EWB electronically, the same shall be so verified, either by logging on to <http://mis.ewaybillgst.gov.in> or the Mobile App or through SMS by sending EWBVER <EWB_NO> to the mobile number 77382 99899 (For example, EWBVER 120100231897).

The Commissioner shall get RFID readers installed at places where the verification of movement of goods is required to be carried out and verification of movement of vehicles shall be done through such device readers where the EWB has been mapped with the said device.

Physical verification of conveyances- Rule 138B(3)

The physical verification of conveyances shall be carried out by the proper officer as authorised by the Commissioner or an officer empowered by him in this behalf.

However, on receipt of specific information on evasion of tax, physical verification of a specific conveyance can also be carried out by any other officer after obtaining necessary approval of the Commissioner or an officer authorised by him in this behalf.

Inspection and verification of goods- Rule 138C

Where the person in charge of the conveyance fails to produce any prescribed document or where the proper officer intends to undertake an inspection, he shall record a statement of the person in charge of the conveyance in Form GST MOV-01. In addition, the proper officer shall issue an order for physical verification/inspection of the conveyance, goods and documents in Form GST MOV-02, requiring the person in charge of the conveyance to station the conveyance at the place mentioned in such order and allow the inspection of the goods.

The proper officer shall, within twenty four hours of the aforementioned issuance of Form GST MOV-02, prepare a summary report in Part A of Form GST EWB-03 and upload the same on the common portal.

Within a period of three days from the date of issue of the order in Form GST MOV-02, the proper officer shall conclude the inspection proceedings, either by himself or through any other proper officer authorised in this behalf. Where circumstances warrant such time to be extended, he shall obtain a written permission in Form GST MOV-03 from the Commissioner or an officer authorized by him, for extension of time by another three days and a copy of the order of extension shall be served on the person in charge of the conveyance. The period of twenty four hours/three days shall be counted from the midnight of the date on which the vehicle was intercepted.

On completion of the physical verification/inspection of the conveyance and the goods in movement, the proper officer shall prepare a report of such physical verification in Form GST MOV-04 and serve a copy of the said report to the person in charge of the goods and conveyance. The proper officer shall also record, on the common portal, the final report of the inspection in Part B of Form GST EWB-03 within three days of such physical verification/inspection.

Where no discrepancies are found after the inspection of the goods and conveyance, the proper officer shall issue forthwith a release order in Form GST MOV-05 and allow the conveyance to move further. Where the proper officer is of the opinion that the goods and conveyance need to be detained under section 129 of the CGST Act, he shall issue an order of detention in Form GST MOV-06 and a notice in Form GST MOV-07 in accordance with the provisions of section 129 (3) of the CGST Act, specifying the tax and penalty payable. The said notice shall be served on the person in charge of the conveyance. For a detailed discussion on detention, seizure and release of goods and conveyance in transit under section 129 and confiscation of goods or conveyances under section 130, refer the relevant Chapters.

It has been clarified by way of an illustration in Circular No. 49/23/2018 dt. 21.06.2018 that only such goods/conveyances shall be detained/confiscated in respect of which there is a violation of the provisions of the GST Acts or the rules made thereunder.

Further, CBIC vide Circular No. 122/41/2019-GST dated 5th November, 2019 clarified the implementation of the electronic generation of document identification number (DIN) for all communications sent by its offices to taxpayers. Therefore, no inspection notices or order shall be made without a computer generated document identification number duly quoted prominently in the body of such communication, on or after 8th November, 2019.

Illustration: Where a conveyance carrying twenty-five consignments is intercepted and the person-in-charge of such conveyance produces valid e-way bills and/or other relevant documents in respect of twenty consignments, but is unable to produce the same with respect to the remaining five consignments, detention/confiscation can be made only with respect to the five consignments and the conveyance in respect of which the violation of the Act or the rules made thereunder has been established by the proper officer.

Where EWB and invoice or delivery challan is found to be (a) missing or (b) incomplete or (c) inaccurate or (d) patently erroneous, then 'detention-seizure-release' are the prescribed steps on the condition that [200 per cent of tax as penalty is paid (2 per cent of value in case of exempted goods with a minimum of Rs.25,000 is prescribed), where the owner comes forward. Where the owner does not come forward, then 50 per cent of value of goods or 200 per cent of tax payable on such goods, whichever is higher, is to be collected (5 per cent of value or Rs. 25000, whichever is less, in case of exempted goods)]<sup>46</sup>. Where security is furnished to the extent of amount to be deposited (as above), the goods are required to be released.

An order is required to be passed directing the amount and tax (CGST-SGST or IGST) to be deposited. The amount so paid (as above) is deemed to be final [section 129(5)] but it is important to note that such payment can be made 'under protest' though there is no express provision to do so. No collection of amount can be made without recourse of review or appeal. The issue that arises is whether the officer intercepting the conveyance is authorized to make a detailed 'assessment' of the tax applicable. If not, will not the determination made be inaccurate and even arbitrary as it would not be as per provisions dealing with determination of tax. It would be trite in law to consider that the amount determined is a deposit and subject to review and appeal where the aggrieved party is free to go into all aspects of detention but after securing release of the detained goods. Care must be taken to ensure completeness of the documentation during transit. Larger the dealer, greater the responsibility and lesser the tolerance for compliance failure which may be contrary to popular belief that minor errors are expected in large scale operations.

No further physical verification of goods

Where the physical verification of goods being transported on any conveyance has been done during transit at one place within the State or Union Territory or in any other State or Union Territory, no further physical verification of the said conveyance shall be carried out again in the State or Union Territory, unless a specific information relating to evasion of tax is made available subsequently. It has been clarified vide Circular No. 49/23/2018 dt. 21.06.2018 that since requisite forms are not available on the common portal currently, the hard copies of the notices/orders issued in the specified Forms by a tax authority may be shown as proof of initiation of action by a tax authority by the transporter/registered person to another tax authority as and when required.

(xviii) Conclusion

EWBs contain information in two parts and Part B is required to render the EWB 'complete'. All movement of goods, unless specifically exempted will need to be accompanied by EWB -

- a) whether inter-State or intra-State
- b) whether by way of supply or not

There is a time-distance formula for issuance and acceptance. Unless cancelled, EWB generated will be admitted as valid and create a trail for further reporting and verification by tax authorities. EWB complete in both Parts is required. It is to be appreciated that very limited information is required in EWB and once EWB is reported on the portal, an ERN is generated. The transporter is required to provide ERN to the authorities for inspection. Invoice or delivery challan generated need not be carried by the transporter in physical form. Interception during the-transit is based on very limited 'touch points' like Invoice or DC and EWB. Very limited discretion is allowed for entering into detailed inquiry. Getting familiar with this high-tech system will take some time. EWBs are expected to bring transparency and reliability for stakeholders.

- E-way bill user manual (updated upto 22.07.2019) has been issued by National

Informatics Centre New Delhi, detailing out the manner in which e-way bill shall be generated and used for movement of goods (source: https://docs.ewaybillgst.gov.in/Documents/usermanual\_ewb.pdf)

- Vide Circular No. 41/15/2018 – GST dated 13.04.2018, the Board has clarified and also prescribed the procedure to be followed for inspection and detention of goods during their movement. It is also to be noted that the circular details out the forms and its formats to be used for the purpose of inspection and detention.

68.3. Issues and concerns

1. There is no provision for amendment of particulars in the EWB. It is believed that such a facility has not been provided so as to ensure that EWBs are not mis-utilised. Where any incorrect details have been furnished in the EWB, only two options are available: (i) request the consignee to reject the EWB (within 72 hours / before delivery); or (ii) cancel the EWB within 24 hours / before delivery / before interception by an officer; and generate a new EWB with the correct details. If such EWB cannot be rejected / cancelled within the said timelines, nothing can be done. It is therefore suggested that the person generating the EWB should keep a record of all the discrepancies, in order to furnish the reconciliation if and when sought by the proper officer. Where such records are not maintained, it may be possible for the proper officer to treat the difference as a supply effected without issuance of invoice, or treat the difference as a non-compliance with rule 138 relating to EWB.

Statutory provisions

69. Power to arrest

- (1) Where the Commissioner has reasons to believe that a person has committed any offence specified in clause (a) or clause (b) or clause (c) or clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 132 which is punishable under clause (i) or (ii) of sub-section (1), or under sub-section (2) of the said section, he may, by order, authorise any officer of the central tax to arrest such person.
- (2) Where a person is arrested under sub-section (1) for an offence specified under sub-section (5) of section 132, the officer authorised to arrest the person shall inform such person of the grounds of arrest and produce him before a magistrate within twenty-four hours.
- (3) Subject to the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, —
  - (a) where a person is arrested under sub-section (1) for any offence specified under sub-section (4) of section 132, he shall be admitted to bail or in default of bail, forwarded to the custody of the Magistrate;

(b) in the case of a non-cognizable and bailable offence, the Deputy Commissioner or the Assistant Commissioner shall, for the purpose of releasing an arrested person on bail or otherwise, have the same powers and be subject to the same provisions as an officer-in-charge of a police station.

69.2. Analysis

The Commissioner is vested with the power to authorise, by an order, any Officer of the central tax to arrest a person, where he has reasons to believe that the conditions specified in section 132 (1) and (2) are satisfied.

A. Offence under Section 132

[Whoever commits, or causes to commit and retain the benefits arising out of, any of the following offences]<sup>47</sup>, namely:-

- (a) supplies any goods or services or both without issue of any invoice, in violation of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder, with the intention to evade tax;
- (b) issues any invoice or bill without supply of goods or services or both in violation of the provisions of this Act, or the rules made thereunder leading to wrongful availment or utilisation of input tax credit or refund of tax;
- (c) [avails input tax credit using the invoice or bill referred to in clause (b) or fraudulently avails input tax credit without any invoice or bill]<sup>48</sup>
- (d) collects any amount as tax but fails to pay the same to the Government beyond a period of three months from the date on which such payment becomes due...

B. Punishment under Section 132(1)(i) or (ii) or section 132(2)

Under section 132(1) – In cases where the amount of tax evaded or the amount of input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised or the amount of refund wrongly taken:

- exceeds Rs. 500 Lakhs: the offender shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to 5 years alongwith fine –[ section 132(1)(i)]; or
- exceeds Rs 250 Lakhs but does not exceed Rs 500 Lakhs: the offender shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to 3 years alongwith fine – [section 132(1)(ii)]

Under section 132(2) – where any person convicted under section 132 is again convicted, then the offender shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to 5 years alongwith fine for every subsequent conviction.

If an offence involves an amount exceeding Rs. 500 lakhs and is punishable for a term which may extend to 5 years along with fine under section 132(1)(i), then such an offence shall be cognizable and non-bailable under section 132(5). The officer arresting such person is required to inform him of the grounds of arrest and produce him before the Magistrate within 24 hours. All other offences under GST law shall be non-cognizable and bailable under section 132(4). In case of such offences, subject to the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, the arrested person shall be admitted to bail or in default of bail, forwarded to the custody of the Magistrate. The Assistant/Deputy Commissioner can grant bail and is conferred with powers of an officer-in-charge of a police station.

All arrests should be made as per the provisions of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. Note that relief under sections 24 to 30 of the Indian Evidence Act may be availed in respect of statements made by the accused.

69.3. Comparative review

Similar power to arrest tax evaders by officer is present in most of the indirect tax legislations.

However, under the Finance Act, 1994 the power to arrest can be exercised only in cases where taxes collected and not deposited exceeds an amount Rs. 200 lakhs.

69.4. Issues and concerns

1. While the law provides a threshold limit exceeding which the offence would be considered to be one for which a person may be arrested, the law does not specify any time-period in respect of the same. Therefore, consider a case where the Commissioner has reasons to believe that a person has failed to issue tax invoices in respect of supplies effected during a period of 3 years, wherein the tax evaded exceeds Rs. 250 lakhs. In such a case, it appears that the proper officer has the powers to arrest such person.
2. There is no indication as to whether the reference is made to a taxable person / registered person (GSTIN) / or any person in the language employed in section 132(1) that specifies the offences, being “whoever commits any of the following offences, namely.....”.

3. It is pertinent to note that the onus to prove that the allegations levelled by the Commissioner or any officer authorised by him, is false and baseless is totally on the accused person. The officer merely needs to have a reason to believe. For instance: the officer may allege that the taxable person has availed input tax credit fraudulently on the basis of an invoice without actual supply of goods (that is without actually receiving the goods). Here, a mere statement / record showing GRN details may not suffice and actual movement of goods and vehicles may be required to be justified by the accused by way of toll receipts and camera footage at the factory gate in order to establish that there was no evasion.

69.5. FAQs

Q1. Power of arrest could be exercised by whom?

Ans. The Commissioner can authorise (by an order) any officer to arrest a person, who has committed specified offences. The Commissioner should have reasons to believe that such person has committed the specified offences.

Q2. Who can be arrested?

Ans. The person committing an offence (tax evasion) as specified in –

Section 132(1) clause (i) - tax evasion above Rs. 500 Lakhs attracting imprisonment for a term extending upto 5 years and fine, or clause (ii), tax evasion above Rs. 250 Lakhs but up to Rs. 500 lakhs, attracting imprisonment extending up to 3 years and fine for an offence under section 132(1) (a) to (d), or offence under section 132(2) [repeated offence – second and subsequent offence attracting imprisonment extending up to 5 years with fine] can be arrested by the authorised officer.

Q3. What is the procedure to be followed for arrest?

- Ans. (i) The person arrested should be informed about the grounds of arrest and be produced before the Magistrate within 24 hours in case of cognizable and non-bailable offences.
- (ii) In case of non-cognizable and bailable offences, the Assistant/ Deputy Commissioner can grant the bail and is conferred powers of an officer-in-charge of a police station subject to the provisions of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

Statutory provisions

70. Power to summon persons to give evidence and produce documents

- (1) The proper officer under this Act shall have power to summon any person whose attendance he considers necessary either to give evidence or to produce a document or any other thing in any inquiry in the same manner, as provided in the case of a civil court under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.
- (2) Every such inquiry referred to in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be a “judicial proceedings” within the meaning of section 193 and section 228 of the Indian Penal Code.

70.1. Introduction

This provision deals with exercise of powers to issue summons for giving evidence and for production of documents or any other thing.

70.2. Analysis

In any inquiry which the proper officer is making for any of the purposes of this Act, he shall have the power to summon:

- any person, whose attendance is considered necessary
- either to give evidence or to produce a document or any other thing
- in any inquiry in the same manner as provided in the case of a civil court under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908

Every such inquiry referred to in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be a “judicial proceeding” within the meaning of section 193 and section 228 of the Indian Penal Code.

It would be helpful to be familiar with the exact nature of responsibility of acceptance of service of summons and of making statements in response to a summon. Reference may be made to Chapters X and XI of Indian Penal Code. At the same time, Article 20(3) of the r Constitution prohibits a person being made to be witness against himself. Therefore, avoidance of service of summons is unlawful but abstinence from making statements is not. Understanding the legality of these matters will be of significance in attending to such matters of inquiry before a judicial officer.

The “summon” under section 70 is for “any inquiry”. The Authorised Officer is not empowered under section 70 to retain the documents for which summon were issued. It has been held in T.T.V Dinkaran v. Enforcement Officer, (1995) 80 E.L.T. 745 that where the summon did not mention the nature of investigation therein, it will still be valid since mentioning the details about investigation may alert the person concerned to manipulate his record.

It may be helpful to read sections 24 to 30 of Indian Evidence Act, 1872 and note the jurisprudence available on the manner of gathering evidence. The person making the statement needs to establish that such statement was made under certain circumstances and that it is not to be relied upon in further proceedings. Statements made that are considered not reliable by the person making it, must lead evidence to support the assertion. It is permissible to presume statements are reliable unless withdrawn at the earliest opportunity in the remainder of the proceedings. Statements recorded under section 70 alone cannot form reliable evidence to support demand for tax in a show cause notice.

Further, it is pertinent to mention that the Supreme Court in the recent judgment of Paramvir Singh Saini v. Baljit Singh & Ors., AIR 2021 SC 64 has directed that CCTV cameras should be installed at the premises of all the investigation authorities and also where interrogation takes place, to safeguard human rights of the person making the statement.

Experts also hold the view that since Proper Officer will not file a Police report (also called 'charge sheet') under 173 of Cr.PC but only a complaint under section 190(1)(a) of Cr.PC, the proceedings will not enjoy the benefit of sections 24 to 30 of Evidence Act, 1872. Reference may be made to Illias v. Collector of Customs, AIR 1970 SC 1065 contrasted with Ramesh Chandra Mehta v. State of WB, AIR 1970 SC 940.

After recording a statement, the person making the statement cannot be implicated as it is contrary to the Constitutional guarantee in Article 20(3). On the applicability of Cr. PC in the absence of procedure on conducting trial reference may be made to the decision rendered in Adani Enterprises Ltd. & Ors. v. UoI & Ors., 2019-TIOL-2408-HC-MUM-CUS.

71.1. Introduction

This provision empowers any officer authorised by the officer not below the rank of Joint Commissioner to have access to any place of business of a registered person to inspect books of account, documents, computers, computer programmes, computer software and such other things as may be required and which may be available at such place, for the purposes of carrying out any audit, scrutiny, verification and checks as may be necessary to safeguard the interest of revenue.

71.2. Analysis

To access the business premises, the officer should be authorized by the proper officer not below the rank of Joint Commissioner. Experts are apprehensive of far-reaching consequences of this section which is potentially capable of being misused. Thorough understanding of the legal remedies available will equip one to attend to these inspections.

The authorized officer shall have access to any place of business of a registered person to inspect of the following:

- books of account
- documents
- computers
- computer programs
- computer software (whether installed in a computer or otherwise) and
- such other things as he may require and which may be available at such place.

The object is to carry out any audit, scrutiny, verification and checks as may be necessary to safeguard the interest of Revenue.

The person in charge of the premises should make available the following:

1. records prepared or maintained by the registered person and declared to proper officer;
2. trial balance or its equivalent;
3. audited financial statements, wherever required;
4. cost audit report, if any;
5. income tax audit report, if any; and
6. other relevant records.

The documents/records should be made available within 15 working days of the requisition, or such extended period as may be allowed.

The documents/records can be called for by the authorised officer or audit party under section 65 or the Chartered Accountant / Cost Accountant nominated by the Department under section 66.

71.3. Comparative review

The erstwhile indirect tax laws including the various State VAT laws contained similar provisions.

73.1. Introduction

1. Section 73 deals with determination of tax and its demand under certain circumstances such as:
  - Tax not paid; or
  - Tax short paid; or
  - Input tax credit wrongly availed; or
  - Input tax credit wrongly utilized; or
  - Tax erroneously refunded.

This section specifically covers determination of taxes in cases not involving fraud, wilful misstatement or suppression of facts;

2. Section 73 also applies for demand of interest payable which is not paid or partly paid or interest erroneously refunded. Here, tax authorities would issue notice under section 73 and (i) demand tax applicable on the transaction along with interest and applicable penalty (ii) record the fact of payment discharged only to the extent of tax due (iii) appropriate the tax already deposited and (iv) require payment of outstanding interest and applicable penalty. Issuing a notice is an essential requirement to demand any payment (tax or interest or penalty) while adhering to the principles of natural justice.

Section 73 makes it abundantly clear that in GST there is no such thing called “SPOT recovery” as was practiced under earlier tax regime. There is no question of any determination of liability bypassing section 73. And there is no question of taxpayer accepting such determination without a valid notice and the attendant safeguards provided in section 75 (discussed later).

The provisions of section 73 can be invoked where it appears to the proper officer that a situation involving payment of tax (stated in Para 1(b) infra) has arisen in cases other than fraud, wilful misstatement or suppression of facts.

1. Ingredients of the provision :
  - (a) Service of notice by proper officer and
  - (b) Notice shall be served on the person who is chargeable with tax, who has –
    - Not paid or short paid the tax
    - Wrongly availed or utilized input tax credit
    - Received erroneous refund
  - (c) Such amounts as mentioned above shall be required to be determined along with the applicable interest as per section 50 and penalty leviable under the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder.

- (d) The notice has to be issued at least three months prior to the expiry of the time limit of three years for issuance of order.
- (e) The proper officer shall along with notice provide a summary in Form GST DRC-01 specifying therein the details of the amount payable.
2. Where no notice is required to be issued for 'periodical demand': Subsequent to the issue of a notice under section 73(1) to a person, where the proper officer finds similar issues for any period, he may, instead of issuing a detailed notice for such period, serve a statement containing the details of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised for such subsequent period not covered in the earlier notice so issued under section 73(1). Service of such statement shall be deemed to be service of notice as per section 73(1) on the condition that the grounds relied upon are the same as those mentioned in the earlier notice issued for previous period. The proper officer shall along with the statement, provide a summary in Form GST DRC-02, specifying therein the details of amount payable. Care should be taken NOT to regard such 'statement of demand' as being inferior or different from a show cause notice (SCN) issued under section 73(1) [similarly under section 74(1)]
3. Voluntary payment of tax and interest before issue of notice/statement: Voluntary payment of tax and interest as per section 50 before issue of notice/statement can be done either:
- on own ascertainment of such tax and interest or
  - on the ascertainment of tax and interest by the proper officer
- in accordance with the provisions of the Act; and the same shall be intimated to the proper officer in Form GST DRC-03 and the proper officer shall issue an acknowledgement, accepting the payment made, in Form GST DRC-04. Thereafter, the proper officer shall not serve any notice / statement to the extent of such payment. In such situations, there can be no further proceedings with regard to tax and penalty so paid. Payment under Form GST DRC-03 would be a response to departmental communication in Form GST DRC-01A so as to comply with the opportunity afforded to taxpayer under section 73(5) (similarly under 74(5)).
4. When the amount paid in terms of the ascertainment of the assessee falls short, the proper officer shall issue a notice for the amount of shortfall.
5. In situations where the assessee makes the payment of tax along with interest within 30 days of issuance of notice / statement and intimates the proper officer of such payment in Form GST DRC-03 the proper officer shall issue an order in Form GST DRC-05 concluding the proceedings in respect of the said notice and subsequently no penalty shall be payable. Therefore, until 30 days from date of issue of SCN, no adjudication order can be passed and haste in posting of hearings can be adjourned on this ground.

Pre-notice resolution of dispute: Based on pre-notice consultations (not expressly called so), proper officer is permitted to issue a demand in Form GST DRC-01A which the taxable person may accept and avail the relief available under section 73(5) or 74(5). Care must be taken not to consider this as an indirect form of 'spot recovery'. The taxable person must take care NOT to become anxious suddenly and admit tax liability and must be well advised to avail this remedy. With the amendment to rule 142 (vide Notification No. 49/2019-Central Tax dated 9 Oct 2019), it is mandatory for the taxpayer to (i) be issued 'intimation' to avail NIL or reduced penalty under section 73(5) and 74(5), respectively and (ii) where the same is rejected or accepted, partially or fully, then 'summary of show cause notice' in Form GST DRC-01 may be issued. It may be noted that in Amadeus India Pvt. Ltd. v. Pr. Commissioner (2019) 25 GSTL 486 (Del.), where for failure to comply with a similar pre-notice consultation procedure (issued under Master Circular. 1053/2/2017-CX, dated 10 Mar 2017) the impugned SCN itself was set aside and parties relegated to pre-notice stage of the proceedings, proceed with such consultations and then, if still remaining unresolved, to proceed with SCN. With the mandate now in the rules, it is now incumbent on the proper officer to carefully tread this path of 'due process' of law that is laid down.

6. In situations where the person files a reply or representation, the proper officer after considering the representation, shall issue an order in Form GST DRC-06, consisting of the amount of tax, interest and penalty (i.e. tax + interest + penalty). The amount of penalty shall be higher of 10% of tax or ₹ 10,000/-. A summary of such order shall be uploaded electronically in Form GST DRC-07, specifying therein the amount of tax, interest and penalty payable by the person chargeable with tax. Such summary of order in Form GST DRC-07 shall be treated as a notice for recovery.
7. Where a rectification of the order has been passed or where an order uploaded in the system has been withdrawn, a summary of the rectification or withdrawal order is to be uploaded electronically by the proper officer in Form GST DRC-08.
8. It must be noted that the proper officer is required to pass an order within a period of three years from :
  - the due date for filing of annual return for the year to which the short payment or non-payment or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised relates; or
  - the date of erroneous refund.

The following table summarises the time limit for issuance of notice and order:

Particulars	Time limit for issuing SCN	Time limit for issuing order (Sec 73(10))
Cases not involving fraud, wilful misstatement or suppression of facts	At least 3 months prior to the time limit specified under section 73(10) for issuance of an order.	Three years from the due date for furnishing annual return for the financial year to which the tax not paid or short paid or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised relates to or three years from the date of erroneous refund.

9. When all other opportunities granted such as acceptance of liability before issue of SCN by pre-notice consultations under rule 142(1A) and acceptance of liability within 30 days after issue of SCN, the proper officer will have to pass a 'speaking order'. Care must be taken to ensure that all aspects of natural justice and adherence to due process of law are satisfied in passing such adjudication order. Some such requirements are : (not exhaustive):

- Grant of opportunity to be heard which is adequate and reasonable which includes granting adjournments, for genuine reasons, where requested or necessitated.
- Grounds raised in SCN are recorded and dealt with during the proceedings. SCN must be the culmination of investigation or inquiry by tax authorities. Incomplete investigation or inquiry leading to assumptions in SCN about tax default is fatal to the proceedings. Investigation or inquiry cannot be continued after SCN is issued. The taxpayer is well within his statutory rights to question the incompleteness of the investigation and leave the adjudicating authority to find within the SCN sufficient evidence to fasten tax demand.
- Relevant facts and applicable provisions of law including judicial authorities (case laws) are considered. Relevant facts are facts which impact the allegations. Onus to prove the allegations lie on the tax authorities making such allegation. Under VAT laws it was common for allegations to be made and taxpayer carried the burden to disprove those allegation.
- Points and submission of both sides are recorded and discussed. The taxpayer is NOT liable to furnish facts to displace the allegations. The taxpayer merely needs to (i) accept or deny the allegation (ii) assail (or attack and question) the evidence adduced to satisfy burden that lies on the tax authorities to prove allegations. Evidence may be produced by the taxpayer, in reply to SCN, by way of rebuttal even if there is a presumption in the law about mens rea. Presumption is not assumption (refer discussion under section 144) and all presumptions are to be understood as 'rebuttable presumptions' only.
- Clear findings are reached based on the above without adopting new grounds that were not originally raised in the SCN (see discussion under section 75(7) below). Howsoever compelling 'new grounds' may be, the adjudicating authority is barred from travelling beyond the four corners of the SCN even if the SCN contains errors of omission or commission which may be fatal to the proceedings;
- Final decision is reached based on the said findings by an 'order' which is to be complied or appealed against.

Proper officer: As per Circular No. 3/3/2017-GST dated 05.07.2017, the Superintendent of Central Tax is assigned to discharge powers under sub-sections

(1), (2), (3), (5), (6), (7), (9) and (10) of section 73 of the CGST Act. In other words, all officers up to the rank of Additional/Joint Commissioner of Central Tax are assigned as the proper officers for issuance of show cause notices and orders under this section. Further, they are also assigned so under the IGST Act as well, as per section 3 read with section 20 of the IGST Act.

10. Penalty is always determined to be 10 per cent of tax stipulated in adjudication order due to the relief from further litigation, that such relaxation is permitted under section 73(11). Further, where any self-assessed tax remains to be paid or where any amount collected 'as tax' is lying unpaid, penalty of 10 per cent of tax or ₹ 10,000/- is also prescribed under section 73(11). Refer various other aspects such as notice under section 76 without any time limit and mandatory penalty under that section in the detailed discussion under section 76.
11. Rule 142(3) lays down that if the amount referred to in section 129(1) of the CGST Act, 2017 is paid within fourteen days of detention or seizure of the goods and conveyance, the proceedings in respect of the notice shall be concluded. The said sub-rule has been amended with effect from 01.01.2022 to provide that if the amount referred to in section 129(1) of the CGST Act, 2017 is paid within seven days of the notice issued under sub-section (3) of section 129 but before the issuance of order under the said sub-section (3), the proceedings in respect of the notice shall be concluded. Further, in sub-rule (5), the words "the person chargeable to tax" have been substituted with the words "the person concerned".
12. Monetary limits have been prescribed vide Circular No. 31/05/2018-GST dated 09.02.2018 for officers of different designations to function as the Proper Officers in relation to issue of show cause notices and orders under Sections 73 and 74:

Designation of Officer	Monetary limit of the amount of CGST (including cess) for issuance of show cause notices and orders u/s 73 and 74 of CGST	Monetary limit of the amount of IGST (including cess) for issuance of show cause notices and orders u/s 73 and 74 of CGST Act made applicable to IGST	Monetary limit of the amount of CGST and IGST (including cess) for issuance of show cause notices and orders u/s 73 and 74 of CGST Act made applicable to IGST
Superintendent	Up to ₹ 10 lakhs	Up to ₹ 20 lakhs	Up to ₹ 20 lakhs

Summary of Penalty implications

If tax, interest and penalty (as indicated in the table below) are paid, then all the proceedings in that respect shall stand concluded:

Pay tax plus interest	Amount of penalty
Before issuance of SCN notice	No penalty
Within 30 days after the issuance of SCN	No penalty
In any other case	10% of the tax or ₹ 10,000 whichever is higher.

1. The officer can issue the order under section 73 with a maximum demand up to-
- Amount of tax + interest + penalty 10% of tax
  - Amount of tax + interest + penalty equal to 10% of tax or ₹ 10,000/- whichever is higher
  - ₹ 10,000/-
  - Tax + interest + 25% penalty
- Ans. (b) Amount of tax + interest + penalty equal to 10% of tax or ₹ 10,000/- whichever is higher

Statutory Provisions

74. Determination of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised by reason of fraud or any wilful misstatement or suppression of facts. (1) Where it appears to the proper officer that any tax has not been paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or where input tax credit has been wrongly availed or utilised by reason of fraud, or any wilful-misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax, he shall serve notice on the person chargeable with tax which has not been so paid or which has been so short paid or to whom the refund has erroneously been made, or who has wrongly availed or utilised input tax credit, requiring him to show cause as to why he should not pay the amount specified in the notice along with interest payable thereon under section 50 and a penalty equivalent to the tax specified in the notice. (2) The proper officer shall issue the notice under sub-section (1) at least six months prior to the time limit specified in sub-section (10) for issuance of order. (3) Where a notice has been issued for any period under sub-section (1), the proper officer may serve a statement, containing the details of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised for such periods other than those covered under sub-section (1), on the person chargeable with tax.

- (4) The service of statement under sub-section (3) shall be deemed to be service of notice under sub-section (1) of section 73, subject to the condition that the grounds relied upon in the said statement, except the ground of fraud, or any wilful-misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax, for periods other than those covered under sub-section (1) are the same as are mentioned in the earlier notice.
- (5) The person chargeable with tax may, before service of notice under sub-section (1), pay the amount of tax along with interest payable under section 50 and a penalty equivalent to fifteen per cent. of such tax on the basis of his own ascertainment of such tax or the tax as ascertained by the proper officer and inform the proper officer in writing of such payment.
- (6) The proper officer, on receipt of such information, shall not serve any notice under sub-section (1), in respect of the tax so paid or any penalty payable under the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder.
- (7) Where the proper officer is of the opinion that the amount paid under sub-section (5) falls short of the amount actually payable, he shall proceed to issue the notice as provided for in sub-section (1) in respect of such amount which falls short of the amount actually payable.
- (8) Where any person chargeable with tax under sub-section (1) pays the said tax along with interest payable under section 50 and a penalty equivalent to twenty-five per cent. of such tax within thirty days of issue of the notice, all proceedings in respect of the said notice shall be deemed to be concluded.
- (9) The proper officer shall, after considering the representation, if any, made by the person chargeable with tax, determine the amount of tax, interest and penalty due from such person and issue an order.
- (10) The proper officer shall issue the order under sub-section (9) within a period of five years from the due date for furnishing of annual return for the financial year to which the tax not paid or short paid or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised relates to or within five years from the date of erroneous refund.
- (11) Where any person served with an order issued under sub-section (9) pays the tax along with interest payable thereon under section 50 and a penalty equivalent to fifty per cent. of such tax within thirty days of communication of the order, all proceedings in respect of the said notice shall be deemed to be concluded.

Explanation 1.— For the purposes of section 73 and this section, —

- (i) the expression “all proceedings in respect of the said notice” shall not include proceedings under section 132;
- (ii) where the notice under the same proceedings is issued to the main person liable to pay tax and some other persons, and such proceedings against the main

74.1. Introduction

Where the reasons for not being identified earlier are attributable to certain ‘special circumstances’, notice must still be issued under section 74 in order to demand tax. In other words, even in such special circumstances, “Spot recovery” is not sanctioned in law. The section covers certain situations for demand of taxes in cases of fraud, or any kind of wilful mis-statement or suppression of facts with an intent to evade payment of tax.

1. Whenever the tax is
  - not paid or
  - short paid or
  - credit wrongly availed or
  - credit wrongly utilized or
  - erroneously refunded

in 'special circumstances' with an "intent to evade tax" by way of - fraud

- wilful misstatement
- suppression of facts,

the proper officer shall issue a notice for such amount along with interest as per section 50 and penalty equivalent to the amount of tax specified in notice. The proper officer shall, along with the notice provide a summary in Form GST DRC-01 specifying therein the details of the amount payable.

2. This section covers the time limit within which the proper officer shall issue the notice and order for the determination/ recovery of tax defaulted by the person. Section 74 also applies for demand of interest payable which is not paid or partly paid or interest erroneously refunded. Interest is an automatic incidence that does not involve any explanation or arguments except to the extent of accuracy in the computation. It may be noted that the Karnataka High Court has decided in the case of UoI & Ors v. LC Infra Projects Pvt Ltd (2020) 81 GSTR 281 (Kar) that the SCN is required before making demand of interest under section 50 in view of principles of natural justice. Unless demand for interest is 'disputed' and remaining unpaid, interest on self-assessed or other admitted tax liability would be an 'undisputed arrear'. Refer to discussions under section 75(12) about such undisputed arrears coming within the operation of automatic recovery of dues under section 79.
3. 'Fraud' is normally understood as deceit with an intent to obtain an unjust advantage, while 'suppression' has been defined by way of Explanation 2 to section 74. Willful misstatement usually covers a case of deceit but generally with the connivance of another. The situations cited supra normally come to light only on an inquiry. A fraud generally comes to light on its detection. Thus, this section broadly covers detection and response while no provisions are traceable to prevention mechanism.
4. Care must be taken to note that vide Explanation 2 to section 74, the word 'suppression' has been given a very special meaning. As per this meaning, normal understanding of suppression has been left behind such that a variety of actions or inactions can be regarded as suppression to invoke the extended period of limitation.

74.2. Analysis

1. No notice is required to be issued for 'periodical demand': Similar to the provisions of section 73 explained earlier, this section also provides that a statement containing the details of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised be issued, for such periods other than those covered in the notice under section 74(1) on the person chargeable with tax, along with a summary in Form GST DRC-02. This is issued in place of a detailed notice for the period other than the ones covered in the notice issued as per section 74(1). Further, service of such statement shall be deemed to be service of notice under section 73(1), subject to the condition that the grounds relied upon in the said statement, except the ground of fraud, or any wilful-misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax, for periods other than those covered under section 74(1) are the same as those mentioned in the earlier notice.

2. The proper officer shall not serve any notice on the assessee in case of voluntary payment of tax and interest along with penalty @ 15% of the tax either
  - as per the own ascertainment of the tax or
  - per the ascertainment of the proper officer;

In both the above situations the person charged with tax shall intimate the same to the proper officer in Form GST DRC-03 and proper officer will provide acknowledgment in Form GST DRC-04 and no notice shall be served in respect of the tax so paid or any penalty payable under the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder.

In case there exists some shortfall between the amount paid by assessee on his own ascertainment and the actual amount liable to be paid, the proper officer shall issue a notice for the tax that remains unpaid.

3. Where the person makes the payment of tax and interest along with penalty equal to 25 % of tax within 30 days of issuance of notice / statement and intimates the proper officer of such payment in Form GST DRC-03, the proper officer shall issue an order in Form GST DRC-05 concluding the proceedings in respect of the said notice.
4. If the person makes any representation or files a reply, the proper officer shall issue an order after considering the representation / reply in Form GST DRC-06, and the amount determined shall comprise of tax along with interest and penalty as stated above. A summary of such order shall be uploaded electronically in Form GST DRC-07, specifying therein the amount of tax, interest and penalty payable by the person chargeable with tax. Such summary of order in Form GST DRC-07 shall be treated as a notice for recovery.
5. Where the assessee makes payment of tax and interest along with penalty @ 50 % of tax within 30 days of communication of the order, it shall be deemed that all the proceedings have been concluded.
6. The proper officer shall pass an order within a period of 5 years from the
  - due date for filing of the annual return for the year to which the short payment or non-payment or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised relates
  - date of erroneous refund

The time limit for issuance of notice and order is summarized in the following table:

Particulars	Time limit for issuing SCN	Time limit for issuing order. [section 74(10)]
Cases involving fraud, wilful mis-statement or suppression of facts to evade tax	At least 6 months prior to the time limit specified under section 74(10) for issuance of order.	5 years from the due date for furnishing of annual return for the financial year to which the tax not paid or short paid or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised relates to or 5 years from the date of erroneous refund.

7. The term “suppression” is specifically explained to mean:
- non-declaration of facts or information which a taxable person is required to declare in the return, statement, report or any other document furnished under the Act or the rules made thereunder, or
  - failure to furnish any information on being asked for, in writing, by the proper officer
8. Proper officer: As per Circular No. 31/05/2018-GST dated 09.02.2018, the Superintendent of Central Tax is assigned to discharge the powers under sub-sections (1), (2), (3), (5), (6), (7), (9) and (10) of section 74 of the CGST Act. In other words, all officers up to the rank of Additional/Joint Commissioner of Central Tax are proper officers for issuance of show cause notices and orders under this section. Further, they are also the proper officers under the IGST Act as well, as per section 3 read with section 20 of the IGST Act. Refer earlier discussion under section 73 regarding some aspects relating to the manner in which proceedings should be conducted to pass adjudication orders.
- Monetary limits have also been prescribed vide Circular No. 31/05/2018-GST dated 09.02.2018 for officers of different designations to function as the proper officers in relation to issue of show cause notices and orders under section 74. Refer Para 11 of the analysis of section 73.
9. After an adjudication order is passed, the taxpayer may pay 50% of the penalty demanded in such adjudication order within 30 days of the communication of the order and enjoy rebate of the remainder of the penalty. Tax and interest as demanded must be fully paid as a condition of this relaxation under section 74(11).

Summary of Penalty implications:

If tax, interest and penalty as indicated in the table below, are paid, further proceedings should not be continued to that extent.

Payment of Tax, Interest and Penalty	Amount of Penalty
Before issuance of show cause notice	15% of the tax amount
Within 30 days after the issuance of SCN	25% of the tax amount
Within 30 days from the communication of order	50% of the tax amount
In any other case	100% of the amount equal to tax

Issues and Concerns under sections 73 and 74

- i. Where a statement is issued by the proper officer against which the assessee remits applicable taxes along with interest and penalty at 25% and subsequently, it is held that the statement cannot be deemed to be a notice as it does not have the same grounds as the previous notice, can the assessee apply for refund of the additional 10% penalty that was paid on grounds that payment prior to issue of notice attracts only 15% penalty?
- ii. Rule 142(1A) has been introduced providing for the issue of Form GST DRC-01A to undertake the process of 'pre-notice consultations'. It is important to engage in such consultations by marking all communication 'without prejudice' as there may be some misleading promises alluded to without expressly granting assurance that SCN will not be issued. Experts caution that such consultations should not be entertained, if the taxpayer is not freely admitting liability and there is no ambiguity around the nature of tax demand. Rejection of this opportunity does not imply that, any adversarial approach is being followed for the taxpayer and full extent of relief based on merits of the case will be available in adjudication and appellate proceedings. This provision is mainly to take away the discretion from the hands of proper officer regarding the penalty to be imposed.
- iii. On comparison of section 73(11) with section 122(1)(iii) and (iv) one finds that while penalty under section 73(9) is applicable if self-assessed tax or any amount collected as tax is not paid within 30 days from the due date for payment of such tax, section 122 penalty will be applicable if such tax or amount is not paid within 3 months from the due date for payment.

Statutory Provisions

75. General provisions relating to determination of tax

- (1) Where the service of notice or issuance of order is stayed by an order of a court or Appellate Tribunal, the period of such stay shall be excluded in computing the period specified in sub-sections (2) and (10) of section 73 or sub-sections (2) and (10) of section 74, as the case may be.
- (2) Where any Appellate Authority or Appellate Tribunal or court concludes that the notice issued under sub-section (1) of section 74 is not sustainable for the reason that the charges of fraud or any wilful-misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax has

- not been established against the person to whom the notice was issued, the proper officer shall determine the tax payable by such person, deeming as if the notice were issued under sub-section (1) of section 73.*
- (3) Where any order is required to be issued in pursuance of the direction of the Appellate Authority or Appellate Tribunal or a court, such order shall be issued within two years from the date of communication of the said direction.
- (4) An opportunity of hearing shall be granted where a request is received in writing from the person chargeable with tax or penalty, or where any adverse decision is contemplated against such person.
- (5) The proper officer shall, if sufficient cause is shown by the person chargeable with tax, grant time to the said person and adjourn the hearing for reasons to be recorded in writing:
Provided that no such adjournment shall be granted for more than three times to a person during the proceedings.
- (6) The proper officer, in his order, shall set out the relevant facts and the basis of his decision.
- (7) The amount of tax, interest and penalty demanded in the order shall not be in excess of the amount specified in the notice and no demand shall be confirmed on the grounds other than the grounds specified in the notice.
- (8) Where the Appellate Authority or Appellate Tribunal or court modifies the amount of tax determined by the proper officer, the amount of interest and penalty shall stand modified accordingly, taking into account the amount of tax so modified.
- (9) The interest on the tax short paid or not paid shall be payable whether or not specified in the order determining the tax liability.
- (10) The adjudication proceedings shall be deemed to be concluded, if the order is not issued within three years as provided for in sub-section (10) of section 73 or within five years as provided for in sub-section (10) of section 74.
- (11) An issue on which the Appellate Authority or the Appellate Tribunal or the High Court has given its decision which is prejudicial to the interest of revenue in some other proceedings and an appeal to the Appellate Tribunal or the High Court or the Supreme Court against such decision of the Appellate Authority or the Appellate Tribunal or the High Court is pending, the period spent between the date of the decision of the Appellate Authority and that of the Appellate Tribunal or the date of decision of the Appellate Tribunal and that of the High Court or the date of the decision of the High Court and that of the Supreme Court shall be excluded in computing the period referred to in sub-section (10) of section 73 or sub-section (10) of section 74 where proceedings are initiated by way of issue of a show cause notice under the said sections.
- (12) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 73 or section 74, where any amount of self-assessed tax in accordance with a return furnished under section 39 remains unpaid, either wholly or partly, or any amount of interest payable on such tax remains unpaid, the same shall be recovered under the provisions of section 79.

- (13) Where any penalty is imposed under section 73 or section 74, no penalty for the same act or omission shall be imposed on the same person under any other provision of this Act.

75.1. Analysis

These provisions are general provisions for safeguarding the taxpayer's interests in determination of tax and are applicable irrespective of whether the notice invokes the extended period or not

1. If an order of court or Appellate Tribunal stays the service of notice or issuance of order then, the period of such stay will get excluded from the period of issuance of order i.e., 3 years or 5 years as the case may be.
2. When a notice has been issued considering the case to be one of fraud or for wilful – misrepresentation or for suppression of facts, and whereas the charges of fraud, wilful misstatement and suppression of facts were not sustainable or not established by an order of Appellate Authority or Appellate Tribunal, then in such a case the officer shall determine the tax as if the notice is issued within the normal period of 3 years.
3. An order required to be issued in pursuance of the direction of the Appellate Authority or Appellate Tribunal or a Court, shall be issued within two years from the date of communication of the said direction.
4. Opportunity of personal hearing has to be granted when requested for in writing by the person chargeable to tax or where any adverse decision is proposed to be taken against the person.

5. Personal hearing can be adjourned for reasons to be recorded in writing, when sufficient cause is shown by the person chargeable to tax. However, such adjournment can be granted for a maximum of 3 times. It should be noted that a departmental SCN which specifies three consecutive dates for personal hearing (failing which an ex-parte order is passed) will not be held to be valid as this is against the principles of natural justice.
6. The “relevant facts” and “basis” of the decision shall be set out in the order, which means a speaking order needs to be passed. It is important to note that the “grounds” on which allegations were made cannot be deviated from and the “Order” must support the demand on the same grounds and not introduce new grounds or cure deficiencies in grounds mentioned in SCN. Failure of adjudication on this aspect alone may be sufficient to get favourable order in appellate proceedings. Drafting of SCN has now assumed more importance. This provision when read together with section 160(2), provides an important clue as to the ‘preliminary objections’ that need to be raised while replying to SCN.
7. The amount of tax along with interest and penalty should not exceed the amount mentioned in the notice and the grounds shall not go beyond what is mentioned in the notice.
8. When the decision of Tribunal/ Court/ Appellate Authority modifies the amount of tax, correspondingly interest and penalty shall also be modified to that extent by the proper officer.
9. Interest shall be payable in all cases whether specifically mentioned or not. This provision indicates that where ‘penalty’ is omitted from the SCN, even if applicable, the adjudicating authority cannot confirm the demand for penalty by specifying the obvious deficiency in the SCN. This is evident from the fact that the Legislature has thoughtfully saved omission of ‘interest’ from the order and not ‘interest and penalty’.
10. If the order is not issued within the time limits as prescribed in sub-section (10) of section 73 or sub-section (10) of section 74, i.e., 5 years in case of fraud, wilful-misstatement or suppression and 3 years in any other case, the adjudication proceedings shall be deemed to be concluded. Reference may be made to the decision in case of Ramlal and Ors v. Rewa Coalfields Ltd AIR(1962) SC 361, wherein the Supreme Court has recognized that lapse of time to pass such orders (lapse of limitation) is a right to the taxpayer that should not be easily disturbed. And with a specific embargo, it is well accepted that where the SCN is issued ‘after’ 33 months (or 54 months) or adjudication orders are passed ‘after’ 36 months (or 60 months), the entire proceedings would fail. For the remainder of the period, fresh SCN is required and curing this deficiency or adjudicating for ‘adjusted shorter period’ is NOT permissible. This is well established administrative law principle. Refer the discussion under section 6 of the CGST Act regarding ‘administrative discipline’ and related circulars on this administrative law principle.

11. An issue on which the Appellate Authority or Appellate Tribunal or High Court has given its decision which is prejudicial to the interest of the Revenue and an appeal to the Appellate Tribunal or High Court or Supreme Court against such decision is pending, then the period spent between the two dates of decision shall be excluded in computing the period of 3 years or 5 years as the case may be, for issue of order. It is important to note that the 'exclusion period' due to pendency of an issue is NOT limited to the case of the same taxpayer but of any other taxpayer. This is a clear measure to protect the interest of the Revenue provided 'proceedings under section 73 or 74 are initiated'. This is also referred to as 'call book' cases. Reference may be made to the circulars issued under earlier laws and GST regarding 'administrative discipline' where administration of 'call book' cases is discussed. This discussion may be found under section 6 of the CGST Act.
12. Any amount of self-assessed tax or interest payable, whether wholly or in part in accordance with a return furnished under section 39 shall be recovered under the provisions of section 79. It is important to understand what would constitute 'undisputed arrears'. While self-assessed tax is an undisputed arrear, interest being an automatic levy, unpaid interest on self-assessed tax would also be an undisputed arrear.
13. It is also provided that when the penalty is imposed under sections 73 and 74, no penalties shall be imposed under any other provisions of this Act for the same act or omission.

75.2. Comparative Review

These provisions of sections 73, 74, and 75 are much broader than the provisions contained in erstwhile Central Indirect Tax laws.

Earlier under the central excise and service tax laws, the demand of tax can be made up to a maximum of 5 years. The normal period for which the notice could be issued is 2 years under the central excise law and 30 months in service tax law. The VAT law seems to be quite different from the central excise and service tax provisions.

However, the conditions for such extended period are the same as under the erstwhile indirect tax laws. The meanings of 'fraud', 'wilful-misstatement' or 'suppression' are still to be understood in the same way as in the erstwhile law i.e., deliberate intent to avoid tax requires to be established and sustained.

Unlike the erstwhile law, the time limit of 3 years and 5 years is from the time of issue of orders and not for serving of show cause notice.

75.3. FAQs

Q1. Who has the power to issue a notice/ order?

Ans. "Proper officer" as defined under section 2(91) of the Act and assigned vide Circular

No. 3/3/2017-GST dated 05.07.2017 read with Circular No.31/05/2018-GST dated 09.02.2018 to exercise powers under sections 73 and 74 can issue notices and orders under the said sections.

Q2. When can proceedings be initiated under section 73/74?

Ans. The proceedings can be initiated when there is

- Short payment of tax
- Non-payment of tax
- Wrong input credit availed
- Wrong input credit utilized
- Erroneous refund

Q3. Is notice after a period of 5 years valid even if charge of suppression, fraud and wilful-misstatement are not sustained?

Ans. No, when the allegations of fraud, suppression or wilful-misstatement are not established, the notice issued under section 74 would get covered under section 73 and 3 years' time limit would be applicable for date of issue of order.

Q4. What is the condition for issuing a repeat notice under section 73(3) for a different period?

Ans. The condition is that the grounds relied upon should be the same as in the notice issued previously. In such cases, it is not essential to issue a detailed notice. It would suffice, if a statement specifying the alleged amounts is issued.

Q5. Whether there is any time limit to issue notice?

Ans. The time limit to issue notice is 3 months/ 6 months (in case of extended period) prior to the last day to pass the order i.e. 3 years or 5 years from the due date for furnishing annual return for the financial year to which the tax not paid or short paid or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised relates to or within 3 years or 5 years from the date of erroneous refund.

Q6. Is interest applicable in all cases, even if not specifically mentioned?

Ans. Yes, interest is applicable whenever the tax is payable whether or not it is specifically mentioned.

Q7. Can the assessee pay tax after the issue of notice and before an order? What is the benefit from such voluntary payments under different cases?

Ans. Yes. The assessee is given the following benefit to pay the tax after issue of notice and before issuance of order as follows:

In cases other than fraud, misstatement and suppression
When the assessee pays the amount payable after the issue of notice but within 30 days from the issue of SCN	Tax+ interest to be paid in full and complete waiver of penalty
In cases of fraud, misstatement and suppression
When the assessee pays the amount payable after the issue of notice but within 30 days from the issue of SCN	Tax and+ interest to be paid in full+ along with penalty @ 25% of tax

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any order or direction of any Appellate Authority or Appellate Tribunal or court or in any other provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder or any other law for the time being in force, every person who has collected from any other person any amount as representing the tax under this Act, and has not paid the said amount to the Government, shall forthwith pay the said amount to the Government, irrespective of whether the supplies in respect of which such amount was collected are taxable or not.

- (2) Where any amount is required to be paid to the Government under sub-section (1), and which has not been so paid, the proper officer may serve on the person liable to pay such amount a notice requiring him to show cause as to why the said amount as specified in the notice, should not be paid by him to the Government and why a penalty equivalent to the amount specified in the notice should not be imposed on him under the provisions of this Act.
- (3) The proper officer shall, after considering the representation, if any, made by the person on whom the notice is served under sub-section (2), determine the amount due from such person and thereupon such person shall pay the amount so determined.
- (4) The person referred to in sub-section (1) shall in addition to paying the amount referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (3) also be liable to pay interest thereon at the rate specified under section 50 from the date such amount was collected by him to the date such amount is paid by him to the Government.
- (5) An opportunity of hearing shall be granted where a request is received in writing from the person to whom the notice was issued to show cause.
- (6) The proper officer shall issue an order within one year from the date of issue of the notice.
- (7) Where the issuance of order is stayed by an order of the court or Appellate Tribunal, the period of such stay shall be excluded in computing the period of one year.
- (8) The proper officer, in his order, shall set out the relevant facts and the basis of his decision.
- (9) The amount paid to the Government under sub-section (1) or sub-section (3) shall be adjusted against the tax payable, if any, by the person in relation to the supplies referred to in sub-section (1).
- (10) Where any surplus is left after the adjustment under sub-section (9), the amount of such surplus shall either be credited to the Fund or refunded to the person who has borne the incidence of such amount.
- (11) The person who has borne the incidence of the amount, may apply for the refund of the same in accordance with the provisions of section 54.

Section or Rule	Description
Section 50	Interest on delayed payment of tax
Section 54	Refund of tax.

Section 33	Amount of tax to be indicated in tax invoice and other documents
Rule 142	Notice and order for demand of amounts payable under the Act

76.1 Introduction

This provision deals with payment of any amount collected as tax but not remitted to the Central/State Government or Union Territory. This section requires the person who collected the tax to make the payment forthwith to the Government regardless of whether the related supplies are taxable or not.

76.2 Analysis

- (i) This section makes it obligatory on every person who has collected from any other person any amount representing “tax under this Act”, to pay the said amount to the credit of the Central or State Government regardless of whether the supplies in respect of which the amount was collected, are taxable or not.
- (ii) It needs to be noted that there is no time limit also called ‘period of limitation’ for issue of notice under this section unlike under section 73 or 74. Take for example, sale of MRP goods where the MRP includes output tax carrying the ‘maximum price’ for sale in retail. Experts hold the view that MRP actually contains output tax and when goods are sold ‘at MRP’, it would be hit by this section. Experts who hold this view caution unregistered persons, composition taxpayers and taxpayers making exempt supplies to steer clear of selling MRP goods. It appears they need to sell ‘below MRP’ excluding output tax but after including input credit lost (refer below for effect of collecting ‘credit lost’). Refer discussions under section 32 for a conjoint reading and understanding on this topic.
- (iii) Before effecting recovery the proper officer has to serve a notice along with a summary in Form GST DRC-01, on any person who has collected any amount representing as tax requiring as to why –
  - the said amount should not be paid by him to the Government;
  - penalty equivalent to such amount specified in the notice should not be imposed on him.
- (iv) The person is permitted to make representation in Form GST DRC-06, against the notice served on him. The person ought to be given an opportunity of being heard where a request is made by such person in writing.
- (v) After considering such representation made by the person, the proper officer shall determine the amount due from the person and pass an order within one year from the date of issue of notice. Where the service of notice is stayed by order of the Court or Appellate Tribunal, the period covered by the stay shall stand excluded for the purpose of computing the time limit.

Further, a summary of such order shall be uploaded electronically in Form GST DRC-07, specifying therein the amount of tax, interest and penalty payable by the person chargeable with tax.

- (vi) The proper officer must pass a speaking order.
- (vii) Upon such determination, the person has to pay such amount determined.
- (viii) Interest at the rate specified under section 50 shall be paid on the amount collected as representing tax (either paid voluntarily or on determination by the proper officer). Interest shall be calculated from the date of collection of the amount till the date of deposit of the amount.
- (ix) The amount paid by such person to the credit of the Central Government or a State Government shall be adjusted against the tax payable by the person.
- (x) If any surplus is left after adjustment against the tax liability, it will be - credited to consumer welfare fund; or
  - refunded to the person who has borne the incidence of such amount.
- (xi) The person claiming such refund shall follow the conditions and procedure contained in section 54 of CGST Act.
- (xii) There appears to be no time limit to commence proceedings under this section. Experts hold the view that the principle of res judicata demands that when there is no time limit prescribed in the law a reasonable time limit must be allowed and nothing is more reasonable than the maximum time limit of 5 years specified in section 74.

It is important to note that in the context of central excise, where input credit was to be reversed on account of the customer being entitled to exemption from payment of duties, the larger Bench of the Tribunal held in Unison Metals Ltd. v. CCE, Ahd-I [(2006) 204 ELT 323 (LB-Tri.)], that recovery of 'CENVAT loss' would not attract the mischief of section 11D as it was not 'duty of excise' collected liable to be paid to the Government. GST too denies credit under section 17(2) of CGST Act where supplies made are exempt. It may be noted that rate Notification 11/2017-Central Tax (Rate) dated 27.06.2017 prescribing reduced rate of tax with condition of non-availment of input tax credit as well as exemption Notification No 12/2017-Central Tax (Rate) dated 27.06.2017 prescribing exemption up to certain value limit or in certain circumstances, are enjoined with a 'condition' of reversal of credit as read under explanation 4(iv)(b) along with section 17(2) of the CGST Act.

76.3 Comparative analysis

Under the erstwhile tax laws, similar provision existed in Central Excise Law<sup>8</sup>, Customs Law<sup>9</sup> as well as Service Tax Law<sup>10</sup>.

Also, similar provision existed in almost all the State VAT laws as well.

76.4 FAQs

Q1. What is the interest rate applicable on delayed payment of amount collected representing it as tax?

Ans. According to section 50, the rate of interest cannot exceed 18%. The rate of interest has been specified @ 18% per annum by Notification No. 13/2017 – Central Tax dated 28.06.2017.

Q2. How is the amount of surplus left after adjustment with tax payable dealt with?

Ans. Where any surplus is left after the adjustment against the tax payable, the amount of such surplus shall either be credited to the Consumer Welfare Fund or, as the case may be, refunded to the person who has borne the incidence of such amount.

Q3. What is the procedure to be followed by the person on receipt of determination of demand of tax collected but not deposited with the Central or a State Government from the proper officer?

Ans. The person will be given an opportunity of being heard and after that if any demand arises, then tax, interest and penalty has to be paid accordingly.

76.5 MCQs

Q1. Any amount of tax collected shall be deposited to the credit of the Central or a State Government,

- (a) Only when the supplies are taxable
- (b) Regardless of whether the supplies in respect of which such amount was collected are taxable or not.
- (c) Only when the supplies are not taxable
- (d) None of the above.

Ans. (b) Regardless of whether the supplies in respect of which such amount was collected are taxable or not.

Q2. Within how many years should the proper officer issue an order from the date of notice?

STATUTORY Provisions*77. Tax wrongfully collected and paid to Central Government or State Government

- (1) A registered person who has paid the Central tax and State tax or, as the case may be, the Central tax and the Union territory tax on a transaction considered by him to be an intra-State supply, but which is subsequently held to be an inter-State supply, shall be refunded the amount of taxes so paid in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.
- (2) A registered person who has paid integrated tax on a transaction considered by him to be an inter-State supply, but which is subsequently held to be an intra-State supply, shall not be required to pay any interest on the amount of central tax and State tax or, as the case may be, the Central tax and the Union territory tax payable.

Related Provisions of the Statute

Section or Rule	Description
Section 54	Refund of tax.

77.1 Introduction

This provision deals with a situation when CGST/SGST or CGST/UTGST is paid on any inter-State supply. Further, it covers interest implication in a situation where IGST is paid on a transaction of intra-State supply.

77.2 Analysis

- (i) This provision deals with a situation where a taxable person wrongly pays CGST/SGST or CGST/UTGST on the transaction treating it as intra-State supply, but which is subsequently held to be inter-State supply. Upon payment of IGST on such transaction, the CGST/SGST or CGST/UTGST will to be refunded. The refund of such CGST/SGST or CGST/UTGST would be granted subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in this regard.

Further, interest is not required to be paid on the IGST payable in terms of section 19 (2) of the IGST Act.

- (ii) If a taxable person wrongly pays IGST by treating a supply as inter-State supply, which is subsequently held to be intra-State supply, then interest is not required to be paid on the CGST/SGST or CGST/UTGST payable. The refund of such IGST would be granted subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in this regard in terms of section 19(1) of the IGST Act.

It may be noted that the jurisdiction to demand for CGST (and SGST) is contained in section 77(1) whereas jurisdiction to demand IGST is contained in section 19(1) of IGST Act. And relief from payment of interest on CGST-SGST is allowed under section 77(2) whereas relief from payment of interest on IGST is allowed under section 19(2) of IGST Act.

Clarification in respect of refund of tax specified in section 77(1) of the CGST Act and section 19(1) of the IGST Act vide Circular No. 162/18/2021-GST dt. 25th September 2021

(i) Interpretation of the term “subsequently held”

The term “subsequently held” given in section 77 of CGST Act and section 19 of IGST Act covers both the cases where the inter-State or intra-State supply made by a taxpayer, is either subsequently found by taxpayer himself as intra-State or inter-State respectively or where the inter-State or intra-State supply made by a taxpayer is subsequently found/ held as intra-State or inter-State respectively by the tax officer in any proceeding.

(ii) The relevant date for claiming refund under section 77 of the CGST Act, 2017/ section 19 of the IGST Act, 2017

Through the insertion of sub-rule (1A) in rule 89 vide aforementioned Notification No. 35/2021-Central Tax dated 24.09.2021, it has been clarified that the refund under section 77 of CGST Act/ section 19 of IGST Act, 2017 can be claimed before the expiry of two years from the date of payment of tax under the correct head. However, in cases, where the taxpayer has made the payment in the correct head before the date of issuance of Notification No.35/2021-Central Tax dated 24.09.2021, the refund application under section 77 of the CGST Act/ section 19 of the IGST Act can be filed before the expiry of two years from the date of issuance of the said notification. i.e., from 24.09.2021.

Application of sub-rule (1A) of rule 89 read with section 77 of the CGST Act / section 19 of the IGST Act has been explained through various illustrations in the Circular.

77.3 FAQs

Q1. What is the remedy available when tax is paid wrongly as CGST/SGST and subsequently the supply is considered as inter-State supply attracting IGST?

Ans. Refund can be claimed by the taxable person who has paid CGST/SGST or CGST/UTGST on payment of IGST subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

Q2. Is interest payable on CGST/SGST or CGST/UTGST, when IGST was wrongly paid on the transaction of intra-State supply?

Ans. When IGST was wrongly paid on intra-State supply, there is no requirement to pay any interest on the amount so paid when CGST/SGST or CGST/UTGST becomes payable.

77.4 MCQs

Q1. Which section deals with tax wrongly collected and deposited with Central or State Government?

- (a) Section 57
- (b) Section 58
- (c) Section 77
- (d) Section 79

Ans. (c) Section 77

Q2. If CGST/SGST is wrongly remitted instead of IGST, the tax payer can -

- (a) seek refund
- (b) adjust against future liability
- (c) take re-credit
- (d) file a civil suit for recovery

Ans. (a) seek refund

Reference could be made to the following decision of the Kerala High Court decision with regard to the above provision:

Saji S, Proprietor, Adithya And Ambadi Traders [(2018) 19 G.S.T.L. 385 (Ker.)]

Issue:

Petitioner, a registered dealer, had purchased goods from Chennai . While transporting the goods to Kerala, the same were detained while in transit by the Assistant State Tax Officer . Based on the demand made, the consignor paid tax and penalty but the remittance was made under the head 'SGST' - Since the remittance should have been made under the head IGST, the authorities refused to release the goods and hence this writ petition

Held:

Section 77 of the GST Act, 2017 provides for the refund of the tax paid mistakenly under one head instead of another; however, rule 4 of the GST Refund Rules speaks of adjustment - Where the amount of refund is completely adjusted against any outstanding demand under the Act, an order giving details of the adjustment is to be issued in Part A of Form GST RFD-07 - Under these circumstances, the High Court does not find any difficulty for the respondent officials to allow the petitioner's request and get the amount transferred from the head 'SGST' to 'IGST' . It is inequitable for the authorities to let the petitioner suffer on the count that such transfer may take some time -.Second respondent directed to release the goods forthwith along with the vehicle and, then, ensure that the tax and penalty which already stood remitted under the 'SGST' is transferred to the head 'IGST' . Petition accordingly disposed by the High Court.

Statutory provisions

78. Initiation of recovery proceedings

Any amount payable by a taxable person in pursuance of an order passed under this Act shall be paid by such person within a period of three months from the date of service of such order failing which recovery proceedings shall be initiated:

Provided that where the proper officer considers it expedient in the interest of revenue, he may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, require the said taxable person to make such payment within such period less than a period of three months as may be specified by him.

Related Provisions of the Statute

Section or Rule	Description
Section 79	Recovery of tax
Section 84	Continuation and validation of certain recovery proceedings

78.1. Introduction

This provision empowers the proper officer to collect any amount which is payable by a taxable person in pursuance of an order passed under the Act.

78.2 Analysis

- (a) This section enables initiation of proceedings for the recovery of the amount from a taxable person.
- (b) The amount shall be paid by taxable person within a period of 3 months of the service of order, failing which the proper officer shall initiate recovery proceedings. Note that time limit to file an appeal under section 107 is 3 months and in harmony with that time limit, recovery action is kept in abeyance until that time expires. An additional time to file appeal (1 month before Appellate Authority and 3 months before Appellate Tribunal) is permitted. Recovery action need not be kept in abeyance until the additional time is granted . Additional time is available not as a right but as a remedy if sufficient cause is shown. Care must be taken to avoid delay in filing appeal so that recovery action is not initiated.
- (c) If it is in the interest of Revenue, the proper officer after recording the reasons in writing, may initiate the recovery proceedings even before the completion of the said period of 3 months. However, this section empowers the proper officer in the interest of Revenue (after recording the reasons) to initiate recovery proceedings even before the expiry of the 3 month period.

78.3 Comparative review

There is no similar provision under erstwhile Central Indirect Tax laws.

78.4 FAQs

Q1. When is the amount payable by a taxable person in pursuance of order passed under this Act?

Ans. In the normal course, any amount payable by a taxable person in pursuance of an order passed under the Act shall be paid by such person within 3 months from the date of service of such order.

Q2. When can the proper officer require a taxable person to make payment of the amount specified in the order, within such shorter period as may be specified by him?

Ans. When the proper officer considers it necessary in the interest of Revenue, he may, after recording reasons in writing, ask the said taxable person, to make the payment within such shorter period as may be specified by him.

- (b) the proper officer may recover or may require any other specified officer to recover the amount so payable by detaining and selling any goods belonging to such person which are under the control of the proper officer or such other specified officer;
- (c)
  - (i) the proper officer may, by a notice in writing, require any other person from whom money is due or may become due to such person or who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of such person, to pay to the Government either forthwith upon the money becoming due or being held, or within the time specified in the notice not being before the money becomes due or is held, so much of the money as is sufficient to pay the amount due from such person or the whole of the money when it is equal to or less than that amount;
  - (ii) every person to whom the notice is issued under sub-clause (i) shall be bound to comply with such notice, and in particular, where any such notice is issued to a post office, banking company or an insurer, it shall not be necessary to produce any pass book, deposit receipt, policy or any other document for the purpose of any entry, endorsement or the like being made before payment is made, notwithstanding any rule, practice or requirement to the contrary;
  - (iii) in case the person to whom a notice under sub-clause (i) has been issued, fails to make the payment in pursuance thereof to the Government, he shall be deemed to be a defaulter in respect of the amount specified in the notice and all the consequences of this Act or the rules made thereunder shall follow;
  - (iv) the officer issuing a notice under sub-clause (i) may, at any time, amend or revoke such notice or extend the time for making any payment in pursuance of the notice;
  - (v) any person making any payment in compliance with a notice issued under sub-clause (i) shall be deemed to have made the payment under the authority of the person in default and such payment being credited to the Government shall be deemed to constitute a good and sufficient

- discharge of the liability of such person to the person in default to the extent of the amount specified in the receipt;*
- (vi) any person discharging any liability to the person in default after service on him of the notice issued under sub-clause (i) shall be personally liable to the Government to the extent of the liability discharged or to the extent of the liability of the person in default for tax, interest and penalty, whichever is less;*
  - (vii) where a person on whom a notice is served under sub-clause (i) proves to the satisfaction of the officer issuing the notice that the money demanded or any part thereof was not due to the person in default or that he did not hold any money for or on account of the person in default, at the time the notice was served on him, nor is the money demanded or any part thereof, likely to become due to the said person or be held for or on account of such person, nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to require the person on whom the notice has been served to pay to the Government any such money or part thereof;*
- (d) the proper officer may, in accordance with the rules to be made in this behalf, distrain any movable or immovable property belonging to or under the control of such person, and detain the same until the amount payable is paid; and in case, any part of the said amount payable or of the cost of the distress or keeping of the property, remains unpaid for a period of thirty days next after any such distress, may cause the said property to be sold and with the proceeds of such sale, may satisfy the amount payable and the costs including cost of sale remaining unpaid and shall render the surplus amount, if any, to such person;*
- (e) the proper officer may prepare a certificate signed by him specifying the amount due from such person and send it to the Collector of the district in which such person owns any property or resides or carries on his business or to any officer authorised by the Government and the said Collector or the said officer, on receipt of such certificate, shall proceed to recover from such person the amount specified thereunder as if it were an arrear of land revenue;*
- (f) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, the proper officer may file an application to the appropriate Magistrate and such Magistrate shall proceed to recover from such person the amount specified thereunder as if it were a fine imposed by him.*
- (2) Where the terms of any bond or other instrument executed under this Act or any rules or regulations made thereunder provide that any amount due under such instrument may be recovered in the manner laid down in sub-section (1), the amount* may, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, be recovered in accordance with the provisions of that sub-section.

- (3) Where any amount of tax, interest or penalty is payable by a person to the Government under any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder and which remains unpaid, the proper officer of State tax or Union territory tax, during the course of recovery of said tax arrears, may recover the amount from the said person as if it were an arrear of State tax or Union territory tax and credit the amount so recovered to the account of the Government.
- (4) Where the amount recovered under sub-section (3) is less than the amount due to the Central Government and State Government, the amount to be credited to the account of the respective Governments shall be in proportion to the amount due to each such Government.

<sup>11</sup>[Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the word person shall include "distinct persons" as referred to in sub-section (4) or, as the case may be, sub-section (5) of section 25.]

- (6) On payment of the full bid amount, the proper officer shall transfer the possession and ownership of the said goods or conveyance to the successful bidder and issue a certificate in FORM GST DRC-12.

- (7) The proper officer shall cancel the process and proceed for re-auction where no bid is received or the auction is considered to be non-competitive due to lack of adequate participation or due to low bids.

- (8) Where an appeal has been filed by the person under the provisions of subsection (1) read with sub-section (6) of section 107, the proceedings for recovery of penalty by sale of goods or conveyance detained or seized in transit under this rule shall be deemed to be stayed.

Provided that this sub-rule shall not be applicable in respect of goods of perishable or hazardous nature.]<sup>13</sup>

145. Recovery from a third person.

- 1) The proper officer may serve upon a person referred to in clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 79 (hereafter referred to in this rule as "the third person"), a notice in Form GST DRC-13 directing him to deposit the amount specified in the notice.
- 2) Where the third person makes the payment of the amount specified in the notice issued under sub-rule (1), the proper officer shall issue a certificate in Form GST DRC-14 to the third person clearly indicating the details of the liability so discharged.

146. Recovery through execution of a decree, etc.

Where any amount is payable to the defaulter in the execution of a decree of a civil court for the payment of money or for sale in the enforcement of a mortgage or charge, the proper officer shall send a request in FORM GST DRC- 15 to the said court and the court shall, subject to the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), execute the attached decree, and credit the net proceeds for settlement of the amount recoverable.

147. Recovery by sale of movable or immovable property.

- (1) The proper officer shall prepare a list of movable and immovable property belonging to the defaulter, estimate their value as per the prevalent market price and issue an order of attachment or distraint and a notice for sale in Form GST DRC- 16 prohibiting any transaction with regard to such movable and immovable property as may be required for the recovery of the amount due:

Provided that the attachment of any property in a debt not secured by a negotiable instrument, a share in a corporation, or other movable property not in the possession of the defaulter except for property deposited in, or in the custody of any Court, shall be attached in the manner provided in rule 151.

- (2) The proper officer shall send a copy of the order of attachment or distraint to the concerned Revenue Authority or Transport Authority or any such Authority to place encumbrance on the said movable or immovable property, which shall be removed only on the written instructions from the proper officer to that effect.
- (3) Where the property subject to the attachment or distraint under sub-rule (1) is-
  - a) an immovable property, the order of attachment or distraint shall be affixed on the said property and shall remain affixed till the confirmation of sale;
  - b) a movable property, the proper officer shall seize the said property in accordance with the provisions of chapter XIV of the Act and the custody of the said property shall either be taken by the proper officer himself or an officer authorised by him.

- (4) The property attached or distrained shall be sold through auction, including e-auction, for which a notice shall be issued in Form GST DRC- 17 clearly indicating the property to be sold and the purpose of sale.
- (5) Notwithstanding anything contained in the provision of this Chapter, where the property to be sold is a negotiable instrument or a share in a corporation, the proper officer may, instead of selling it by public auction, sell such instrument or a share through a broker and the said broker shall deposit to the Government so much of the proceeds of such sale, reduced by his commission, as may be required for the discharge of the amount under recovery and pay the amount remaining, if any, to the owner of such instrument or a share.
- (6) The proper officer may specify the amount of pre-bid deposit to be furnished in the manner specified by such officer, to make the bidders eligible to participate in the auction, which may be returned to the unsuccessful bidders or, forfeited in case the successful bidder fails to make the payment of the full amount, as the case may be.
- (7) The last day for the submission of the bid or the date of the auction shall not be earlier than fifteen days from the date of issue of the notice referred to in sub-rule (4):
Provided that where the goods are of perishable or hazardous nature or where the expenses of keeping them in custody are likely to exceed their value, the proper officer may sell them forthwith.
- (8) Where any claim is preferred or any objection is raised with regard to the attachment or distraint of any property on the ground that such property is not liable to such attachment or distraint, the proper officer shall investigate the claim or objection and may postpone the sale for such time as he may deem fit.
- (9) The person making the claim or objection must adduce evidence to show that on the date of the order issued under sub-rule (1) he had some interest in, or was in possession of, the property in question under attachment or distraint.
- (10) Where, upon investigation, the proper officer is satisfied that, for the reason stated in the claim or objection, such property was not, on the said date, in the possession of the defaulter or of any other person on his behalf or that, being in the possession of the defaulter on the said date, it was in his possession, not on his own account or as his own property, but on account of or in trust for any other person, or partly on his own account and partly on account of some other person, the proper officer shall make an order releasing the property, wholly or to such extent as he thinks fit, from attachment or distraint.
- (11) Where the proper officer is satisfied that the property was, on the said date, in the possession of the defaulter as his own property and not on account of any other person, or was in the possession of some other person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of a tenant or other person paying rent to him, the proper officer shall reject the claim and proceed with the process of sale through auction.

- (12) The proper officer shall issue a notice to the successful bidder in Form GST DRC-11 requiring him to make the payment within a period of fifteen days from the date of such notice and after the said payment is made, he shall issue a certificate in Form GST DRC12 specifying the details of the property, date of transfer, the details of the bidder and the amount paid and upon issuance of such certificate, the rights, title and interest in the property shall be deemed to be transferred to such bidder:

Provided that where the highest bid is made by more than one person and one of them is a co-owner of the property, he shall be deemed to be the successful bidder.

- (13) Any amount, including stamp duty, tax or fee payable in respect of the transfer of the property specified in sub-rule (12), shall be paid to the Government by the person to whom the title in such property is transferred.
- (14) Where the defaulter pays the amount under recovery, including any expenses incurred on the process of recovery, before the issue of the notice under sub-rule (4), the proper officer shall cancel the process of auction and release the goods.
- (15) The proper officer shall cancel the process and proceed for re-auction where no bid is received or the auction is considered to be non-competitive due to lack of adequate participation or due to low bids.

148. Prohibition against bidding or purchase by officer.

No officer or other person having any duty to perform in connection with any sale under the provisions of this Chapter shall, either directly or indirectly, bid for, acquire or attempt to acquire any interest in the property sold.

149. Prohibition against sale on holidays.

No sale under the rules under the provision of this chapter shall take place on a Sunday or other general holidays recognized by the Government or on any day which has been notified by the Government to be a holiday for the area in which the sale is to take place.

150. Assistance by police.

The proper officer may seek such assistance from the officer in-charge of the jurisdictional police station as may be necessary in the discharge of his duties and the said officer-in-charge shall depute sufficient number of police officers for providing such assistance.

151. Attachment of debts and shares, etc.

- 1) A debt not secured by a negotiable instrument, a share in a corporation, or other movable property not in the possession of the defaulter except for property deposited in, or in the custody of any court shall be attached by a written order in Form GST DRC-16 prohibiting. -

- a) in the case of a debt, the creditor from recovering the debt and the debtor from making payment thereof until the receipt of a further order from the proper officer;
  - b) in the case of a share, the person in whose name the share may be standing from transferring the same or receiving any dividend thereon;
  - c) in the case of any other movable property, the person in possession of the same from giving it to the defaulter.
- 2) A copy of such order shall be affixed on some conspicuous part of the office of the proper officer, and another copy shall be sent, in the case of debt, to the debtor, and in the case of shares, to the registered address of the corporation and in the case of other movable property, to the person in possession of the same.
  - 3) A debtor, prohibited under clause (a) of sub-rule (1), may pay the amount of his debt to the proper officer, and such payment shall be deemed as paid to the defaulter.

152. Attachment of property in custody of courts or Public Officer.

Where the property to be attached is in the custody of any court or Public Officer, the proper officer shall send the order of attachment to such court or officer, requesting that such property, and any interest or dividend becoming payable thereon, may be held till the recovery of the amount payable.

153. Attachment of interest in partnership

- 1) Where the property to be attached consists of an interest of the defaulter, being a partner, in the partnership property, the proper officer may make an order charging the share of such partner in the partnership property and profits with payment of the amount due under the certificate, and may, by the same or subsequent order, appoint a receiver of the share of such partner in the profits, whether already declared or accruing, and of any other money which may become due to him in respect of the partnership, and direct accounts and enquiries and make an order for the sale of such interest or such other order as the circumstances of the case may require.
- 2) The other partners shall be at liberty at any time to redeem the interest charged or, in the case of a sale being directed, to purchase the same.

- (1) The amounts so realised from the sale of goods or conveyance, movable or immovable property, for the recovery of dues from a defaulter or for recovery of penalty payable under sub-section (3) of section 129 shall,-
- (a) first, be appropriated against the administrative cost of the recovery process;
- (b) next, be appropriated against the amount to be recovered or to the payment of the penalty payable under sub-section (3) of section 129, as the case may be;
- (c) next, be appropriated against any other amount due from the defaulter under the Act or the Integrated Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 or any of the State Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 and the rules made thereunder; and
- (d) the balance, if any, shall be credited to the electronic cash ledger of the owner of the goods or conveyance as the case may be, in case the person is registered under the Act, and where the said person is not required to be registered under the Act, the said amount shall be credited to the bank account of the person concerned;
- (2) where it is not possible to pay the balance of sale proceeds, as per clause (d) of sub-rule (1), to the person concerned within a period of six months from the date of sale of such goods or conveyance or such further period as the proper officer may allow, such balance of sale proceeds shall be deposited with the Fund.]<sup>14</sup>

155. Recovery through land revenue authority

Where an amount is to be recovered in accordance with the provisions of clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 79, the proper officer shall send a certificate to the Collector or Deputy Commissioner of the district or any other officer authorised in this behalf in Form GST DRC-18 to recover from the person concerned, the amount specified in the certificate as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

156. Recovery through court.

Where an amount is to be recovered as if it were a fine imposed under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, the proper officer shall make an application before the appropriate Magistrate in accordance with the provisions of clause (f) of sub-section (1) of section 79 in Form GST DRC- 19 to recover from the person concerned, the amount specified thereunder as if it were a fine imposed by him.

Where any person has become surety for the amount due by the defaulter, he may be proceeded against under this Chapter as if he were the defaulter.

160. Recovery from company in liquidation

Where the company is under liquidation as specified in section 88, the Commissioner shall notify the liquidator for the recovery of any amount representing tax, interest, penalty or any other amount due under the Act in Form GST DRC -24.

79.1 Introduction

The section empowers the Departmental officers to collect/recover any amount which is payable under GST Act. Section 79 provides for the manner in which the recovery proceedings can be carried out.

79.2 Analysis

(i) When any amount that is payable by any person (hereinafter referred to as defaulter) to Government is not paid, the officer can adopt one or more of the methods set out in section 79 for recovery of amounts payable. The methods are :

(a) Deduction out of any money owing to the defaulter:

- There should be some money which is being owed by the Government to the defaulter;
- The amount payable can be deducted out of the said amount due to defaulter;
- The deduction can be done by the proper officer himself or he may ask any other specified officer to do so.
- The proper officer shall specify the amount so deducted in Form GST DRC-09 as prescribed in Rule 143 of the CGST Rules.

(b) By detaining and selling the goods belonging to the defaulter:

- There should be goods which are under the control of the proper officer or other specified officer;
- Such goods should belong to the person who is liable to pay any amount.
- The goods may be detained and sold by the proper officer or such other specified officer on request by the proper officer;
- Out of the realisation, the amount payable by defaulter shall be recovered.
- As per rule 144 of CGST Rules, the goods shall be sold through a process of auction including e-auction, for which a notice shall be issued in Form GST DRC-10 clearly indicating the goods to be sold and the purpose of sale. The last day for submission of bid or the date of auction shall not be earlier than 15 days from the date of issue of the above notice. However, if the goods are perishable or hazardous in nature or the expenses of storing them is likely to exceed the value of such goods, then the proper officer may sell them forthwith..

- The proper officer shall issue a notice to the successful bidder in Form GST DRC-11 requiring him to make the payment within a period of 15 days from the date of auction. On payment of the full bid amount, the possession of the said goods shall be transferred to the successful bidder and proper officer shall issue a certificate in Form GST DRC-12.
- Where the defaulter pays the amount under recovery, including any expenses incurred on process of recovery, before the issue of notice issued in Form GST DRC-10 (notice of auction), then the proper officer shall cancel the process of auction and release the goods.

(c) Recovery from any other person who owes money to defaulter.

- This applies when any other person -
  - owes money to the defaulter;
  - is likely to become due to pay money to the defaulter;
  - holds money for or on account of the defaulter;
  - may subsequently hold money for or on account of the defaulter.
- In such cases the proper officer may issue notice in writing in Form GST DRC-13 to such other person to pay to the credit of the Government –
  - forthwith
    - upon the money becoming due or
    - being held, or
  - at or within the time specified in the notice not being before the money becomes due or is held.
- The amount directed to be paid in the notice shall be –
  - where the amount due/held by such other person is more than amount due by the defaulter – to the extent of amount due by the defaulter;
  - where the amount due/held by such other person is equal to or less than amount due by defaulter - whole of money due/held.
- Such other person to whom such notice is issued is bound to comply with the same.

- In cases where such notice is issued to a post office, banking company or an insurer, they are required to comply with the same without insisting on production of any passbook, deposit receipt, policy or any other document for the purpose of any entry, endorsement or the like, though that might be the normal practice.
- If such person to whom such notice is issued, fails to comply, he shall be treated as defaulter to the extent of the amount mentioned in the notice and all other consequences under the law shall follow.
- Where the third person makes the payment of the amount specified in the notice in Form GST DRC-13, then the proper officer shall issue a certificate in Form GST DRC-14 to the third person clearly indicating the details of the liability so discharged.
- The notice so issued may be amended or revoked or time may be extended for making any payment;
- The payment made by such other person in accordance with the notice issued, shall be deemed to have made the payment on behalf of such defaulter and the amount credited to the Government shall be deemed to constitute the discharge of liability of such defaulter to the extent of the payment made. Consequently no civil suit or other proceedings could be filed or initiated by the defaulter on the notice, who has complied with this provision.
- Instead of crediting the amount to the Government, if such person makes the payment to the defaulter, then such other person shall be personally liable to the Government to the extent of the amount due by the defaulter or amount discharged to the defaulter whichever is lower.
- However such person shall not be personally liable, if he proves to the officer issuing the notice that
  - the money demanded or any part thereof was not due to the person in default or
  - at the time of service of the notice he did not hold any money for or on account of the person in default,
  - the money was not demanded from him; or
  - any part of the money demanded is not likely to become due to such other person or
  - any part of the money will not likely be held for or on account of such person.

(d) Collection by detention of any movable or immovable property

- The proper officer in accordance with the rule 147 of the CGST Rules framed for this purpose, may inter alia
  - prepare a list of movable and immovable property belonging to the defaulter,
  - estimate their value as per the prevalent market price and
  - issue an order of attachment or distraint and a notice for sale in Form GST DRC-16 prohibiting any transaction with regard to such movable and immovable property as may be required for the recovery of the amount due.
  - The property attached or distrained shall be sold through auction, including e-auction, for which a notice shall be issued in Form GST DRC- 17 clearly indicating the property to be sold and the purpose of sale. The proper officer shall issue notice in Form GST DRC- 11 to successful bidder for payment within 15 days of such notice. Thereafter on payment, the proper officer shall issue Certificate in Form GST DRC- 12
- Such detention of any movable or immovable property belonging to defaulter will be done till the amount payable is paid.
- If any part of the amount payable or cost of distress or keeping the property is not paid within 30 days from such distress, the proper officer may sell the property and with the proceeds he may adjust towards:
  - amount payable;
  - costs including the cost of sale remaining unpaid;
- After such adjustment, the remaining surplus shall be returned to the defaulter.

(e) Recovery through District Collector

- Proper officer may prepare a certificate signed by him specifying the amount due from the defaulter.
- Such certificate will be sent to the Collector of the District or Deputy Commissioner or any other officer authorised in this behalf (DC) in Form GST DRC-18 in which the defaulter-
  - owns any property; or
  - resides; or
  - carries on his business.

- The DC on receipt of such certificate shall proceed to recover from such defaulter the amount specified in the certificate as if such amount is arrears of land revenue.

(f) Recovery through Magistrate\Court

- This provision has overriding effect over the Code of Criminal Procedure.
  - In this case the proper officer may file an application in Form GST DRC-19 to the appropriate Magistrate as per section 79(1)(f).
  - The Magistrate to whom the application is made shall proceed to recover from the defaulter, the amount specified in the application as if it is fine imposed by such Magistrate.
- (ii) Under the Act, Rules or Regulations there would be requirements to execute bond or other instruments. If such bond/instrument provides that the amount becoming due shall be recovered in terms of section 79(1), then the recovery shall be effected as discussed above irrespective of whether other modes of recovery exist or not.
- (iii) Further it is also provided that, either SGST Officer/ UTGST Officer while recovering SGST/UTGST arrears may also recover any amount due from the defaulter the amount due from him under CGST Act as if it is SGST/UTGST and later pass it on to the Central Government.
- (iv) Similar provision also exists in SGST/UTGST Act for recovery of any amount due under SGST Act/UTGST Act to be recovered by CGST officers while recovering arrears of CGST as though the amount due was CGST and later pass it on to the concerned State Government/Union Territory.
- (v) It is also provided that in case where the SGST officer/UTGST officer also collects CGST in the course of collection of SGST/UTGST or vice versa, where the amount recovered is not fully covering both the liabilities, the amount collected has to be apportioned between Centre and State/Union Territory in the same proportion of the amounts due.
- (vi) Recovery through execution of a decree, etc.- Where any amount is payable to the defaulter in the execution of a decree of a civil court for the payment of money or for sale in the enforcement of a mortgage or charge, the proper officer shall send a request in Form GST DRC- 15 to the said court and the court shall, subject to the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, execute the attached decree, and credit the net proceeds for settlement of the amount recoverable.
- (vii) Recovery from surety- Where any person has become surety for the amount due by the defaulter, he may be proceeded as if he is the defaulter.
- (viii) Recovery from Company under liquidation- Where the company is under liquidation, the Commissioner shall notify the liquidator for the recovery of any amount representing tax, interest, penalty or any other amount due under the Act in Form GST DRC-24.

- (ix) A new rule 144A (Recovery of penalty by sale of goods or conveyance detained or seized in transit) has been inserted with effect from 01.01.2022. The new rule lays down that where the person transporting any goods or the owner of such goods fails to pay the amount of penalty section 129(1) within fifteen days from the date of receipt of the copy of the order passed under section 129(3), the proper officer shall proceed for sale or disposal of the goods or conveyance so detained or seized by preparing an inventory and estimating the market value of such goods or conveyance.

If the detained or seized goods are perishable or hazardous in nature or are likely to depreciate in value with passage of time, the said period of fifteen days may be reduced by the proper officer. The said goods or conveyance shall be sold through a process of auction, including e-auction.

- (x) Rule 154 (Disposal of proceeds of sale of goods or conveyance and movable or immovable property) has been substituted with effect from the 01.01.2022 to provide that such proceeds shall now be appropriated against the amount to be recovered or to the payment of the penalty payable section 129(3), as the case may be, after being appropriated against administrative cost of the recovery process. Further, balance amount, if any, instead of paying directly to the defaulter, shall now be credited to the electronic cash ledger of the owner of the goods or conveyance in case the person is registered or else shall be credited to his bank account. However, where the balance of sale proceeds cannot be so paid within a period of six months from the date of sale of such goods or conveyance or such further period as the proper officer may allow, such balance of sale proceeds shall be deposited with the Fund.

79.3 Comparative Review

Under the erstwhile tax laws, similar provision existed in Central Excise Law<sup>15</sup>, Customs Law<sup>16</sup> as well as Service Tax Law<sup>17</sup>. In the context of section 87 of the Finance Act, 1994, the Karnataka High Court in UOI v. Prashanthi [(2016)TIOL1127(HC-KAR)ST] held that such recovery cannot be effected before determination of liability under section 73.

Also, similar provision existed in almost all the State VAT laws as well.

Related Provisions of the Statute

Section or Rule	Description
Section 50	Interest on delayed payment of tax

80.1 Introduction

This section permits a taxable person to make payment of an amount due on instalment basis, other than the amount due as per self-assessed return. The term 'instalments' in general parlance would mean equated periodical payments (money due) spread over an agreed period of time. This provision happens to be a beneficial piece of law to the tax payers to pay the demand in instalments along with interest.

80.2 Analysis

- (i) This section empowers the Commissioner to grant permission only to the taxable person to make payment of any amount due on instalment basis, on an application filed electronically in Form GST DRC-20 (Refer Rule 158).

The Commissioner after considering the request by the taxable person (in Form GST DRC-20) and report of the jurisdictional office, may issue an order in Form GST DRC-21, allowing the taxable person to either extend the time or allow payment of any amount due under the Act on instalment basis.

- (ii) This section applies to amounts due other than the self-assessed liability shown in any return.
- (iii) The instalment period shall not exceed 24 months.
- (iv) The taxable person shall also be liable to pay prescribed interest on the amount due from the first day such tax was due to be payable till the date the tax is paid.
- (v) If default occurs in payment of any one instalment the taxable person would be required to pay the whole outstanding balance payable on such date of default itself without further notice.

80.3 Comparative review

These provisions are broadly similar to the provisions contained in erstwhile Karnataka VAT Rules, 2005 (Rule 53) However, KVAT law specifies the time frame for interest payments to be the period up to the month the last instalment is due. Further, the above provision has been replicated in the GST Act, from the KVAT law.

Under the Central Indirect Taxes, it was allowed by the Department in exceptional cases although express provisions were not there.

80.4 FAQs

Q1. Whether an application is to be made to pay the amount due in instalments?

Ans. Yes, an application should be made by a taxable person to the Commissioner stating the reasons for his/her request to make payment in instalments. (in Form GST DRC-20)

Q2. Can an unregistered person be covered under the said provisions?

Ans. A taxable person only is covered by the provision. Section 2(107) defines taxable person as “a person who is registered or liable to be registered under Section 22 or Section 24”. Hence unregistered person cannot opt the benefit of this provision.

Q3. From which date does the interest liability arise?

Ans. Interest is liable to be paid from the date on which the said amount of tax became due to be paid till the actual payment of tax i.e., last instalment.

Q4. 'A' requested the Commissioner to provide the benefit to pay ₹ 5,00,000/- under instalments. The Commissioner directs 'A' to make the payment in five monthly instalments. How to pay the interest?

Ans. It is assumed that the actual date on which the tax was required to be paid was 06.01.2019. Benefit of instalment was granted by Commissioner on 02.01.2020 to be paid w.e.f. 02.01.2020 onwards over 5 instalment as under:

Payment date	Interest to be paid as per section 50 – No of days	Amount on which interest to be paid
1 st Instalment – 02.01.2020	06.01.2019 to 01.01.2020 = 361 days	₹ 1,00,000/-
2 nd Instalment – 02.02.2020	06.01.2019 to 01.02.2020 = 392 days	₹ 1,00,000/-
3 rd Instalment – 02.03.2020	06.01.2019 to 01.03.2020 = 421 days	₹ 1,00,000/-
4 th Instalment - 02.04.2020	06.01.2019 to 01.04.2020 = 452 days	₹ 1,00,000/-
5 th Instalment – 02.5.2020	06.01.2019 to 01.05.2020 = 432 days	₹ 1,00,000/-

Q5. What will happen if the taxable person fails to pay any one instalment on its due date?

Ans. In such a case, the entire outstanding balance payable as on the said due date shall forthwith become due and payable without any further notice and be liable for recovery.

- (a) Commissioner
- (b) Assistant Commissioner
- (c) Chief Commissioner
- (d) both (a) and (b)

Ans. (a) Commissioner

Statutory Provisions

81. Transfer of property to be void in certain cases

Where a person, after any amount has become due from him, creates a charge on or parts with the property belonging to him or in his possession by way of sale, mortgage, exchange, or any other mode of transfer whatsoever of any of his properties in favour of any other person with the intention of defrauding the Government revenue, such charge or transfer shall be void as against any claim in respect of any tax or any other sum payable by the said person:

Provided that, such charge or transfer shall not be void if it is made for adequate consideration, in good faith and without notice of the pendency of such proceedings under this Act or without notice of such tax or other sum payable by the said person, or with the previous permission of the proper officer.

81.1 Introduction

This provision protects the Government revenue by prohibiting transfer of property by a taxable person to another person. This would prevent any attempt to defraud the Revenue by alienating the properties.

81.2 Analysis

- (i) The said provision would be applicable only when any tax has become due.
- (ii) The following acts done by a person, in favour of any another person, after the tax becomes due, would be void

Situations / cases – Void	Situations / cases – valid
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Creates a charge on; or</li> <li>• Parts with the property</li> <li>• Belonging to him; or</li> <li>• In his possession</li> </ul> By way of sale, mortgage, exchange, or any other mode of transfer whatsoever of any of his properties.	Made for adequate consideration and <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• without notice of the pendency of proceeding</li> <li>• Without notice of such tax or other sum payable by the said person,</li> <li>• With previous permission of the proper officer.</li> </ul>

- (iii) The transfer will be void, when it is or was with an intention of defrauding the Government revenue. Note that there is no 'time limit' for the look-back period to question transactions. As such, proving intent to defraud appears quite onerous and hardly feasible to prove satisfactorily the mala fides to proceed to recover the tax by reversal of transfers.

Illustrations:

1. Mr. Defrauder was served with a notice of demand for ₹ 20 Lakhs on 10th June 2020. He filed a reply for the said notice on 20th June 2020, stating that he was unable to deposit tax dues as he was financially stressed. On 15th June 2020, Mr. Defrauder transferred all the property worth ₹ 35 Lakhs under his name to his wife for a consideration of ₹ 10,000/-. Is this act of Mr. Defrauder valid?
- Ans. As per section 81, the said transfer would be void and the property worth ₹ 35 Lakhs would be considered still to be in the hands of Mr. Defrauder.
2. In the above illustration, if transfer of property was for a consideration of ₹ 42 Lakhs to Mr. X who is unaware of the pending proceedings of Mr. Defrauder and the transfer took place on 15th June 2020, Will the act of Mr. Defrauder be valid?
- Ans. In this case the transaction would be a valid act, since the transfer was made for adequate consideration and also without notice of the pendency of proceeding.

3. On Mr. Perfect, notice was issued on 10th June 2020. However, the same was received by Mr. Perfect on 20th June, 2020. Meanwhile the property of Mr. Perfect was sold to Mr. Perfectionist for ₹ 35 Crore. Is the sale void or valid?

Ans. The sale is valid since on the date of sale there was no pending proceeding on Mr. Perfect.

81.3 Comparative review

This provision is new to Indirect Tax law. It is a concept borrowed from the Income-Tax law to safeguard the Revenue. According to the Income Tax (IT) Act, certain transfers can be considered to be void without a tax-clearance certificate (Section 281B). "This can be transfer of immovable property, that is, sale or mortgage of housing property, any gift, or exchange,"

81.4 FAQ

Q1. When a transaction in property is void as per section 81?

Ans. During the pendency of proceeding under GST Act, if the taxable person transfers his property to another person with an intent of defrauding the Government revenue, then such transfer would be considered as void.

81.5 MCQ

Q1. Which of the following modes of transfers are covered under section 81 -

- (a) Sale
- (b) Exchange
- (c) Mortgage
- (d) All of the above

Ans. (d) All of the above

Q2. When the transfer of a property would be considered as void .....

- (a) Transaction is done to defraud the Govt. revenue
- (b) Transaction is done without intention to defraud the Govt. revenue
- (c) Any of the above

Ans. (a) Transaction is done to defraud the Govt. revenue

Statutory Provisions

82. Tax to be first charge on property

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law for the time being in force, save as otherwise provided in the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, any amount payable by a taxable person or any other person on account of tax, interest or penalty which he is liable to pay to the Government shall be a first charge on the property of such taxable person or such person.

82.1 Introduction

Other than as provided under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, this provision shall have an overriding effect over the other provisions contained in any law for the time being in force. This provision provides that if any dues are payable by a taxable person or any other person to the Government, then it would have first charge on the property of such taxable or other person.

82.2 Analysis

- (i) The provisions of this section would apply to a taxable person or any other person who is liable to pay tax, interest or penalty to Government.
- (ii) Any liability to be paid to the Government would be given priority in the matter of effecting recovery by placing a first charge on the property of the taxable person or any other person.
- (iii) This provision also covers any other person since there are other provisions in the Act, which provide for creating a liability or recovery from a person other than the taxable person like a legal representative, member of partitioned HUF etc.
- (iv) It would make it interesting if one reads section 53 of IBC where a 'waterfall' provision lists Government dues way below several others. So, reference may be made to IBC which will prevail over GST law.

82.3 Comparative review

These provisions are broadly similar to the provisions contained in the following -

1. Section 142A of the Customs Act, 1962
2. Section 11E of the Central Excise Act, 1944
3. Section 48 of the Karnataka VAT Act, 2003
4. Section 88 of the Finance Act, 1994

82.4 FAQs

- Q1. When can a charge on property of taxable person be created?
- Ans. A charge can be created only when the taxable person or any other person is liable to pay tax or interest or penalty to Government.
- Q2. Are unregistered persons covered under the said provision?
- Ans. The section refers to both taxable person and any other person, on whose property first charge could be created. Hence, all persons as defined under section 2(84) of the CGST Act would be covered, whether or not taxable.

82.5 MCQs

Q1. Which of the following liabilities can be recovered under this section -

- (a) Interest
- (b) Tax
- (c) Penalty
- (d) All the above

Ans. (d) All the above

Q2. Which of the following properties of Mr. Richie Poor could be treated as attracting first charge -

- (a) Richie Nilaya, a mansion in the name of Mr. Richie
- (b) Mrs. Richie's fixed deposit
- (c) Richie's neighbour, Mrs. Y's Jewellery
- (d) None of the above

Ans. (a) Richie Nilaya, a mansion in the name of Mr. Richie

Extract of the CGST Rules, 2017

159. Provisional attachment of property

- 1) Where the Commissioner decides to attach any property, including bank account in accordance with the provisions of section 83, he shall pass an order in Form GST DRC-22 to that effect mentioning therein, the details of property which is attached.
- 2) The Commissioner shall send a copy of the order of attachment [in Form GST DRC-22]<sup>19</sup> to the concerned Revenue Authority or Transport Authority or any such Authority to place encumbrance on the said movable or immovable property, which shall be removed only on the written instructions from the Commissioner to that effect [and a copy of such order shall also be sent to the person whose property is being attached under section 83.]<sup>17</sup>
- 3) Where the property attached is of perishable or hazardous nature, [~~and if the taxable person~~ and if the person, whose property has been attached]<sup>17</sup> pays an amount equivalent to the market price of such property or the amount that is or may become payable [~~by the taxable person~~ by such person]<sup>17</sup>, whichever is lower, then such property shall be released forthwith, by an order in Form GST DRC-23, on proof of payment.
- 4) Where [~~the taxable person~~ such person]<sup>20</sup> fails to pay the amount referred to in sub-rule (3) in respect of the said property of perishable or hazardous nature, the Commissioner may dispose of such property and the amount realized thereby shall be adjusted against the tax, interest, penalty, fee or any other amount payable by [~~the taxable person~~ such person]<sup>18</sup>.
- 5) Any person whose property is attached may, [~~within seven days of the attachment under sub-rule (1), file an objection~~ file an objection in FORM GST DRC-22A]<sup>18</sup> to the effect that the property attached was or is not liable to attachment, and the Commissioner may, after affording an opportunity of being heard to the person filing the objection, release the said property by an order in Form GST DRC-23.
- 6) The Commissioner may, upon being satisfied that the property was, or is no longer liable for attachment, release such property by issuing an order in Form GST DRC-23.

83.1 Introduction

This section confers power to provisionally attach the property of the taxable person in certain situations to protect the interests of the Government.

- (i) This section applies only during the pendency of any proceedings under: (Old provision)
- (a) Section 62 – Assessment of non-filers of returns.
  - (b) Section 63 – Assessment of unregistered persons.
  - (c) Section 64 – Summary assessment in certain special cases.
  - (d) Section 67 – Power of inspection, search and seizure.
  - (e) Section 73 - Determination of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilized by reason of other than fraud or any wilful misstatement or suppression of facts.
  - (f) Section 74 - Determination of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilized by reason of fraud or any wilful misstatement or suppression of facts.

Note: Amendment to the above provision in sub-section (1) of section 83 has been made vide Finance Act, 2021 (applicable from 01.01.2022)

- (ii) This section applies 'after initiation' of any proceedings under: (New Provision)
- (a) Chapter XII, covering sections 59 to 64 – Assessment.
  - (b) Chapter XIV, covering sections 67 to 72 – Inspection, Search, Seizure and Arrest.
  - (c) Chapter XV, covering sections 73 to 84 – Demands and Recovery.
- (iii) The provisional attachment of property of the taxable person shall be executed by the Commissioner. Provisional attachment 'during pendency' and 'after initiation of', any proceedings do not alter the power to attach property prior to any proceedings but only after clear steps have been taken to invoke the powers under the respective sections (or Chapters) of the law as referred. 'Initiation' is when steps are taken to 'set the law in motion' as defined in the respective provisions of law. Once proceedings are 'initiated', the said proceedings are 'pending', and these powers become invocable.
- (iv) Note that provisional attachment under section 83 can be 'during investigation' whereas recovery under section 79 can be only after 'final demand' arises out of any order. Provisional attachment is not the same as confiscation. Confiscation results in property being taken over and vesting with the Government. Provisional attachment will leave the property where it is but only the freedom of taxpayer to access and use it is prohibited by this order of attachment.
- (v) The only condition is that the Commissioner should be of the opinion that for the purpose of protecting the interest of the Government revenue, it is necessary to provisionally attach the property. The Commissioner may also seize bank accounts of such persons, if it is in the interest of revenue.

- (vi) Attachment of property belonging to taxable person alone was permitted. But the amended provision permits attachment of property belong to (i) taxable person and (ii) person who is the mind behind the offences as identified in section 122(1A) of the CGST Act, are permitted to be covered by this amended provision.
- (vii) Such provisional attachment would be valid for one year from the date of the order made by the Commissioner in Form GST DRC-22.
- (viii) Where the property attached is perishable or hazardous in nature and if the taxable person pays an amount equivalent to the market price of such property or the amount that is or may become payable by the taxable person, whichever is lower, then such property shall be released forthwith, by an order in Form GST DRC-23, on proof of payment. Further, where the taxable person fails to pay the aforesaid amount, the Commissioner may dispose of such property and the amount realized thereby shall be adjusted against the tax, interest, penalty, fee or any other amount payable by the taxable person.
- (ix) Any person whose property is attached may, within 7 days of the attachment file an objection to the effect that the property attached was or is not liable to attachment and the Commissioner may, after affording an opportunity of being heard to the person filing the objection, release the said property by an order in Form GST DRC-23.
- The Commissioner may, upon being satisfied that the property was, or is no longer liable for attachment, release such property by issuing an order in Form GST DRC- 23.
- (x) Rule 159 (Provisional attachment of property) has been amended to provide that the Commissioner shall send the order of attachment in Form GST DRC-22 and a copy of such order shall also be sent to the person whose property is being attached under section 83. Other amendments have also been made in this rule to incorporate the changes made in section 83 vide the Finance Act, 2021 providing for attachment of property of a person other than the taxable person i.e., any person specified in sub-section (1A) of section 122. Further, any objection to the order of provisional attachment of property shall be filed in Form DRC-22A whose format has also been notified.
- (xi) Forms GST DRC-10 and GST DRC-22 have been substituted with new Forms with effect from 01.01.2022. *
- (xii) In Form GST DRC-11 (Notice to successful bidder), rule 144A has been included in addition to existing rules 144(5) and 147(12). Further, the word conveyance has also been included in addition to goods with effect from 01.01.2022 implying that now the possession of the goods as well as conveyance shall be transferred to the successful bidder after making full payment of the bid amount. Similar changes have also been made in FORM GST DRC-12 (Sale Certificate). *

- (xiii) In Form GST DRC-11 (Restoration of provisionally attached property / bank account under section 83), the words 'Regional Transport Authority/Other Relevant Authority' have been added in addition to existing 'Immovable property registering authority', with effect from 01.01.2022. *
- (xiv) A new table has been substituted under clause (a) of entry no. 15 in FORM APL-01 with effect from 01.01.2022. *
- (xv) A new Form GST DRC-22A (Application for filing objection against provisional attachment of property) has been introduced with effect from 01.01.2022 under rule 159(5).*

*Points (xii) to (xvi) have been brought into force vide Notification No. 40/2021-CT dt. 29.12.2021.

(1) Where there is any change in any of the particulars furnished in the application for registration in Form GST REG-01 or Form GST REG-07 or Form GST REG-09 or Form GST REG-10 or for Unique Identity Number in Form GST-REG-13, either at the time of obtaining registration or Unique Identity Number or as amended from time to time, the registered person shall, within a period of fifteen days of such change, submit an application, duly signed or verified through electronic verification code, electronically in Form GST REG-14, along with the documents relating to such change at the common portal, either directly or through a Facilitation Centre notified by the Commissioner:

Provided that –

- (a) where the change relates to, -
- (i) legal name of business;
  - (ii) address of the principal place of business or any additional place(s) of business; or
  - (iii) addition, deletion or retirement of partners or directors, Karta, Managing Committee, Board of Trustees, Chief Executive Officer or equivalent, responsible for the day to day affairs of the business, - which does not warrant cancellation of registration under section 29, the proper officer shall, after due verification, approve the amendment within a period of fifteen working days from the date of the receipt of the application in Form GST REG-14 and issue an order in Form GST REG-15 electronically and such amendment shall take effect from the date of the occurrence of the event warranting such amendment;

- (b) the change relating to sub-clause (i) and sub-clause (iii) of clause (a) in any State or Union Territory shall be applicable for all registrations of the registered person obtained under the provisions of this Chapter on the same Permanent Account Number;
- (c) where the change relates to any particulars other than those specified in clause (a), the certificate of registration shall stand amended upon submission of the application in Form GST REG- 14 on the common portal;
- (d) where a change in the constitution of any business results in the change of the Permanent Account Number of a registered person, the said person shall apply for fresh registration in Form GST REG-01:

Provided further that any change in the mobile number or e-mail address of the authorised signatory submitted under this rule, as amended from time to time, shall be carried out only after online verification through the common portal in the manner provided under <sup>1</sup> [sub-rule (2) of rule 8]

- (1A) <sup>2</sup> [Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1), any particular of the application for registration shall not stand amended with effect from a date earlier than the date of submission of the application in Form GST REG-14 on the common portal except with the order of the Commissioner for reasons to be recorded in writing and subject to such conditions as the Commissioner may, in the said order, specify].
- (2) Where the proper officer is of the opinion that the amendment sought under sub-rule (1) is either not warranted or the documents furnished therewith are incomplete or incorrect, he may, within a period of fifteen working days from the date of the receipt of the application in Form GST REG-14, serve a notice in Form GST REG-03, requiring the registered person to show cause, within a period of seven working days of the service of the said notice, as to why the application submitted under sub-rule (1) shall not be rejected.
- (3) The registered person shall furnish a reply to the notice to show cause, issued under sub-rule (2), in Form GST REG-04, within a period of seven working days from the date of the service of the said notice.
- (4) Where the reply furnished under sub-rule (3) is found to be not satisfactory or where no reply is furnished in response to the notice issued under sub-rule (2) within the period prescribed in sub-rule (3), the proper officer shall reject the application submitted under sub-rule (1) and pass an order in Form GST REG -05.
- (5) If the proper officer fails to take any action, -
- (a) within a period of fifteen working days from the date of submission of the application, or
- (b) within a period of seven working days from the date of the receipt of the reply to the notice to show cause under sub-rule (3),
- the certificate of registration shall stand amended to the extent applied for and the amended certificate shall be made available to the registered person on the common portal.
- 41. Transfer of credit on sale, merger, amalgamation, lease, or transfer of a business.-
- (1) A registered person shall, in the event of sale, merger, de-merger, amalgamation, lease or transfer or change in the ownership of business for any reason, furnish the details of sale, merger, de-merger, amalgamation, lease or transfer of business, in Form GST ITC-02, electronically on the common portal along with a request for transfer of unutilized input tax credit lying in his electronic credit ledger to the transferee:
- Provided that in the case of demerger, the input tax credit shall be apportioned in the ratio of the value of assets of the new units as specified in the demerger scheme.

<sup>3</sup>[Explanation:- For the purpose of this sub-rule, it is hereby clarified that the value of assets means the value of the entire assets of the business, whether or not input tax credit has been availed thereon.]

- (2) The transferor shall also submit a copy of a certificate issued by a practicing Chartered Accountant or Cost Accountant certifying that the sale, merger, de-merger, amalgamation lease or transfer of business has been done with a specific provision for the transfer of liabilities.
- (3) The transferee shall, on the common portal, accept the details so furnished by the transferor and, upon such acceptance, the un-utilized credit specified in Form GST ITC- 02 shall be credited to his electronic credit ledger.
- (4) The inputs and capital goods so transferred shall be duly accounted for by the transferee in his books of account.

Section 18	Availability of credit in certain circumstances
Section 28	Amendment of registration

85.1 Introduction

This section deals with the tax liability that may arise in case of transfer of business under certain circumstances. It deals with the following situations:

- liability arising before the transfer of business as a whole or in part;
- liability arising post transfer of business as a whole or in part.

- such liability may arise on account of sale, gift, lease, leave and license, hire or in any other manner.

85.2 Analysis

(i) Liability arising prior to transfer

The provision applies when a taxable person who is liable to pay tax transfers his business either wholly or in part, which could be by way of:

- Sale
- Gift
- Lease
- Leave and license
- Hire or
- In any other manner

Tax liability: Both the transferor and the transferee will be jointly and severally liable for payment of taxes, interest or penalty due up to the time of transfer of business (wholly or partly).

The joint and several liability will remain fastened even if such amounts were determined and had become due after the transfer of business.

Interestingly, even liability to penalty, which is quasi-criminal in nature, is sought to be fastened on the transferee, although the transferee would not have been responsible for the non-payment of tax, interest or penalty liability by the transferor prior to transfer of such business. Care must be taken to include 'indemnity' from transferor in case of any such liabilities arising in future. It may be noted that only 'payment' of dues (tax, interest and penalty) is joint-and-several with the transferee but the process will only be against transferor.

It is interesting to note that the liability would be determined against the transferor only; however, if it is not recovered from the transferor, the same would be recovered from the transferee. There is no escape which has been provided by the Act against the transferee even if the transferee has purchased the business in a bona-fide manner with no notice of any liability against the transferor. Also, it is pertinent to note that this provision is for recovery and thus, the transferee has no right to contest the liability which has been fastened against the transferor. It is pertinent to note that the provision does not provide for subrogation of rights to contest the demand so determined for recovery from the transferee. The only right which the transferee has, would be recovery of such paid taxes from the transferor.

(ii) Liability arising post transfer

It is the 'recovery' of liability in respect of tax, interest and / or penalty which may be determined subsequent to transfer (by proceeding against transferor) and which relates to the period that will be the liability of the transferee of business.

As the liability to pay these dues belongs to the 'business' carried on by person 'A' (PAN XYZ123XYZ), when the business is carried on by person 'B' (PAN PQR456PQR), the encumbrance is not 'personal' liability of 'A' but 'taxable person A'. Hence, it can be recovered from 'taxable person B' who is now carrying on the business.

In case the transferee is already an existing taxable person, he needs to apply for amendment of his registration certificate within the prescribed time incorporating the changes as to the acquisition of the business (whole or part).

(iii) Going concern transfer

Sale of business as a 'going concern' [commonly called, lock-stock-barrel basis] is not taxable as per paragraph 4(c) of Schedule II of the CGST Act read with Entry no. 2 to the exemption Notification no. 12/2017- Central Tax (Rate) dated 28th June, 2017. One may refer to rule 41 that permits the transferor to upload GST ITC 02 on the common portal for effecting a smooth transfer of all unutilised credits pursuant to a transfer as a 'going concern', without any condition of correlation with the underlying inputs and / or capital goods.

This provision is not new but is an added measure of responsibility which the transferee of business needs to be mindful of to ensure that unpaid liabilities (determined or not, subject to limitation under section 73, 74 or 76) cannot be forfeited on account of sale of business. However, where 'sale of business' is effected by 'sale of assets', then the transferee carries no liability under GST law as all dues will remain with 'taxable person 'A'. All recovery provisions against taxable person 'A' will not travel to transferee as the business is left behind with taxable person 'A' and only assets (on payment of applicable GST) have been transferred to taxable person 'B'.

(iv) Types of transfer

This provision does not limit the type of transfer to merger or amalgamation but covers 'any' form of transfer where the resultant effect is 'transfer of business' as a going concern. In fact, the types listed cover permanent or temporary transfer of business but on a 'going concern' basis. It is possible for all arrangements and compromises even for limited duration to come within the operation of this remedial provision for recovery of dues.

85.3 Comparative analysis

The liability in respect of transactions, post the date of transfer of business, viz., where the liability is fastened on the transferee, is comparable to the erstwhile indirect tax provisions. However, in respect of joint and several liability of both, the transferor and transferee, for liabilities up to the date of transfer, is comparable to certain State level VAT laws.

- (i) In case of transfer of business by whatever method i.e., sale, lease, gift, license etc., the law does not indicate as to what should be the life of capital goods that is to be reckoned in the hands of transferee, for the purpose of GST laws would it be five years, as reduced by number of years for which such asset was put to use by the transferor or would it be an additional five years from the date of transfer or would it be as per the actual remaining life of the asset on the basis of actuarial valuation as on the date of such transfer. The GST law is silent on this issue. But the very nature of 'going concern' is the recognition of continuity of use of capital goods. Rules 43 and 44 have to be complied without reference to the period of use applicable in these cases;
- (ii) The person taking over the business of another person should, in the normal course as a matter of due diligence, make sure that all the tax liabilities due under GST (CGST & SGST / IGST) laws in relation to transactions made before the date of transfer have been fully discharged with applicable interest if any. Further such transferee shall also ensure that there is no pending proceeding(s) against him under the said Act, to ensure that the transition process is smooth. It must be noted that the GST law casts the burden of paying tax, interest, penalty or any other amount on the transferee jointly with the transferor of business, though such amounts could relate to a period, prior to the date of transfer.

Statutory Provision

86. Liability of Agent and Principal

Where an agent supplies or receives any taxable goods on behalf of his principal, such agent and his principal shall, jointly and severally, be liable to pay the tax payable on such goods under this Act.

Related provisions of the Statute

Section or Rule	Description
Section 2(5)	Definition of Agent
Section 7	Meaning and scope of Supply
Section 9	Levy and collection
Schedule I	Activities to be treated as supply even if made without consideration – Entry no. 3 of the said Schedule

86.1 Introduction

This section directly casts the liability on a principal, in addition to the liability of the agent who effects the supply of taxable goods on behalf of the principal or procures taxable goods on behalf of his principal.

86.2 Analysis

Under the GST law, in cases where –

- Taxable Goods are supplied by agent on behalf of principal; or
- Taxable Goods are procured by agent on behalf of principal;

the agent is primarily liable for tax. However, by virtue of this provision, both the agent and principal, will be jointly and severally made liable to pay the tax payable on such supplies.

It is important to note that transactions between a Principal and Agent involving 'handling' of goods is regarded as a supply inter se vide Paragraph 3 of Schedule I of CGST Act, 2017. But, in terms of this section, 'joint and several' liability is being fastened on the person, who is not covered by the said fiction (as regards supply). This section is meant to provide recourse to the Government against either of them not necessarily only upon default by the principal. The Government is free to recover dues from either of them or both (up to the total dues only) without having to exhaust its remedies against the one who was principally liable (principal obligor) and then only proceed against the other. There is no compulsion that the Government should have exhausted its remedies against the Principal to proceed against the Agent, that is the effect of being joint-and-several. Once the Agent pays, the remedy of subrogation (refer section 92 of Transfer of Property Act and section 69 of Indian Contract Act) will be available to the Agent to stand in the shoes of the creditor and recover under a civil suit, dues owed by the Principal.

It is important to note that the section is applicable to supply of goods only and not on agents who provide or receive services on behalf of the Principal. Secondly, it is limited to those cases where such agent undertakes supply or receipt of taxable goods on behalf of the principal. The section is so carefully worded so as to extend the liability on the agent even in respect of all goods which are received from the transferor so as to cover situations like goods lost, stolen, destroyed, or for that matter are not available post such receipt in the hands of the agent. The agent shall not be liable for any other liability of the principal under the GST statutes including in respect of any goods which are not received from them. The liability of the agent shall only commence on receipt of the goods on behalf of the principal and shall be limited only in respect of such goods.

86.3 Issues and Concerns

The liability of the principal who effects supplies through an agent or a principal who receives supplies through an agent, does not end as soon as he (principal) pays tax on the supply made by him to the agent for further supply; instead the liability in the hands of the principal continues till the time a further supply is made by the agent - say to the final customer (B2B or B2C) and tax is duly discharged by the agent on the said supply. This in effect means, that the principal needs to keep track of the compliance by an agent apart from the compliance requirements to be followed by him under the said law, which is an added burden in the hands of the principal.

86.4 FAQ

Q1. Whether the principal is also liable for tax payable on the goods supplied by the Agent?

Ans. Yes, the principal will also be jointly and severally liable to pay tax on such supplies, along with the agent.

86.5 MCQs

Q1. Agent and Principal, both are liable to pay tax on supply or receipt of .....

- (a) Taxable Goods only
- (b) Services only
- (c) Goods along with service
- (d) None of the above

Ans. (a) Taxable Goods only

Q2. Agent and Principal are liable to pay tax .....

- (a) Jointly
- (b) Separately
- (c) Both jointly and severally
- (d) Jointly or separately

Ans. (c) Both jointly and severally

- (i) In cases of amalgamation or merger of two or more companies by virtue of an order passed by Tribunal/Court/otherwise, the following two crucial dates are relevant, -
- Date from / on which the amalgamation/merger is effective;
  - Date of the order pursuant to which the amalgamation/merger takes place;
- (ii) Normally, by virtue of the said order, the transactions of supply of goods and/or services inter-se between the companies merged/amalgamated, between two dates, would get nullified as they would become one entity from the effective date (and not from the date of the order).
- (iii) However, for the purposes of GST, by virtue of this provision, such transactions would continue to be treated as supply by one entity and receipt by the other, viz., all the provisions of this law would equally apply as if the amalgamation or merger had not taken place and both the entities continue as two different taxable persons. Till the date of order of amalgamation / merger, those companies shall be treated as distinct companies and should discharge their respective tax liabilities.
- (iv) Thus, this provision would eclipse the order and legal effect of the Court/Tribunal for the limited purposes of GST law. As such, it will not be unusual to find that transactions will be reported in the financials of transferee entity after giving effect to the Order but the same transactions (during the intervening period) will remain in the books (and GST returns) of the transferor and without unwinding the same. This is a departure from the practice in all other tax laws in such instances.
- (v) It provides that wherever necessary, the registration certificates of the said companies would stand cancelled with effect from the date of the said order.

Readers may refer to the facility provided by rule 41 for transfer of unutilized input tax credit lying in electronic credit ledger of the transferor.

It is interesting that the words 'amalgamation or merger' have been used without reference to various innovations in the field of corporate compromises and arrangements. Experts are of the view that all arrangements, where orders of NCLT have been passed, may come within the operation of this provision and the absence of specific terms like demerger or reverse-demerger or spin-off which are different forms of such corporate compromises and arrangements and which operate on the same principle of amalgamations or merger, must be allowed where there is an interval of time between the date of order and its effective date .

With multiple registrations within the same State being permitted, credit is permitted to be transferred and reallocated between each such registration by filing Form ITC-02A. This credit will be allocated in the ratio of assets of each registration held.

87.3 Comparative analysis with the erstwhile regime

This is comparable to most of the State level VAT laws, wherein the sale of goods between such entities (between the effective date of merger / amalgamation and the date of the order) have been treated as sale by one entity and purchase by the other. Such transactions will continue to be liable to tax as if the merger or amalgamation had not taken place and both the entities continue as two different entities.

87.4 Issues and Concerns

As the treatment under the Companies Act, 2013 read with relevant rules thereto and GST law are different for a period commencing from effective date of order of merger till the date of issue of order, both the merged company and the resultant company will have to keep track of transactions effected between each other during the above said period and maintain relevant reconciliations for the purpose of both the laws and if the same is not done, it would lead to unnecessary complications and avoidable litigations.

87.5 MCQs

Q1. When two or more companies are amalgamated, the liability to pay tax on supplies between them during the period of effective date of amalgamation order and date of issue of amalgamation order would be on -

- (a) Transferee
- (b) Respective companies
- (c) Any one of the companies
- (d) None of the above.

Ans. (b) Respective companies.

88.1 Introduction

This section deals with the tax and other dues of a company in case it is wound up or liquidated. This section has to be read with rule 160 of CGST Rules, 2017.

88.2 Analysis

- (i) Every person appointed as receiver / liquidator needs to give intimation of his appointment to the Commissioner within 30 days of his appointment.
- (ii) Within three months from the date of such intimation, the Commissioner, after making necessary enquiry or calling of information, will notify the liquidator to set apart a sum of money that would be sufficient to discharge, in his opinion, the amount of tax, interest and penalty payable by the company.

- (iii) When a private company is not able to clear its dues, then every person who was the director at any time during the period, for which tax is due, would be liable jointly and severally to pay the dues.
- (iv) However, if any director proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that such non-recovery is not due to his gross neglect, misfeasance or breach of duty, the liability would not arise in the hands of such director.
- (v) Rule 160 of CGST Rules, 2017 states that where a company is under liquidation, as specified in section 88 of the CGST Act, then the Commissioner shall notify the liquidator for recovery of any amount representing tax, interest, penalty or any amount due under the Act.
- (vi) While section 88 provides that the provision must be made by liquidator for GST dues 'then' or 'likely thereafter to become payable', rule 68 provides only for 'amount due' [i.e., crystallised liabilities] existing on the date of the letter and not for likely liabilities to become payable thereafter.
- (vii) As per rule 160, the intimation must be sent in Form GST DRC – 24 to the liquidator. This intimation must contain the following details:
  - (a) Name of the company being liquidated
  - (b) The GSTIN of the company being liquidated
  - (c) Date of the letter
  - (d) Period for which demand is being made
  - (e) Demand Order No.
  - (f) Reference to liquidator's letter intimating liquidation of the company
  - (g) The actual amount or likely amount, the company owes to State/ Central Government in terms of tax, interest, penalty, other dues and total arrears thereof
- (viii) Rule 160 employs the term 'notify' the liquidator, while Form GST DRC – 24 'directs' the liquidator to make sufficient provision for discharge of current and anticipated liabilities before final winding up of the company.

88.3 Issues and Concerns

It appears that the GST law is directing the liquidator to set aside / make sufficient provision for the tax which is 'due or is likely to be due' under the Act, recoverable from company under liquidation. However, section 326 of the Companies Act, 2013 provides for preferential payments to be made first towards workmen's dues and debts due to secured creditors and only thereafter, follow the sequence as prescribed in section 327 of the Companies Act, 2013 which covers dues to Government in the form of taxes, cesses and rates etc.. Therefore, directing a liquidator to make provision for the amount of tax, interest, penalty and any other amount due / is liable to become due, would be ultra vires the Companies Act, 2013 read with Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016. However, had a reference to section 82 of CGST Act, 2017 been made in this section, it would have been clear that dues are recoverable and a first charge on property of the person can be made to recover the dues under this Act, only after fulfilling the preferential provisions as per the Companies Act, 2013 read with the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016. Corporate Insolvency Resolution Professionals need to take note of this responsibility.

The liability of tax in case of a private company for any period before or during the course of winding up, extends upon the person(s) who was /were director/s of such company at any time during the period for which the tax was due. Such directors have been made jointly and severally liable for the payment of such tax, interest or penalty, unless he proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that such non-recovery cannot be attributed to any gross neglect, misfeasance or breach of duty on his part in relation to the affairs of the company. It is pertinent to mention that the director is responsible for the period during which he was holding the position as a director. The liability under this provision has not been extended on other officers of the company including CEO, CFO etc.

89.1 Introduction

This section deals with recovery of tax dues, interest or penalty from the directors of a private company, where the private company has not discharged any of its tax, penalty or interest liability towards the supply of goods or services or both.

89.2 Analysis

- (i) If the tax, interest or penalty were not paid by a private company in relation to any supply of goods and / or services for any period, then every Director of such private company during such period will be liable to pay such dues. The liability of the Director will be relaxed only when, he proves that such non-recovery of dues is not because of his gross negligence, misfeasance or breach of duty in relation to the affairs of the company.

- (ii) However, when a private company is converted into a public company, then no such recovery of dues can be made from the person(s) who were directors of the private limited company before such conversion.
- (iii) However, an exception has been carved out for the above provision i.e., (ii) above – namely ., this is not applicable to personal penalty which can be imposed on such director.

90. Liability of partners of firm to pay tax

Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary and any other law for time being in force, where any firm is liable to pay any tax, interest or penalty under this Act, the firm and each of the partners of the firm shall jointly and severally, be liable for such payment:

Provided that where any partner retires from the firm, he or the firm, shall intimate the date of retirement of the said partner to the Commissioner by a notice in that behalf in writing and such partner shall be liable to pay tax, interest or penalty due up to the date of his retirement whether determined or not, on that date:

Provided further that if no such intimation is given within one month from the date of retirement, the liability of such partner under the first proviso shall continue until the date on which such intimation is received by the Commissioner.

Related provisions of the Statute

Section or Rule	Description
Section 94	Liability in other cases

90.1 Introduction

This section deals with the liability of a partner of a firm to pay any tax, interest or penalty that was otherwise payable by the firm.

90.2 Analysis

- (i) Where a partnership firm is liable to pay any tax, interest or penalty, all the partners of such firm will be, jointly and severally, liable to pay all such amounts.
- (ii) If any of the partners retire, then such partner or the firm shall intimate the Commissioner by a notice in writing within one month from the date of retirement. In such cases, the retiring partner shall be liable to pay tax, interest and penalty, if any, upto the date of his retirement (whether determined or not prior to retirement).
- (iii) However, where no such intimation is given by the partner to the Commissioner within one month from the date of retirement, the liability of such retired partner will continue till the date on which the intimation is received by the Commissioner.
- (iv) This provision will be equally applicable for LLPs.

Every partner who retires from a partnership firm should file an intimation to the jurisdictional Commissioner giving the details of his retirement – viz., the name of the firm, registration number of the firm and the date of his / her retirement. If the firm is operating in more than one States, such intimation should be filed in all such States.

90.3 FAQs

Statutory Provisions

91. Liability of guardians, trustees etc.

Where the business in respect of which any tax, interest or penalty is payable under this Act is carried on by any guardian, trustee or agent of a minor or other incapacitated person on behalf of and for the benefit of such minor or other incapacitated person, the tax, interest or penalty shall be levied upon and recoverable from such guardian, trustee or agent in like manner and to the same extent as it would be determined and recoverable from any such minor or other incapacitated person, as if he were a major or capacitated person and as if he were conducting the business himself, and all the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder shall apply accordingly.

91.1 Introduction

This section enables collection of tax, interest or penalty from the guardians, trustees or agents of a minor or any other incapacitated person in respect of the business carried on for them.

91.2 Analysis

- (a) In respect of business carried on, on behalf of, or for the benefit of a minor or incapacitated person (by any of the following persons who carry on such business), then such person will be liable to pay tax, interest or penalty:
- Guardian
  - Trustee
  - Agent
- (b) The tax, interest, penalty or any other dues which such minor or incompetent person will be liable to, are the amounts which are recoverable from the minor or any such incapacitated person and which are levied, assessed in the hands of guardian, trustee or agent.
- (c) The dues are recoverable from the guardian, trustee or agent in respect of business of the minor or other incapacitated person by treating them as major or capacitated person, who is conducting the business for himself.
- (d) The deeming fiction is required to overcome the general principle of law, which operates in favour of a minor or incapacitated person to plead minority or incapacity in respect of dues or claims, particularly penal liability.
- (e) Interestingly the expression 'incapacitated person' is not defined in the Act. It should refer only to a person who is of unsound mind or one who is terminally ill.

91.3 FAQs

- Q1. Who is liable for tax dues etc., in case of a business of minor or incapacitated person?
- Ans. The guardian, or the trustee; or the agent as the case may be who is conducting the business on behalf of and for the benefit of minor or incapacitated person.
- Q2. Whether the minor for whom the business is carried out by guardian can escape liability on the ground of minority of the beneficiary?
- Ans. The minor is deemed to be a major for the purposes of collection of any tax/interest/penalties arising out of the business carried on for him. Hence, the general principle of law has no application and the guardian, trustee or agent cannot escape such liability.

91.4 MCQs

Q1. In case of business carried on by minor or other incapacitated person through Guardian / Agent who is liable to pay tax?

- (a) Guardian/Agent
- (b) Friend
- (c) Business Partner
- (d) None

Ans. (a) Guardian/Agent

Q2. Dues recoverable under this section include -

- (a) Only interest
- (b) Any dues which are recoverable under this Act
- (c) Only tax
- (d) Only penalty

Ans. (b) Any dues which are recoverable under this Act

Statutory Provisions*92. Liability of Courts of Wards, etc.

Where the estate or any portion of the estate of a taxable person owning a business in respect of which any tax, interest or penalty is payable under this Act is under the control of the Court of Wards, the Administrator General, the Official Trustee or any receiver or manager (including any person, whatever be his designation, who in fact manages the business) appointed by or under any order of a court, the tax, interest or penalty shall be levied upon and be recoverable from such Court of Wards, Administrator General, Official Trustee, receiver or manager, in like manner and to the same extent as it would be determined and be recoverable from the taxable person as if he were conducting the business himself, and all the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder shall apply accordingly.

92.1 Introduction

This section empowers collection of tax, interest or penalty from Administrator General, Official Trustee or any receiver or manager, appointed by or under any order of a court, who controls the estate or any portion thereof in respect of the taxable person who owns a business and whose estate is being controlled.

92.2 Analysis

In respect of any tax, interest or penalty relating to a business of the taxable person whose estate or part thereof is under the control of the following persons, the said persons will be liable to pay dues under this Act, as if they were themselves conducting the business as taxable person/s:

- (i) Administrator General, or
- (ii) Official trustee, or
- (iii) Any receiver or manager, or
- (iv) Any person, whatever be his designation, who in fact actually manages the business.

Illustration: Mr. ABC is appointed as manager of Mr. X, to manage the estate of Mr. X, who owns a garment business. Mr. X is liable to pay Rs. 20, 00,000/- of CGST, interest and penalty to the Government. The Department can recover such dues from Mr. ABC who is managing the estates of Mr. X., by invoking this provision.

92.3 Issues and Concerns

The provisions relating to registration or any other provisions of this Act, do not provide for reference of court of wards by whatever name called such as, Administrative General, the Official Trustee, or any receiver or manager who is controlling the estate or part of the estate of a registered person. It is not clear, whether the assessee himself has to intimate in writing to the jurisdictional officer about Court of Wards who is conducting business in his behalf and get such Court of Ward registered in the records of the jurisdictional officer.

92.4 FAQ

Q1. Who is liable to pay tax dues if the estate of a taxable person is controlled by Court of Wards?

Ans. The dues are recoverable from the Court of Wards, as if he is conducting the business for himself.

92.5 MCQs

then if the guardianship or trust is terminated, the ward or the beneficiary shall be liable to pay the tax, interest or penalty due from the taxable person upto the time of the termination of the guardianship or trust, whether such tax, interest or penalty has been determined before the termination of guardianship or trust but has remained unpaid or is determined thereafter.

93.1 Introduction

Section 93 of the GST Act is subject to the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016. The objects clause of Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code inter-alia provides that it has been enacted amongst other things to 'alter the order of priority of payment of Government dues'.

Section 53 of Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 which provides for distribution of assets of a company starts with a non-obstante clause against 'any law' enacted by Central or State Government. As per section 53 of IBC, the Government dues stand fifth in the order of priority as follows:

- (a) Insolvency Resolution process costs and liquidation costs paid in full
- (b) Workmen's dues for 24 months preceding the liquidation commencement date and debts owed to a secured creditor
- (c) Wages and unpaid dues owed to employees for 12 months preceding the liquidation commencement date
- (d) Financial debts owed to unsecured creditors
- (e) Amounts due to Central Government and the State Government, including amount to be received on account of Consolidated Fund of India and Consolidated Fund of State, in respect of whole or part of two years preceding the liquidation commencement date'
- (f) Any remaining debts and dues
- (g) Preference shareholders, if any
- (h) Equity shareholders or partners, as the case may be

GST is received by Central and State Governments into the Consolidated Fund of India and Consolidated Fund of State respectively

In terms of section 74 of CGST Act, 2017, tax, interest, penalty can be demanded for a period of five years from the relevant date. However, section 82 of CGST Act, 2017 states that any amount payable by a taxable person or any other person on account of tax, interest or penalty shall be a first charge on the property of such taxable person or other person, subject to Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016.

<sup>13</sup> This is to overcome the Supreme Court decision in Shabina Abraham vs CCE, (2015) 322 ELT 372 (SC),

- determined after dissolution.
- The provision applicable for partnership firm would equally apply for LLP as well.

Termination of Guardianship or Trusteeship

- (i) In case the guardian is carrying on the business on behalf of a ward or the trustee who carries the business under the trust on behalf of beneficiary, then on the termination of guardianship or trusteeship,
- The ward or the beneficiary is liable to pay tax, interest or penalty up to the time of such termination.
  - The ward or the beneficiary is liable to pay tax, interest or penalty
    - determined before the termination of guardianship or trusteeship but not paid or
    - determined after such termination

The above provisions are applicable to the extent that there is no contrary provision in the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016. Reference to discussion under Para 4 of Schedule II would also be relevant in the context of continuity of business and liability to discharge arrears.

95.1 Introduction

This section defines the expressions 'advance ruling', 'applicant', 'application', 'Authority', 'Appellate Authority' and 'National Appellate Authority', for the purpose of this Chapter. The meanings of these words as assigned by the definitions have to be applied unless the context otherwise requires.

95.2 Analysis

- (i) The expression 'advance ruling' means a decision given by the Authority for Advance Ruling (AAR, in short), the Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling (AAAR, in short) and the National Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling (NAAAR, in short) on the questions raised by the applicant in respect of matters specified in section 97(2) or section 100(1) or section 101C (section 101C is yet to be notified) in relation to the supplies of goods and/or services undertaken by the applicant.
- (ii) Such matters or questions could be in relation to supply of goods and/or supply of services being undertaken or proposed to be undertaken by the applicant. The phrase 'being undertaken' is a present continuous tense which refers to supply which is underway. The scope of the advance ruling has been widened by including even questions/clarification pertaining to the activities which are being undertaken by the applicant. However, clarifications pertaining to supplies which have already been completed cannot be sought before the advance ruling authorities.

- (iii) The word "applicant" refers to any person already registered or one who desires to get registered under the Act. It is not mandatory to have a registration at the time of making an application for advance ruling. However, in case of an unregistered person it is mandatory to quote his PAN unless he is a non-resident. The term 'Person' has been defined in section 2(84) of the Act. An unregistered person can register temporarily on the GST portal and obtain a temporary reference number (TRN) with basic details like PAN, address, e-mail id and mobile number. The unregistered person can apply manually for an advance ruling quoting this TRN.
- (iv) One can make an application to the authority under section 97(1) stating the question on which he seeks advance ruling in relation to the supply of goods/services undertaken or proposed to be undertaken by the applicant. It is to be noted that the question shall be in relation to the outward supplies undertaken/ proposed to be undertaken by the applicant only. The applicant cannot raise questions pertaining to any inward supplies received except on the issues of input tax credit on such inward supplies.
- (v) Thus, an applicant can seek advance ruling if the following conditions are fulfilled:
  - (a) The applicant is either registered under the GST law or is desirous of obtaining registration.
  - (b) The matter or question pertains to any issue specified in sub-section (2) of section 97 or sub-section (1) of section 100 or of section 101C, in relation to any transaction involving the supply of goods or services or both.
  - (c) Such a transaction is being undertaken or is proposed to be undertaken. It is important to note that, no advance ruling can be sought on transactions already undertaken in the past.
- (vi) The word "Authority" refers to the AAR constituted under section 96 of CGST Act, 2017 in each State or Union Territory.
- (vii) The expression "Appellate Authority" refers to the Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling constituted under section 99 in each State or Union territory. Therefore, every State/Union Territory will have its own AAAR.
- (viii) The expression "National Appellate Authority" means the National Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling referred to in section 101A.

95.3 Comparative review

For the first time an AAAR has been prescribed. This is a marked departure from the pre-GST regime, which did not provide for an appellate remedy against rulings given by AAR.

Also, under erstwhile laws, advance ruling could be sought by an applicant on an activity of production or manufacture of goods or import or export of goods proposed to be undertaken or a service proposed to be provided by him. However, under the GST laws, advance ruling can also be sought on a present activity of supply of goods and/or services being undertaken or proposed to be undertaken by the applicant.

Further, the scope of “persons eligible to apply for advance ruling” has been widened under the GST law as compared to the erstwhile indirect tax laws - Central Excise, Customs and Service Tax laws.

95.4 FAQs

Q1. Can advance ruling be given orally?

Ans. No. Advance ruling cannot be given orally in view of sections 98(6) and 98(7).

Q2. Can advance ruling be applied for after supply of goods and/or services?

Ans. No, as per section 95(a) of the Act, an application can be made for advance ruling in relation to the supply of goods and/ or services being undertaken by the applicant but not for a supply which has already been effected.

Q3. Who can make an application to the AAR ?

Ans. An application for advance ruling can be made by any person defined in section 2(84), either registered or is desirous of obtaining a registration under GST Law.

Q4. Advance rulings are binding on whom? Can they be binding on the Department?

Ans. Advance rulings given by the AAR are binding on-

- a) the applicant in respect of any matter referred to in section 97(2) for advance ruling.
- b) on the concerned officer or the jurisdictional officer in respect of the applicant.

Statutory provisions

96. Authority for advance ruling

Subject to the provisions of this Chapter, for the purposes of this Act, the Authority for Advance Ruling constituted under the provisions of a State Goods and Services Tax Act or Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act shall be deemed to be the Authority for advance ruling in respect of that State or Union territory.

Rule 103 of CGST Rules	Qualification and appointment of members of the Authority for Advance Ruling

96.1 Introduction

The AAR constituted under provisions of a State GST Act or UTGST Act shall be deemed to be the AAR in respect of that State or Union territory

96.2 Analysis

The AAR shall be located in each State/Union Territory constituted under the provisions of SGST Act/ UTGST Act. As per corresponding section 96 of the respective State GST Acts read with Rule 103 of the State GST Rules, the Government shall appoint officers not below the rank of Joint Commissioner as member of the AAR.

The AAR of each State/UT shall consist of one member from amongst the officers of Central tax and one member from amongst the officers of State tax, to be appointed by the Central Government and the State Government respectively. The qualifications, method of appointment of the members and the terms and conditions of their services shall be as prescribed

As per section 96 of the State GST Acts, the State Government may, on the recommendation of the Council, notify any Authority located in another State to act as the Authority for Advance Ruling for the State.

As the AAR and the AAAR have been instituted under the respective State / Union Territory Act and not the Central Act, the ruling given by the AAR and AAAR will be applicable only within the jurisdiction of the concerned State or Union Territory. Thus, an advance ruling in case of an applicant in Kerala cannot be made applicable to another division of the same company located in Karnataka. This has the potential to create a difficult situation where the jurisdictional officer of the division located in Karnataka may choose not to abide by the Advance Ruling issued by the Kerala AAR to another division of the same company in Karnataka. Similarly, a situation may also arise wherein the AAR in different States may conclude differently in respect of the same issue. Since the advance ruling is binding on the concerned officer or the jurisdictional officer only in respect of the applicant, there is no assurance that the same officers may apply the interpretation flowing from the jurisdictional AAR in the same or different manner with respect to another registered person in the State. But there is no reason to be anxious as the aim of tax administration is to ensure stability in the law and not create instability by deliberately misapplying the interpretations on AARs.

It is important to note that the members of the AAR are appointed from amongst the Government officers in tax Department, be it the CGST representative or the SGST representative. These officers who decide upon matters relating to taxability of a transaction, liability of the assessee, registration requirements and other matters stated in section 97(2) 'are themselves a creation of the system'. Such is the nature of the constitution of the AAR or AAAR that the very same officers who have interpreted the law in favour of tax collections will now sit in judgement on matters of levy, taxability and liability. Hence before applying for an advance ruling, the applicant must appreciate the fact that the members of the AAR or AAAR or NAAAR cannot question the vires of the provisions of the GST law.

The key to securing accurate ruling, is to present the facts accurately and ask the right questions. The understanding about the business seems to cloud taxpayer's mind so much that facts required to be appreciated by Authority are inaccurately presented. Care must be taken to avoid incomplete or inaccurate facts. Questions must be succinctly put instead of circuitous case study approach with 'if-then' alternatives.

Thus, it is important for an applicant to carefully consider before seeking an advance ruling however attractive and compelling the taxpayer's interpretation may seem to be. Given that section 103 states that an advance ruling shall have a binding effect on the applicant and the officers in respect of the applicant, the applicant should analyse the impact of an adverse ruling.

96.3 Comparative review

Under the erstwhile laws, there was only one AAR for all the three Central indirect tax laws i.e., Central Excise, Customs and Service Tax constituted by the Central Government under section 28F of the Customs Act, 1962 having its office in Delhi regulated under the Authority for Advance Rulings (Customs, Central Excise and Service Tax) Procedure Regulations, 2005. In supersession of the said Regulations the Board made 'The Customs Authority for Advance Rulings Regulations, 2021', vide Notification No. 01/2020-Customs (NT), dated 04.01.2021 which came into effect from 01.04.2021. The Regulations prescribed two Authorities for Advance Ruling- in Delhi and in Mumbai with separate jurisdictions As per section 28EA of the Customs Act, the Board shall appoint an officer of the rank of Principal Commissioner of Customs or Commissioner of Customs as Customs Authority for Advance Rulings by way of notification. An appeal against the ruling lies only before the High Court under section 28KA of the Customs Act. Under the GST law, there will be one AAR in each State or Union Territory because the concept of advance ruling is being made applicable to SGST laws/ UTGST laws as well.

The composition of the AAR in the erstwhile law consisted of one Judicial Member as part of the authority. However, there are only two members in the GST AAR consisting of one member from the State and one from the Centre, both being officers of the GST regime.

96.3 FAQ

Q1. Where will the office of AAR be located ?

Ans. The office of the AAR will be located in each State/UT. However, the State Government, on the recommendation of the Council, may notify any AAR located in another State to act as the Authority for Advance Ruling for the State.

Section 95	Definition of Advance Ruling
Section 98	Procedure on receipt of application
Section 100	Appeal to Appellate Authority
Section 49	Payment of tax, interest, penalty and other amounts
Rule 26	Method of authentication

97.1 Introduction

This section specifies the matters in respect of which an advance ruling can be sought and prescribes the form and manner in which an application for advance ruling may be filed. No advance ruling can be sought on matters other than those specified in section 97(2).

97.2 Analysis

- (i) An applicant who seeks an advance ruling should make an application online in the prescribed Form GST ARA-01 together with a fee of ₹ 5,000/- CGST and ₹ 5,000/- SGST stating the question on which such a ruling is sought. The amount of fee shall be deposited in accordance with section 49. It is to be noted that the fee of ₹ 5,000/- CGST and Rs.5,000/- SGST shall not be refunded in any case.
- (ii) The application and all the relevant documents accompanying such application should be digitally signed through Digital Signature Certificate (DSC) or e-signature as specified in Rule 26.
- (iii) It is advised that the questions or issues in respect of which an advance ruling is sought be simple, direct and specific. The facts brought out in the application should be germane and pertinent to the issue at hand. Facts which do not necessarily concern the issue at hand should not be mentioned in the application as this might attract unnecessary attention to the business carried out by the assessee. Although an AAR cannot extend its scope by ruling on matters or issues not sought, it is still advisable that an applicant exercises restraint and caution while placing facts in the application.
- (iv) The question raised should be limited to the following:
  - a) Classification of any goods or services or both
  - b) Applicability of notification issued under the GST law
  - c) Determining the time and value of supply of goods or services or both
  - d) Admissibility of input tax credit of tax paid or deemed to have been paid
  - e) Determination of liability to pay tax on any goods or services or both

- f) Requirement for registration by an applicant
- g) Whether any particular act done by the applicant amounts to or results in supply of goods or services or both.

Thus, it is apparent from this section that the Authority will not admit questions or matters which fall outside the purview of the issues stated above. The advance ruling application will be rejected if the question raised in the application is not covered within the purview of section 97(2) without getting into the merits of the case. It is important to note that an appeal cannot be filed before AAAR against such a rejection as the same is not appealable under section 100 as 100(1) clearly provides that if the applicant concerned is aggrieved by any advance ruling pronounced under section 98(4) of the Act, then the appeal would lie before the AAAR. The applicant can only challenge such rejection by way of judicial review in writ proceedings.

- (v) It is interesting to observe that matters relating to determination of “place of supply” are conspicuous by their absence. Place of supply poses a conflict between States as binding ruling in one State (on place of supply) yielding revenue to that State may deny revenue to another State which may be involved in the supply transaction. But place of supply as ‘incidental’ to other questions like taxability of the supply or zero-rated nature of the supply, are not beyond the scope of matters to be decided by the Authority. This emanates from the fact that the ruling given by the AAR and AAAR will be applicable only within the jurisdiction of the concerned State or Union Territory and not beyond. Recently, the Kerala High Court had examined the question as to whether the determination of the issue of place of supply can be the subject matter of advance ruling in the case of Sutherland Mortgage Services [2020 (3) TMI 186 (Kerala) High Court]. The Hon'ble Court held :

“23. In the instant case, it is true that the issue relating to determination of place supply as aforesaid is not expressly enumerated in any of the clauses as per clauses (a) to (g) of sec. 97(2) of the CGST Act, but there cannot be any two arguments that the said issue relating to determination of place of supply, which is one of the crucial issues to be determined as to whether or not it fulfils the definition of ‘place of service’, would also come within the ambit of the larger of issue of “determination of liability to pay tax on any goods or services or both” as envisaged in clause (e) of sec. 97(2) of the CGST Act. The Advance Ruling Authority has proceeded on a tangent and has missed the said crucial aspect of the matter and has taken a very hyper technical view that it does not have jurisdiction for the simple reason that the said issue is not expressly enumerated in sec. 97(2) of the Act. This Court has no hesitation to hold that the said view taken by the Advance Ruling Authority is legally wrong and faulty and therefore the matter requires interdiction in judicial review in the instant writ proceedings. In that view of the matter, it is ordered that the abovesaid view taken by the Advance Ruling Authority is legally wrong and faulty and is liable to be quashed and accordingly declared and ordered.”

However, the AAR in other States in many instances have rejected applications where the subject matter of the application involved determining the 'place of supply'.

- (vi) Also, no advance ruling can be sought on matters such as those relating to -
- a) Transitional credits specified in Chapter XX of the CGST Act, 2017
  - b) E-way bill requirements
  - c) Anti-profiteering issues
  - d) Restraining officers from initiating an action/proceeding under the Act

Manual filing of an application for advance ruling: Although rules 104 and 106 specify filing of an application on the common portal, rule 107A was introduced to allow manual filing of the same. Accordingly, Circular No. 25/25/2017-GST dated 21.12.2017 was issued detailing the procedures for manual filing of an application for advance ruling till such time the advance ruling module is made available on the common portal. It is to be noted that though the application shall be filed manually, the fee is required to be deposited online in terms of section 49 of the CGST Act. The applicant is required to download and take a print of the challan and file the application duly signed by the authorised person with the Authority/Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling. The circular allowing manual filing of applications for advance ruling shall be effective only till such time online module is made available on the common portal. The GST portal provides the advance ruling application functionality. However, authorities in many States require hard copy submission of the application and supporting documents post filing of the appeal online.

97.3 Comparative review

The questions on which AAR can be sought are quite comprehensive as compared to the erstwhile indirect tax regime.

Under the erstwhile laws, the applicant may withdraw the application within 30 days from the date of application. However, there is no such express withdrawal provision under present GST law. This enables an applicant to withdraw the advance ruling application before a decision has been pronounced.

97.4 FAQs

- Q1. Should the applicant submit individual applications for advance ruling on various issues?
Ans. No. The applicant can choose to consolidate all the issues in one application for advance ruling. There is no bar in the law that not more than one question can be raised in a single application.
- Q2. Should the applicant make an application for Advance Ruling under CGST Act, SGST Act and IGST Act separately?

Ans. No. The applicant can file one consolidated application seeking an advance ruling on all matters irrespective of the GST legislation to which the issue pertains to.

98. Procedure on receipt of application

- (1) On receipt of an application, the Authority shall cause a copy thereof to be forwarded to the concerned officer and, if necessary, call upon him to furnish the relevant records: Provided that where any records have been called for by the Authority in any case, such records shall, as soon as possible, be returned to the said concerned officers.
- (2) The Authority may, after examining the application and the records called for and after hearing the applicant or his authorised representative and the concerned officer or his authorised representative, by order, either admit or reject the application: Provided that the Authority shall not admit the application where the question raised in the application is already pending or decided in any proceedings in the case of an applicant under any of the provisions of this Act: Provided further that no application shall be rejected under this sub-section unless an opportunity of hearing has been given to the applicant: Provided also that where the application is rejected, the reasons for such rejection shall be specified in the order.
- (3) A copy of every order made under sub-section (2) shall be sent to the applicant and to the concerned officer.
- (4) Where an application is admitted under sub-section (2), the Authority shall, after examining such further material as may be placed before it by the applicant or obtained by the Authority and after providing an opportunity of being heard to the applicant or his authorised representative as well as to the concerned officer or his authorised representative, pronounce its advance ruling on the question specified in the application.
- (5) Where the members of the Authority differ on any question on which the advance ruling is sought, they shall state the point or points on which they differ and make a reference to the Appellate Authority for hearing and decision on such question.
- (6) The Authority shall pronounce its advance ruling in writing within ninety days from the date of receipt of application.
- (7) A copy of the advance ruling pronounced by the Authority duly signed by the members and certified in such manner as may be prescribed shall be sent to the applicant, the concerned officer and the jurisdictional officer after such pronouncement.

Section or Rule	Description
Section 95	Definition of Advance Ruling
Section 101	Orders of Appellate Authority
Section 116	Appearance by authorised representative
Rule 107A	Manual filing and processing

98.1 Introduction

This section sets out the procedure to be followed by the AAR on receipt of an application for advance ruling by an applicant.

98.2 AnalysisReceipt of Application

- (i) On receipt of an application in Form GST ARA-01, the AAR shall forward a copy to the concerned officer and, if necessary, direct him to furnish the relevant records. Note that concerned officer is liable to provide 'interpretation' of the tax treatment applicable to the questions raised in the application. AAR is not bound to choose between the two interpretations (of applicant and of concerned officer) but conduct its own inquiry to reach a finding and pass its ruling.
- (ii) Such records should be returned as soon as possible to the concerned officer. No specific time limit has been set out for submission of the said records to the AAR
- (iii) The AAR may either accept or reject the application (if found non-maintainable) after considering the application, examining the records, hearing the applicant and the concerned officer or their authorised representatives. However, no application shall be rejected without giving the applicant an opportunity of being heard.
- (iv) Any application for advance ruling involving questions already pending or decided in any proceedings in the case of that applicant under any of the provisions of this Act shall not be admitted. A declaration is required to be made by the applicant at the time of filing the application to this extent. The provision does not define the term 'proceedings' nor does it mention any judicial forum before which the matter if pending the advance ruling application shall be rejected. Hence, this is an important point to take note of before filing an advance ruling application. Care should be taken to collect this information from clients in order to avoid rejections after filing. Point to be noted is that the concerned departmental officers of the applicant shall disclose the fact to the AAR in case of any initiation of proceedings against the applicant. Many applications have been rejected by AARs of different States where the question raised was pertaining to eligibility of ITC on inward supplies for construction of immovable property which is to be let out on rent. In the case of Vikram Traders [2020 (3) TMI 893- AAR Karnataka] the application was rejected on the ground that the matter was pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of M/s. Safari Retreats Private Limited and Another vs. Chief Commissioner of Central Goods & Service Tax & Others [2019 (5) TMI 1278 - (Orissa High Court)] and therefore the application was rejected as the matter was subjudice. This rejection is not legally untenable as the provision states that the matter shall be pending/decided in any proceedings in the case of the applicant only. Thus, it is important to note that issues pending or decided in a proceeding in respect of another person will not disentitle the applicant from seeking an advance ruling on the same issue.

- (v) Where the application is finally rejected, the reasons for such rejection shall be stated in the order.
- (vi) A copy of every order admitting or rejecting shall be sent to the applicant and to the concerned officer.

Pronouncement of advance ruling

Where the application is admitted, the AAR shall proceed as follows:

- Examine such further material as may be placed before it by the applicant or obtained by the AAR.
- Provide opportunity of being heard to the applicant or his authorized representative as well as to the concerned officer or his authorized representative.
- Pronounce its advance ruling in writing on the question(s) specified in the application within 90 days from the date of receipt of application. Delay beyond 90 days is not expected to be fatal to the binding nature of ruling passed beyond this time limit.

Reference to Appellate Authority

- (i) Where the members of the AAR differ on any question on which the advance ruling is sought, they shall state the point(s) of difference and refer it to AAAR for final decision. The time period within which a reference can be made to the AAAR is not prescribed in the Act nor there is any clarity if any fees for filing an appeal is required to be deposited.
- (ii) The AAAR to whom a reference is made is required to pronounce the ruling within ninety days of such reference.

Communication of advance ruling pronounced.

A copy of the advance ruling pronounced by the concerned AAR, duly signed by the members and certified, shall be sent to the applicant, concerned officer and jurisdictional officer after pronouncement. A copy of the advance ruling shall be certified to be a true copy of its original by any member of the Authority for Advance Ruling.

98.3 Comparative review

- (i) The provision has some similarities with the advance ruling provisions in Central Indirect Tax laws.
- (ii) In case of difference of opinion, the matter would be directly referred to AAAR, which is a new development.

An analysis of the above provision is presented in the following flowchart:

APPLICATION FOR ADVANCE RULING – SECTIONS: 98 & 97

* Not to admit if already decided or pending under any provisions of the Act.

Procedure for Advance ruling*98.4 FAQs

Q1. When can the AAR reject the application for advance ruling?

Ans. AAR shall not admit the application where the issue raised is already pending or decided in any proceedings in the case of an applicant under any of the provisions of this Act or is not in relation to the issues prescribed under section 97(2) of the CGST Act.

Q2. Can an application be rejected without providing the applicant an opportunity of being heard?

Ans. No. Before rejecting the application, the AAR is bound to provide the applicant with an opportunity of being heard.

Q3. Is it necessary to specify reasons for rejecting an application in the order of the AAR?

Ans. Yes. Where the application is rejected, reasons for such rejection shall be given in the order.

Q4. When should a reference be made to AAAR?

Ans. A reference shall be made to AAAR stating the point of differences, when the members of the Authority differ on any question on which advance ruling is sought.

99.1 Introduction

The Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling shall be constituted in each State/UT. The State Government may, on the recommendations of the Council, notify any Appellate Authority located in another State or Union territory to act as AAAR for the State.

99.2 Analysis

AAAR constituted in each State/UT shall be deemed to be the AAAR in respect of that State/UT which will entertain appeals against any advance ruling that is passed by the AAR of that State/UT. However, similar to section 96 in respect of AAR, a State Government may, on the recommendations of the Council, notify any Appellate Authority located in another State/UT to act as AAAR for the State.

AAAR shall consist of Members representing the Central GST and the State GST. The Chief Commissioner of central tax as designated by the Board and the Commissioner of State tax shall constitute the AAAR .

99.3 Comparative Review

This is a new concept hitherto not found in the pre-GST regime. Under erstwhile tax laws, there was no provision for an Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling.

100.1 Introduction

This section deals with the procedure to be followed for filing of an appeal before the Appellate Authority against the ruling` of the Authority under section 98(4).

100.2 Analysis

- (i) An appeal can be filed by the concerned officer or jurisdictional officer or the applicant, who is aggrieved by the ruling.
- (ii) Reference application may also be filed by AAR (when they are not in agreement inter se) to seek resolution by AAAR.
- (iii) The appeal should be filed within 30 days from the date of receipt of the ruling. This period can be further extended for another 30 days, if there is sufficient cause for not filing the appeal within the first 30 days.
- (iv) The appeal shall be filed by the aggrieved applicant in Form GST ARA-02 along with a fee of ₹ 10,000/- to be paid under the CGST Act and ₹ 10,000/- under the respective SGST Act. The payment has to be made online by debiting the electronic cash ledger only.
- (v) An appeal preferred by the concerned officer or the jurisdictional officer shall be in the prescribed Form GST ARA-03 without any fee and shall be signed by an officer authorized in writing by such officer.
- (vi) The procedure for manual filing has been detailed in Circular No. 25/25/2017-GST dated 21.12.2017. The same has been discussed in Para 97.2

100.3 Comparative review

This is a new mechanism evolved which was not prevalent in the erstwhile indirect tax regime.

100.4 FAQs

Q1. Who can file an appeal before AAAR ?

Ans. The concerned officer or jurisdictional officer or the applicant may file an appeal before AAAR , if he is aggrieved by the advance ruling pronounced by the Authority under section 98(4).

Q2. What is the time limit for filing an appeal before AAAR ?

Ans. The time limit for filing an appeal before AAAR is 30 days from the date of communication of the advance ruling to the aggrieved party. This time limit can be further extended by another 30 days if sufficient cause is shown for not filing the appeal within the first 30 days.

Statutory provisions*101. Orders of Appellate Authority

- (1) The Appellate Authority may, after giving the parties to the appeal an opportunity of being heard, pass such order as it thinks fit, confirming or modifying the ruling appealed against or referred to.
- (2) The order referred to in sub-section (1) shall be passed within a period of ninety days from the date of filing of the appeal under section 100 or a reference under sub-section (5) of section 98.
- (3) Where the members of the Appellate Authority differ on any point or points referred to in appeal or reference, it shall be deemed that no advance ruling can be issued in respect of the question under the appeal or reference.
- (4) A copy of the advance ruling pronounced by the Appellate Authority duly signed by the Members and certified in such manner as may be prescribed shall be sent to the applicant, the concerned officer/the jurisdictional officer and to the Authority after such pronouncement.

Section 97	Application for Advance Ruling
Section 99	Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling
Section 49	Payment of tax, interest, penalty and other amounts
Rule 26	Method of authentication

101.1 Introduction

This section prescribes the procedure to be followed by AAAR where an appeal has been preferred against an advance ruling by the AAR under section 98(4) or a reference has been made to it by the AAR under section 98(5).

101.2 Analysis

- (i) The AAAR must afford a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the parties before passing the order in which it may choose to either:
  - (a) Confirm the Advance Ruling passed by the AAR, or ;
  - (b) Modify the Advance Ruling appealed against; or
  - (c) Pass such orders as it may deem fit.
- (ii) The order should be passed within 90 days from the date of filing of the appeal or date of reference by the AAR.
- (iii) If there is a difference of opinion between members of the AAAR on the question covered under the appeal, then it would be considered that no advance ruling can be issued in respect of that matter on which no consensus was reached by the members. Thus, all matters or questions for which an advance ruling has been sought will not be deemed to be matters against which no advance ruling can be passed if AAAR has reached a consensus on other matters or questions raised therein.

Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling – Section: 100 and 101

101.3 Issues and Concerns

- (i) Is the AAAR empowered to decide only such matters contained in the Advance Ruling against which the appellant is aggrieved or can the Appellate Authority review the entire impugned Advance Ruling against which an appeal has been preferred?
- (ii) Where the advance ruling has been issued by the AAR under section 98(4) of the Act and the same has been the subject matter of an appeal before AAAR, what is the status of the original ruling during the interim period until the appeal has reached finality? Would the appellants and other parties to the advance ruling be obliged to conform to the advance ruling during the interim period?
- (iii) Where an advance ruling given by the AAR has been appealed against and in respect of which the members of AAAR have not been able to reach a conclusion, would such a question or matter still be deemed to be a matter against which no advance ruling can be issued although the AAR had originally decided the issue?
- (iv) It is important to note that no time limit has been prescribed for making a reference to AAAR.

101.4 FAQs

Q1. What is the time limit for passing an order by AAAR?

Ans. The time limit for passing an order by AAAR is 90 days from the date of filing of appeal.

Q2. Under what circumstances will it be deemed that no advance ruling can be issued in respect of the question covered under the appeal?

Ans. Where the members of AAAR differ on any point or points of the question referred to them in appeal under section 101(3), then it shall be deemed that no advance ruling can be issued in respect of the question covered under the appeal.

Q3. Can the ruling by AAAR be challenged in a higher Court of law?

Ans. The CGST/SGST Act clearly states that the advance ruling shall be binding on the applicant in respect of any matter on which the advance ruling has been sought and as such it does not provide for any appeal against the ruling of Appellate Authority for Advance Rulings. Thus, no further appeal lies and the ruling shall be binding on the applicant as well as the jurisdictional officer in respect of applicant. However, the writ jurisdiction may be invoked before the Hon'ble High Court or the Supreme Court.

101A.1 Introduction

This section provides for Constitution of NAAAR. Each State has separate Appellate Authority which gives its advance ruling on issues sought by the applicants. Many rulings of different States have contradictory ruling due to which a necessity of a Central Appellate Authority was felt. This authority is constituted for addressing the conflicting decisions of different Appellate Authorities.

101A.2 Analysis

Constitution of NAAAR

The NAAAR shall consist of—

- (i) the President, who has been a Judge of the Supreme Court or is or has been the Chief Justice of a High Court, or is or has been a Judge of a High Court for a period not less than five years;

- (ii) a Technical Member (Centre) who is or has been a member of Indian Revenue (Customs and Central Excise) Service, Group A, and has completed at least 15 years of service in Group A;
- (iii) a Technical Member (State) who is or has been an officer of the State Government not below the rank of Additional Commissioner of Value Added Tax or the Additional Commissioner of State tax with at least 3 years of experience in the administration of an existing law or the SGST Act or in the field of finance and taxation.

Appointment

- The President of the NAAAR shall be appointed by the Government after consultation with the Chief Justice of India or his nominee.
- The Technical Member (Centre) and Technical Member (State) of the NAAAR shall be appointed by the Government on the recommendations of a Selection Committee consisting of such persons and in such manner as may be prescribed.
- No appointment of the Members of the NAAAR shall be invalid merely by the reason of any vacancy or defect in the Constitution of the Selection Committee.
- Before appointing any person as the President or Members of the NAAAR, the Government shall satisfy itself that such person does not have any financial or other interests which are likely to prejudicially affect his functions as such President or Member.

Salary and Allowances

The salary, allowances and other terms and conditions of service of the President and the Members of the NAAAR shall be such as may be prescribed.

Tenure

The President of the NAAAR shall hold office for a term of 3 years from the date on which he enters upon his office, or until he attains the age of 70 years, whichever is earlier and shall also be eligible for reappointment.

The Technical Member (Centre) or Technical Member (State) of the NAAAR shall hold office for a term of 5 years from the date on which he enters upon his office, or until he attains the age of 65 years, whichever is earlier and shall also be eligible for reappointment.

Resignation

The President or any Member may, by notice in writing under his hand addressed to the Government, resign from his office. Provided that the President or Member shall continue to hold office until the expiry of 3 months from the date of receipt of such notice by the Government, or until a person duly appointed as his successor enters upon his office or until the expiry of his term of office, whichever is the earliest.

Removal

The Government may, after consultation with the Chief Justice of India, remove from the office such President or Member, who—

- (a) has been adjudged an insolvent; or
- (b) has been convicted of an offence which, in the opinion of such Government involves moral turpitude; or
- (c) has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as such President or Member; or
- (d) has acquired such financial or other interest as is likely to affect prejudicially his functions as such President or Member; or
- (e) has so abused his position as to render his continuance in office prejudicial to the public interest.

However, the President or the Member shall not be removed on any of the grounds specified in clauses (d) and (e), unless he has been informed of the charges against him and has been given an opportunity of being heard.

Further, the President and Technical Members of the NAAAR shall not be removed from their office except by an order made by the Government on the ground of proven misbehaviour or incapacity after an inquiry made by a Judge of the Supreme Court nominated by the Chief Justice of India on a reference made to him by the Government and such President or Member had been given an opportunity of being heard.

Restrictions

Subject to the provisions of Article 220 of the Constitution, the President or Members of the NAAAR, on ceasing to hold their office, shall not be eligible to appear, act or plead before the NAAAR where he was the President or, as the case may be, a Member

101A.3 Comparative review

AAR shall not admit the application where the issue raised is already pending or decided in any proceedings in the case of an applicant under any of the provisions of this Act or is not in relation to the issues prescribed under section 97(2) of the CGST Act.

Q2. Who shall appoint the President and the members of the NAAAR?

Ans. The President of the NAAAR shall be appointed by the Government after consultation with the Chief Justice of India or his nominee

The Technical Member (Centre) and Technical Member (State) of the NAAAR shall be appointed by the Government on the recommendations of a Selection Committee consisting of such persons and in such manner as may be prescribed.

Q3. What is the tenure of holding office by the President and the members of the NAAAR?

Ans. The President of the NAAAR shall hold office for a term of 3 years from the date on which he enters upon his office, or until he attains the age of 70 years, whichever is earlier and shall also be eligible for reappointment.

The Technical Member (Centre) or Technical Member (State) of the NAAAR shall hold office for a term of 5 years from the date on which he enters upon his office, or until he attains the age of 65 years, whichever is earlier and shall also be eligible for reappointment.

Q4. When can the President and the Members of the NAAAR be removed from holding office?

Ans. The Government may, after consultation with the Chief Justice of India, remove from the office such President or Member, who—

- (a) has been adjudged an insolvent; or
- (b) has been convicted of an offence which, in the opinion of such Government involves moral turpitude; or
- (c) has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as such President or Member; or
- (d) has acquired such financial or other interest as is likely to affect prejudicially his functions as such President or Member; or
- (e) has so abused his position as to render his continuance in office prejudicial to the public interest:

However, the President or the Member shall not be removed on any of the grounds specified in clauses (d) and (e), unless he has been informed of the charges against him and has been given an opportunity of being heard.

Further, such removal shall not take place, except by an order made by the Government on the ground of proven misbehaviour or incapacity after an inquiry made by a Judge of the Supreme Court nominated by the Chief Justice of India on a reference made to him by the Government and such President or Member had been given an opportunity of being heard.

101B.1 Introduction

This section prescribes the procedure to be followed where in respect of the questions referred to sub-section (2) of section 97, two or more conflicting advance rulings are given by Appellate Authorities of two or more States or Union Territories or both under sub section (1) or sub-section (3) of section 101, any officer authorised by Commissioner or Applicant, may prefer an appeal to NAAAR.

101B.2 Analysis

- (i) Where on questions referred to in sub-section (2) of section 97 conflicting advance ruling are given by the Appellate Authorities of two or more States or Union Territories or both under sub section (1) or sub-section (3) of section 101, any officer authorised by Commissioner or Applicant being distinct person, may prefer an appeal to NAAAR. The officer mentioned above shall be from the respective States in which such advance ruling has been sought. It is to be noted that only an applicant, being a distinct person (section 25) who is aggrieved by the ruling can prefer an appeal before the NAAAR. E.g.: Head office in Chennai has received a ruling from TN AAAR and the branch office in Bengaluru has received a contradictory ruling from the Karnataka AAAR. The appeal can be preferred only by such persons as the Head office and Branch office in different States are considered as distinct persons under the GST law.
- (ii) The appeal shall be filed within 30 days from the date on which ruling sought to be appealed against is communicated to the applicants and concerned officers. The officer authorised by Commissioner can file an appeal within a period of 90 days from the date of communication.
- (iii) The above period can be further extended for another 30 days, if there is sufficient cause for not filing the appeal within the first 30/90 days.
- (iv) The appeal above shall be filed in such form, accompanied by such fee and verified in such manner as may be prescribed.
- (v) NAAAR has not yet been constituted to take office and discharge functions. Pending the same, judicial review is the alternate remedy where conflict discussed in section 101A arises and is adverse to the applicant.

101B.3 Comparative review

This is a new mechanism evolved which was not prevalent in the erstwhile indirect tax regime.

101B.4 FAQs

Q1. When can an appeal be preferred to NAAAR?

Ans. In case, conflicting rulings are given by the Appellate Authorities of two or more States or Union Territories or both under Section 101(1) or (3), any office authorised by the Commissioner or an Applicant, being distinct persons aggrieved by such advance rulings, may prefer an appeal to NAAAR.

Q2. What is the time limit period for filing the appeal?

Ans. An appeal shall be filed within 30 days from the date on which the ruling sought to be appealed against is communicated to the applicant, concerned officers and jurisdictional officers.

101B.5 MCQs

Q1. The time limit for filing appeal for the officer authorised by the Commissioner is -

- (a) 30 days from the date of the order

101C.2 Analysis

- (i) The NAAAR must afford a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the parties before passing the order in which it may choose to either:
  - (a) Confirm the Advance Ruling passed by the AAAR
  - (b) Modify the Advance Ruling appealed against
  - (c) Pass such orders as it may deem fit
- (ii) If the Members of NAAAR differ in opinion at any point it shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority.
- (iii) The order should be passed within 90 days from the date of filing of the appeal under section 101B.
- (iv) The order should be duly signed by the members of NAA and certified in such manner as may be prescribed. It is interesting to see overriding effect being allowed by the Parliament in respect of the conflicting rulings (by AAR or even AAAR ) of any State.

1. The rectification may be made by the AAR, AAAR or NAAAR within six months from the date of the order and shall not result in a substantial amendment to the order being rectified. It is not clear from the language of section 102, as to whether the error has to be noticed within six months or the amendment has to be made within six months. The rectification shall not arise on account of any interpretational issues or change in views and opinions of the members of the AAR, Appellate Authority and NAAAR.

In the proviso to this section, it is mentioned that no rectification which has the effect of enhancing the tax liability or reducing the amount of admissible input tax credit shall be made unless the applicant or the appellant has been given an opportunity of being heard.

The AAR, Appellate authority or NAAAR may amend the order to rectify any mistake apparent from records, if such mistake:

- (a) Is noticed by it on its own accord, or
- (b) Is brought to its notice by the concerned or the jurisdictional officer or the applicant or the appellant the AAR or the AAAR.

102.3 FAQs

Q1. When can an advance ruling order be rectified?

Ans. An advance ruling may be amended by the AAR or the AAAR or the or NAAAR as the case may be, with a view to rectify any mistake apparent from the record, which:

- (a) is noticed by the AAR, AAAR or NAAAR on its own accord, or
- (b) is brought to its notice by the concerned officer or the jurisdictional officer or the applicant or the appellant or the AAR or the AAAR;

Q2. Under what circumstances a notice is required to be issued to the applicant or appellant, as the case may be, before rectification of an advance ruling order?

Ans. Before rectification of an advance ruling order, a notice is required to be issued to the applicant or appellant, as the case may be, to provide him a reasonable opportunity of being heard, if such rectification has the effect of:

- (i) enhancing the tax liability or
- (ii) reducing the amount of admissible input tax credit.

102.4 MCQs

Q1. Rectification of order can be done under which of the following circumstances:

- (a) to do justice
- (b) when there is a mistake apparent on record

- (c) if it is in the interest of revenue
- (d) none of the above.

Ans. (b) when there is a mistake apparent on record.

Q2. The time limit to rectify the order is -

- (a) Three months from the date of the order
- (b) Six months from the date of the order
- (c) Six months from the date of communication of the order
- (d) None of the above

Ans. (b) Six months from the date of the order

Related Provisions of the Statute:

Section or Rule	Description
Section 95	Definitions of Advance Ruling
Section 97	Application for Advance Ruling

103.1 Introduction

This provision specifies the persons to whom the advance ruling will apply and the period for which the advance ruling shall stay in effect.

103.2 Analysis

- (i) The advance ruling pronounced by the Authority under this chapter shall be binding only on the applicant and on the concerned officer or the jurisdictional officer in respect of the applicant. It is important to note the advance ruling is GSTIN specific. That is to say, the advance ruling obtained by an applicant would not be applicable to other distinct persons of such applicant. As such, it may be advisable to make the application for advance ruling by a distinct person, other than the distinct person who is desirous of undertaking such activity because the person making the application shall be bound by the advance ruling and not the other distinct person. However, advance ruling pronounced by NAAAR shall be binding on all registered persons having the same Permanent Account Number issued under the Income-tax Act, 1961.
- (ii) Therefore, an applicant/appellant does not have an option but to abide by the advance ruling that he had applied for, except approaching a higher court through a writ petition.
- (iii) The advance ruling shall be binding on the said person/authority unless there is a change in law or facts or circumstances, on the basis of which the advance ruling has been pronounced. When any change occurs in such laws, facts or circumstances, the advance ruling shall no longer be binding on such person.
- (iv) Although an advance ruling may not be binding on persons other than the applicant or the appellant, it does throw light on the manner in which the law is being understood and interpreted. Other assesses should carefully draw inferences from the advance rulings.
- (v) The above provision which seeks to bind only the applicant to the advance ruling could be misused by which applications for advance rulings are filed through a proxy carrying on business with the same/similar business model or issues. This would help gauge the interpretation of the revenue officers without having to be bound by the ruling.

103.3 Issues and Concerns

- (i) An advance ruling would be in effect only till such time that the law, facts of the case or circumstances on which the original advance ruling was based, remain unchanged. One has to consider if Circulars issued by the CBIC subsequent to an advance ruling can be considered to be a change in law, as may be contended by the proper officers. Circulars do not have any legal authority and are binding only on the Department; as such issue of Circulars cannot be termed as change in law.

- (ii) Care should be taken while implementing the decision of the AAR/AAAR/NAAAR. If the law, facts and circumstances have been the same since the inception of the GST law, then there is a probability that demands can be raised for the past periods for applying the law differently in the past. In other words, the advance ruling decisions are considered to be retrospectively applicable and not prospectively. E.g.: An AR was filed seeking clarification on the tax rate applicable to a particular supply of goods. These goods have been supplied in the past too, say @ 12%. The tax rate decided by the AAR is 18%. The applicant runs the risk of facing demand for the period prior to making the application since the product and the provisions of the law were the same for the past periods too. Hence, it is important to weigh this risk of litigation for the past periods before filing an application for advance ruling.

103.4 Comparative review

The provision is similar to the advance ruling provisions in erstwhile Central Indirect Tax Laws as contained in section 23E of the Central Excise Act, section 28J of the Customs Act and section 96E of the Finance Act, 1994.

103.5 FAQs

Q1. Is the advance ruling pronounced by the AAR / AAAR binding on other assessee?

Ans. The advance ruling pronounced by the AAR or the AAAR shall be binding only -

- (a) on the applicant who had sought it in respect of any matter referred to section 97(2);
- (b) on the concerned officer or jurisdictional officer in respect of the applicant.

Q2. Are all the tax authorities bound by the advance ruling?

Ans. Only the jurisdictional officer/concerned officer, in respect of applicant who has sought advance ruling, are bound by the advance ruling.

Section 74	Determination of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised by reason of fraud or any wilful misstatement or suppression of facts

104.1 Introduction

It states the circumstances under which the ruling would be considered as void ab initio and the resultant impact.

104.2 Analysis

- (i) Where the Authorities (AAR, AAAR or NAAAR, as the case may be) subsequently discover that an advance ruling has been obtained by the applicant or appellant fraudulently or by way of suppression of material facts or misrepresentation of facts, the Authorities are empowered to declare such a ruling to be void ab initio.
- (ii) The above would result in all the provisions of the Act becoming applicable to the applicant as if such advance ruling had never been made.
- (iii) However, no such order can be passed by the AAR, AAAR and NAAAR without giving the applicant/ the appellant an opportunity of being heard. A copy of such order, once passed, shall be sent to the applicant, appellant, AAR, AAAR, NAAAR and the concerned/jurisdictional officer.

- (iv) The period beginning with the date of advance ruling and ending with the date of order declaring the advance ruling to be void ab initio shall be excluded in computing the period for issuance of show-cause notice and adjudication order under sub-sections (2) and (10) of both sections 73 and 74.

Sections 73(2) and 73(10) specify the time limit within which a show cause notice and adjudication order respectively, may be issued/made in a case where the tax is not paid, short paid, erroneously refunded or ITC has been wrongly availed or utilised for any reason, other than the reason of fraud or any wilful-misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax.

Similarly, sections 74(2) and 74(10) specify the time limit within which a show cause notice and adjudication order respectively, may be issued in a case where the tax is not paid, short paid, erroneously refunded or ITC has been wrongly availed or utilised by reason of fraud or any wilful misstatement or suppression of facts.

The period of limitation for raising a demand for recovery under section 73(10) and section 74(10) has been pegged at 3 years and 5 years respectively from the date of furnishing the annual return for the financial year in respect of which a demand is being raised or from the date of erroneous refund. The said period of 3 and 5 years shall be extended by a period equivalent to the period beginning with the date of advance ruling and ending with the date of order declaring the advance ruling to be void ab initio, to enable the officer to issue a show cause notice or adjudication order.

What this section seeks to do is to provide the proper officers an additional time period to recover such amount from the applicant/appellant as would have been payable by him had he not sought the advance ruling fraudulently. This section puts great responsibility on the applicant to ensure that all necessary material facts are disclosed in the application so as to provide a true and correct picture of the business/transaction being undertaken. If the ruling has been obtained by suppressing material facts, then the other audit and investigation proceedings can be initiated against the applicant.

104.3 Issues and Concerns

- (i) One should consider if this section can be made applicable to render an advance ruling void ab initio in bona fide cases where the applicant/appellant himself was not aware of certain facts at the time of seeking the advance ruling.
- (ii) Would the advance ruling also be declared to be void ab initio where an applicant on subsequent realisation of having genuinely erred in placing the facts before the AAR, AAAR or NAAAR, voluntarily brings it to the notice of the AAR or AAAR or NAAAR? Or would it be more appropriate for such an applicant to seek another advance ruling based on current facts that have subsequently come to his notice?

- (iii) Where the applicant/appellant has raised multiple issues to be decided by way of an advance ruling and it was subsequently discovered by the Authorities that there was suppression of fact in respect of one particular issue, can the advance ruling be held to be valid in respect of the other issues raised therein not involving any suppression of fact?

104.4 Comparative review

The provision relating to the circumstances when an advance ruling can be declared void ab initio are more or less the same as those in the erstwhile Central Indirect Tax Laws as contained in section 23F of the Central Excise Act, section 28K of the Customs Act and section 96F of the Finance Act, 1994 except that under GST laws, an additional criterion of “suppression of material facts” has been added to serve as a basis for declaring an advance ruling as void ab initio.

104.5 FAQs

Q1. Can an advance ruling be declared to be void without hearing?

Ans. No. An advance ruling cannot be declared to be void unless an opportunity of being heard has been given.

Q2. Under what circumstances advance ruling can be declared as void?

Ans. The AAR or AAAR or NAAAR may declare an advance ruling to be void ab initio if it the applicant or the appellant, as the case may be, has obtained it by fraud, suppression of material facts or misrepresentation of facts.

Section 228 of the IPC	Intentional insult or interruption to public servant sitting in judicial proceeding
Section 196 of the IPC	Using evidence known to be false

105.1 Introduction

The provision specifies the powers conferred on the AAR, AAAR and NAAAR in the discharge of their functions.

105.2 Analysis

- (i) The Authorities have all such powers of a Civil Court as set out under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 for the purpose of discovery and inspection, enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath, issuing commissions and compelling production of books of account and other records.

The Authorities are deemed to be a Civil Court for the purposes of section 195, except for the purposes of Chapter XXVI of the CrPC . The CrPC is a code to regulate the provisions relating to criminal procedure. Section 195 of CrPC bars any Court from taking cognizance of offences relating to contempt of the lawful authority of public servants, except on a complaint in writing of the public servant concerned or of some other public servant to which he is administratively subordinate. The object of the said section is to "protect persons from being vexatiously prosecuted upon inadequate materials or insufficient grounds". Section 195 of CrPC provides the mandatory prerequisites, before a court can take cognizance of the offences specified therein. The procedure to be followed in such cases, where the court desires to initiate prosecution in respect of the offence(s) committed during, or in relation to, a proceeding before itself, is provided under section 340 of CrPC. The definition of 'Court' given in section 195 has been applied to section 340 under Chapter XXVI of the CrPC. Thus, the advance ruling authorities will not be considered as a 'Court' for the provisions of Chapter XXVI.

- (ii) Every proceeding before the Authorities shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193, 196 and 228 of the IPC. This implies that even though the members of the AAR, AAAR and NAAAR may not be persons of judicial background, the proceedings before the three advance ruling authorities are considered as if the proceedings are held before a Judge.

105.3 Comparative review

The powers remain exactly the same as have been specified in section 23G of the Central Excise Act, section 28L of the Customs Act and section 96G of the Finance Act, 1994.

105.4 FAQs

Q1. What are the powers vested with the AAR and AAAR ?

Ans. The AAR or AAAR or NAAAR shall have all the powers of a Civil Court in respect of the following:

- (i) discovery and inspection;

Statutory provisions

106. Procedure of Authority, Appellate Authority <sup>19</sup>[and National Appellate Authority]

The Authority or the Appellate Authority <sup>19</sup>[or the National Appellate Authority] shall, subject to the provisions of this Chapter, have power to regulate its own procedure.

106.1 Introduction

It seeks to empower the AAR, AAAR and NAAAR to regulate their own procedures.

106.2 Analysis

The Authorities shall have the power to regulate their own procedure.

106.4 Comparative review

The powers remain exactly the same as are contained in section 23H of the Central Excise Act, section 28L of the Customs Act and section 96H of the Finance Act.

106.5 Issues and Concerns

Various States have constituted Advance Ruling Authority and are issuing the Advance Ruling on various issues under the GST Law. There is no provision that the Advance Ruling pronounced in one State is applicable to all the States and Union Territories. There is possibility of difference of advance ruling by different States and accordingly it will be applicable to respective States only. Alternatively, just as the rulings of the NAAAR are binding on the persons registered under the same PAN, the decisions of one AAR can be made binding on all the persons registered under the same PAN.

NOTE – Readers may note that the provisions related to National Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling (NAAAR) discussed in this Chapter are yet to come into force.

Rule 26	Method of Authentication
Rule 108(3)	Time limit for submitting a copy/decision/order

107.1 Introduction

- (a) This section pertains to appeals to the appellate authority by any person who is aggrieved against any decision or order passed by the adjudicating authority.
- (b) Adjudicating authority means any Authority appointed or authorized to pass any order or decision under this Act but does not include CBIC, revisional authority, Advance Ruling Authority, Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling, National Appellate Authority for Advance Rulings, the Appellate Authority, the Appellate Tribunal and Anti-profiteering Authority. (Section 2(4))
- (c) Appellate Authority means an authority appointed or authorised to hear appeals as referred to in Section 107.
- (d) This section also provides for appeal by the tax authorities against a decision or order passed by adjudicating authority.

107.2 Analysis

- (i) An assessee, aggrieved by any decision or order passed by adjudicating authority may prefer an appeal within a period of three months from the date of communication of decision or order in Form GST APL-01, along with relevant documents either electronically or otherwise as notified by the Commissioner against which a provisional acknowledgement will be issued immediately. The grounds of appeal and form of verification must be duly signed as specified in rule 26. The certified copy of the decision or order is to be filed before the Appellate Authority within 7 days of filing the appeal. Thereafter, a final acknowledgement indicating the appeal number shall be issued in Form GST APL-02 by the said authority. In such a situation, the appeal shall be deemed to be filed on the date of issue of provisional acknowledgement. In case the said certified copy is submitted after a period of seven days, the date of filing of appeal shall be the date of submission of such copy. The appeal shall be considered as filed only when the final acknowledgement, indicating the appeal number is issued. Hence where the certified copy is not submitted within seven days, the date of submission of the same shall be the date of filing of appeal.

- (ii) Alternatively, the Commissioner of Central / State or any Union Territory can, with a view to satisfy himself about the legality or propriety of any order or decision passed by an adjudicating authority, direct a subordinate officer to file an application before the appellate authority within six months from the date of communication of decision or order in Form GST APL-03, along with relevant documents either electronically or otherwise as notified against issue of an acknowledgement. A certified copy of the decision or order of the appeal is to be filed before the Appellate Authority within seven days of filing the application and an appeal number shall be generated accordingly.
- (iii) The appellate authority shall treat the application filed by authorized officer as if such authorized officer is the appellant and the provisions of the Act relating to appeal will be applicable to such application.
- (iv) The Appellate Authority in either of the above cases is empowered to condone the delay up to a period of one month.
- (v) The appeal has to be filed before the following authorities:
  - Commissioner (Appeals) where such decision or order is passed by the Additional or Joint Commissioner; and
  - Any officer not below the rank of Joint Commissioner (Appeals) where such decision or order is passed by the Deputy or Assistant Commissioner or Superintendent
- (vi) The appeal has to be filed in the prescribed form and manner along with payment of:
  - amount of tax, interest, fine, fee and penalty, as is admitted, in full; and
  - pre-deposit of sum equal to 10 per cent of the remaining amount of tax in dispute (subject to a maximum of twenty- five crore rupees (effective from 01.02.2019).
- (vii) In Jyoti Construction v. Deputy Commissioner of CT & GST, Barbil Circle 2021 (10) TMI 524, a Division Bench of the Hon'ble Orissa High Court held that pre-deposit cannot be paid using balance of ITC in the electronic credit ledger.

- (viii) On payment of the above amount, the recovery proceedings for balance amount are deemed to be stayed.
- (ix) The Appellate Authority shall give an opportunity to the appellant of being heard.
- (x) Not more than three adjournments could be granted to a party on showing reasonable cause that is to be recorded in writing.
- (xi) The Appellate authority may allow any additional grounds not specified in the grounds of appeal on being satisfied that the omission was not wilful or unreasonable.
- (xii) The Appellate Authority has to pass an order confirming, modifying or annulling the decision or order appealed against, but shall not remand the case back to the adjudicating authority. This power of remand was a major reason of dispute in the erstwhile regime but now the same is settled.
- (xiii) Opportunity of being heard to be granted in case of order for enhancing fees or penalty or fine in lieu of confiscation of goods or reducing the amount of refund/input tax credit after issuing show cause notice.
- (xiv) The Appellate Authority has power to issue show cause notice in case it is of the opinion that any tax has not been paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit is wrongly availed or utilised.
- (xv) The Appellate Authority has to hear and decide the appeal, wherever possible, within a period of one year from the date of filing the appeal.
- (xvi) Where the issuance of order is stayed by an order of a court or Tribunal, the period of such stay shall be excluded in computing the period of one year.
- (xvii) The Appellate Authority is required to communicate the copy of order to the appellant, the respondent, the adjudicating authority, Jurisdictional Commissioner of CGST, SGST and UTGST or an authority designated in their behalf
- (xviii) The order passed under this section shall be final and binding on the parties subject to provisions of section 108 (powers of Revisional Authority) or section 113 (Orders of Appellate Tribunal) or section 117 (Appeal to High Court).
- (xix) The Appellate Authority shall, along with its order under sub-section (11) of section 107 of the Act, issue a summary of the order in Form GST APL-04 clearly indicating the final amount of demand confirmed. The jurisdictional officer shall issue a statement in Form APL-04 clearly indicating the final amount of demand confirmed by the Appellate Tribunal.

107.3 Comparative review

- (i) Similar provisions can be found in section 84 & 85 of the Finance Act, 1994 & section 35 of the Central Excise Act, 1944
- (ii) Under service tax and central excise, an appeal was required to be filed by an assessee before the Commissioner (Appeals) against the order of the adjudicating authority, within two months from the date of receipt of the decision or order of such adjudicating authority.

- (iii) The pre-deposit of tax for filing an appeal before Commissioner (Appeals) under service tax and central excise was 7.5 per cent of the disputed duty/tax/penalty, as the case may be.
- (iv) After examining the records of proceedings related to the decision or order passed by the adjudicating authority subordinate to him, the Principal Commissioner of Central Excise or Commissioner of Central Excise may pass an order for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of any such decision or order and may, by order, direct such authority or any Central Excise Officer subordinate to him to apply to the Commissioner of Central Excise (Appeals) for the determination of such points arising out of the decision or order as may be specified by the [Principal Commissioner of Central Excise or] Commissioner of Central Excise in his order.
- (v) Under the service tax, earlier the time limit for filing first appeal to CCE (Appeals) by the adjudicating authority was one month from the date of order or decision of the Principal Commissioner of Central Excise or Commissioner of Central Excise.

Statutory Provisions

108. Powers of Revisional Authority

- (1) Subject to the provisions of section 121 and any rules made thereunder, the Revisional Authority may, on his own motion, or upon information received by him or on request from the commissioner of State tax or the Commissioner of Union Territory tax, call for and examine the record of any proceedings and if he considers that any decision or order passed under this Act or under the State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act by any officer subordinate to him is erroneous in so far as it is prejudicial to the interest of Revenue and is illegal or improper or has not taken into account certain material facts, whether available at the time of issuance of said order or not or in consequence of an observation by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India, he may, if necessary, stay the operation of such decision or order for such period as he deems fit and after giving the person concerned an opportunity of being heard and after making such further inquiry as may be necessary, pass such order, as he thinks just and proper, including enhancing or modifying or annulling the said decision or order.
- (2) The revisional authority shall not exercise any power under sub-section (1), if -

Section 107	Appeals to Appellate Authority
Section 112	Appeals to Appellate Tribunal
Section 117	Appeals to High Court
Section 118	Appeals to Supreme Court

108.1 Introduction

This section pertains to powers of revisional authority.

108.2 Analysis

- (i) "Revisional authority" means an authority appointed or authorised for revision of decision or orders as referred to in this section.
- (ii) The revisional authority is empowered to examine any proceedings and stay the operation of any decision or order, if he considers that such decision or order passed by any officer subordinate to him is erroneous in so far as it is prejudicial to the interest of the Revenue or illegal or improper or has not taken into account certain material facts.
- (iii) After giving the concerned person an opportunity of being heard and making further necessary inquiry, the revisional authority may pass an order within three years of passing of the said order sought to be revised including enhancing or modifying or annulling the said decision or order.
- (iv) The revisional authority shall not exercise such revisionary powers if
  - (a) an appeal is filed against the order to –
    - the Appellate Authority under section.107
    - the Appellate Tribunal under section .112
    - High Court under section.117
    - Supreme Court under section 118
  - (b) the period of six months specified in section 107(2) has not expired or more than three years have expired after passing the decision or order
  - (c) the order has already been taken up under this section for revision at any earlier stage
  - (d) revisionary order has already been passed once.

- (v) However, the revisional authority may pass an order on any point which has not been raised and decided in an appeal either before the appellate authority, Appellate Tribunal, High Court or Supreme Court.
- (vi) The revisional authority must pass the order within one year from the date of order passed in such appeal or within three years from the date of passing such decision or order sought to be revised, whichever is later.
- (vii) The order passed under this section shall be final and binding on the parties subject to the provisions of section 113 (Orders of Appellate Tribunal) or section 117 (Appeal to High Court) or section 118 (Appeal to Supreme Court).
- (viii) The time span between the date of decision of the Appellate Tribunal and the date of decision of the High Court or the date of decision of the High Court and the date of decision of Supreme Court should be excluded in computing the period of limitation of three years. Even the period of stay is excluded in computing the period of limitation of three years. Refer the discussion on administrative law whereunder the executive officer is not to interfere with the quasi-judicial officer's orders but that seems to be given a pass in section 108.

110.1 Comments

This section deals with appointment of the President / Members of the Appellate Tribunal, their qualifications, methodology of appointment, service conditions etc. and hence are not commented upon in this background material. In Revenue Bar Association's case before the Madras HC, the composition of GSTAT was challenged and to this extent, the petition was allowed. It needs to be seen how the Government will address the decision of Madras HC.

111. Procedure before Appellate Tribunal

- (1) The Appellate Tribunal shall not, while disposing of any proceedings before it or an appeal before it, be bound by the procedure laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, but shall be guided by the principles of natural justice and subject to the other provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, the Appellate Tribunal shall have power to regulate its own procedure.
- (2) The Appellate Tribunal shall, for the purposes of discharging its functions under this Act, have the same powers as are vested in a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 while trying a suit in respect of the following matters, namely: —

Related provisions of the Statute

Section or Rule	Description
Section 107	Appeals to Appellate Authority
Section 108	Powers of Revisional Authority
Section 2(9)	Definition of "Appellate Tribunal"

112.1 Introduction

- (a) This section pertains to appeals to the Appellate Tribunal by any person who is aggrieved against any decision or order passed by the Appellate Authority.
- (b) This section also provides for appeal by the tax authorities against a decision or order passed by the Appellate Authority.

112.2 Analysis

(a) An assessee, aggrieved by any decision or order may prefer an appeal within a period of three months from the date of communication of the decision or order in Form GST APL-05, along with relevant documents either electronically or otherwise as notified by the Commissioner against which a provisional acknowledgement will be issued. The grounds of appeal and form of verification must be duly signed as per the requirements of rule 26 of the CGST Rules 2017 and a certified copy of the decision or order, along with the prescribed fees is to be filed before the Registrar within seven days of filing the appeal.

(b) Thereafter, a final acknowledgement indicating the appeal number shall be issued in Form GST APL-02 by the said authority. In such a situation, the appeal shall be deemed to be filed on the date on which the provisional acknowledgement stands issued.

In case the said certified copy is submitted after a period of seven days, the date of filing of appeal shall be the date of submission of such copy.

The appeal shall be considered as filed only when the final acknowledgement, indicating the appeal number is issued.

(c) The Appellate Tribunal has the discretion to refuse to admit such appeal in case the tax amount or input tax credit or the difference in tax or input tax credit involved or the amount of fine, fees or penalty ordered against does not exceed Rs. 50,000/-.

(d) The Commissioner may, on his own motion or on request from the Commissioner of State Tax or Commissioner of Union Territory Tax can call for and examine any order or decision passed by the Appellate Authority or Revisional Authority with a view to satisfy himself about the legality or propriety thereof, and direct a subordinate officer to file an application before the Appellate Tribunal within six months from the date of communication of decision or order in Form GST APL-07, along with relevant documents either electronically or otherwise as notified against issue of an acknowledgement. A certified copy of the decision or order of the appeal, along with the prescribed fees is to be filed before the Registrar within seven days of filing the application and an appeal number shall be generated accordingly.

(e) The Memorandum of Cross objection is to be filed in FORM GST APL-06 within 45 days from the receipt of notice of filing of such appeal.

(f) The Appellate Tribunal is empowered to condone the delay in filing appeal by assessee for a further period of 3 months or memorandum of cross objection for a further period of 45 days if there was sufficient cause for not presenting within specified period. This again is going to be a big challenge. Under the erstwhile indirect tax's regime, the Tribunal was having no time limit for condoning the delay but now under GST regime condonation is restricted to three months only.

- (g) An appeal has to be filed in the prescribed form and manner along with:
  - payment of tax, interest, fine, fee & penalty, as is admitted, in full; and
  - pre-deposit of sum equal to 20 per cent of remaining amount of tax in dispute subject to a maximum of fifty crores (effective from 01.02.2019) in addition to the amount deposited during the filling appeal before the appellate authority.
- (h) On payment of the above amount (interest, tax, fine, fee, etc), the recovery proceedings for the balance amount are deemed to be stayed till the disposal of the appeal.
- (i) No pre-deposit is required in the case of appeal filed by the tax authorities.
- (j) Every miscellaneous application shall be filed along with prescribed fees.
- (k) The fees for filing and restoration of appeal shall be one thousand rupees for every one lakh rupees of tax or input tax credit involved or the difference in tax or input tax credit involved or the amount of fine, fee or penalty determined in the order appealed against, subject to maximum of twenty-five thousand rupees.
- (l) There shall be no fee for the application made before the Appellate Tribunal for rectification of errors.

Production of additional evidence before the Appellate Authority or Appellate Tribunal

- (a) In addition to the evidence produced by the appellant before the adjudicating authority during the course of the proceedings, he is permitted to produce before the appellate authority additional evidences in the following cases:
  - (i) where evidence that ought to be admitted has been refused by the adjudicating authority or Appellate Authority; or
  - (ii) where the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from producing the evidence which he was called upon to produce by the adjudicating authority or Appellate Authority; or
  - (iii) where the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from producing before the adjudicating authority or Appellate Authority, any evidence which is relevant to any ground of appeal; or
  - (iv) where the adjudicating authority or the Appellate Authority has made the order appealed against without giving sufficient opportunity to the appellant to adduce evidence relevant to any ground of appeal.
- (b) The evidence shall be admitted only after the appellate authority or Appellate Tribunal records in writing the reasons for its admission.

Statutory Provisions

117. Appeals to High Court

- (1) Any person aggrieved by any order passed by the State Bench or Area Benches of the Appellate Tribunal may file an appeal to the High Court and the High Court may admit such appeal if it is satisfied that the case involves a substantial question of law.
- (2) An appeal under sub-section (1) shall be filed within one hundred and eighty days from the date on which the order appealed against is received by the aggrieved person and it shall be in such form verified in such manner as may be prescribed;
Provided that the High Court may entertain an appeal after the expiry of the said period if it is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not filing it within such period.
- (3) Where the High Court is satisfied that a substantial question of law is involved in any case, it shall formulate that question and the appeal shall be heard only on the question so formulated, and the respondents shall, at the hearing of the appeal, be allowed to argue that the case does not involve such question:
Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to take away or abridge the power of the Court to hear, for reasons to be recorded, the appeal on any other substantial question of law not formulated by it, if it is satisfied that the case involves such question.
- (4) The High Court shall decide the question of law so formulated and deliver such judgment thereon containing the grounds on which such decision is founded and may award such cost as it deems fit.
- (5) The High Court may determine any issue which -
  - (a) has not been determined by the State Bench or Area Benches; or
  - (b) has been wrongly determined by the State Bench or Area Benches, by reason of a decision on such question of law as herein referred to in sub-section (3).
- (6) When an appeal has been filed before the High Court, it shall be heard by a Bench of not less than two Judges of the High Court, and shall be decided in accordance with the opinion of such Judges or of the majority, if any, of such Judges.

- (7) Where there is no such majority, the Judges shall state the point of law upon which they differ and the case shall, then, be heard upon that point only, by one or more of the other Judges of the High Court and such point shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority of the Judges who have heard the case including those who first heard it.
- (8) Where the High Court delivers a judgment in an appeal filed before it under this section, effect shall be given to such judgment by either side on the basis of a certified copy of the judgment.

122.1 Introduction

For effective implementation of any tax-law and to do justice to tax abiding society, certain provisions are required to take strict action against offenders. The penal provisions in many cases act as a deterrent ; some penal provisions are attracted even for a breach, although such an infraction of law could be a minor offence and not a venial breach of law. It is for this reason that the law maker in his wisdom has laid down general disciplines relating to penalty so as to ensure that the person vested with such powers does not misuse the powers that are inherently vested in him. While Courts have consistently laid down several guiding principles for the purpose of levy of penalties, it has been observed that the statutes are so drafted that several punitive measures and penalties have now become mandatory. The discussion in the following paragraphs deal with the punitive provisions of GST law.

122.2 Analysis

At the outset, the section specifies the offences that attract penalty as a consequence, apart from the requirement to pay the tax and applicable interest. Some of the offences listed under this section may also attract prosecution under section 132 but that depends on the gravity of the offence defined in that section.

Some aspects to consider before discussing this section are:

- Admitting liability to pay tax does not amount to admission of wrongdoing that can attract penalty in all cases. That is, penal proceedings are independent of tax demand. It is possible that proceedings may be jointly initiated such that the non-payment of tax may prove the circumstances to impose penalty. But accepting to pay tax cannot ipso facto result in penalty. For eg., RCM liability may be accepted (SCN issued but not under section 74) since continuing to dispute this liability may be revenue neutral. Accepting to pay RCM does not satisfy the ingredients to impose penalty. The benefit of resisting RCM liability may be academic when credit is available and output is also taxable. Refer various authorities under section 276 of the Income-tax Act for guidance on the jurisprudence applicable in the context of penalty;

- Government appears to be taking away the discretion in imposing penalty but the grounds to impose penalty require some key ingredients, which are discussed in the later part of this Chapter. Removing the discretion is important but mechanical application of penalty provisions is not welcome. Especially in the first few years of GST, bona fide view on non-taxability is a good ground to waive penalty particularly when the demand for tax is accepted along with interest. Bona fide view means a case where two (adjudicating, appellate or AAR) authorities have taken contradictory views. The taxpayer cannot be expected to adopt the most farsighted interpretation that eventually gets the nod of the higher judiciary;
- The provisions in sections 73(5) and 74(5) as well as sections 73(9) and 74(8) indicate the general tendency to reduce penalty prescribed under section 122 if mitigating circumstances are brought out during the course of adjudication or appeal. A study of section 126 provides the most needed insight into the considerations relevant for imposing penalty under section 122. Penalty is expected to be an area where the law will develop significantly to encourage voluntary compliance.

The section is divided into four sub-sections:

- (i) The first sub-section prescribes 21 types of offences, any one of which, if committed, can attract penalty of ten thousand rupees or equal to the amount of tax involved, whichever is higher.
- (ii) Sub-section (1A) prescribes that penalty can be levied in case of specified offences, on such persons satisfying both the following conditions:
  - a. the said person is the instance for conduct of a transaction and
  - b. also retains the benefit from the occurrence of the said transaction.
- (iii) The second sub-section deals with two situations, firstly, where certain offences committed are not due to either fraud or wilful misstatement or suppression of facts. In such a case, penalty will get reduced to 10% of the tax involved, subject to a minimum of ten thousand rupees. Secondly, where the offence committed is due to either fraud or any wilful misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax, it will result in a penalty equal to tax involved subject to a minimum of ten thousand rupees.
- (iv) The third sub-section deals with offences where the person is not directly involved in any evasion but may aid or abet or may be a party to evasion or if he does not attend summons or produce documents. Penalty in such a cases would be up to twenty-five thousand rupees.
- (v) While this section describes the offence and prescribes the penalty applicable, the procedure for adjudicating the imposition of this penalty is under section 73 and section

74 in which there is no express reference to this section. Persons found to have committed the offences listed in this section are liable to payment of penalty as follows:

- A. Penalty equivalent to tax or Rupees 10,000/- whichever is higher in cases where - tax is evaded, tax is not deducted or short deducted or deducted but not paid to the Government; or tax is not collected (or short collected) or collected but not paid to the Government or input tax credit availed of or passed on or distributed irregularly or fraudulent claim of refund, in the following cases:
1. Supplies any goods and/ or services:
    - (a) without issue of any invoice, or
    - (b) issues an incorrect/ false invoice in respect of such supply

Comment

Raising of an invoice before or at the time of removal of goods is mandatory under law whereas the time limit for issue of services is one month. However, there can be a situation that a supplier could have supplied either goods or services or both, without issuing an invoice for any reason or for reasons that may be bona fide. All such cases would constitute offences attracting the penal provisions. For instance, a supplier could have supplied the goods against a contract without an invoice accompanying the goods (since the price for such supply may not have been agreed upon) even such cases would attract the penal provisions contained in this section.

Incorrect invoice would take into its sweep and ambit any misclassification of goods which on the face of it is incorrect. For instance, an incorrect invoice could be a case where an invoice is issued for supply of “automobile spare” as a supply of “machinery spare”.

A false invoice is one which, on the face of it, is patently false. ‘False’ in the normal course means “untrue” but in this instance the word ‘false’ means something more than “untrue”. For instance, supply of unit quantity 100 for ₹ 10,000/- could be invoiced as unit quantity 10 for ₹ 1,000/-.

If the transaction is ‘inferred’ to be a supply, that is not a case of supplying goods without issuing an invoice although the result of such ‘inference’ is that goods have been supplied unmindful of the definition of supply and therefore invoice is not issued. For eg., delay in tracking goods sent on-approval is a case where after the time limit mentioned in section 31(7) is ‘deemed’ to be a supply which is the result of such delay. But that does not necessarily attract imposition of penalty under clause (i).

In each of the clauses of section 122(1), such ingredients must be inquired to sustain or defend imposition of penalty.

2. Issues an invoice (or bill of supply) without supply of goods or services or both in violation of the provisions of the Act/ Rules.

Comment: In business parlance, these are termed as “bogus invoices/ bills”.

3. Collects any amount as tax but fails to deposit the same with the Government beyond a period of three months from the due date.

Comment: Collection of taxes could either be passive or active collection. This section covers both such situations. It must be understood that the GST Law presupposes that tax is deemed to have been passed on even in cases where tax has not been collected unless it is proved to the contrary [refer section 49(9)]. Composition taxpayers (or even unregistered persons) selling MRP-goods also can come within the mischief of this prohibition. However, note that collection of 'input tax credit lost' (liable to be reverse under section 17(2) of CGST Act) due to any exemption of output to a recipient may not amount to 'collection of tax'. Reference may be made to the decision of Tribunal in Unison Metals Limited v. CCE, Ahd-I (2006) 204 ELT 323 (LB) in the context of Central Excise where section 11D of that Act was analysed.

4. Collects any tax in contravention of law but fails to deposit the same with the Government beyond a period of three months from due date.

Comment: One must ensure that any collection of taxes cannot be retained by the registered person. Collection of taxes in contravention of law would also mean a case where a registered person collects 18% as taxes but the actual tax rate is 12%. In this scenario, the difference of 6% cannot be retained by the registered person.

5. Fails to -

- (a) Deduct tax/ deduct appropriate tax, as per section 51 (section 51 is applicable to certain specific persons. The said section requires such specified persons to deduct tax at the rate of one per cent out of the payment to the supplier if the value of supply under a contract exceeds two lakh and fifty thousand rupees) or
- (b) deposit the tax deducted with the appropriate Government

Comment: The provisions relating to tax deduction at source under section 51 have come into force with effect from 1-Oct-2018.

6. Fails to -

- (a) collect tax/ collect appropriate tax as per provisions of section 52 (section 52 is applicable to electronic commerce operator who collects tax from the supplier of goods at the time of payment to such supplier at the rate of one per cent (CGST+SGST))
- (b) deposit the tax collected with the appropriate Government

Comment: The provisions of collection of tax at source under section 52 have come into force with effect from 1-Oct-2018.

7. Takes or utilizes input tax credit without actual receipt of goods or services either fully or partially in contravention of the provisions of the Act/ Rules.

Comment: This situation covers a case where the goods or services have not been received but the invoice has been received in advance. In such a situation the registered person cannot avail the credit in terms of section 16 of the CGST Act. If he does so, the penal provisions under this clause will stand attracted.

8. Fraudulently obtains refund of tax.

Comment: In the normal course, refunds can be claimed by a registered person in case of inverted duty structure or exports or supplies to SEZ (Zero rated supplies). One must be very careful at the time of claiming such refunds including furnishing of documentation etc. Any false or incorrect claim will get covered under this section.

9. Takes or distributes input tax credit in contravention of section 20, or the rules made thereunder (section 20 prescribes the manner of distribution of credit by the input service distributor).

Comment: This clause covers cases relating to ISD who either avails or distributes the available credits contravening the provisions of section 20.

10. With an intention to evade payment of tax-

- (a) falsifies or substitutes financial records, or
- (b) produces fake accounts or documents, or
- (c) furnishes any false information or return

Comment: The above three situations need no further elaboration. They cover all cases of misrepresentation.

11. Fails to obtain registration.

Comment: This clause would typically cover a situation where a person is required to get registered since his turnover has exceeded the threshold limits but has failed to get registered or a person who is required to take compulsory registration as per section 24 but fails to obtain registration.

12. Furnishes any false information with regard to registration particulars, either at the time of applying for registration, or subsequently.

Comment: For example, furnishing false information with regard to the address of a business premises or not declaring a warehouse that existed etc.

13. Obstructs or prevents any officer in discharge of his duties.

Comment: A Government servant cannot be obstructed in the performance of his duties. For instance, a registered person does not allow an Officer to enter a godown.

14. Transports any taxable goods without the cover of specified documents.

Comment: For example, taxable goods are to be transported under cover of a tax invoice and in certain cases along with an e-way bill/ delivery challan etc.

15. Suppresses his turnover leading to evasion of tax.
Comment: Suppression and evasion are normally used or understood interchangeably. But suppression means “failure to disclose” which essentially leads to evasion of tax.
  16. Fails to keep, maintain or retain books of account and other documents as specified by the law.
  17. Fails to furnish information or documents requisitioned by an officer or furnishes false information or documents during any proceedings.
  18. Supplies, transports or stores any goods which he has reason to believe are liable to confiscation.
  19. Issues any invoice or document by using the registration number of another taxable person.
Comment: This is a clear case of evasion. Typically, it would also cover a case of misrepresentation of registration number of another registered person.
  20. Tamper with or destroys any material evidence or document.
  21. Disposes off or tampers with any goods that have been detained, seized, or attached under this Act.
- B. Penalty equivalent to the amount of tax evaded or ITC availed or passed on, will be levied on a person committing any of the following offences. This provision will apply if such person is a beneficiary and such a transaction is on his request.
- Goods / services / both are supplied without the issue of invoices / issue of incorrect or false invoices
  - Issue of invoice / bill without supply of goods / services / both
  - Takes / utilises input tax credit without actual receipt of goods / services
  - Takes / distributes input tax credit in contravention of the provisions of section 20 of CGST Act, 2017.
- C. A registered person who supplies any goods or services or both on which any tax has not been paid or short-paid or erroneously refunded, or where the input tax credit has been wrongly availed or utilised, for any reason, other than the reason of fraud or any wilful misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax, shall be liable to a penalty of ₹ 10,000/- or 10 per cent of the tax due from such person, whichever is higher.
- A registered person who supplies any goods or services or both on which any tax has not been paid or short-paid or erroneously refunded, or where the input tax credit has been wrongly availed or utilised, for reason of fraud or any wilful misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax, shall be liable to a penalty of ₹ 10,000/- or tax due from such person, whichever is higher.

- D. Penalty up to ₹ 25,000/- will be levied where any person commits any of the following :
1. Aids or abets any of the offences specified in clause A above.
Comment: Aiding or abetting normally means collusion with another person or to encourage or assist another person to commit an offence. It may be noted that almost all offences committed under clause A would require assistance/ collusion/ connivance.
  2. Acquires possession of, or in any way concerns himself in transporting, removing, depositing, keeping, concealing, supplying, or purchasing or in any other manner deals with any goods which he knows or has reason to believe are liable to confiscation.
  3. Receives or is in any way concerned with the supply of, or in any other manner deals with any supply of services which he knows or has reason to believe are in contravention of any provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder.
  4. Fails to appear before the officer of Central tax, when issued with a summon for appearance to give evidence or produce a document in an inquiry.
Comment: Before levy of penalty under this section the question of mala-fide intent or resistance would also need to be considered.
  5. Fails to issue invoice in accordance with the provisions of this Act or rules made thereunder, or fails to account for an invoice in his books of account

Statutory provisions*123. Penalty for failure to furnish information return

If a person who is required to furnish an information return under section 150 fails to do so within the period specified in the notice issued under sub-section (3) thereof, the proper officer may direct that such person shall be liable to pay a penalty of one hundred rupees for each day of the period during which the failure to furnish such return continues:

Provided that the penalty imposed under this section shall not exceed five thousand rupees.

Related provisions of the Statute:

Section	Description
Section 150	Obligation to furnish information return

123.1 Introduction

This section would be relevant where the information return as prescribed under section 150 is not filed. Section 150 requires certain class of person to maintain records and furnish information return within the prescribed time.

123.2 Analysis

If the person who is required to file an 'information return' as prescribed under section 150 has not filed the return within the stipulated period of 30 days or such further period [ see sections 150(2) and 150(3)] from the date of issue of show cause notice, a penalty of ₹ 100/- per day shall be levied for each day for which the failure continues but not exceeding five thousand rupees.

123.3 Comparative Review

The provision is similar to section 15B of Central Excise Act, 1944.

123.4 FAQs

- Q1. What would be the penalty for not filing the information return?
 Ans. A penalty of ₹ 100 per day would be leviable for each day for which the failure continues subject to a maximum of ₹ 5,000/-.
- Q2. Would penalty under this section be payable for defective returns?
 Ans. No, the penalty for defective information returns would not be leviable under this section. But the information return will be treated as not filed if the defective returns are not rectified and in such case the penalty will be leviable.
- Q3. Is there any maximum ceiling on penalty leviable for failure to furnish information return under section 150?
 Ans. Yes. The maximum ceiling is ₹ 5,000/- for failure to furnish information return under section. 150.

Statutory provisions*124. Fine for failure to furnish statistics

If any person required to furnish any information or return under section 151, —

he shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees and in case of a continuing offence to a further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for each day after the first day during which the offence continues subject to a maximum limit of twenty-five thousand rupees.

Related provisions of the Statute:

Section	Description
Section 151	Power to collect statistics

124.1 Introduction

This section provides for penal consequences for failure to furnish information or return as required under section 151 regarding collection of statistics.

124.2 Analysis

The section specifies levy of fine under two circumstances namely -

- (a) Failure to furnish information or return without reasonable cause; and
- (b) Furnishing false information wilfully.

The fine specified is up to ₹ 10,000/- and where the offence is continuing a further fine of up to ₹ 100/- per day subject to maximum of ₹ 25,000/- under the respective Act.

Statutory provision*125. General Penalty

Any person, who contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or any rules made thereunder for which no penalty is separately provided for in this Act, shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to twenty-five thousand rupees.

Related provisions of the Statute:

Section	Description
Section 2(84)	Definition of Person
Section 2(107)	Definition of Taxable person
Section 126	General disciplines related to penalty

125.1 Introduction

The duty of the State is not only to recover all lawful dues from a defaulter, but to do justice towards the law-abiding citizens by imposing a penalty – jus in rem. To this end offences are listed in section 122 along with penalty specifically applicable to each. Any offence that does not have a specific penalty prescribed cannot be let off without penal consequences. Section 125 is a general penalty provision under the GST law for cases where no separate penalty is prescribed under the Act or rules.

125.2 Analysis

Penalty upto ₹ 25,000/- is imposable where any person contravenes:

- (a) any of the provisions of the Act; or
- (b) rules made thereunder.

for which no penalty is separately prescribed under the Act.

125.3 Comparative review

General penalty provisions are more or less in line with the following provisions of subsumed Central laws in addition to the provisions of VAT laws of various States:

Section/Rule	Act/Rule	Provision
Rule 27	Central Excise Rules, 2002	General penalty
Rule 15A	CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004	General penalty

- (ii) No

Ans. (ii) No.

Statutory provisions

126. General disciplines related to penalty

(1) No officer under this Act shall impose any penalty for minor breaches of tax regulations or procedural requirements and in particular, any omission or mistake in documentation which is easily rectifiable and made without fraudulent intent or gross negligence.

Explanation. - For the purpose of this sub-section –

- (a) a breach shall be considered a 'minor breach' if the amount of tax involved is less than five thousand rupees.
- (b) an omission or mistake in documentation shall be considered to be easily rectifiable if the same is an error apparent on the face of record.

(2) The penalty imposed under this act shall depend on the facts and circumstances of each case and shall be commensurate with the degree and severity of the breach.

(3) No penalty shall be imposed on any person without giving him an opportunity of being heard.

(4) The officer under this Act shall while imposing penalty in an order for a breach of any law, regulation or procedural requirement, specify the nature of the breach and the applicable law, regulation or procedure under which the amount of penalty for the breach has been specified.

(5) When a person voluntarily discloses to an officer under this Act the circumstances of a breach of the tax law, regulation or procedural requirement prior to the discovery of the breach by the officer under this Act, the proper officer may consider this fact as a mitigating factor when quantifying a penalty for that person.

(6) The provisions of this section shall not apply in such cases where the penalty specified under this Act is either a fixed sum or expressed as a fixed percentage.

Related provisions of the Statute:

Section/ Rule	Description
Section 122	Penalty for certain offences
Section 123	Penalty for failure to furnish information return
Section 125	General penalty

126.1. Introduction

While penalties are not new in tax laws, this section lays down certain guiding principles to ensure that the tax administration can be held accountable to the tax paying citizen. It is salutary that such well-reasoned 'general disciplines' relating to penalty are provided in the Act.

126.2. Analysis

Guideline for imposing penalty is one of the highlights of this progressive tax legislation. Courts have, for long, addressed the presence of circumstances surrounding the instance of – non-payment of tax now admitted – for the imposition of penalty. Now, a section providing guidance on 'how' and 'when' – to impose or refrain from imposing penalty – is salutary.

The following guiding disciplines in certain circumstances apply to substantial penalties:

- (a) No penalty can be imposed where the tax involved is less than ₹ 5,000/- (minor breach) or in case of documentation errors apparent on the face of record which are easily rectifiable and made without fraudulent intent or gross negligence.
- (b) When penalty is still liable to be imposed, the next safety as laid down is to inquire into the degree and severity of the breach to proceed with imposition of penalty. In these cases, if the facts do not demand imposition of penalty, restraint is advised. However, no such discretion is provided in the section while providing for the amount of penalty.
- (c) The person liable to penalty must be given an opportunity of being heard. Further, a speaking order should be passed for imposing such penalty. The officer must provide explanation for levy of penalty and the basis on which penalty is quantified.
- (d) Voluntary disclosure by a person to an officer (not merely in his own books and records) about the circumstances of the breach prior to the discovery of the breach by the officer may be considered as a mitigating factor for quantifying penalty.
- (e) Cases involving fixed sum or fixed percentage of penalty are excluded.

General notes

The nature of penalty and the principles governing imposition of penalties as held by the Courts would be a guiding factor. There are no infallible tests in law which would guide the provisions relating to levy of penalties. Penalties can or may be levied depending on the facts and circumstances of each case. The guiding principles laid down by Courts can be summarised as follows:

1. Penalty provisions must be strictly construed within the terms and language of the statute.
2. Penalty provisions should be interpreted as they stand and, in case of a doubt it should be in a manner favourable to the taxpayer. If the language of a taxing provision is ambiguous or capable of having more than one meaning, one has to adopt the interpretation favouring the assessee. [CIT v. Vegetable Products Ltd., 88 ITR 192 (SC)].
3. An order imposing penalty for failure to carry out a statutory obligation is the result of a quasi-criminal proceeding and penalty will not ordinarily be imposed unless the person either acted deliberately in defiance of law or was guilty of conduct, dishonest or acted in conscious disregard of his obligations. Penalty need not be imposed merely because it is lawful to do so. Whether penalty should be imposed for failure to perform a statutory obligation is a matter of discretion of the authority to be exercised judiciously and on a consideration of all the relevant circumstances. Even if a minimum penalty is prescribed, the authority competent to impose the penalty will be justified in refusing to impose penalty when there is a technical or venial breach of the provisions of the Act, or where the breach flows from the belief that the offender is not liable to act in the manner prescribed by the statute. [Hindustan Steel Ltd., v. State of Orissa 25 STC 210].
4. Penalty proceedings are distinct and separate from assessment proceedings. A person is entitled to adduce any evidence, whether or not he had adduced it in the assessment proceedings and such evidence has to be duly considered by the authorities. The assessee is also entitled in the penalty proceedings to take up new pleas, which he had not taken up in the course of assessment proceedings.
5. No confiscation can be done unless tax and penalty are quantified [Shree Enterprises v. CTO 2019-TIOL-1185-HCKAR-GST].

Doctrine of mens rea

Non-compliance of law under a genuine belief or without a guilty mind should not generally attract penalties. This view is by and large accepted by the Courts. For instance, in the case of Modi Spinning and Weaving Mills (16 STC 310) the Supreme Court held that "as the assessee bona fide thought that the lift purchased by them would be included in category (b) as well as category (c) of the certificate of registration and as neither the Assessing Officer nor the Appellate Assistant Commissioner had given any finding that the assessee did not or could not have entertained any bona fide doubt and therefore the offence committed, would not attract any penalty.

There is a clear distinction between a representation, which is negligent and one, which is fraudulent. Normally a section requires that the representation must have been made falsely i.e., without any belief in its truth. A representation however negligent it may be, is not necessarily fraudulent. Although establishment of mens-rea is not a requirement but its absence is unmistakable and its existence cannot be presumed. Some provisions such as sections 7 and 8 of the Indian Evidence Act may be examined along with the definitions of 'evidence', 'fact',

'facts in issue', 'proved', 'disproved', 'not proved', etc, to understand the extent of the allegations in each case.

126.3 Comparative review

The Finance Act, 1994 vide section 80, provided for waiver of penalties in cases where the assessee was able to prove that there was a reasonable cause for the failure. The same was deleted with effect from 14.05.2015.

126.4 Issues and Concerns

The applicability of general disciplines relating to levy of penalties prescribed under this section has limited field of operation since sub-section (6) of section 126 clearly specifies that the general disciplines are not applicable wherever the penalty specified under this Act is either a fixed sum or expressed as a fixed percentage.

126.5 FAQs

Q1. What are the discretionary powers of the officers to waive the penalties?

Ans. Section 126(2) prescribes that penalty shall be levied depending on the facts and circumstances of the case and shall be commensurate with the degree and severity of the breach.

Q2. What is regarded as "minor breach"?

Ans. A breach shall be considered a 'minor breach' if the amount of tax involved is less than ₹ Rs. 5,000/-.

Q3. What shall be considered as "mistake easily rectifiable"?

Ans. An omission or mistake in documentation shall be considered to be easily rectifiable if the same is an error apparent on the face of record.

126.6 MCQs

Q1. For minor breaches of tax regulations or procedural requirements, the tax authority shall-

- (a) not impose substantial penalties
- (b) impose nominal penalty
- (c) not impose any penalty
- (d) none of the above

Ans. (c) not impose any penalty

Statutory provisions*127. Power to impose penalty in certain cases

Where the proper officer is of the view that a person is liable to a penalty and the same is not covered under any proceeding under sections 62, or section 63 or section 64 or section 73 or section 74 or section 129 or section 130, he may issue an order levying such penalty after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to such person.

Section 129	Detention, seizure and release of goods and conveyances in transit
Section 130	Confiscation of goods or conveyances and levy of penalty

127.1 Introduction

This section empowers the proper officer to initiate separate penalty proceedings if penalty is not leviable under any the provisions of section 62, 63, 64, 73, 74, 129 or 130.

127.2 Analysis

Penalty proceedings can be initiated under this section even if the alleged infraction is not covered under any of the the following sections:

- Section 62: Assessment of non-filers of returns
- Section 63: Assessment of unregistered persons
- Section 64: Summary assessment in certain special cases
- Section 73: Determination of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised for any reason other than fraud or any willful misstatement or suppression of facts

- Section 74: Determination of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised by reason of fraud or any wilful misstatement or suppression of facts
- Section 129: Detention, seizure and release of goods and conveyances in transit
- Section 130: Confiscation of goods or conveyances and levy of penalty

In other words, penalties can be imposed by the proper officer after giving due opportunity even in cases where there are no proceedings open with regard to assessment, adjudication, detention or confiscation. The proper officer may issue a penalty order after giving opportunity of being heard to such person.

129.1 Introduction

This section provides for the basis relating to detention of goods or conveyances or both in case of certain defaults under the law. A common man would understand the meanings of the three terms detention, confiscation and seizure as follows:

clause (b) or clause (c)" vide Finance Act, 2021. Notified vide Notf. No. 39/2021-CT dt. 21.12.2021. Applicable w.e.f 01.01.2022.

- ✓ Detention means keeping or holding back either by force or otherwise;
- ✓ Confiscation means to appropriate to the Government account;
- ✓ Seizure means to take forcible possession of.

129.2 Analysis

- (a) If a person contravenes any provision of the Act or Rules while transporting or storing goods during transit, then such goods and the conveyance in which such goods are carried and all the documents relating to such goods and conveyance can be detained or seized. The proper officer detaining and seizing the goods and/ or conveyance has to provide proper opportunity to the transporter or such other person to explain his case by issuing a show cause notice to him. After hearing the transporter, the officer shall pass an appropriate order.
- (b) In case of default, where the owner of the goods comes forward for the payment of penalty, then penalty to be levied will be equal to 200% of the amount of tax and in case of exempted goods 2% of the value of goods or ₹ 25,000/- whichever is less. The sub-section has two limbs to it-
- i. When the goods are taxable and the owner comes forward to pay the penalty – then the amount of penalty payable would be equal to 200 per cent of the tax.:
- For example, if taxable goods valued at ₹ 100,000/- (tax rate 12%) are being transported without documents and subject to detention, then if the owner of goods comes forward to pay penalty, the amount payable as penalty would be equal to ₹ 24,000/-.
- ii. When the goods are exempt and the owner comes forward to pay the penalty – then the amount of penalty payable would be 2 per cent of the value of the goods or rupees 25,000, whichever is less.
- For example, if the exempt goods valued at ₹ 1,00,000/- are being transported without documents and subject to detention, then if the owner of goods comes forward to pay the penalty the amount payable would be equal to: ₹ 2,000/- or ₹ 25,000/- whichever is lower and in this case it will be ₹ 2,000/-.
- (c) In case where owner of the goods does not come forward for payment of penalty, then an order shall be passed for payment of penalty equal to higher of 50 per cent of the value of goods or 200 per cent of the tax payable on such goods and in case of exempted goods, 5 per cent of the value of goods or ₹ 25,000/- whichever is less. The sub-section has two limbs to it:

When the goods are taxable, and the owner does not come forward to pay the penalty – then the amount payable would be equal to 50 per cent of the value of goods or 200 per cent of the tax payable on such goods.

For example, if the taxable goods valued at ₹ 1,00,000/- (tax rate 12 per cent ) are being transported without documents and subject to detention, then if the owner of goods does not come forward to pay tax and penalty the amount of penalty payable would be equal to the higher of Rs. ₹ 50,000/- [i.e., 50 per cent of value of goods (₹ 1,00,000/- *50 per cent ) or 200 per cent of tax payable which is Rs 24000 (i.e. 200 per cent of 12000)] in all = ₹ 50,000/-..

When the goods are exempt, and the owner does not come forward to pay the penalty – then the amount of penalty payable would be equal to 5% of value of goods or ₹ 25,000/-, whichever is lower:

For example, if the exempt goods valued at ₹ 1,00,000/- are being transported without documents and subject to detention, and if the owner of goods does not come forward to pay the penalty the amount payable would be ₹ 5,000/- or ₹ 25,000/- whichever is lower and in this case, it would be ₹ 5,000/-.

- (d) The proper officer shall release the goods upon payment of penalty in the above manner or upon furnishing a security equivalent of the amount payable and all the proceedings under this particular section shall be deemed to be concluded. However, if the person (either owner of the goods or any other person) fails to discharge the amount of penalty under this section within 15 days, then the goods and/ or conveyance shall be liable for confiscation. The period of 15 days can be reduced by proper officer if goods are of perishable or hazardous in nature. Release of goods on provisional basis under sub-section (6) of section 67 has been done away with vide Finance Act, 2021. However, this is yet to be notified.
- (e) Penalty under section 129 is a 'penalty in action', that is, this penalty cannot be imposed after completion of movement -in case goods are not intercepted during movement and found to be deficient on the prescribed documents. If subsequent evidence is collected that clearly proves that goods have been moved without issuing EWB, even then penalty under section 129 cannot be imposed if such investigation is conducted after movement of the goods has ended. The decision of Patna HC in the case of Ram Charitra Ram Harihar Prasad v State of Bihar (CWP 11221 of 2019), where the HC held that if EWB generated had expired but another EWB was generated just before the vehicle was intercepted which was produced to the inspecting officer the intercepting officer cannot question if a valid EWB was produced, even though, from the facts, the vehicle was found to have travelled without a valid EWB but not intercepted. An offence cannot be reconstructed 'in theory'. Penalty under section 129 will arise only when the offence is 'in progress'.

then, all such goods or conveyances shall be liable to confiscation and the person shall be liable to penalty under section 122.

- (2) Whenever confiscation of any goods or conveyance is authorized by this Act, the officer adjudging it shall give to the owner of the goods an option to pay in lieu of confiscation, such fine as the said officer thinks fit:

Provided that such fine leviable shall not exceed the market value of the goods confiscated, less the tax chargeable thereon:

Provided further that the aggregate of such fine and penalty leviable shall not be less than the amount of penalty leviable under sub-section (1) of section 129-penalty equal to hundred percent of the tax payable on such goods<sup>10</sup>.

Provided also that where any such conveyance is used for the carriage of the goods or passengers for hire, the owner of the conveyance shall be given an option to pay in lieu of the confiscation of the conveyance a fine equal to the tax payable on the goods being transported thereon.

- (3) ~~Where any fine in lieu of confiscation of goods or conveyance is imposed under sub-section (2), the owner of such goods or conveyance or the person referred to in sub-section (1), shall, in addition, be liable to any tax, penalty and charges payable in respect of such goods or conveyance.~~<sup>11</sup>

- (4) No order for confiscation of goods or conveyance or for imposition of penalty shall be issued without giving the person an opportunity of being heard.
- (5) Where any goods or conveyance are confiscated under this Act, the title of such goods or conveyance shall thereupon vest in the Government.
- (6) The proper officer adjudging confiscation shall take and hold possession of the things confiscated and every officer of Police, on the requisition of such proper officer, shall assist him in taking and holding such possession.
- (7) The proper officer may, after satisfying himself that the confiscated goods or conveyance are not required in any other proceedings under this Act and after giving reasonable time not exceeding three months to pay fine in lieu of confiscation, dispose of such goods or conveyances and deposit the sale proceeds thereof with the Government.

Related provisions of the Statute:

Section / Rule	Description
Section 122	Penalty for certain offences
Section 126	General discipline related to penalty
Section 129	Detention, seizure and release of goods and conveyances in transit

130.1 Introduction

This section provides for specific situations or causes leading to confiscation of goods/ conveyances. The nature of authorization to confiscate and providing an opportunity to show cause and release goods/ conveyances liable for such confiscation are detailed in this section.

130.2 Analysis

There are five precise causes for confiscation of goods and/ or conveyances specified in this section and they are:

Action	Consequence
Supply or receive goods in contravention of the provisions of this Act or rules made thereunder	Resulting in actual evasion of tax
Not accounting for goods	Carrying a liability for payment of tax
Supply of goods liable to tax	Without applying for registration
Contravention of the provisions of Act or rules made thereunder	With intent to evade payment of tax
Use of conveyance as a means of transport for carriage of goods	In contravention of the Act or rules made thereunder

- In all the above cases, goods or conveyance shall be liable for confiscation. However, the conveyance shall not be confiscated where the owner of the conveyance proves that it is without the connivance of the owner himself, his agent or person in charge of the conveyance. Further, the person shall be liable to pay penalty under section 122 of the Act.
- If the goods or conveyance are liable to be confiscated under the provisions of this Act, the proper officer shall give the owner of the goods an option to pay fine in lieu of confiscation.
- The amount of fine shall not exceed the market value of goods as reduced by the amount of tax payable thereon. However, at the same time the aggregate of fine and penalty leviable shall not be less than the amount of penalty equal to hundred percent of the tax payable on such goods.
- Where the conveyance is used for transportation of goods or passengers on hire, the owner of the conveyance shall be given an option to pay in lieu of confiscation of the conveyance a fine equal to the amount of tax payable on the goods transported on his conveyance.
- The order for confiscation cannot be issued without giving the person an opportunity of being heard.
- The title of the confiscated goods or conveyance shall be vested with the Government.
- The proper officer ordering confiscation shall take and hold possession of the things confiscated on behalf of the Government and every officer of police shall assist in taking such hold and possession.
- If the proper officer is satisfied that the confiscated goods/ conveyance are not required for any other proceedings under the Act, then he shall, after giving reasonable time not exceeding 3 months to pay fine in lieu of confiscation, dispose the goods and deposit the sale proceeds with the Government.

130.3 Comparative review

The provisions as discussed above regarding confiscation of goods and levy of penalty are akin to the erstwhile confiscation provisions under sections 33 and 34 of the Central Excise Act, 1944.

130.4 FAQs

- Q1. Are all cases of contraventions of the provisions of the Act or Rules attract the confiscation provisions ?
- Ans. No, only if the contravention of the provisions results in evasion of taxes or there lies an intent to evade the payment of tax, confiscation of goods/ conveyance is permissible.
- Q2. What is the maximum amount of fine in lieu of confiscation that can be levied?

Ans. The maximum amount of fine in lieu of confiscation shall not exceed the market price of the goods confiscated, less the tax chargeable thereon.

Q3. Can the option to pay redemption fine in lieu of confiscation of goods be given to any person other than the owner of the goods?

Ans. No, in terms of section 130(2) of CGST Act, the officer adjudging confiscation of any goods shall give to the owner of the goods an option to pay in lieu of confiscation such fine as thinks fit.

Q4. Can the option to pay fine in lieu of confiscation be exercised anytime?

Ans. The option to pay fine in lieu of confiscation could be exercised within 3 months of confiscation.

Statutory provisions

131. Confiscation or penalty not to interfere with other punishments

Without prejudice to the provisions contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), no confiscation made or penalty imposed under the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder shall prevent the infliction of any other punishment to which the person affected thereby is liable under the provisions of this Act or under any other law for the time being in force.

131.1 Introduction

This is an administrative provision which empowers the Government to initiate other proceedings, as applicable, in addition to confiscation of goods or imposition or penalty.

131.2 Analysis

Normally, the inference is that where the goods are confiscated or where any penalty is imposed, no other proceeding which is punitive in nature should be initiated.

This section provides that in addition to confiscation of goods or penalty already imposed, all/ any other proceedings may also be initiated or continued under the GST law or any other law, as applicable. This could be prosecution, arrest, cancellation of registration etc., as applicable and provided for the relevant non-compliance. Therefore, for the same offence both penalty and other punishments can be inflicted.

131.3 Comparative review

This provision is similar to section 34A of the Central Excise Act, 1944.

132.1 Introduction

This section talks about cases of tax evasion and penal actions applicable on specific events subject to the amount of tax sought to be evaded. This provision provides for prosecution of offenders and the resultant punishment that could be imposed on them. In the normal course, prosecution is the institution or commencement of criminal proceeding, the process of framing formal charges against an offender before a judicial forum/legal tribunal and pursuing them to final judgement on behalf of the State or Government or by indictment or information.

132.2 Analysis

- A. In this section the law makers have identified situations whereby, there can be a leakage of Government revenue and have thus, provided 12 such situations of mala fide intent which are as follows:
- (a) Supply of goods or services or both without the cover of invoice with an intent to evade tax;
  - (b) If any person issues any invoice or bill without actual supply of goods or services or both leading to wrongful input tax credit or refund of tax;
  - (c) Any person who avails input tax credit using invoice referred in point (b) above or fraudulently avails input tax credit without any invoice or bill;
  - (d) Collection of taxes without payment to the Government for a period beyond 3 months of due date;
  - (e) Evasion of tax, or obtaining refund with intent of fraud where such offence is not covered in clause (a) to (d) above;
  - (f) Falsifying financial records or production of false records/ accounts/ documents/ information with an intent to evade tax;
  - (g) Obstructs or prevents any officer from doing his duties under this Act;
  - (h) Acquires or transports or in any other manner deals with any goods which he knows or has reasons to believe are liable for confiscation under this Act or rules made thereunder;
  - (i) Receives or in any way, deals with any supply of services which he knows or has reason to believe are in contravention of any provisions of this law;
  - (j) Tampers with or destroys any material evidence or documents;
  - (k) Fails to supply any information which he is required to supply under this law or supply false information;
  - (l) Attempts or abets the commission of any of the offences mentioned above.

This section enables institution of prosecution proceedings both against the offenders and also against those persons who are instrumental in committing such offence. Such persons who are aiding the commission of the offence are punishable only if they retain the benefits arising from the offence.

The period of imprisonment and quantum of fine varies depending on the amount of tax evaded or seriousness of the offence as listed below.

Amount of Tax evaded/ erroneous refund/ wrong ITC availed or utilized	Fine	Imprisonment
Exceeding ₹ 5 Crores	Yes	Upto 5 years
₹ 2 Crores – ₹5 Crores	Yes	Upto 3 years
₹ 1 Crores – ₹2 Crores	Yes	Upto 1 year

- B. If any person commits any offence specified in clause (f), (g) or (j) above, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine or with both.
- C. In case of repetitive offences without any specific/ special reason which is recorded in the judgment of the Court will entail an imprisonment term of not less than 6 months and which could extend to 5 years plus with a fine.
- D. All offences mentioned in this section are non-cognizable and bailable except the following cases:
- where the amount exceeds ₹ 5 Crores and
  - instances covered by (a) to (d) in Para A.
- E. Every prosecution proceeding requires prior sanction of the Commissioner.
- F. The explanation to this section states that “tax” includes those which are levied under CGST, SGST, UTGST, and GST Compensation Cess Act. Basically, it includes the amount of tax evaded, amount of input tax credit wrongly availed or utilized or refund wrongly taken under the Act.

Reference may be made to the discussion under section 122 regarding the ‘ingredients’ required to impose penalty contrasted with the admission of unpaid taxes. Prosecution under section 132 proceeds as a natural consequence of establishment of the ingredients in section 122 (for the stated offences from clause (i) to (iv) in section 122(1)) and the value being above the threshold specified. Further, it is seen in Vimal Yashwantgiri Goswami vs State of Gujarat (SCA 13679 of 2019) where the Guj. HC laid down some guidance against placing persons under arrest under section 69 in a routine manner without first establishing whether the basic ingredients of the offence are established without which, the person cannot be detained. With the Economic Offences

(Inapplicability of Limitation) Act, 1974, there is no urgency to prosecute before completion of adjudication proceedings on the basic tax demand and penalty;

- G. Prosecution must be undertaken in accordance with the due process prescribed under Cr.PC before a Magistrate. The decision in Adani Enterprises Ltd. & Ors. v. UOI & Ors. 2019-TIOL-2408-MUM-CUS may be referred as to where proceedings under any special law in the absence of a 'procedure code' must fall in Cr.PC.
- H. Sections 436 and 438 of Cr.PC require a careful consideration. To detain a person (before conclusion of trial) is to deprive a person of his 'right to life' under Article 21. For a person to be set free on bail is a 'right' under the Constitution. This right could be denied only in special circumstances. Persons may be arrested under section 41 of Cr.PC, if the offence is bailable or non-bailable. In case of bailable offences, after arrest immediately, the arresting officer is empowered to release the arrested person on bail. In case of non-bailable offences, the person arrested must be produced within 24 hours before a Magistrate who will set the bail.
- I. It is in the case of non-bailable offences that anticipatory bail is granted under section 438. It means that the person must be enlarged 'at the very moment' of arrest [Naresh Kumar Yadav v. Ravindra Kumar (2008) 1 SCC 632]. Conditions imposed while granting anticipatory bail may sometimes be so onerous or restricting travel movements that it may require careful consultations with legal advisors whether the apprehension of arrest is real or not and whether anticipatory bail should or should not be sought. Some States have made amendments to the Cr.PC provisions so as to render section 438 inapplicable, for eg., in the State of UP, section 438 has been omitted from its implementation;
- J. Reference may also be made to section 441 regarding 'bonds and sureties' and various types of 'remand'. Understanding some of these provisions will take away the fear and anxiety and bring in clarity regarding the degree of proof required to (i) detain a person and (ii) prosecute a person. In India, being remanded to police custody or judicial custody is seen as a person would mean social stigma. And if it is resorted to in unwarranted cases, it may do more harm than good. Section 57 of Cr.PC makes it clear that detention should not be for more than 24 hours and then section 167 takes over to protect the 'right' of the detainee which states that maximum duration of detention pending investigation cannot exceed 90 days.

132.3 Comparative Review

The extinct Central and State level indirect tax laws did contain provisions regarding the prosecution powers.

Statutory provisions*133. Liability of officers and certain other persons

- (1) Where any person engaged in connection with the collection of statistics under section 151 or compilation or computerization thereof or if any officer of Central tax having access to information specified under sub-section (1) of section 150, or if any person engaged in connection with the provision of service on the common portal or the agent of common portal, willfully discloses any information or the contents of any return furnished under this Act or rules made thereunder otherwise than in execution of his duties under the said sections or for the purposes of prosecution for an offence under this Act or under any other Act for the time being in force, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to twenty-five thousand rupees, or with both.
- (2) Any person—
- (a) who is a Government servant shall not be prosecuted for any offence under this section except with the previous sanction of the Government;
  - (b) who is not a Government servant shall not be prosecuted for any offence under this section except with the previous sanction of the Commissioner.

Related provisions of the Statute:

Section or Rule	Description
Section 150	Obligation to furnish information return
Section 151	Power to collect statistics

133.1 Introduction

This section casts duties and obligations on the officers of the Goods and Services Tax Laws to keep the information collected either from the statistical data gathered by the Government or from the information furnished in the returns confidential.

133.2 Analysis

Since the officers of the department are dealing with sensitive information, the secrecy and security of such information is of utmost importance. The officers who are dealing with the statistical data or data collected from the information returns, have to maintain utmost secrecy of the same.

If the officer willfully discloses such information or contents by any reason other than by reason of his duties cast upon him under the Act, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to ₹ 25,000 or both.

Further, any prosecution under this section would be initiated only with the prior sanction of the Government in case of a Government Servant and with the sanction of Commissioner in the case of others.

Statutory provisions*134. Cognizance of offences

No Court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Act or the rules made thereunder except with the previous sanction of the Commissioner, and no court inferior to that of a Magistrate of the First Class, shall try any such offence.

134.1 Introduction

This provision sets out the manner of taking cognizance of offences.

134.2 Analysis

Any offence under the Act or Rules can be tried only before a Court not lower than the Court of Judicial Magistrate of First Class. Further, the previous sanction of the Commissioner is mandatory in every such case.

Statutory provisions*135. Presumption of culpable mental state

In any prosecution for an offence under this Act which requires a culpable mental state on the part of the accused, the court shall presume the existence of such mental state but it shall be a defence for the accused to prove the fact that he had no such mental state with respect to the act charged as an offence in that prosecution.

Explanation - For the purposes of this section, —

- (i) the expression “culpable mental state” includes intention, motive, knowledge of a fact, and belief in, or reason to believe, a fact;*
- (ii) a fact is said to be proved only when the court believes it to exist beyond reasonable doubt and not merely when its existence is established by a preponderance of probability.*

135.1 Introduction

In this section, the framers of law have cast the responsibility upon the shoulders of the one who is alleged of culpable mental state to prove otherwise.

135.2 Analysis

Now, once the law has stated that in case of any prosecution which requires the existence of a culpable mental state, the Court would presume the existence of it.

Under the old revenue laws, the burden to prove such mental state was on the one who alleges it. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Uniworth Textiles Limited vs. Commissioner of Central Excise, Raipur [(2013) 31 taxmann.com 67 (SC)] stated that “Burden to prove invocation of extended period is on Department. The assessee cannot be asked to bring evidence to prove his bona fide intention. Similarly, it is a cardinal postulate of law that the burden of proving any form of mala fide intention lies on the shoulders of the one alleging it.”

The accused can prove that he had no such mental state in respect of a particular act for which he is charged. The expression “culpable mental state” is defined inclusively to cover “intent, motive, knowledge of fact, belief in or reason to believe”. It also covers facts which exist beyond a reasonable doubt and not based on probabilities. However, presumption does not mean assumption of mental state to commit the offence. It is only a rebuttable presumption. Presumption does not mean assumption of such mental state. Reference may be made to section 4 of Evidence Act.

135.3 Comparative Review

Section 9C of the Central Excise Act, 1944 has an identical provision. Under the old laws, the onus to prove non-existence of culpable mental state was on the assessee only.

Statutory provisions

136. Relevancy of statements under certain circumstances

A statement made and signed by a person on appearance in response to any summons issued under section 70 during the course of any inquiry or proceedings under this Act shall be relevant, for the purpose of proving, in any prosecution for an offence under this Act, the truth of the facts which it contains, —

- (a) when the person who made the statement is dead or cannot be found, or is incapable of giving evidence, or is kept out of the way by the adverse party, or whose presence cannot be obtained without an amount of delay or expense which, under the circumstances of the case, the court considers unreasonable; or
- (b) when the person who made the statement is examined as a witness in the case before the court and the court is of the opinion that, having regard to the circumstances of the case, the statement should be admitted in evidence in the interest of justice.

Related provisions of the Statute

Section or Rule	Description
Section 70	Power to summon persons to give evidence and produce documents

136.1 Introduction

This provision deals with relevancy of statements and documents recorded or deposed during investigation proceedings.

136.2 Analysis

A statement recorded during an investigation proceedings or inquiry will be relevant to prove the truthfulness of facts when:

- (a) It is made by a person who is not available in Court on account of his death, incapacity, prevention by another party or when he absconds or when his presence cannot be obtained without an amount of delay or expense which, under the circumstances of the case, the Court considers unreasonable or

- (b) The Court considers the statement as an evidence on examination of the person as a witness.

136.3 Comparative review

Similar provisions are traceable to section 9D of the Central Excise Act, 1944.

Statutory provisions

137. Offences by Companies

- (1) Where an offence committed by a person under this Act is a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any negligence on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.
- (3) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a taxable person being a partnership firm or a limited liability partnership or a Hindu undivided family or a trust, the partner or karta or managing trustee shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly and the provisions of sub-section (2) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such persons.
- (4) Nothing contained in this section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in this Act, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

Explanation. —For the purposes of this section, —

- (i) “company” means a body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and
- (ii) “director”, in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

Related provisions of the Statute:

Section or Rule	Description
Section 2(84)	Definition of Person

137.1 Introduction

This section comes down heavily on persons who take shelter under the principle of separate legal status of artificial judicial persons and back out from their responsibility of payment of dues of the Government.

137.2 Analysis

This section states that where an offence is committed by companies, every person/ director/ manager/ secretary or any other officer who at the time of commission of the offence, was in charge of and was responsible to the company for the conduct of business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of such offence and shall be liable to proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Where such offences are committed by a person being partnership firm, LLP, HUF or trust, then the Partner or Karta or Managing Trustee (as the case may be) shall be deemed to be guilty and liable to be proceeded against and punished.

Further, if the accused person proves that he was in no way related to the offence being committed or he had exercised all possible measures to prevent commission of such offences, then he is not punishable under this section.

137.3 Comparative Review

These provisions are comparable to section 9AA of the Central Excise Act, 1944 as well as several State level VAT legislations with few exemptions to persons who can be prosecuted. The provisions as regards LLP, HUF, Trust are new developments.

Statutory Provisions*138. Compounding of offences

(1) Any offence under this Act may, either before or after the institution of prosecution, be compounded by the Commissioner on payment, by the person accused of the offence, to the Central Government or the State Government, as the case be, of such compounding amount in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall apply to—

- (a) a person who has been allowed to compound once in respect of any of the offences specified in clauses (a) to (f) of sub-section (1) of section 132 and the offences specified in clause (l) which are relatable to offences specified in clauses (a) to (f) of the said sub-section;
- (b) a person who has been allowed to compound once in respect of any offence, other than those in clause (a), under this Act or under the provisions of any State Goods and Services Tax Act or the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act or the Integrated Goods and Services Tax Act in respect of supplies of value exceeding one crore rupees;
- (c) a person who has been accused of committing an offence under this Act which is also an offence under any other law for the time being in force;
- (d) a person who has been convicted for an offence under this Act by a court;
- (e) a person who has been accused of committing an offence specified in clause (g) or clause (j) or clause (k) of sub-section (1) of section 132; and

(f) any other class of persons or offences as may be prescribed:

Provided further that any compounding allowed under the provisions of this section shall not affect the proceedings, if any, instituted under any other law:

Provided also that compounding shall be allowed only after making payment of tax, interest and penalty involved in such offences.

- (2) The amount for compounding of offences under this section shall be such as may be prescribed, subject to the minimum amount not being less than ten thousand rupees or fifty per cent of the tax involved, whichever is higher, and the maximum amount not being less than thirty thousand rupees or one hundred and fifty per cent. of the tax, whichever is higher.
- (3) On payment of such compounding amount as may be determined by the Commissioner, no further proceedings shall be initiated under this Act against the accused person in respect of the same offence and any criminal proceedings, if already initiated in respect of the said offence, shall stand abated.

Extract of the CGST Rules, 2017

162. Procedure for compounding of offences

- (1) An applicant may, either before or after the institution of prosecution, make an application under sub-section (1) of section 138 in Form GST CPD-01 to the Commissioner for compounding of an offence
- (2) On receipt of the application, the Commissioner shall call for a report from the concerned officer with reference to the particulars furnished in the application, or any other information, which may be considered relevant for the examination of such application.
- (3) The Commissioner, after taking into account the contents of the said application, may, by order in Form GST CPD-02, on being satisfied that the applicant has co-operated in the proceedings before him and has made full and true disclosure of facts relating to the case, allow the application indicating the compounding amount and grant him immunity from prosecution or reject such application within ninety days of the receipt of the application.
- (4) The application shall not be decided under sub-rule (3) without affording an opportunity of being heard to the applicant and recording the grounds of such rejection.
- (5) The application shall not be allowed unless the tax, interest and penalty liable to be paid have been paid in the case for which the application has been made.
- (6) The applicant shall, within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of the order under sub-rule (3), pay the compounding amount as ordered by the Commissioner and shall furnish the proof of such payment to him.
- (7) In case the applicant fails to pay the compounding amount within the time specified in sub-rule (6), the order made under sub-rule (3) shall be vitiated and be void.

(8) Immunity granted to a person under sub-rule (3) may, at any time, be withdrawn by the Commissioner, if he is satisfied that such person had, in the course of the compounding proceedings, concealed any material particulars or had given false evidence. Thereupon such person may be tried for the offence with respect to which immunity was granted or for any other offence that appears to have been committed by him in connection with the compounding proceedings and the provisions the Act shall apply as if no such immunity had been granted.

Related provisions of the Statute:

Section or Rule	Description
Section 132	Punishment for certain offences

138.1 Introduction

This provision deals with compounding of offences by payment of the prescribed compounding fees. In common parlance, compounding means a condonation for a sum of money. Compounding of an offence is understood to be, the action of taking a reward for forbearing to prosecute. It could also mean an agreement with the offender not to prosecute him.

138.2 Analysis

- (a) Compounding of an offence means payment of a sum of money in monetary terms instead of undergoing prosecution. Application for compounding of an offence can be made either before or after institution of the prosecution proceedings.
- (b) Compounding of an offence is understood as a compromise between the offender and the tax department and is not an agreement or contract.
- (c) Specified offences can be compounded only once.
- (d) As per Rule 162 of the CGST Rules, the application of compounding shall be filed in Form GST-CPD-01.
- (e) On receipt of the application, the Commissioner shall call for a report from the concerned officer with reference to the particulars furnished in the application or any other relevant information for the examination of such application.

After providing opportunity of being heard to the applicant and taking into account the contents of the application, if satisfied that the applicant has co-operated in the proceedings before him and has made full and true disclosure of facts relating to the case. Commissioner may by order in Form GST-CPD-02 either allow the application indicating the compounding amount and grant him immunity from prosecution or reject such application within 90 days of the receipt of the application stating the grounds of rejection.

However, the application shall not be allowed unless the tax, interest and penalty liable to be paid, have been paid for which the application has been made.

- (f) Immunity granted to applicant may, at any time be withdrawn by Commissioner, if he is satisfied that such person had, in the course of compounding proceedings, concealed any material particulars or had given false evidence. Thereupon such person may be tried for the offence with respect to which immunity was granted or for any other offence that appears to have been committed by him in connection with the compounding proceedings and the provisions of the Act shall apply as if no such immunity has been granted.
- (g) The applicant, within a period of 30 days from the date of receipt of order allowing compounding, shall pay the compounding amount as ordered by the Commissioner and furnish the proof of such payment to him. However, if the applicant fails to pay the compounding amount within the time specified then the order of Commissioner shall be vitiated and be void.
- (h) On payment, the proceedings indicated will abate and no criminal proceedings can be launched.
- (i) The amount of compounding fee under this section shall be such as may be prescribed, subject to
- the minimum amount not being less than ₹ 10,000 or 50 per cent of tax, whichever is higher and
  - the maximum amount not being less than ₹ 30,000 or 150 per cent , of tax whichever is higher.
- (j) Compounding of offences is not permissible for the following offences:
- (i) A person who has compounded once in respect of supply value exceeding ₹ One Crore.
  - (ii) A person who is convicted by a Court under this Act.
  - (iii) A person permitted to compound offences once in respect of offences specified in clauses (a) to (f) of section 132(1) and offences specified in clause (l) which are relatable to offences specified in (a) to (f).
  - (iv) A person who has been accused of committing an offence under this Act which is also an offence under any other law for the time being in force.
  - (v) A person who has been accused of committing an offence under section 132(1)(g) or 132(1)(j) or 132(1)(k)
  - (vi) Prescribed class of persons.

138.3 Comparative Review

139.1 Introduction

This transitional provision deals with migration of existing registrants into the GST regime. All existing registrants having a valid Permanent Account Number will be issued provisional registration certificate. After furnishing the required information, a final certificate of registration will be granted. If the information is not furnished, the registration is liable to be cancelled.

139.2 Analysis

As part of implementation of GST regime, the existing tax payers / registrants having a valid PAN would be granted provisional registration certificates under the GST law. The details are as follows:

- (i) The existing tax payer, other than a person deducting tax, or an Input Service Distributor (ISD), who were registered under various earlier Indirect Tax Laws are liable to be registered under GST Laws with effect from the appointed day, when the relevant sections of CGST Act came into force. Such taxpayer is required to declare his Permanent Account Number (PAN), mobile number, e-mail address, State or Union territory and shall enroll himself for getting the provisional registration certificate.
- (ii) On successful verification of the PAN, mobile number and e-mail address, an application reference number (ARN) shall be generated and communicated to the applicant on the said mobile number and e-mail address.
- (iii) Upon enrolment, the said person will be granted a provisional registration certificate in Form GST REG-25, incorporating the Provisional ID (GSTIN) and Password, which will be available on the GST common portal. (<https://www.gst.gov.in/>).
- (iv) A person having a single PAN in a State or UT shall be granted only one provisional registration certificate, although he may hold multiple registrations under the erstwhile Central and State laws.
- (v) A person who holds a provisional certificate of registration is required to furnish certain information in Form GST REG-26, within a period of 3 months or as extended by the commissioner. The date was extended to 31.12.2017 vide Order No. 6/2017 - GST dated 28.10.2017.
- (vi) If the information furnished is correct and complete, Final Registration Certificate in Form GST REG 06 will be issued, within 6 months of the appointed day.
- (vii) If the and/or information has not been furnished or not found to be correct or complete, the proper officer shall cancel the provisional registration and issue an order in Form GST REG-28 cancelling the registration after serving a show cause notice in Form GST REG-27 after affording the person concerned a reasonable opportunity of being heard.
- (viii) Once the information specified in sub rule 2(c) has been furnished and no notice has been issued under sub rule 3 within a period of 15 days from the period of furnishing of the information, the registration shall be deemed to have been granted and the registration certificate will be made available on the common portal. The SCN issued in Form GST REG-27 can be withdrawn by an order in Form GST REG 20, if it is found subsequently, after affording the person an opportunity of being heard, that no cause as specified in the notice exists.

- (ix) Every existing taxpayer / registrant, who is not liable to be registered under the Act, may at his option, on or before 31st March 2018, <sup>1</sup> file electronically an application in Form GST REG-29 at the Common Portal for cancellation of the registration granted provisionally to him and the proper officer shall, after conducting such enquiry as deemed fit, cancel the said provisional registration.
- (x) A person to whom provisional certificate is issued and who is eligible to pay tax under composition, may opt to do so by filing electronically an intimation, in Form GST CMP-01 within 30 days after the appointed day, or such further period as may be extended by the Commissioner in this behalf. This period was extended to 16th August, vide Notification No. 1/2017- GST dated 21.07.2017. In case the said person does not file Form GST CMP-01 within the said time lines and if he wants to opt for payment of taxes under the composition scheme under section 10, subsequently during the year 2017-18, he shall electronically file an intimation in Form GST CMP-02 before 31st March, 2018. He can opt to pay tax under section 10 w.e.f. the 1st day of the next month onwards. Such persons shall furnish statement of stock in Form GST ITC-03 within a period of 90 days from the day on which he commences to pay tax under section 10. The above persons who have filed the intimation and statement as above shall not be allowed to file Form GST TRAN-01, after furnishing Form GST ITC-03.
- (xi) It is pertinent to note here that as per Rule 5(1)(b), the person who prefers to file CMP-01 shall not hold any goods in stock on the appointed day;
- i. that have been purchased in the course of interstate trade or;
  - ii. imported from outside India, or
  - iii. received from his branch, agent or principal situated outside the state;
- However, this restriction regarding the holding the stock received from outside the state is not applicable in the case of persons opting to pay tax under Section 10 by filing Form GST CMP-03
- (xii) A Special Economic Zone Unit or a Special Economic Zone Developer shall make a separate application for registration as a business vertical distinct from its other units located outside the SEZ.
- (xiii) Person desiring multiple- business vertical registration must also follow the above steps of migrating to GST and then apply for separate registration of the other business-vertical. In case one line of business is exempt and another taxable, it is not possible to obtain business vertical registration for the taxable business only and to leave the exempt business from registration and thereby from compliances requirements (including reverse charge). (Business- vertical registration refers to the 'subsequent' registration of a taxable person who is registered already.)

139.3 Comparative review

This provision is broadly comparable to the provisions relating to migration of registrations from the erstwhile Sales Tax to the Value Added Tax at the time of introduction of VAT law, in 2004/2005.

PRE GST

Existing taxpayer – i.e. registered under any of the earlier laws

POST GST

- Existing tax payer, if liable to be registered under section 22 of the Act – then compulsorily to be registered
- If not liable to be registered – can still apply for registration voluntarily.
- Persons specified in Sec 23 not required to be registered.
- In case of multiple business verticals in a State - Option to obtain separate registration for each business vertical
- Mandatory to have Permanent Account Number (PAN) (if Non - Resident taxable person than any other document as may be prescribed)
- Final registration to be granted by Central Government (CG)/State Government (SG) subject to the condition that the requisite information is submitted within the time period allowed :
- “Provisional Certificate of Registration” granted deemed to not have been issued if application filed for cancellation of registration by person not liable to be registered under Section 22 of the Act and if he does not furnish the prescribed information within the prescribed time period.

139.4 Issues / Concerns:

Correction of incomplete/ incorrect migration process: A sizeable number of taxpayers were unable to complete the migration process due to GST portal glitches / IT related issues and some taxpayers have migrated with incorrect data (i.e., instead of Company PAN, the Director PAN has been considered for migration) etc. In these cases, assesseees have opted for a new registration and the same has been issued towards the end of July 2017 or in the subsequent months. On account of this, input tax credit was not available to be claimed by the assesseees till the date of registration. Further, since the returns would be filed only subsequent to the date of registration, the returns would not be filed by such suppliers and the corresponding credits will not be eligible in the hands of the recipients. In such cases, refund or other remedies under earlier tax regime must be considered by taxpayers and not remedies under GST law.

139.5 FAQs

Q1. What is the criteria for issuing provisional registration?

Ans: Every person registered under any of the earlier laws and having a valid PAN will be issued a certificate of registration, provisionally.

Q2. When is the final registration certificate issued replacing the provisional one?

Ans: The holder of the provisional certificate is required to furnish application in form GST REG 26 within a period of three months, along with all documents as mentioned in form REG 26.

Q3. What happens if the prescribed documents are not furnished within the prescribed time?

Ans: If the person fails to furnish the prescribed information/documents within the specified time, the certificate of registration provisionally issued may be cancelled.

Q4. Whether the GST Registration for existing registered dealer shall be taken by submission of required documents or will it be done automatically?

Ans: Requisite data has to be submitted on GSTN portal and only then will registration be granted. A provisional registration will, however, be granted which will be made final upon submission of additional information/documents after the appointed date. Refer Rule 24 of CGST Rules 2017.

Q5. Can a person who is registered under the earlier law opt out of GST voluntarily?

Ans: Yes, by making an application in Form GST REG 29 on or before 31st March 2018, a person can opt out of GST. Refer Rule 24(4) of CGST Rules, 2017.

Q6. What will happen to the provisional registration if the person claims to be not liable for registration under GST?

Ans: The provisional certificate shall be deemed to have not been issued if the said registration is cancelled in pursuance of an application filed by such person stating that he was not liable to registration.

Q7. What will be the position of the provisional registration of a composite dealer? Will he remain a composite dealer even after the appointed day?

Ans: No. Even existing composite taxpayer has to specifically apply for composition tax within 30 days from the appointed date and the receipt of provisional certificate will not be considered as automatic transition to composite scheme.

Q8. Can a VAT dealer opt for composition scheme after the time prescribed?

Ans: If a registered taxable person does not opt to pay tax under composition scheme within the specified time, he shall be liable to pay tax under regular scheme.

- Q9. What happens if the tax payer has distinct VAT registrations in the same State?
- Ans: The transitional provisions will allot only one registration certificate in each state based on single PAN even though such person had multiple registrations in the state. He can have distinct registrations in the same State by way of an option only if the business units qualify as business-verticals under the GST law.
- Q10. What happens to the distinct registrations obtained under the Central Excise and Service Tax laws for the different business premises and units in the same state?
- Ans: All business units/ premises registered either under the Central Excise or Service Tax law will be consolidated into a single CGST registration for that State, unless these units qualify as distinct business-verticals under the GST law.
- Q11. If a person is operating in different states with the same PAN number, whether he can operate with a single registration?
- Ans: No. Every person who is liable to take registration will have to get registered separately for each of the States where he has a business operation and is liable to pay GST in terms of sub-section (1) of section 22 of the CGST/SGST Act.

Section	Description
Section 2(107)	Meaning of taxable person
Section 2(46)	Definition of Electronic Credit Ledger
Section 16 to 21	Input tax credit
Section 2(48)	Meaning of Existing law

140.1.1 Introduction

This transition provision enables a registered person to carry forward unutilized input credit under the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004 / State Tax laws, as applicable.

140.1.2 Analysis

The amount of any input credit carried forward in a return, which is unutilized under the erstwhile tax regime may be carried forward into the GST regime except in the case of a person who opts to pay tax under composition scheme in a GST regime.

The said credit will be allowed to be carried forward to the GST regime, if the following conditions are satisfied:

- (1) The said credit is admissible as input tax credit under the provisions of the CGST Act;
- (2) The registered person has furnished all the returns required under the erstwhile law for the period of six months immediately preceding the appointed date.
- (3) Input tax credit does not relate to goods manufactured and cleared under exemption notifications as are notified by the Government.
- (4) Input tax credit carried forward will not be allowed if such credit relates to goods manufactured and cleared under exemption notifications as notified by the government. No such list of notifications has, however, been issued by the Government.

Note:

The CENVAT credit of central excise duty or service tax wrongly carried forward as transitional credit shall be recovered as central tax liability to be paid using electronic credit ledger or electronic cash ledger of the registered person, and the same shall be recorded in Part II of the Electronic Liability Register (FORM GST PMT-01). (Circular No. 42/16/2018-GST dated 13/04/2018). Pre-deposit of tax/duty under earlier laws has been permitted out of CGST balance by Hon'ble Tribunal, although experts doubt the merits of such fungibility.

Rule 117(1) prescribes the manner of claiming transition credit by filing the prescribed information on the Common Portal which is provided below:

Note:

- Similarly, State VAT credits can also be claimed as transitional credit under this sub-section. Attention is invited to the fact that the definition of input tax credit under the various State VAT laws may vary and the reader should be cautious about the eligibility of the various State taxes paid as transitional credits. For e.g. In the State of Gujarat, entry tax paid on causing entry of goods into a local area for trading is eligible as input tax credit at the point of sale, whereas, such entry tax paid in the State of Karnataka is not eligible as input tax credit.
- The Gujarat High Court in the case of Willowood Chemicals Pvt. Ltd v. UOI [2018-TIOL-133-HC-AHM-GST] held that the time limit provisions contained in sub-rule (1) of rule 117 of the CGST Rules is not ultra vires the Act and refused to strike down the time limit prescribed therein. While dismissing the petition, the Hon'ble HC observed that when the entire tax structure of the country is being shifted from earlier framework to a new one, there has to be a degree of finality on claims, credits, transfers of such credits and all issues related thereto and such prescription of time limit cannot be stated to be either unreasonable or arbitrary and removing such time limit would have a potential to lead to utter economic chaos. Similarly, Hon'ble Mumbai HC upheld the validity of section 140(3) in Evergreen Seamless Pipes and Tubes (P) Ltd & Ors v. Uoi & Ors. However, Hon'ble Gujarat HC struck down these provisions in Filco Trade Centre which has been stayed by Hon'ble SC. Care must be taken that relief, if any, allowed by Hon'ble SC will be available only to those parties who have brought the matter before Courts and not to those who are standing by for others to pursue the matter. Fruits of litigation will flow to those who litigate only. However, if relief, if any, is allowed and the order is implemented by the Government in a liberal manner, then all parties may become eligible. Experts have expressed anguish at the rigid stand of the Government, especially, in such a brand new law filled with uncertainty and in respect of taxes validly paid under earlier laws, in going ahead with the timelines through rules even though no such limits are found in the statute.

- Some taxpayers could not complete the filing of Form GST TRAN-1 as they could not digitally authenticate the Form GST TRAN-1 on account of IT related glitches. As a result, a large number of such Form GST TRAN-1s were stuck in the system. Consequentially, the taxpayers are unable to file their Form GSTR 3B monthly returns too. The GSTN has identified such taxpayers who could not file TRAN-1 on the basis of electronic audit trail and enabled them to file it by 30th April 2018 and GSTR 3B returns, stuck on this account, by 31.05.2018 (Circular No. 39/13/2018-GST dated 03.04.2018). Late fee for filling such GSTR-3B has also been waived by Notification No. 22/2018 – Central Tax dated 14th May 2018. The Bombay HC has further extended the date of filing Form GST TRAN-1 by 10 days to 10.05.2018.
- The Government has further clarified that CENVAT credit that has been credited to the Electronic Credit Ledger is not available for utilization towards GST liabilities where, the CENVAT credit is held as inadmissible vide an adjudication order or Order-in-Appeal as on 01.07.2017 until such order is in existence. If utilized, the same is liable to be recovered with interest and penalty. (Circular No. 33/07/2018-GST dated 23.02.2018)
- Government's determination NOT TO EXTEND the time limit for transition of credit, in spite of interpretation of the law by various Courts can be seen in the amendment made, yet again with effect from 1 Jul 2017 where the earlier law contained the 'in such manner as may be prescribed' by the Rules, it now reads as 'in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed'. It seems quite clear that transition of credits under earlier laws may not be extended again. However, decisions of HCs have not been exactly on the lack of power in rule 117 to lay down time limit but on equitable consideration for 'moulding relief' to the taxpayer. Reference may be had to decision of HC of P&H in Adfert Technologies (CWP No.30949/2018 dated 4 Nov 2019) and SLP against this decision came to be dismissed by Hon'ble SC (SLP No. 4408/2020 dated 28 Feb 2020).
- Interestingly, only select cases that came in for resubmission of TRAN1 and approved by GST Council after review by Nodal Officers, were granted extension by Order 1/2020-GST dated 7th Feb 2020 to file TRAN1 by 31 Mar 2020. This extension was NOT in respect of all other bona fide cases backed by Orders of HCs including Adfert Technologies decision.

- Illustration 1: GST is applicable from 1st July, 2017 and the amount of credit as per the return for the period ending 30th June, 2017 is as follows:

Particulars of Input tax Credit	Credit amount as per return
Central Excise	200,000
Service Tax	100,000
Education Cess	10,000
Secondary and Higher Education Cess	5,000
Krishi Kalyan Cess	5,000
Swachh Bharat Cess	5,000
Additional Duty u/s 3(1) of CTA – CVD	40,000
Additional Duty u/s 3(5) of CTA – SAD	30,000
Input Tax Credit under VAT	50,000
Total	445,000

What will be the amount of CGST to be brought forward as per the GST Law as on 1st July, 2017?

Ans. The amount of CGST to be brought forward on 1st July, 2017 will be calculated as follows:

A. If the tax payer is a Manufacturer

CGST Components	CGST Value
Central Excise	200,000
Service Tax	100,000
Education Cess	-
Secondary and Higher Education Cess	-
Additional Duty u/s 3(1) of CTA	40,000
Additional Duty u/s 3(5) of CTA	30,000
Krishi Kalyan Cess	-
Total CGST	370,000

Note:

1. Swachh Bharat Cess and Krishi Kalyan Cess will not be allowed to be carried forward.
2. Input credit under VAT will not be allowed to be carried forward as CGST, but allowed as SGST.
3. Credit of EC and SHEC shall not be allowed to be carried forward.

Explanation:

For the purposes of this Chapter, the expressions “capital goods”, “Central Value Added Tax (CENVAT) Credit”, “first stage dealer”, “second stage dealer” or “manufacture” shall have the same meaning as respectively assigned to them in the Central Excise Act, 1944 (1 of 1944) or the rules made thereunder.

Considering the above explanation, the term CENVAT Credit shall have the same meaning as has been assigned under the provisions of Central Excise Act, 1944 or rules made thereunder. In view of Rule 3 of CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004, the term ‘CENVAT Credit’ also includes Krishi Kalyan Cess. Accordingly, on a combined reading of aforesaid Explanation and Rule 3 of CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004, it appears that Credit of KKC may be carried forward. However, at the same time it will be pertinent to highlight that there is a restriction that credit of KKC can be utilized for payment of KKC only and since such KKC is not being separately levied under GST, thus, the availment of same can be doubtful.

It appears that the Government, is inclined to take a view that since KKC, Edu. Cess and SHE Cess do not form part of “eligible duties and taxes”, such credits would not be eligible as transitional credits in terms of Explanation 1 to Section 140 of the CGST Act, 2017. It is relevant to note that the phrase ‘eligible duties and taxes’ is not applicable to credits carried forward in the last return (Explanation 1 to Section 140 of the CGST Act, 2017).

Even Authority for Advance ruling of Maharashtra in case of Kansai Nerolac Paints Ltd. has held that KKC credit as on 30.06.2017 as shown in service tax return will not be considered as admissible input tax credit. (Reference: Advance ruling No. GST-ARA-18/2017-18/B-25 Mumbai dated 05/04/2018.)

High Court of Gujarat in Grasim Industries Ltd. v. Uol [2019] 108 Taxmann.com 285 (Gujarat) has issued notice to the GST authorities on the issue of allowability of Education Cess Secondary and Higher Education Cess. It remains to be seen how this matter attains finality. Nevertheless, Twitter comments and the transitional credit verification checklists shared with the taxpayers by the Government state that KKC, Edu. Cess and SHE Cess are not eligible as transitional credit. The CENVAT response on the Twitter handle of Government with respect to eligibility of KKC is provided below:

KKc credit not available after 30th June

Thus, in view of the aforesaid interpretations being considered by various experts, registered persons who were registered under erstwhile laws and were required to file their last returns under those laws may take note that the closing balance of credit in the said last returns will only be available to be brought forward into GST regime. It appears there is a good argument against bifurcating this brought forward balance of credit into the various sources – ED, ST, KKC, SBC, EC, SHEC – as all of them as 'CENVAT Credit' according to the last returns under the earlier laws. Caution is advisable in view of the implications of the alternate view being taken by the tax administration.

B. If the tax payer is a Service Provider

CGST Components	CGST Value
Central Excise	200,000
Service Tax	100,000
Education Cess	-
Secondary and Higher Education Cess	-
Krishi Kalyan Cess	-
Additional Duty u/s 3(1) of CTA-CVD	40,000
Total CGST	3,40,000

Note:

1. Service Provider not entitled to avail credit of SAD, Swachh Bharat Cess.
2. Additional Duty u/s 3(1) of CTA – CVD will be available if it is paid on import purchase of specified goods.
3. Credit of EC and SHEC shall not be allowed to be carried forward.

Issues / Concerns:

- a. Availability of credit on KKC, Edu. Cess and SHE Cess: There is a certain amount of ambiguity in the law as to whether transitional credit of KKC, Edu. Cess and SHE Cess would be eligible as transition credits in the hands of the taxpayers. The Twitter comments and the transitional credit verification checklists shared with the taxpayers by the Government state that KKC, Edu. Cess and SHE Cess are not eligible as transitional credit as the same are not covered under the meaning of 'Eligible duties and taxes'. This is despite the fact that the applicability of Explanation 2 to Section 140 of the CGST Act, 2017 has not been extended to transitional credits claimed under Section 140(1) of the CGST Act, 2017. Due to this ambiguity that KKC is 'in the nature of service tax', there is some litigation going on in various Courts although Government's resolve is not ambiguous in this matter.

- b. Availment of credit of taxes paid after due date under earlier laws: In many cases, taxpayers have filed belated service tax returns / paid taxes belatedly along with the applicable interest and late fee. Even in such cases, the credit of taxes paid under reverse charge mechanism after 6th July, 2017 is not available to the assesseees. This is highly unfair to the taxpayers, especially since the compensation to the Government by way of interest and late fee has been remitted.
- c. Availment of credit of excess taxes paid under earlier laws: There is no provision under the GST law to claim credit of excess service tax paid under Rule 6(3) & Rule 6(4A) of the Service Tax Rules, 1994. Rule 6(3) deals with claim of credit of excess service tax paid where services have subsequently not provided wholly / partly or in case of deficiency of services. Rule 6 (4A) deals with adjustment of excess service tax paid against the liability for the succeeding month / quarter.
- d. Unutilized cash balance in PLA under Central Excise Law: Many of the taxpayers registered under the Central Excise Law carry a huge amount of unutilized balance of credit in the PLA Account as on 30th June, 2017. However, currently no provision exists for utilization / carry forward of the same in the GST Law.
- e. Omission to claim such Cenvat credit through TRAN-1 will leave the taxpayer with no option but to forgo such credit.

140.1.3 FAQ

Q1. A person who is registered under Service tax as well as under Central Excise and having unavailed CENVAT credit in central excise return, has not filed his Service tax returns. Whether he can carry forward the unavailed CENVAT credit as per the last central excise return to GST regime?

Ans: No. Credit cannot be taken unless he has furnished all the returns required under the erstwhile law for the period of six months immediately preceding the appointed date.

Statutory Provisions

140(2). Credit of unavailed CENVAT credit in respect of capital goods, not carried forward in a return, shall be allowed.

A registered person, other than a person opting to pay tax under section 10, shall be entitled to take, in his electronic credit ledger, credit of the unavailed CENVAT credit in respect of capital goods, not carried forward in a return, furnished under the existing law by him, for the period ending with the day immediately preceding the appointed day <sup>15</sup>[within such time and] in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that the registered person shall not be allowed to take credit unless the said credit was admissible as CENVAT credit under the existing law and is also admissible as input tax credit under this Act.

Explanation - For the purposes of this sub-section, the expression "unavailed CENVAT credit" means the amount that remains after subtracting the amount of CENVAT credit already availed in respect of capital goods by the taxable person under the existing law from the aggregate amount of CENVAT credit to which the said person was entitled in respect of the said capital goods under the existing law.

Extract of the CGST Rules, 2017 – The extracts of the relevant rules have been provided below the Statutory Provisions of Section 140(1) of the CGST Act, 2017 supra.

Related provisions of the Statute

Central Tax Rule 120A	Revision of declaration in TRAN-1

140.2.1 Introduction

This transition provision enables a person to avail CENVAT credit of the balance amount (unavailed portion) in respect of capital goods, that has not been availed under the erstwhile laws. The unavailed portion of credit relating to capital goods under the erstwhile laws not carried forward through a return can be availed, provided such credits are admissible under the GST laws.

140.2.2 Analysis

A registered person (except person opting for payment of taxes under the composition scheme) shall be allowed to take the amount of CENVAT Credit on capital goods not carried forward in the return. However, the said credit should be admissible under the erstwhile law as well as under the provisions of the CGST Act. Rule 117(2) of CGST Rules, 2017 requires the information to be submitted in FORM GST TRAN-1 regarding the amount tax or duty availed and yet to be availed till the appointed day.

“Unavailed CENVAT credit” means the amount that remains after subtracting the amount of CENVAT credit already availed in respect of capital goods by the taxable person under the erstwhile law from the aggregate amount of CENVAT credit to which the said person was entitled to, in respect of the said capital goods under the erstwhile law.

- Under the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004, in respect of eligible capital goods, credit is required to be claimed in 2 parts of 50% each. Credit to the extent of 50% maximum of the central excise duty paid ought to be claimed in the same financial year in which the capital goods are received and the balance 50% can be claimed in any subsequent years.

— Further, it needs to be noted that the capital goods referred above, means the goods as defined under Clause (a) of Rule 2 of CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004 and under GST Laws.

Eg 1: A manufacturer purchased a capital asset worth Rs.11,25,000 (including excise duty of ₹ Rs.1,25,000) on 5th May, 2017. In the month of June, 2017, he could avail CENVAT Credit to the extent of 50% only i.e. Rs.62,500. The unavailed CENVAT Credit on capital goods as on 1st July, 2017 (appointed day) will be Rs.125,000 – Rs.62,500 = Rs.62,500, which he will be eligible to claim under section 140(2).

Eg 2: CENVAT Credit on Capital Goods used outside the factory of manufacturer is not allowable<sup>16</sup>. So, it will not be admissible as input tax credit in the GST Law either.

In terms of Rule 117 of CGST Rules, 2017 particulars relating to every item of capital goods in respect of tax/duty availed or utilised by way of credit under the erstwhile law shall be indicated. Similar details in respect of unavailed portion under the erstwhile laws shall also be stated. The details, conditions and documentation are as follows:

Particulars	CGST
Credit to be carried forward	CENVAT credit
Relevant law	CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004
Details of credit to be carried forward	— Central Excise paid on 'capital goods' — Countervailing duty paid on 'capital goods' — Special Additional Duty paid on 'capital goods'
Conditions	— Should qualify for eligible input credit under both, the erstwhile law and the GST law — Would be in respect of input credit which is not carried forward in the return filed for the last period under the erstwhile law
Form in which the credit would be availed under the GST law	— Would be available as a balance in the CGST electronic credit ledger of the tax payer.
Procedure for claiming the credit [Rule 117(1) & (2)]	(i) Submit declaration in Form GST TRAN1 electronically; (ii) Due date for filing TRAN-1 is within 90 days of the appointed day; (The Commissioner may extend the period of 90 days by a further period of not exceeding 90 days). (iii) Accordingly, the Commissioner has extended date of filing Form GST TRAN-1 to 27.12.2017 vide order No. 9/2017-GST dated 15.11.2017. (iv) In respect of registered persons who could not file

Particulars	CGST
	Form GST TRAN-1 within the specified date due to technical glitches on the common portal and for whom the Council has made a recommendation for extension, the Commissioner may extend the date for submission of Form GST TRAN-1 by a further period not beyond 31.03.2019 vide Notification No.48/2018-CT dated 10.09.2018. (v) Form GST TRAN-1 may be revised once within the prescribed time limit [Rule No. 120A]. (vi) By order No.10/2017-GST dated 15.11.2017, the Commissioner has extended the time limit for revision to 27.12.2017.

It must be clearly understood that CENVAT Credit can only be availed as CGST Credit in the respective Electronic Credit Ledger.

Pictorially this provision can be depicted as follows:

140.2.3 Issues / Concerns:

- a. Traders and manufacturers availing SSI exemption under the earlier laws: Traders and manufacturers availing SSI exemption under the erstwhile laws were not eligible for the CENVAT credit as they were not discharging excise duty on the final products. Such persons, who are now registered persons under the GST regime would not be eligible for availment of the credit on capital goods purchased before 01st July, 2017 which will lead to credit loss for such assesseees. The situation is further worsened as Section 140(3) of the CGST Act, 2017 which provides for claim of credit on goods held as on 30th June, 2017 does not provide for carry forward of credit of taxes paid on capital goods.

- b. New Company incorporations: There may arise a situation wherein a Company was incorporated in May 2017 but was not granted registration by the VAT department or was unable to register with VAT department till 30.06.2017. Upon purchase of capital goods by the said Company, the credit of VAT paid on such goods would not be available as the Company is unregistered. As such, the Company would not be able to avail the credit of VAT paid on purchase of such capital goods, as the amount of VAT paid would not be reflected in the returns furnished under the earlier law and hence, cannot be carried forward as transitional credit under the GST law.
- c. Omission to claim CENVAT Credit: In certain cases, taxpayers may have omitted to claim CENVAT Credit on capital goods in the year of purchase. The CENVAT Credit rules have a remedy to claim the CENVAT credit within 1 year from the date of invoice. In the absence of such a provision for transitional credit, such taxpayers would not be able to claim credits on such capital goods.

Statutory Provisions

140(3). Credit of eligible duties in respect of inputs held in stock allowed in certain situations

A registered person, who was not liable to be registered under the existing law, or who was engaged in the manufacture of exempted goods or provision of exempted services, or who was providing works contract service and was availing of the benefit of Notification No. 26/2012-Service Tax, dated 20.06.2012 or a first stage dealer or a second stage dealer or a registered importer, or a depot of a manufacturer, shall be entitled to take, in his electronic credit ledger, credit of eligible duties in respect of inputs held in stock and inputs contained in semi-finished or finished goods held in stock on the appointed day subject to <sup>17</sup> [goods held in stock on the appointed day, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, subject to] the following conditions, namely:-

and safeguards as may be prescribed, including that the said taxable person shall pass on the benefit of such credit by way of reduced prices to the recipient, be allowed to take credit at such rate and in such manner as may be prescribed.

Explanation. —The expression “eligible duties” means—

- (i) the additional duty of excise leviable under section 3 of the Additional Duties of Excise (Goods of Special Importance) Act, 1957;
- (ii) the additional duty leviable under sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Customs Tariff Act, 1975;

140.3.1 Introduction

This transition provision sets out the conditions and procedure for availing input credit in respect of stock held on appointed day by certain registered persons under the GST Law. Inputs which are held in stock and inputs contained in semi-finished / finished goods held in stock which were for manufacture of exempted goods under the earlier law have also been dealt with. Registration under the GST law is mandatory to claim such credits.

140.3.2 Analysis

The following persons shall be entitled to take credit of eligible duties and taxes on inputs held in stock and inputs contained in semi-finished or finished goods held in stock on the date on which this provision is made effective:

- not liable to be registered under the earlier law, or
- was engaged in the manufacture of exempted goods, or
- was engaged in the provision of exempted services, or
- was providing works contract service and was availing the benefit of notification No. 26/2012-Service Tax, dated 20.06.2012, or
- a first stage dealer or a second stage dealer or a registered importer or a depot of a manufacturer

The credit shall be allowed to the aforesaid taxable persons subject to the following conditions:

- Such inputs and/or goods are used or intended to be used for making taxable supplies under CGST Act.
- He is eligible for input tax credit on such inputs under CGST Act.
- He is in possession of invoice and/or other prescribed documents evidencing payment of duty under the earlier law in respect of such inputs,

- Which were issued not earlier than twelve months immediately preceding the date on which these provisions come into effect.
- That the supplier of services is not eligible for any abatement under the CGST Act.
- In terms of Rule 117(2)(b) of the CGST Rules, 2017 the application in Form GST TRAN-01 shall specify separately the details of stock held on the appointed day..

Availability of Credit to Trader who is not in possession of invoice evidencing payment of Central Excise Duty

- As per proviso to sub section (1), credit may be allowed to a trader even if he is not in a possession of such invoice/document disclosing payment of duty/tax.
- However, in such cases the person will have to follow the conditions specified below:-
- Credit shall be allowed at the rate of 40% (when GST Rate is less than 18%)/ 60% (when GST Rate is 18% or more), of the central tax applicable on supply of such goods after the appointed date and shall be credited after the central tax payable on such supply has been paid. This situation arises when invoice is raised under the erstwhile tax regime and supply happens in a GST regime.

Type of Supply from such Stock	Rate of Tax applicable	Quantum of credit* allowed
Intra-State Outward Supply	CGST @ 9% or more CGST @ below 9%	60% of the CGST paid 40% of the CGST paid
Inter-State Outward Supply	IGST @ 18% or more IGST @ below 18%	30% of the IGST paid 20% of the IGST paid

Amount shall be credited after the CGST payable on such supply has been paid (Rule 117(4)(a) of CGST)

The SGST Law of respective States also contain similar provisions, providing that a registered person, holding stock of goods which have suffered tax at the first point of their sale in the State and the subsequent sales of which are not subject to tax in the State, can avail credit on goods held in stock on the appointed day in respect of which he is not in possession of any document evidencing payment of VAT in accordance with the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 140.

Type of Supply from such Stock	Rate of Tax applicable	Quantum of credit* allowed
Intra-State Outward Supply	SGST @ 9% or more SGST @ below 9%	60% of the SGST paid 40% of the SGST paid
Inter-State Outward Supply	IGST @ 18% or more IGST @ below 18%	30% of the IGST paid 20% of the IGST paid

It must be clearly understood that CENVAT Credit can only be availed as CGST Credit in the Electronic Credit Ledger. Details of stock held on the appointed date are required to be reported on the Common Portal.

It is important to note that use of the word 'goods' while referring to semi-finished and finished 'goods' in stock appears to restrict credit under section 140(3) only to 'movable' items of inventory. As a result, works contractors carrying WIP in the form of incomplete building or road or other immovable structure may not be allowed transition credit. There are two alternatives that may be considered (a) to pursue transition credit even in respect of such WIP citing the reference to 'goods' as being unintended error that undermines the substantive benefit sought to be allowed by the main provision or (b) accelerate the billing in respect of all WIP so as to discharge taxes under the earlier laws and pass on credit, where possible, to the customer (refer discussion under section 142(11) in respect of levy of taxes under earlier laws).

Similar provisions in the respective SGST Act may be followed in respect of credit of SGST.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a depot of a manufacturer</li> </ul>

Issues / Concerns:

- a. Availability of transitional credit to manufacturers / service provider: It appears that the provision is discriminatory when it seeks to deny the benefit of the above transitional credit to manufacturers/ service providers as even such taxpayers may have purchased goods from a non-excise dealer and hence, would not be in a possession of duty paying document in respect of the stock held. This would adversely impact the margins of the assessee, depending on the quantum of such stock.

For e.g.: Printing services are taxable under the GST laws as a 'supply of service'; however, no transitional credit would be available to such service provider under proviso to Section 140(3) of CGST Act, 2017 in case he has procured the goods i.e. paper for printing from the trader on which VAT /CST was charged under the erstwhile laws.

- b. Credit of eligible duties and taxes in respect of inputs held in stock for a works contractor:
The above provision does not contemplate a situation where a service provider engaged in providing works contract services does not avail the benefit of Notification No. 26/2012 dated. 20th June, 2012 and is discharging service tax in terms of Rule 2A of the Service Tax (Determination of Value) Rules, 2006 on the service portion derived under the deduction method or percentage method prescribed therein.
- c. Availment of credit in relation to transitional stocks held with the branch: Suppose, ABC Ltd is a registered importer having its head office in Haryana and a branch in Odisha. The head office had sent goods to the branch office prior to the appointed day under a declaration of Form F. While filing the GST TRAN 1, for the stocks lying with the branch, whether the branch will be eligible to get the credit of all the taxes paid at the time of import on the basis of documents possessed / addressed to the Head office and the Form F. Alternatively, whether the branch will be eligible for availment of deemed credit on such transaction on the account of non-possession of duty paying documents.
- d. Availment of credit on invoices not older than 12 months from the appointed day: There may arise a situation where stocks held on the appointed day (either as goods or work-in-progress) contain goods which have been purchased prior to twelve months preceding the appointed day (especially in case of long term contracts/ works contracts wherein the contracts are in progress for more than a year). Disallowance of credit paid on inputs in such cases will result in financial hardship to the assesseees. The provision of deemed credit does not have any such 12 months' period but is applicable only to assesseees other than manufacturers and service providers.
- It is pertinent to note that Hon. Gujarat High Court in the case of Filco Trade Centre Pvt. Ltd v. Union of India strikes down clause (iv) of sub-section (3) of Section 140 which imposes a condition on availment of transitional input tax credit in case of dealers by stipulating that invoices/other prescribed documents should not be issued earlier than 12 months immediately preceding the appointed day, as unconstitutional. Since, the due date for revision of Form GST TRAN-1 has expired and in the absence of facility being made available in GSTN portal to give effect to this judgement, it is advisable for dealers to make a written representation to concerned jurisdictional GST Authority and the GST Council for seeking ITC relief in this matter.
- e. In fact, this provision would apply to the leasing industry, as well, which necessarily implies that no such credit can be availed on capital goods.
- f. Input tax credit cannot be availed through TRAN-2 in case of failure to show such stocks in TRAN-1 as stock held in stock without duty paying document.

140.4.1 Introduction

This transition provision permits for availment of input credit by a registered person who was engaged in the manufacture of taxable as well as exempted goods under the Central Excise Act, 1944 or engaged in provision of taxable as well as exempted services under Chapter V of Finance Act, 1994.

140.4.2 Analysis

This provision is applicable only for inputs (not capital goods) held in stock or in respect of inputs contained in semi-finished goods or finished goods held in stock on the appointed day on 'ELIGIBLE DUTIES and the amount of CENVAT credit carried forward in a return furnished under the erstwhile law by him.

This section mirrors the provisions of section 140(1) and 140(3) in respect of goods that were not taxable under the earlier law and become taxable in GST.

The definition of 'Eligible Duties' as stated in explanation 1 to Section 140 (10) cited supra is applicable here.

The claim of transitional credit under this Section is subject to the following conditions:

- (i) The person must be a registered person under the GST Laws.
- (ii) The taxable person must have been engaged in the manufacture of taxable as well as exempted goods under the Central Excise Act, 1944 or provision of taxable as well as exempted services under Chapter V of Finance Act, 1994.
- (iii) In terms of sub-rule 2(b) of the Transition Provision Rules the application in Form GST TRAN -01 shall specify separately the details of stock held on the appointed day up to 6 tax periods indicating the details of supplies effected during each tax period.

The details of credit availment are as follows:

140.5.1 Introduction

This transition provision sets out the conditions and procedure for availing input credit in case of transactions that are spread over the transition period.

140.5.2 Analysis

(i) In any given business scenario, it is possible that invoices are raised in the erstwhile tax regime and applicable taxes are also remitted under the erstwhile laws. However, inputs or input services in respect of such transactions are received in a GST regime. This provision alleviates the difficulty in availing credits in such instances. In order to avail such credits in the Electronic Credit Ledger the following conditions need to be satisfied:

(a) Invoices/duty paid documents must be recorded in the books within 30 days from the appointed date which may be extended by the commissioner for another 30 days on showing sufficient cause.

(b) The recipient of inputs or input services must furnish a statement as follows:

In terms of Rule 117(2)(c) the said taxable person shall furnish the following details, vide FORM GST TRAN-1.

- (i) A statement indicating the name and address of the supplier together with invoice details.
- (ii) Description, quantity and value of goods or services.
- (iii) The amount of taxes, duties, VAT, Entry tax charged by the supplier.
- (iv) The date at which receipt of goods or services are entered in the books of the recipient.

The provision is a saving clause in respect of 'goods in transit'.

Issues / Concerns:

- a. Transitional provision for service tax payable on receipt basis: Assume a situation where services were provided under the earlier law and an option to pay service tax on receipt basis was exercised. Owing to the aforesaid provisions, the receipts of money on / after 01st July, 2017 would be liable to service tax in the hands of the assessee as he is required to pay tax on receipt basis. If service tax is leviable on such transactions, GST will not be leviable in terms of Section 142(11)(b) of CGST Act, 2017. Further, if service tax is leviable on the same, how is the assessee expected to declare the same in the ST-3 returns, as the ST-3 returns for the period of July 2017 and onwards were not operational.
- b. Taxes paid under earlier laws but bill has been received after appointed day: The aforesaid provision does not cover cases where the service is provided / goods are received on / before 30th June, 2017 and the invoice is dated on / before 30th June, 2017 but the invoice is received after 01st July, 2017.
- c. Capital goods in transit as on the appointed date: The aforesaid provision does not allow availment of credit of duties and taxes in respect of capital goods received on or after the appointed day but the duty or tax in respect of which has been paid by the supplier under the erstwhile law i.e. capital goods-in-transit. In such a scenario, Excise Duty and VAT paid on the procurement of the capital goods will form a part of cost for the taxpayer.

140.6.1 Introduction

This transition provision sets out the conditions and procedure for availing input credit by a registered person who is switching over from composition scheme (paying tax at fixed rate or fixed amount) under the erstwhile laws to a regular scheme under the GST law.

140.6.2 Analysis

This provision is applicable only for inputs (not capital goods) held in stock or in respect of inputs contained in semi-finished goods or finished goods held in stock on the appointed day on 'ELIGIBLE DUTIES' The claim of transitional credit under this section is subject to the following conditions:

- (i) The person must be a registered person under the erstwhile law as well as GST Laws.
- (ii) He should have opted for payment of tax at a fixed rate or fixed amount in lieu of tax payable under the erstwhile law. E.g., Compounded Levy Scheme under central excise in case of aluminium/steel pattas/pattis, special service tax rates in case of insurers carrying on life insurance business, persons providing services in relation to purchase/sale of foreign currency including money changers
- (iii) Specified duties paid on 'inputs' would be allowed as input tax credit, in his Electronic Credit Ledger.
- (iv) The person should opt for payment of tax under the regular scheme under the GST law (cannot be a composition taxpayer u/s 10 of CGST Law).
- (v) The relevant inputs should be held in stock on the date of introduction of GST.
- (vi) Inputs may take any of the following forms –
  - (i) inputs as such (in the same form as it was procured / received – may be raw materials, consumables, packing materials, traded goods etc.),
  - (ii) may be contained in WIP or semi- finished goods or
  - (iii) may be contained in the finished goods.
- (vii) Such inputs must be used or intended to be used for making taxable supplies under the GST Laws.
- (viii) Such goods should qualify as eligible inputs under the GST law.
- (ix) The registered person should be in possession of the invoice and such other documents (as may be prescribed) that shall satisfy the following conditions:
  - (a) The invoice / other document should evidence the payment of duty / tax on such goods.
  - (b) The invoice should not be more than 12 months prior to the date of introduction of GST.
- (x) In terms of Rule 117(2) of CGST Rules, 2017 the application in FORM GST TRAN-1 shall specify separately the details of stock held on the appointed day.

Statutory provisions*140(7). Credit distribution of service tax by Input Service Distributor.

Section	Description	Remarks
Section 2(61)	Definition of Input Service Distributor	To be aware of the meaning of Input Service Distributor under the GST law
Section 2(102)	Definition of Service	It is imperative to know the meaning of service to determine as to what will be distributed under the GST law
Section 20	Manner of distribution of Input Tax Credit by ISD	Section 20 acts as an extension of section 140(7). The eligibility of the credit is discussed as per Section 140(7) whereas the manner of distribution is under section 20.

140.7.1 Introduction

- (i) This provision has an overriding effect over all other provisions under the GST law.
- (ii) This provision is applicable when:
  - (a) The services are received by the Input Service Distributor before the date of applicability of GST and
  - (b) Tax on such services has not yet been distributed by the Input Service Distributor on the date of applicability of GST.
  - (c) Invoices relating to such services are received on or after the appointed date.
- (iii) Such services will be eligible for distribution as credit under the GST law.
- (iv) This provision will be applicable irrespective of the date of receipt of invoice by the Input Service Distributor.

140.7.2 Analysis

Input Service Distributor: This term has been defined under Section 2(61) of the CGST Law to mean “an officer of the supplier of goods or services or both which receives tax invoices issued under section 31 towards the receipt of input services and issues a prescribed document for the purposes of distributing the credit of central tax, State tax, integrated tax or Union territory tax paid on the said services to a supplier of taxable goods or services or both having the same Permanent Account Number as that of the said office.”

Explanation. - For distributing the credit of CGST (SGST in State Acts) and / or IGST or UTGST, Input Service Distributor shall be deemed to be a supplier of services.

Services: This term has been defined under Section 2(102) of the CGST law to mean “anything other than goods, money and securities but includes activities relating to the use of money or its conversion by cash or by any other mode, from one form, currency or denomination, to another form, currency or denomination for which a separate consideration is charged.”

Date of receipt of invoice is immaterial: In respect of the services received by the Input Service Distributor before the date of applicability of GST, the invoice can be received by the Input service distributor:

- (a) either before the date of applicability of GST; or
- (b) on the date of applicability of GST
- (c) after the date of applicability of GST

This section seeks to cover all the cases.

Date of receipt of services is crucial: For the purposes of this section, it is important that the underlying services must have been received prior to the appointed date.

Distribution of credit under GST Law: If any input service distributor:

- receives services before the date of applicability of GST; and
- such services are yet to be distributed on the date of applicability of GST, for want of invoice
- then irrespective of the date of the receipt of invoices by the Input Service Distributor
- the distribution of credit will be as per the GST law.

Manner of distribution of credit by Input Service Distributor: Section 20 of the CGST law provides the manner in which the credit will be distributed. Following are the key points for consideration:

- If the invoice is received by the Input Service Distributor before the date of applicability of GST, he can distribute the CENVAT Credit under the old law and carry forward this credit as CGST on the date of applicability of GST under section 140(1) of the CGST law. If he distributes the credit on or after the applicability of GST, he can take it as CGST or IGST depending on the nature of supply being intra State or inter-state respectively.

- If the invoice is received by the Input Service Distributor on or after the date of applicability of GST, he can distribute the credit in the form of CGST or IGST depending on the nature of supply being intra State or inter-state.
- If the Input Service Distributor and the recipient of credit are located in two different States, then the input tax credit of both CGST and IGST will be distributed as IGST.
- If the Input Service Distributor and the recipient of credit are located in the same State, then the input tax credit of CGST and IGST will be distributed as such.

140.7.3 Comparative Review

This is a transitional provision for converging the provisions of the earlier law with the GST law. As this provision is temporary and only for the transition period, there are no comparative provisions in the earlier law which can be relatable to this section.

Statutory provisions*140(8). Provision for transfer of unutilized CENVAT Credit by a registered person having centralized registration under the earlier law

Where a registered person having centralized registration under the existing law has obtained a registration under this Act, such person shall be allowed to take, in his electronic credit ledger, credit of the amount of CENVAT credit carried forward in a return, furnished under the existing law by him, in respect of the period ending with the day immediately preceding the appointed day ~~in such manner~~<sup>25</sup> [within such time and in such manner] as may be prescribed:

Provided that if the registered person furnishes his return for the period ending with the day immediately preceding the appointed day within three months of the appointed day, such credit shall be allowed subject to the condition that the said return is either an original return or a revised return where the credit has been reduced from that claimed earlier:

Provided further that the registered person shall not be allowed to take credit unless the said amount is admissible as input tax credit under this Act:

Provided also that such credit may be transferred to any of the registered persons having the same Permanent Account Number for which the centralized registration was obtained under the existing law.

Relevant provisions of the Statute

Section of CGST	Description
Section 2(46)	Definition of 'Electronic Credit Ledger'
Section 16 to 21	Manner of taking input tax credit
Rule 117(2)	Transition Provision Rules under GST Laws
Central Tax Rules 117(1)	Tax or duty credit carried forward
Central Tax Rules 120A	Revision of declaration in FORM GST TRAN-1
Central Tax Rules 121	Recovery of credit wrongly availed.

140.8.1 Analysis

Under the erstwhile law where centralized registration is obtained and credit is lying in balance, it is provided that:

- Credit balance may be taken and carried forward into the GST regime
- Such credit transfer will require filing of a return within 3 months under the old law
- Credit is required to be eligible under the GST law

- Credit is permitted to be transferred to other locations of the person which qualify as taxable persons in GST having the same PAN.

It is interesting that the provision does not lay down any criteria for such transfer of credit between various locations of the person and this is a welcome measure as part of the transition steps.

Transfer of unutilised CENVAT credit by a person having centralised registration

Note:

1. Only those credits which are admissible under GST laws will be allowed
2. Credit may be transferred to any registered person having the same PAN for which centralised registration was obtained under erstwhile law

In terms of Rule 117(2) of the CGST Rules 2017 the application in FORM GST TRAN-1 shall specify the said transactions.

Statutory Provisions

140(9) Reclaiming CENVAT credit reversed due to non-payment of consideration

Where any CENVAT credit availed for the input services provided under the existing law has been reversed due to non-payment of the consideration within a period of three months, such credit can be reclaimed subject to credit can be reclaimed within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, subject to the condition that the registered person has made the payment of the consideration for that supply of services within a period of three months from the appointed day.

Extract of the CGST Rules, 2017 – The extract of the relevant rules have been provided below the Statutory Provisions of Section 140(1) of the CGST Act, 2017 supra.

140.9.1 Introduction

This transition provision has been introduced with a view to enable the availment of credit in cases where CENVAT credit has been reversed in terms of second proviso to rule 4(7) of the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004. In terms of the said proviso, CENVAT credit is reversed in case of input services, the payment of consideration for which is not made within a period of 3 months from the date of invoice/challan etc. Subsequently, such credit is allowed as and when the payment is made.

140.9.2 Analysis

This Section would apply in the following circumstances:

- (i) The CENVAT credit had been reversed by the manufacturer or the service provider in terms of second proviso to Rule 4(7) of the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004.
- (ii) Such payment is then made after the appointed day.
- (iii) The payment is made within 3 months from the appointed day.

It provides that where the above conditions are fulfilled, the credit shall be allowed as CGST credit.

For the period ending with the day immediately preceding the appointed day, if the registered person files an original/revised return within 3 months of the appointed day.

Statutory Provisions

Section	Particulars
141(1)	No tax payable if input removed to a job worker for further processing, testing etc. prior to the appointed day returned within a period of 6 months or extended period for further 2 months.

- (2) Where any semi-finished goods had been removed from the place of business to any other premises for carrying out certain manufacturing processes in accordance with the provisions of existing law prior to the appointed day and such goods (hereafter in this section referred to as "the said goods") are returned to the said place on or after the appointed day, no tax shall be payable, if the said goods, after undergoing manufacturing processes or otherwise, are returned to the said place within six months from the appointed day:

Provided that the period of six months may, on sufficient cause being shown, be extended by the Commissioner for a further period not exceeding two months:

Provided further that if the said goods are not returned within the period specified in this sub-section, the input tax credit shall be liable to be recovered in accordance with the provisions of clause (a) of sub-section (8) of section 142:

Provided also that the manufacturer may, in accordance with the provisions of the existing law, transfer the said goods to the premises of any registered person for the purpose of supplying therefrom on payment of tax in India or without payment of tax for exports within the period specified in this sub-section.

- (3) Where any excisable goods manufactured at a place of business had been removed without payment of duty for carrying out tests or any other process not amounting to manufacture, to any other premises, whether registered or not, in accordance with the provisions of existing law prior to the appointed day and such goods, are returned to the said place on or after the appointed day, no tax shall be payable if the said goods, after undergoing tests or any other process, are returned to the said place within six months from the appointed day:

Provided that the period of six months may, on sufficient cause being shown, be extended by the Commissioner for a further period not exceeding two months:

Provided further that if the said goods are not returned within the period specified in this sub-section, the input tax credit shall be liable to be recovered in accordance with the provisions of clause (a) of sub-section (8) of section 142:

Provided also that the manufacturer may, in accordance with the provisions of the existing law, transfer the said goods from the said other premises on payment of tax in India or without payment of tax for exports within the period specified in this sub-section.

The tax under sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) shall not be payable, only if the manufacturer and the job-worker declare the details of the inputs or goods held in stock by the job-worker on behalf of the manufacturer on the appointed day in such form and manner and within such time as may be prescribed.

Extract of the CGST Rules, 2017*119. Declaration of stock held by a principal and job-worker.-

Every person to whom the provisions of section 141 apply shall, within <sup>26</sup> [the period specified in rule 117 or such further period as extended by the Commissioner], submit a declaration electronically in FORM GST TRAN-1, specifying therein, the stock of the inputs, semi-finished goods or finished goods, as applicable, held by him on the appointed day.

141(1): Inputs removed for job work and returned on or after the appointed day*141.1.1 Introduction

This transition provision is with respect to inputs removed as such or after partial processing from a place of business for the purposes of carrying out any processing, repair, reconditioning or for any other purposes under the erstwhile laws but are returned / returnable after the date of implementation of GST.

141.1.2 Analysis

- In case of inputs removed by a Principal to a Job Worker's premises that are returned to the Principal within 6 months (or within an extended period of further 2 months), no tax shall be payable. However, if the inputs are not returned within 6 months or such extended period of 2 months, then the input tax credit availed by the Principal shall be recovered as arrears of tax under CGST Law and no input tax credit of such tax paid shall be allowed under the CGST Law.

- Rule 119 prescribes that every Principal and the Job Worker shall file a declaration in FORM GST TRAN-1 specifying the stock held at job worker's premises. The time limit for furnishing the above declaration in TRAN-1 has been prescribed in Rule 117.
- E.g. 1: A manufacturer had removed inputs worth Rs.5,00,000 on 1st January, 2017 for job work. On 10th December, 2017, the inputs are returned by the job worker. Since, the inputs are returned within 6 months from the date of applicability of GST, no tax will be payable.
- E.g. 2: In E.g. in 1 above, if the goods are not returned by the job worker within the period of 6 months from the applicability of GST i.e. by 31st December, 2017, then the input tax credit shall be liable to be recovered in terms of section 142 (8)(a); i.e., the input tax credit shall be liable to be recovered as an arrear of tax under the CGST Act and the amount so recovered shall not be admissible as input tax credit.

Inputs removed for Job work and returned on or after the appointed day

Issues / Concerns:

Cases where CENVAT credit already reversed under earlier law: These transitional provisions do not cover those situations where goods are received back after the appointed date in respect of which CENVAT credit is already reversed prior to appointed date.

141(2): Semi-finished goods removed for job work and returned on or after the appointed day

Extract of the CGST Rules, 2017 – *The extract of the relevant rules has been provided below the Statutory Provisions of Section 141(1) of the CGST Act, 2017 supra.

141.2.1 Introduction

This transitional provision is with respect to semi-finished goods which were dispatched from a place of business for job work (for the purpose of carrying out any manufacturing processes) under the erstwhile laws but are returned / returnable after the date of implementation of GST.

141.2.2 Analysis

- In case Semi-finished goods removed by a Principal to a Job Worker's premises are returned to the Principal within 6 months (or within an extended period of further 2 months), no tax shall be payable. However, if the semi-finished goods are not returned within 6 months or such extended period of an additional 2 months then the input tax credit availed by the Principal shall stand reversed under the erstwhile law or recovered as arrears under the CGST Law.
- Rule 119 prescribes that every principal and the job worker shall file a declaration in FORM GST TRAN-1 specifying the stock held at job worker's premises. The time limit for furnishing the above declaration in TRAN-1 has been prescribed in Rule 117.
- The manufacturer may, instead of bringing the said goods back to his place of business, transfer the said goods to the premises of any registered person for the purpose of supplying there from to places within India or for exports. The premises of any registered person may include premises like bonded warehouses where goods manufactured can be removed from the place of manufacture without payment of excise duty by complying with the relevant provisions of the Central Excise Law. If the supplies from those premises are made within India, tax shall be paid on such supplies. If the said goods are exported, no tax need to be paid on such supplies.

E.g. 1: A manufacturer had removed semi-finished goods worth Rs.5,00,000 on 1st January, 2017 for further processing. GST. On 10th October, 2017, these goods are returned by the job worker. Since the goods are returned within 6 months from the date of applicability of GST, no tax will be payable.

E.g. 2: In E.g. 1 above, if the goods are not returned by the job worker within the period of 6 months from the applicability of GST i.e. till 31st December, 2017, then the input tax credit shall be liable to be recovered in terms of section 142 (8)(a); i.e., the input tax credit shall be liable to be recovered as an arrear under the CGST Act.

Eg 3: In E.g. 1 above, assume that the goods are directly transferred to a registered taxable person within 6 months from the applicability of GST i.e. till 31st December, 2017. In this case, tax will be payable under GST if the goods there from are supplied in India and tax will not be payable if the same is exported.

The analysis of above provision in a pictorial form is summarised as follows:

Semi-finished goods removed for Job work and returned on or after the appointed day

141.3: Finished goods removed for carrying out certain processes and returned on or after the appointed day

Extract of the CGST Rules, 2017 – The extract of the relevant rules has been provided below the Statutory Provisions of Section 141(1) of the CGST Act, 2017 supra.

141.3.1 Introduction

This transition provision is in respect of excisable goods manufactured and removed from a place of business without payment of duty for the purposes of carrying out any tests or any other process and which are returned / returnable after the date of implementation of GST.

141.3.2 Analysis

- Excisable goods are manufactured and removed from the place of business without payment of duty for carrying out tests or any other process (not amounting to manufacture), to any other premises, whether registered or not, in terms of the earlier law prior to the appointed day. Subsequently, in case such goods, are returned to the said place of business on or after the appointed day, then no tax shall be payable if the said goods, after undergoing the process, are returned to the said place within 6 months from the appointed day.

- The period of 6 months may be extended by the Commissioner for a further period not exceeding 2 months.
- If the said goods are not returned within 6 months or extended period, from the appointed day, the input tax credit shall be liable to be recovered under the erstwhile law. If the input tax credit is not recovered under the erstwhile law, it will be recovered as an arrear under the CGST Act.
- The manufacturer may, in terms of the provisions of the earlier law, transfer the said goods from the premises of the job worker on payment of tax if the supplies are made within India or without payment of tax for exports. The premises of the same registered person refers to premises like bonded warehouses to where goods manufactured can be removed from the place of manufacture without payment of excise duty by complying with the relevant provisions of the Central Excise Law. If the transfer from those premises are made within India, tax shall be paid on such transfers. If the said goods are exported, no tax need to be paid on such transfers.

Example 1: A manufacturer had removed finished goods worth Rs.5,00,000 on 1st January, 2017 for testing. On 20th November, 2017, these goods were returned by the person after testing. Since the goods are returned within 6 months from the date of applicability of GST, no tax will be payable.

Example 2: In Example 1 above, assume that the goods are not returned directly from the premises of the tester within 6 months from the applicability of GST i.e. till 31st December, 2017. In this case, input tax credit shall be liable to be recovered in terms of section 142(8)(a).

Finished goods removed for carrying out certain processes and returned on or after the appointed day

This provision stipulates that immunity from paying tax under section 141(1), 141(2) and 141(3) is available only if both the manufacturer and the job worker declare the details of inputs or goods held in stock by the job worker on behalf of the manufacturer.

141.3.4 FAQs

- Q1. Can the benefit of sub sections 1, 2 & 3 be availed even if the date of removal of inputs, semi-finished goods or finished goods is falling beyond one year before the appointed date?
- Ans. Yes. There are no restrictions in Sec 141 regarding the time period before the appointed date within which the date of removal of goods removed should fall in order to avail the benefit of Sec 141. The restriction regarding the time limit is only in respect of receiving back of the goods to the place of business from where those goods were originally removed.

142(13)	No deduction of tax at source under section 51 shall be made by the deductor on sale made under existing law which is subject to TDS and has also issued an invoice before the appointed day – Section 142(13)

142(1) Duty paid Goods returned to the place of business on or after the appointed day

Where any goods on which duty, if any, had been paid under the existing law at the time of removal thereof, not being earlier than six months prior to the appointed day, are returned to any place of business on or after the appointed day, the registered person shall be eligible for refund of the duty paid under the existing law where such goods are returned by a person, other than a registered person, to the said place of business within a period of six months from the appointed day and such goods are identifiable to the satisfaction of the proper officer.

Provided that if the said goods are returned by a registered person, the return of such goods shall be deemed to be a supply.

142.1.1 Introduction

This transitional provision provides for refund of duties paid on goods under erstwhile law when returned to the place of business.

142.1.2. Analysis

This section provides for refund in respect of sales returns, viz., where the sale was under the erstwhile law and the return is under the GST law. The section provides that the person receiving the said goods back under the GST regime would be eligible for refund of the duty paid under the erstwhile law at the time of removal of goods, if the person returning the goods is not a registered person; return of goods by a person registered would tantamount to be a deemed supply.

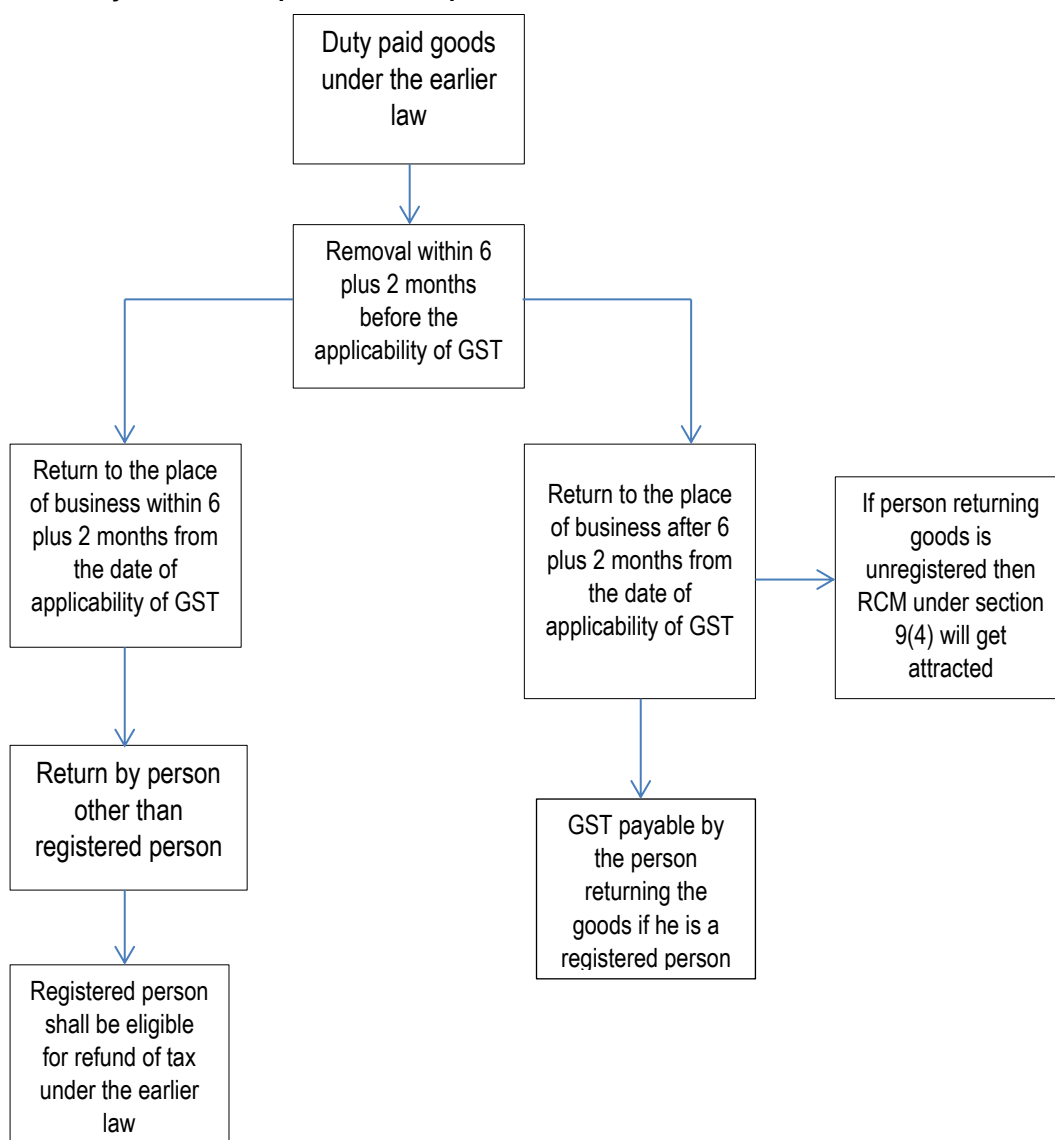

This provision would be applicable in the following circumstances:

- (i) Duty was paid at the time of removal: Central Excise duty, should have been paid when the goods were removed/sold under the erstwhile law.
- (ii) Sales return should be to any place of business: While the law provides that the return can be to any place of business (in the same state by a person other than a registered person) and not necessarily to the same place of business from where it was removed, it is essential that the return should be to the same taxable person.
- (iii) Return of goods by a registered person shall be deemed to be a supply of goods.
- (iv) Time period: The Section provides for time lines for both, the removal and the return.
  - (a) Removal: It should have taken place not earlier than 6 months from the date of introduction of GST.
  - (b) Return: It should be within 6 months from the date of introduction of GST.

If the goods are not returned within the time line, the supplier shall not be eligible for the said refund.
- (v) Also, please note that similar provision would find place in the SGST Act so that the full incidence of GST flows to these transaction.

E.g. 1: A manufacturer had removed goods for sale worth Rs.5,00,000 on 1st March, 2017 after paying the necessary duty under Central Excise law. These goods are also taxable under GST. GST applicable from 1st July, 2017. On 10th July, 2017, goods worth Rs.1,00,000 are returned by the buyer. Since, the goods are returned within 6 months from the date of applicability of GST, the supplier shall be eligible for refund of Central Excise Duty paid by him.

The analysis of above provision in a pictorial form is summarised as follows:

Statutory Provisions

142(2) Issue of supplementary invoices, debit or credit notes where price is revised in pursuance of a contract

- (a) where, in pursuance of a contract entered into prior to the appointed day, the price of any goods or services or both is revised upwards on or after the appointed day, the registered person who had removed or provided such goods or services or both shall issue to the recipient a supplementary invoice or debit note, containing such particulars as may be prescribed, within thirty days of such price revision and for the purposes of this Act such supplementary invoice or debit note shall be deemed to have been issued in respect of an outward supply made under this Act.

- (b) where, in pursuance of a contract entered into prior to the appointed day, the price of any goods or services or both is revised downwards on or after the appointed day, the registered person who had removed or provided such goods or services or both may issue to the recipient a credit note, containing such particulars as may be prescribed, within thirty days of such price revision and for the purposes of this Act such credit note shall be deemed to have been issued in respect of an outward supply made under this Act:

Provided that the registered person shall be allowed to reduce his tax liability on account of issue of the credit note only if the recipient of the credit note has reduced his input tax credit corresponding to such reduction of tax liability.

142.2.1 Introduction

This is a transition provision with respect to goods or services or both in respect of which there is either an upward or a downward revision of price under a contract which was entered into prior to the date of introduction of GST.

142.2.2 Analysis

In cases where there is a price revision, either upward or downward, the CGST Act provides that the amount to the extent of such revision is deemed to be an outward supply under the CGST Act. Consequently, all the CGST provisions including issue of invoices (debit or credit notes) and payment of taxes would apply to such revision. This would apply to the provisions of supply of goods and services, respectively.

This provision would apply as follows:

- (i) For upward revisions: The taxable person shall issue a supplementary invoice or a debit note within 30 days from the date of such revision.

The amount of tax involved therein would be deemed to be the tax payable on such supplies under the CGST Act.

It would be deemed to be a supply in the month in which the supplementary invoice / debit note is issued and the provisions relating to disclosure in the return and payment of tax would apply accordingly.

The supplementary invoice / debit note would have to comply with the requirements as prescribed under the CGST Act.

Example 1: A contract for supply of manpower was entered on 10th June, 2017 for Rs.5,00,000. Due to certain re-negotiations, this price was revised to Rs.5,50,000 on 15th July, 2017. The supplier should issue a supplementary invoice/debit note for ₹ 50,000 within 30 days of 15th July, 2017 i.e. 15th August, 2017. This supplementary invoice/debit note will be assumed to be for outward supply of Rs.50,000 with GST charged on the same

- (ii) For downward revisions: The taxable person shall issue a credit note within 30 days from the date of such revision.

In terms of the credit note, the supplier of goods would be allowed to reduce the tax liability as if the adjustment is under the CGST Act.

It would be deemed that the credit note is issued in respect of an outward supply made under the GST Law and the provisions relating to disclosure in the return and adjustment to tax would apply accordingly. The adjustment of reduction in the tax liability would be allowed only if the recipient of the credit note also reduces his input credit correspondingly.

The credit note would have to comply with the requirements as prescribed under the CGST Act.

Example 2: A contract for supply of manpower was entered on 10th June, 2017 for Rs.5,00,000. Due to certain re-negotiations, this price was revised downwards to ₹ 4,00,000 on 15th July, 2017. The supplier should issue a credit note for Rs.100,000 within 30 days of 15th July, 2017 i.e. 15th August, 2017. This credit note will be assumed to be for outward supply of Rs.1,00,000 and accordingly the tax liability would be reduced. However, the said reduction shall be allowed only if the recipient of the credit note has reduced his corresponding input tax credit.

Please note that in the review of 'overlapping transactions', especially in the first year of 2017-18, it will be very important. There could be a tendency to charge GST where invoices are issued after July 2017 although the delivery of goods or receipt of advance for services may have taken place prior to July 2017. And the reason being, availability of GST credit to customer but not VAT or ST credit under earlier laws. Reference may be had to mandate under section 142(11) in this regard. Compliance with this provision makes it clear whether transactions up to 30 Jun 2017 have been rightly taxed. For example, landowners in joint-development with Builders are made liable to pay GST on 'development rights' but service tax was not applicable on 'all forms' of immovable properties. Care in correctly taxing such transactions will ensure that there is no excessive impact of tax on such overlapping transactions. Experts advise that it is not uncommon to find transactions liable to tax under earlier regime being pushed into GST regime (and vice versa) to save on some tax incidence. GST law allows earlier taxes to be demanded even now (until end of limitation prescribed under earlier laws) and use the machinery provisions of GST law to enforce recovery of such dues. Care must be taken to pay the right tax on overlapping transactions.

142.2.3 Comparative review

Rule 6(3) of Service Tax Rules, 1994: Where an assessee has issued an invoice or received any payment, against a service to be provided which is not so provided by him either wholly or partially for any reason (or when the invoice amount is re-negotiated due to deficient provision of service, or any terms contained in a contract) the assessee may take the credit of such excess service tax paid by him, if the assessee has refunded the payment or part received for the service provided or has issued a credit note for the value of the service not so provided to the person to whom an invoice had been issued.

The analysis of above provision in a pictorial form is summarised as follows:

It is important to note that 'continuing obligations' under earlier laws attached to Cenvat Credit or VAT Credit will be left to be fulfilled even after transition of those credits into CGST and SGST, respectively and even if they had been utilized (before of after transition). In the event of any loss of such goods, subsequent to transition into GST, those obligations will fail and Cenvat Credit and / or VAT Credit will need to be repaid. Reference may be had to a Circular 50.2018-Cus. dated 6 Dec 2018 issued by CBIC in relation to 'debonding' of duty-free goods by EOUs which states that 'earlier duties' are required to be paid even when they are being debonded after transition into GST.

Statutory Provisions

142(3). Refund claims for amount paid under existing law to be disposed of under existing law

Every claim for refund filed by any person before, on or after the appointed day, for refund of any amount of CENVAT credit, duty, tax or interest or any other amount paid under the existing law, shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of existing law and any amount eventually accruing to him shall be paid in cash, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained under the provisions of existing law other than the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1944:

Provided that where any claim for refund of CENVAT credit is fully or partially rejected, the amount so rejected shall lapse:

Provided further that no refund claim shall be allowed of any amount of CENVAT credit where the balance of the said amount as on the appointed day has been carried forward under this Act.

142(4). Refund claims filed after the appointed day for goods cleared or services Provided and exported before or after the appointed day to be disposed of under existing law

Every claim for refund filed after the appointed day for refund of any duty or tax paid under existing law in respect of the goods or services exported before or after the appointed day, shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of existing law:

Provided that where any claim for refund of CENVAT credit is fully or partially rejected, the amount so rejected shall lapse:

Provided further that no refund claim shall be allowed of any amount of CENVAT credit where the balance of the said amount as on the appointed day has been carried forward under this Act.

142.3.1. Introduction

This transition provision is with respect to

- Refund claims/applications under the erstwhile law.
- Refund claims/applications under the erstwhile laws filed after the appointed day for the goods or services exported before or after the appointed day.

It provides that the claim for such refund should be processed as prescribed under the relevant erstwhile law.

142.3.2. Analysis

The section provides that where any person has made an application for refund of CENVAT credit, duty, tax or interest paid, the same would have to be processed in terms of the provisions contained in the respective erstwhile laws. The provisions of GST law would have no bearing on the same.

Therefore, refund application under the erstwhile laws can continue to be filed under this section, even after the introduction of GST.

It also provides the following:

- (i) The refund, if allowed, would accrue in cash under the erstwhile law and would not be credited to the electronic credit ledger or electronic cash ledger.
- (ii) The refund if rejected, fully or partially would lapse.
- (iii) No refund claim shall be allowed of any amount of CENVAT credit where the balance of the said amount as on the appointed day has been carried forward under this Act.

Example 1: An export manufacturer files a claim for refund of Rs.5,00,000 on 15th June, 2017. The refund claim will be processed under the provision of the earlier law i.e. Central Excise law itself. If the refund is considered as admissible by the Department, then the same will be paid in cash subject to the Doctrine of Unjust Enrichment.

Example 2: If the refund claim is rejected, then the amount so rejected will lapse and would not be available as credit.

142.4.1. Analysis

The section provides that every claim for refund of any duty or tax paid under erstwhile law, filed after the appointed day, for the goods or services exported before or after the appointed day, shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the erstwhile law.

It also provides the following:

- (i) The refund, if rejected, fully or partially would lapse.
- (ii) No refund claim shall be allowed of any amount of CENVAT credit / input tax credit where the balance of the said amount as on the appointed day has been carried forward under this Act.

Analysis of this transition provision can be presented through a flowchart as under:

Issues / Concerns:

Lapse of Refund claims filed and rejected under earlier law: Lapse of fully or partially rejected CENVAT Credit, will put the assessee in a financial hardship in many cases considering the quantum of refund claim on a case-to-case basis. Currently, the law does not provide for giving an opportunity of being heard and/or filing of appeal against such rejection to the assessee.

Statutory provisions

142(5) Refund claims filed after the appointed day for payments received and tax deposited before the appointed day in respect of services not provided.

Every claim filed by a person after the appointed day for refund of tax paid under the existing law in respect of services not provided shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of existing law and any amount eventually accruing to him shall be paid in cash, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained under the provisions of existing law other than the provisions of subsection (2) of section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1944

Relevant provisions of the Statute

Statute	Section	Description
Central Excise Act, 1944	Section 11B(2)	Provision for unjust enrichment

142.5.1 Introduction

This transition provision is with respect to refund claims in respect of services not provided, filed after the appointed day.

142.5.2 Analysis

The section provides that every claim for refund of any tax deposited under the erstwhile law in respect of services not provided, filed after the appointed day, shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the erstwhile law and any amount eventually accruing to him shall be paid in cash.

Statutory provisions*142(6) Claim of CENVAT credit to be disposed of under the existing law

- (a) every proceeding of appeal, review or reference relating to a claim for CENVAT credit initiated whether before, on or after the appointed day under the existing law shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of existing law, and any amount of credit found to be admissible to the claimant shall be refunded to him in cash, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained under the provisions of existing law other than the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and the amount rejected, if any, shall not be admissible as input tax credit under this Act:

Provided that no refund shall be allowed of any amount of CENVAT credit where the balance of the said amount as on the appointed day has been carried forward under this Act.

- (b) every proceeding of appeal, review or reference relating to recovery of CENVAT credit initiated whether before, on or after the appointed day, under the existing law shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of existing law, and if any amount of credit becomes recoverable as a result of such appeal, review or reference, the same shall, unless recovered under the existing law, be recovered as an arrear of tax under this Act and the amount so recovered shall not be admissible as input tax credit under this Act.

142.6.1 Introduction

This transition provision is with respect to claim of CENVAT Credit initiated under the erstwhile law and disposal of appeals, reviews or reference proceedings pertaining thereto.

142.6.2 Analysis

The Section applies where any matter in respect of CENVAT credit is pending in an appeal or review or reference under any of the erstwhile laws.

It provides that the provisions of CGST would have no bearing on the same and should be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of erstwhile laws as follows:

- If the input credit are finally allowed: A refund would accrue to the claimant in cash.

- If the input credit is disallowed: It would become recoverable as an arrear of tax under the CGST.
- The amount so recovered would not be allowed as input tax credit under the CGST law.

Analysis of this transitional provision can be presented as a flowchart as under:

Statutory provision

142(7) Finalization of proceedings relating to output duty or tax liability

- (a) every proceeding of appeal, review or reference relating to any output duty or tax liability initiated whether before, on or after the appointed day under the existing law, shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the existing law, and if any amount becomes recoverable as a result of such appeal, review or reference, the same shall, unless recovered under the existing law, be recovered as an arrear of duty or tax under this Act and amount so recovered shall not be admissible as input tax credit under this Act.
- (b) every proceeding of appeal, review or reference relating to any output duty or tax liability initiated whether before, on or after the appointed day under the existing law, shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the existing law, and any amount found to be admissible to the claimant shall be refunded to him in cash, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained under the provisions of existing law other than the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and the amount rejected, if any, shall not be admissible as input tax credit under this Act.

- 142(8) (a) where in pursuance of an assessment or adjudication proceedings instituted, whether before, on or after the appointed day, under the existing law, any amount of tax, interest, fine or penalty becomes recoverable from the person, the same shall, unless recovered under the existing law, be recovered as an arrear of tax under this Act and the amount so recovered shall not be admissible as input tax credit under this Act;
- (b) where in pursuance of an assessment or adjudication proceedings instituted, whether before, on or after the appointed day, under the existing law, any amount of tax, interest, fine or penalty becomes refundable to the taxable person, the same shall be refunded to him in cash under the said law, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the said law other than the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and the amount rejected, if any, shall not be admissible as input tax credit under this Act.

142.8.1 Introduction

This transition provision is with respect to output tax / duty liabilities pending in appeal, review, or reference proceedings under any of the erstwhile laws.

142.8.2 Analysis

The section applies where any matter in respect of output tax / duty liabilities are pending in appeal, review or reference proceedings under any of the erstwhile laws.

It provides as follows:

- If the output liability is finally payable: It should be recovered as an arrear of tax under CGST Act. In terms of Circular No. 42/16/2018-GST dated 13/04/2018, Such liability is to be paid through the utilization of amounts available in the electronic credit ledger or electronic cash ledger of the registered person, and the same shall be recorded in Part II of the Electronic Liability Register (FORM GST PMT-01).
- The amount so recovered would not be allowed as input tax credit under the CGST laws.
- If the output liability is finally allowable to the claimant: It would accrue to the claimant as refund in cash under the erstwhile law. If any amount is rejected, the same shall not be available as input tax credit under CGST.

Analysis of this transition provision can be presented in the following flowchart:

Statutory Provisions

142(9) Treatment of the amount recovered or refunded pursuant to revision of returns

- (a) Where any return, furnished under the existing law, is revised after the appointed day and if, pursuant to such revision, any amount is found to be recoverable or any amount of CENVAT credit is found to be inadmissible, the same shall, unless recovered under the existing law, be recovered as an arrear of tax under this Act and the amount so recovered shall not be admissible as input tax credit under this Act.
- (b) Where any return, furnished under the existing law, is revised after the appointed day but within the time limit specified for such revision under the existing law and if, pursuant to such revision, any amount is found to be refundable or CENVAT credit is found to be admissible to any taxable person, the same shall be refunded to him in cash under the existing law, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the said law other than the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and amount rejected, if any, shall not be admissible as input tax credit under this act.

142.9.1 Introduction

This transition provision deals with a situation where tax becomes payable or refundable by virtue of revision of returns under erstwhile law.

142.9.2 Analysis

This Section applies where any return is revised under the erstwhile laws by virtue of which any amount becomes payable by or refundable to, the taxable person. This could arise due to any of the following reasons:

- (i) Short payment of output tax liability (payable);
- (ii) Excess payment of output tax liability (refundable);
- (iii) Short claim of CENVAT credit (refundable);
- (iv) Excess claim of CENVAT credit (payable);

The Section specifies that:

- If any amount is recoverable: It should be recovered as an arrear of tax under the CGST Act. The amount so recovered would not be allowed as input tax credit.
- If the amount is allowable as refund: It would accrue to the claimant as cash refund under the erstwhile law.

Analysis of this transitional provision can be presented in the following flowchart:

Payment of central excise duty & service tax on account of returns filed for the past period (Circular No. 42/16/2018-GST dated 13/04/2018):

The registered person may file Central Excise / Service Tax return for the period prior to 1st July, 2017 by logging onto www.aces.gov.in and make payment relating to the same through EASIEST portal (cbec-easiest.gov.in), as per the practice prevalent for the period prior to the introduction of GST.

However, with effect from 1st April, 2018, the return filing shall continue on www.aces.gov.in but the payment shall be made through the ICEGATE portal. As the registered person shall be automatically taken to the payment portal on filing of the return, the user interface remains the same for him.

Statutory Provisions

142 (10) Treatment of long term contracts

Save as otherwise provided in this Chapter, the goods or services or both supplied on or after the appointed day in pursuance of a contract entered into prior to the appointed day shall be liable to tax under the provisions of this Act.

142.10.1 Introduction

This transitional provision deals with long term contracts.

142.10.2 Analysis

It provides that in respect of a contract entered into prior to GST regime, the goods or services or both which are supplied on or after the introduction of GST would be liable to tax under the GST Act to the extent the supply takes place after introduction of GST.

Even if the construction contract or works contract is entered into prior to the date of introduction of GST, the contracts would be taxable under the GST Act.

Eg 1: A contract for a painting job was entered on 19th June, 2017. The job is performed from 10th July, 2017 to 30th July, 2017. The said supply will be taxable under GST law.

Continuing contract in normal course expects 'tax substitution' due to change in law and consequential increase or decrease in tax burden on contract sum to flow to the customer. It is seen that customers, though reluctant initially, have conceded and paid the GST in place of earlier taxes. Anti-profiteering adjustment on account of savings in cost due to availability of credit in respect of taxes that were earlier not creditable is also looked into before admitting adjustment of tax-effect on overlapping contracts. Reference may be had to detailed discussion under section 171.

Statutory Provisions*142(11) Progressive or periodic supply of goods or services

- (a) notwithstanding anything contained in section 12, no tax shall be payable on goods under this Act to the extent the tax was leviable on the said goods under the Value Added Tax Act of the State;
- (b) notwithstanding anything contained in section 13, no tax shall be payable on services under this Act to the extent the tax was leviable on the said services under Chapter V of the Finance Act, 1994;
- (c) where tax was paid on any supply both under the Value Added Tax Act and under Chapter V of the Finance Act, 1994, tax shall be leviable under this Act and the taxable person shall be entitled to take credit of value added tax or service tax paid under the existing law to the extent of supplies made after the appointed day and such credit shall be calculated in such manner as may be prescribed.

Extract of the CGST Rules, 2017*118. Declaration to be made under clause (c) of sub-section (11) of section 142.

Every person to whom the provision of clause (c) of sub-section (11) of section 142 applies, shall within <sup>27</sup> [the period specified in rule 117 or such further period as extended by the Commissioner], submit a declaration electronically in FORM GST TRAN-1 furnishing the proportion of supply on which Value Added Tax or service tax has been paid before the appointed day but the supply is made after the appointed day, and the Input Tax Credit admissible thereon.

Relevant provisions of the Statute:

Section	Description
Section 2(31)	Definition of consideration
Section 12	Time of supply of goods
Section 13	Time of supply of services

142.11.1 Introduction

This transition provision deals with transactions which have suffered tax (Value Added Tax or Service Tax) because consideration was received under the earlier law, whereas the supply is made after the date of introduction of GST.

142.11.2 Analysis

I. No CGST shall be levied on:

1. Goods, to the extent tax was leviable under the Value Added Tax Act of the state; Considering the non-obstante clause, it is provided that even though any of the ingredients of supply prescribed in section 12 occur after the appointed date, if VAT was lawfully levied (even if not yet paid), VAT alone will be leviable and not GST.

2. Service, to the extent Service Tax was leviable on the said service.

In short, GST shall not be levied on a supply to the extent Value Added Tax or Service Tax, as the case may be, was leviable on the said supply.

Example: Advance of Rs.1,00,000/- was received on 10th June, 2017 for service to be rendered in July, 2017. The invoice for the service was raised for Rs.1,50,000/- on 31st July, 2017. GST shall be levied only on Rs.50,000/-.

Relying upon the salutary principles contained in section 6 of the General Clauses Act regarding the force and power of 'repeal and saving' clause in any legislation, it would be appropriate to mention the results of application of that law in certain situations:

(i) Where services have been rendered under the earlier law and invoice has also been issued under the earlier law and tax duly levied on provision of service but the payment of this tax was required on 'receipt basis', service tax will continue to be paid as and when outstanding receivables are realized. Tax once levied cannot be levied again (as GST) merely because the service tax was 'lawfully' not payable until realization.

- (ii) Where services have been rendered under the earlier law but invoice for the same has not been issued and is permitted to be issued within 30 days from the date of completion of service, when the invoice is actually issued, service tax alone ought to be applied. This invoice will not be covered by section 140(5) as the invoice has not been issued before the appointed date. Also the service tax charged will not be available to claim as a refund under 142(3) to 142(8). These reasons do not justify levy of GST on the services already provided.
- (iii) Where services (liable to reverse charge or partial reverse charge) have been rendered along with invoice duly issued prior to the appointed date but the tax (on reverse charge basis) has been paid in July 2017, this tax is not available as transition credit to the recipient (making reverse charge payment of tax) as it would not be included as CENVAT credit in the last ST3 (to be filed by 15th Aug 2017) and therefore not be covered within section 140(1). Had the service tax (on reverse charge basis) been paid before the appointed date (by sufficient planning), the same would have been included in the transition credit under section 140(1). Also, refund of such taxes paid is not covered by sections 142(3) to 142(8) although it can be attempted under the earlier law itself.

To address the above issue, the CBEC has issued Circular 207/5/2017- Service Tax dated 28th September, 2017, clarifying that such credit arising as a consequence of payment of service tax on reverse charge basis after 30th June, 2017 shall be indicated in Part I of form ST 3 in entries I3.1.2.6, I3.2.2.6 and I3.3.2.6. The circular also provided for revision of form ST 3 already filed by the assessee to include the said entries.

- II. Where tax was paid under both Value Added Tax Act and under Finance Act, 1994, viz., Construction service, works contract or supply of food/beverages, tax shall be leviable under CGST Act on the supplies effected after the appointed day and the Value Added Tax or Service Tax shall be admitted as credit to the taxable person.

Example: Contract entered in March, 2017 for Rs.1,00,00,000/-. Advance received till 30th June, 2017 amounts to Rs.10,00,000/-. Value Added Tax of Rs.40,000/- and Service Tax of Rs.60,000/- have been paid on the said advance. GST shall be levied on Rs.1,00,00,000/- as per Sec 13 of the CGST Act. The value added tax and service tax paid shall be allowed as credit under the erstwhile law in the manner as may be prescribed.

- III. Supplies liable to both VAT as well as ST are provided for in this clause. For example, Works contracts, Hoteliers when the time of supply under CGST Act applies. The differential tax under GST and those already paid under erstwhile law will become payable. Credit of tax already paid must not be understood as 'input tax credit' as defined u/s 2(63). There is an apparent conflict but not so u/s 140(5) of the CGST Act which needs to be reconciled. The said credit pertains to the credit under erstwhile laws and the same shall be available as credit under erstwhile laws.

Rule 118 of CGST Rules, 2017 provides for declaration of proportion of supply on which value added tax or service tax has been paid before the appointed day but the supply is made after the appointed day and the input tax credit applicable there- on in FORM GST TRAN-1. It is important to note that if taxes already paid have been charged to the customer (who may have even taken credit), this provision would not apply because credit cannot be allowed to the customer as well as to the supplier under this provision.

The absence of non-obstante clause in this provision indicates that taxes paid under the earlier law must be without being leviable under those laws. This is because tax once levied and assessed under the earlier laws must only be paid and cannot be abrogated by the repeal. And most certainly not get levied again under the new law. For this reason, it is opined that, even transactions such as works contract or supply of food, would be saved by clauses (a) and (b) operating jointly if taxes were lawfully levied under the earlier laws. And clause (c) comes into operation only when taxes have been paid in advance of levy actually attracting under the earlier laws.

Issues / Concerns:

- a. RCM services under the earlier laws: Where the vendor has raised the invoice for the services (such as manpower or works contract service on which reverse charge is applicable) rendered in the month of June 2017 and the payment to the vendor is made in the month of September 2017, the nature of tax to be paid is not clear i.e. whether to pay service tax or GST in the instant case, since the services were provided under the service tax law and the payment is made under the GST law.
- b. Sabka Vishwas (Legacy Disputes Resolution) Scheme 2019: This scheme has permitted 'voluntary' disclosure and payment of undisputed and unknown dues. Experts advise taxpayers carrying undischarged service tax liability, particularly, RCM liability for Apr-Jun 2017 to come forward and avail this option. With full relief from interest and penalty, paying entire unpaid tax is a welcome relief.
- c. Development rights (newly taxed in GST) supplied under agreement pre-Jul 2017: Where agreement for development of land or buildings were executed prior to 1 Jul 2017 but the projects were executed later, with the introduction of Notification No. 4/2018-CT(R) dated 25 Jan 2018 prescribing 'time of supply' to be the date of completion of project has attracted a lot of inquiry whether (i) no tax is payable since the agreement was prior to 1 Jul 2017 or (ii) GST is payable since time of supply occurs on date of completion. Experts have expressed regret at the first principles of 'charging provision' of levy of tax being lost sight of and tax demanded based on 'machinery provisions' of time of supply which occur later.

- d. There are several sectors where 'overlapping transactions' with lower rate of VAT or service tax may seem attractive or creditable nature of GST may seem attractive to pay the wrong tax. Tax that is properly levied alone must be made, notwithstanding the availability of events relating to computation of such tax subsequently under GST.

Statutory Provisions

142(12) Taxability of supply of goods sent on approval basis.

Where any goods sent on approval basis, not earlier than six months before the appointed day, are rejected or not approved by the buyer and returned to the seller on or after the appointed day, no tax shall be payable thereon if such goods are returned within six months from the appointed day:

Provided that the said period of six months may, on sufficient cause being shown, be extended by the Commissioner for a further period not exceeding two months:

Provided further that the tax shall be payable by the person returning the goods if such goods are liable to tax under this Act, and are returned after a period specified in this subsection:

Provided also that tax shall be payable by the person who has sent the goods on approval basis if such goods are liable to tax under this Act, and are not returned within a period specified in this sub-section.

Extract of the CGST Rules, 2017

120. Details of goods sent on approval basis.

Every person having sent goods on approval under the existing law and to whom sub-section (12) of section 142 applies shall, within <sup>28</sup> [the period specified in rule 117 or such further period as extended by the Commissioner], submit details of such goods sent on approval in FORM GST TRAN-1.

142.12.1 Introduction

This transition provision covers the goods sent on approval basis under an erstwhile law returned to the supplier within a period of 6 months from the appointed day or extended period and beyond.

142.12.2 Analysis

No CGST shall be payable for goods sent on approval basis, returned to the supplier due to rejection or non-approval by the buyer within a period of 6 months or the extended period of 2 months. However, tax shall be payable by the person returning the goods as well as by the person sending the goods if the goods are returned after the period of six months and such goods are liable to tax under the CGST Law.

142.12.3 Time period:

- (a) Sending of goods: It should have taken place not earlier than 6 months prior to the appointed day.
- (b) Return of goods: It should be within 6 months from the appointed day or as extended by the commissioner by a period not exceeding two months on sufficient causes being shown.

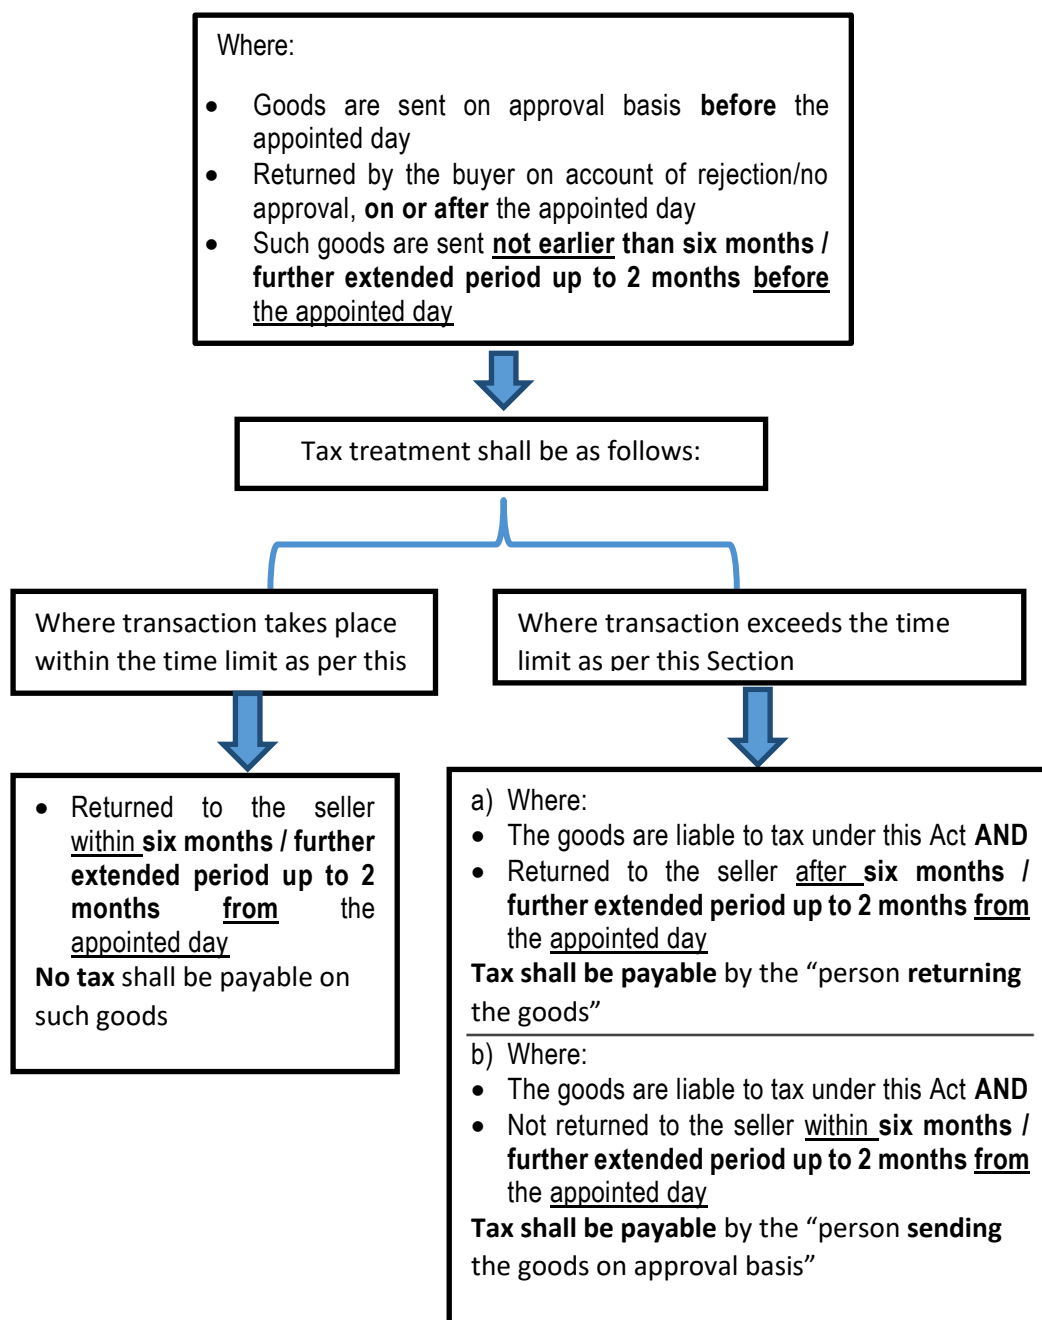

If goods are returned after the said period, CGST shall be paid by the person returning the goods.

If the goods are not returned within the period specified, the person who has sent the goods on approval shall pay GST on the said goods. This shall be available as credit to the purchaser of the goods.

In case of sale of approval prior to appointed date, the details of goods so sent on approval basis are to be declared in FORM GST TRAN -1 to be filed within time limit as prescribed. (Before 27th Dec, 2017, vide order No.9/2017-GST dt. 15/11/2017, by the Commissioner.)

Flowchart analysing the transitional provisions in Section 142(12)

Statutory Provisions*142(13) Supply of goods in respect of which tax is to be deducted at source.

Where a supplier has made any sale of goods in respect of which tax was required to be deducted at source under the any law of a State or Union Territory relating to Value Added Tax and has also issued an invoice for the same before the appointed day, no deduction of tax at source under section 51 shall be made by the deductor under the said section where payment to the said supplier is made on or after the appointed day.

Related provisions of the Statute

Statute	Section	Description
CGST	Section 51	Tax deduction at source

142.13.1 Introduction

This transition provision is in respect of TDS under Section 51. It is a transitional provision to ensure that there is no double deduction of tax at source due to introduction of GST.

142.13.2 Analysis

This Section would apply in the following circumstances:

- (i) The supplier had sold any goods under the erstwhile law; and
- (ii) TDS applies on such transactions under erstwhile law; and
- (iii) The supplier had issued the invoice before the appointed day;
- (iv) Payment is made to the supplier after the appointed day.

It provides that merely because payment is made to the supplier after the date of introduction of GST, the TDS provisions under Section 51 of the CGST Act will not apply. In other words, no tax shall be deductible under CGST Act at the time of making payment to the supplier.

Statutory Provisions

143. Job Work Procedure

- (1) A registered person (hereafter in this section referred to as the “principal”) may under intimation and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, send any inputs or capital goods, without payment of tax, to a job worker for job work and from there subsequently send to another job worker and likewise, and shall, —
- (a) bring back inputs, after completion of job work or otherwise, or capital goods, other than moulds and dies, jigs and fixtures, or tools, within one year and three years, respectively, of their being sent out, to any of his place of business, without payment of tax;
- (b) supply such inputs, after completion of job work or otherwise, or capital goods, other than moulds and dies, jigs and fixtures, or tools, within one year and three years, respectively, of their being sent out from the place of business of a job worker on payment of tax within India, or with or without payment of tax for export, as the case may be:

Provided that the principal shall not supply the goods from the place of business of a job worker in accordance with the provisions of this clause unless the said principal declares the place of business of the job worker as his additional place of business except in a case—

- (i) where the job worker is registered under section 25; or*
- (ii) where the principal is engaged in the supply of such goods as may be notified by the Commissioner.*

<sup>1</sup>[Provided further that the period of one year and three years may, on sufficient cause being shown, be extended by the Commissioner for a further period not exceeding one year and two years respectively]

- (2) The responsibility for keeping proper accounts for the inputs or capital goods shall lie with the principal.*
- (3) Where the inputs sent for job work are not received back by the principal after completion of job work or otherwise in accordance with the provisions of clause (a) of sub-section (1) or are not supplied from the place of business of the job worker in accordance with the provisions of clause (b) of sub-section (1) within a period of one year of their being sent out, it shall be deemed that such inputs had been supplied by the principal to the job worker on the day when the said inputs were sent out.*
- (4) Where the capital goods, other than moulds and dies, jigs and fixtures, or tools, sent for job work are not received back by the principal in accordance with the provisions of clause (a) of sub-section (1) or are not supplied from the place of business of the job worker in accordance with the provisions of clause (b) of sub-section (1) within a period of three years of their being sent out, it shall be deemed that such capital goods had been supplied by the principal to the job worker on the day when the said capital goods were sent out.*
- (5) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), any waste and scrap generated during the job work may be supplied by the job worker directly from his place of business on payment of tax, if such job worker is registered, or by the principal, if the job worker is not registered.*

Explanation.—For the purposes of job work, input includes intermediate goods arising from any treatment or process carried out on the inputs by the principal or the job worker.

Relevant Provisions of the Statute

Section or Rule (CGST / SGST)	Description
Section 2(19)	Definition of Capital Goods
Section 2(52)	Definition of Goods
Section 2(68)	Definition of Job-work
Section 2(88)	Definition of Principal
Section 2(94)	Definition of Registered Person
Section 19	Taking input tax credit in respect of inputs sent for Job Work

143.1. Introduction

This section provides for a special procedure to exempt supplies from payment of GST by a Principal to a job worker and return from a job worker to a Principal subject to certain conditions and procedures.

In a business scenario, it may not be possible for an industry to carry out all processes of manufacturing the product within its own premises. In such an eventuality, the manufacturing unit will have to get the work done i.e. processing of the raw materials or intermediate product from other businesses. The process performed by a person on the goods belonging to another registered person is commonly understood as Job Work.

Meaning of job work and job worker: Section 2(68) of CGST Act, 2017 defines the meaning of the term 'job work'. In terms of the said provision, it means a person undertaking any treatment or processing of goods belonging to another registered person. Any person who executes such job work will be considered as "Job worker". As per Section 2(68), the Job worker may or may not be registered but the Principal is required to be registered.

This definition is much wider than the one provided under Central Excise provisions (Notification No. 214/86 – CE dated 23rd March, 1986), wherein job-work has been defined in such a manner so as to ensure that the activity of job-work must amount to manufacture. However, the definition of job-work under GST laws reflects the change in basic scheme of taxation relating to job-work. Works such as fabrication, repair, etc which are not related to manufacture also gets included under the term "job work".

It is important to note that in job work, neither does Principal provide '100 per cent' of material required to constitute job work nor is the job-worker permitted to provide '100 per cent' of the material. There must be a balance, and it is the key that Principal provides what constitutes the 'core' of the material on which job work is required to be carried out, to constitute job work.

143.2. Analysis*Definition of Job-work

The definition of job work contains three important phrases, namely:

- Treatment or process – there is no indication here that the result of the treatment or process must be manufacture; that is, the emergence of a distinct new product. This implies that whether or not the treatment or process results in manufacture, the treatment or process per se will always be treated as a supply of services when read along with paragraph 3, schedule II of the CGST Act viz., any treatment or process which is applied to another person's goods is a supply of services. However, irrespective of whether the treatment or process amounts to manufacture resulting in a distinct new product the process would amount to job work. Therefore, the services provided by the job-worker will be classified under HSN 9988 and treated as supply of services;
- Goods belonging to another person – The basic requirement that could be considered, is that, on the one hand this requirement ought not to be understood to mean that 100% of the goods required for the treatment or process must necessarily be provided by the principal and, on the other hand it cannot be satisfied where non-essential or ancillary goods alone are provided by the principal and yet attempt to operate under the job work model. A reasonable approach demands that at least one, if not more, of the primary material must be provided by the principal where the intention is to secure the services of – treatment or process – offered by the job worker to be expended on these primary materials of the principal. The transaction would not fail to be a job work, when the job worker adds his own material, whether secondary or ancillary, but in addition to the primary material provided by the principal. And a case, where all goods other than the primary material are provided by the principal, care needs to be taken in making the decision as to whether it qualifies for the facility under section 143 and no one-fits-all answer should be attempted in this case;
- Such person being a registered person – It is very interesting to note that unless the principal is himself already registered, the entire transaction will fail to be job work. In other words, job work will be job work only if the principal is registered and if the principal is unregistered then job work will merely be work. And the classification available for job work under HSN 9988 will not be available and other classification as appropriate to the processed goods will need to be followed.

Sending of inputs or capital goods to job worker

This provision enables a registered person to send inputs / capital goods under intimation and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed to a job worker without payment of tax. It is clarified vide Circular No. 38/2018 dated 26.03.2018 as amended by Circular No. 88/07/2019 dated 01.02.2019 that the details of job-work challans filed in Form GST ITC – 04 will itself serve as an intimation as envisaged under Section 143(1). On this basis, it could be inferred that non-declaration of job-work challans mistakenly could be termed as non-intimation and accordingly, the exemption claimed under Section 143(1) shall be denied. In such a scenario, the goods sent to job-worker will qualify as supply and the principal would be liable to pay GST along with interest.

A provision is included vide CGST (Amendment) Act, 2018 w.e.f. 01.02.2019 for extension of the said time limit to further period of one and two years respectively for inputs/capital goods on sufficient cause being shown with approval of commissioner. Some genuine job workers were facing problems in situation such as hull construction, fabrication of vessels, etc, where the time period was not sufficient and hence the amendment was brought.

It is further clarified that the principal shall issue the challan in triplicate in terms of Rule 45 and Rule 55 for sending the goods for job-work and send two copies of the challan with the goods to a job-worker. The goods can be returned by the job-worker along with one challan and the job worker will retain the other. In case, goods are sent from one job-worker to another, either the job-worker or the principal may issue a separate challan or alternatively, the original challan issued by the principal can be endorsed. It should be noted here that in case the goods are sent piecemeal, the job-worker shall issue a separate challan for returning the goods or to send it to another job-work.

Rule 55 of CGST Rules provides that transaction of goods sent for job work can be without an invoice, but a proper delivery challan containing specific details must be issued while sending goods to the job worker. Serial number of such delivery challan shall also be provided in Table 13 of GSTR 1.

The Circular referred to above has also clarified that the principal shall issue an invoice on the date on which the time period of one year / three years or the time period as extended by the Commissioner has lapsed and shall declare such invoice in the return filed for such tax period. It is further clarified that the date of sending the goods shall be termed as the date of supply and accordingly, the principal should pay the tax along with interest.

The details of the Delivery Challan shall be as follows:

- (i) date and number of the delivery challan,
- (ii) name, address and GSTIN of the consigner, if registered,
- (iii) name, address and GSTIN or UIN of the consignee, if registered,
- (iv) HSN code and description of goods,
- (v) quantity (provisional, where the exact quantity being supplied is not known),
- (vi) taxable value,
- (vii) tax rate and tax amount – central tax, State tax, integrated tax, Union territory tax or cess, where the transportation is for supply to the consignee,
- (viii) place of supply, in case of inter-State movement, and
- (ix) signature.

The delivery challan shall be prepared in triplicate, in case of supply of goods, in the following manner: –

- (a) the original copy being marked as ORIGINAL FOR CONSIGNEE;
- (b) the duplicate copy being marked as DUPLICATE FOR TRANSPORTER; and
- (c) the triplicate copy being marked as TRIPLICATE FOR CONSIGNER.

Where goods are being transported on a delivery challan in lieu of invoice, the principal should declare the details of goods and generate an e-way bill for movement of goods.

Receipt of inputs or capital goods from the job worker after completion of job work or otherwise

After the processing of goods or otherwise, the goods may be dealt with in any of the following manner by the principal within 1 year/ 3 years or such further period as extended by the commissioner-

- (a) Brought back to any place of business without payment of tax and thereafter supplied,
  - (i) Within India on payment of tax,
  - (ii) For export - with or without payment of tax,
- (b) Supply from the place of business of job worker –
  - (i) Within India on payment of tax,
  - (ii) For export - with or without payment of tax,

Direct Supply of goods from job worker

The goods can be supplied directly from the place of business of job worker by the principal only when the principal declares the place of business of the job worker as his additional place of business. However, the exceptions are -

- (i) If job worker is registered under Section 25;
- (ii) The principal is engaged in the supply of notified goods.

Responsibility for accountability of Inputs/ Capital Goods

The principal is responsible and accountable for keeping proper accounts of the inputs or capital goods and for all the transactions between him and the job worker.

The above chain can be represented as under:

Principal must receive back inputs and capital goods (except moulds & dies, jigs & fixtures or tools) within 1 year and 3 years respectively.

Inter-State Job Work

Job-work activity can be undertaken in inter-State trade as 'issue' of inputs and capital goods to job worker which is exempt from payment of tax irrespective of whether the job-worker is located within the State or otherwise. Therefore, whether the job worker is located in a different State/UT as that of the Principal does not alter the operation of section 143. One of the additional features is that the Principal is permitted to supply the processed goods directly from the premises of the job worker provided that 'the location of the job worker is included as an additional place of business' of the Principal. Where the principal being registered in one State and the job worker is located in another State, such a principal will not be able to satisfy the above condition to be allowed to make supplies directly from the premises of the job worker. This is due to the fact that the principal is not a registered person in the State where the job worker is located although he may otherwise be registered in his own State. Accordingly, if the principal desires to directly supply processed goods from the premises of the job worker located in a State different from the State where the principal is registered, the principal will not be permitted to avail this facility allowed by section 143. Accordingly, goods sent on job-work to another State can be further supplied after job-work, from the premises of such job-worker only if the job-worker is registered and not otherwise.

For example, if the Principal is registered in Hosur, Tamil Nadu, purchases chassis from a factory in Hosur and sends the same to a job worker in Amritsar, Punjab for carrying out body building works on the chassis to manufacture a bus; and then, if the Principal finds a customer in Jaipur, Rajasthan, it would not be economical to bring the finished bus all the way back to Tamil Nadu (to satisfy the requirement of section 143) and send the bus back to customer in Rajasthan. For this reason, if the Principal desires to directly supply the finished bus from the job worker's premises in Punjab directly to the customer in Rajasthan, it would not be possible as the Principal cannot include Amritsar in registration obtained in Tamil Nadu. The Principal has no option but to bring the bus all the way back and send it again.

Alternatively, the supply of finished bus can be effected from the premises of job-worker (Amritsar) if such job-worker seeks registration and discharges tax on the finished bus in terms of paragraph 3, schedule I. Care must be taken that direct dispatches from job-worker's premises (on behalf of Principal) involves (i) deemed supply by Principal to job-worker and (ii) deemed supply by job-worker to Buyer. It is important to consider that Principal (in Tamil Nadu) CANNOT make a 'bill from Tamil Nadu' but 'ship from Punjab' invoice, the reason being, tax would be discharged in Tamil Nadu for finished bus moving from premises of job-worker in Punjab to Buyer in Rajasthan.

Inputs sent to Job Worker not received back within one year or such extended period by the commissioner.

As per section 143(3), where the inputs sent for job-work are not received back by the "Principal" after completion of "job-work or otherwise" or are not supplied from the place of business of the job worker as aforesaid within a period of one year of them being sent out or such extended period to a maximum of one more year, it shall be deemed that such inputs had been supplied by the Principal to the job-worker on the day when the said inputs were sent out. Hence, the Principal would be liable to pay GST along with interest from the date inputs were sent out.

As per CGST (Amendment) Act, 2018, this period of one year can be extended up to further period of up to one more year by Commissioner, if taxpayer has shown sufficient reason for doing the same.

Capital Goods Sent to Job Worker not received back within three years or such extended period by the commissioner

As per section 143(4), where the capital goods, other than moulds and dies, jigs and fixtures, or tools, sent for job-work are not received back by the "Principal" or are not supplied from the place of business of the job worker as aforesaid within a period of three years of their being sent out or such extended period to a maximum of two years, it shall be deemed that such capital goods had been supplied by the Principal to the job-worker on the day when the said capital goods were sent out. Hence, the Principal would be liable to pay GST along with interest from the date capital goods were sent out.

In this regard, the Circular referred to above clarifies that the Principal shall issue an invoice on the expiry of one year + one year if extended (inputs) / three years + two years if extended (capital goods) and declare such invoice in the return filed for such month. Since, it is deemed to be a supply effected on the date of sending the goods to the job-worker, the tax shall be paid along with applicable interest.

It is also important to note that the requirement of bringing back the goods sent to the job worker is not applicable on moulds and dies, jigs and fixtures, or tools. Hence, such items may remain with the job worker.

As per CGST (Amendment) Act 2018, this period of three years can be extended up to further period of up to two more years by commissioner, if taxpayer has shown sufficient reason for doing the same.

Waste and Scrap generated at Job workers' premises

As per section 143(5), any waste and scrap generated during the job work may be supplied by the job worker directly from his place of business on payment of tax if such job worker is registered, or by the Principal, if the job worker is not registered. Aspects relating to taking input tax credit in respect of inputs/capital goods sent for job-work have been specifically dealt in Section 19, which provides that the credit of taxes paid on inputs or capital goods can be taken in the specified manner.

It is important to note that waste and scrap generated DO NOT belong to the job worker. As such, supply of waste and scrap from the premises of job worker is permitted but in the name of the Principal. Waste and scrap DO NOT belong to the job worker and as such, the job worker cannot make a 'sale' and confer valid title to the Buyer. It is very common for job workers (and even repair service providers) to sell or retain the waste and scrap. As the Latin maxim nemo dat quod non habet says : "no one gives what they do not have". It is in the context of sale of goods and transfer of property. One who does not have (valid title) cannot give (valid title) to Buyer. Hence, when a job worker (or repair service provider) claims to sell waste and scrap generated and retain the proceeds, such proceeds will be 'additional consideration' towards job work (or repair services) and be liable to same rate of tax as supply of job work (or repair services).

Amortization of capital goods issued free-of-charge

Principal wants job worker to process the goods as per their customization and for that purpose, Principal sends certain capital goods viz. Moulds and dies, jigs and fixtures or tools which are used in the process of Job working having short span of life and bound to be used up during that process. By nature, such goods are regarded as capital goods for Principal but, similarly, it is very rare that such goods remain intact after certain period. Accordingly, even though such goods are issued free of charge to job worker, the same need not be returned back within stipulated time as mentioned in section 143(4).

Eligibility of Input tax credit in the hands of Principal:

Principal has availed input tax credit on procurement of such capital goods but he will amortize value of such goods in his books of over a period of time. It is clarified in Circular No.38/12/2018 dated 26th March 2018 that, in view of the provisions contained in clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 16 of the CGST Act, the input tax credit would be available to the Principal, irrespective of the fact whether the inputs or capital goods are received by the Principal and then sent to the job worker for processing, etc. or whether they are directly received at the job worker's place of business/premises, without being brought to the premises of the Principal. Since ownership of such goods will remain with Principal, this is not called permanent transfer of business assets and does not fall in Schedule-I transaction. Principal can claim ITC on such free supplied goods.

Inclusion/exclusion of free-issue materials for use in job work

There are certain instances where Principal wants the job worker to use only specific raw material in job work process. Now this arrangement can be two way, as elaborated below:

When such materials are procured by job worker

In this case, if responsibility to procure such materials are of Job worker only then Job worker is eligible to claim ITC on procurement of such material used in job work process and GST shall be leviable in Job work charges only since valuation of job work charges has already accounted for in the cost of such raw material.

However, if responsibility to procure such materials is that of the Principal but job worker will procure such materials on behalf of Principal then together with Job work charges, value of such materials also needs to be added as per valuation provision contained in section 15(2)(b).

When such materials are freely supplied by Principal to job worker

In this case, raw material and consumables are purchased by Principal only and sent to job worker to be used in job working process. ITC on raw material and consumables are validly availed by Principal. Job worker will raise invoice of job work charges to Principal wherein he is not supposed to include value of such free materials provided by Principal.

Application of certain provisions of CGST Act, 2017 under IGST Act, 2017

As per section 20 of the IGST Act, the provisions relating to job work would also be applicable to the IGST Act.

Reference may be had to the discussion under section 19 and section 2(68) reading the various 'forms' of job work and the tax implications on 'deemed' supply (in case of non-return of materials). Also to section 16(1) where 'abnormal wastage' by job worker is discussed to be liable to tax as a deemed supply.

143.3. Comparative review

The term 'job work' has not been defined in the Central Excise Act or Customs Act but the same has been provided for in Notification No 214/86 C.E. dated 25.03.1986 and CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004.

143.4. Related provisions

In section 143 there is no specific reference to any other sections but there are other provisions where section 143 has been referred to:

Section / Rule / Form	Description	Remarks
Sub-section (68) of Section 2	Job work definition	The job work has been defined to mean undertaking any treatment or process on goods belonging to another registered person.
Section 19	Taking ITC in respect of inputs and capital goods sent for Job work	The condition and procedure has been prescribed.
Section 22 – Explanation (ii)	Registration	Aggregate turnover of the registered job worker does not include the turnover of the Principal

143.5. Issues and concerns

Interest on reversal of ITC: If goods sent for job work are not received within a specified period - the Principal has the right to retain ITC on goods sent to job work provided if they are received back within a specified period. Else, the section requires reversal of ITC on expiration of such periods, and permits re-availing of the same when the goods are finally received.

Reporting in Annual Return

Deemed supply which are getting covered under section 143(3) and 143(4), is to be reported in Table 16B of GSTR-9. For detailed discussion from Annual return and GST Audit perspective, refer Handbook on GST Annual return and Technical Guide on GST Audit hosted on IDTC website.

143.6. FAQs

Q1. Who shall undertake responsibility for keeping proper accounts under this provision?

Ans. The Principal would undertake the primary responsibility and accountability of the goods including payment of taxes, if any.

Q2. Can goods be supplied from job worker's place?

Ans. Yes, this provision allows supply of goods from job worker's premises but only on payment of taxes within India and without payment of taxes for export.

Q3. Whether any time period has been prescribed within which inputs have to be returned to Principal?

Ans. Yes, inputs are to be returned to Principal or supplied from the place of business of job worker within one year of their being sent out or further extended period by the commissioner of maximum one year.

Q4. Whether there is any time limit for capital goods also?

Ans. Yes, capital goods, other than moulds and dies, jigs and fixtures, or tools sent for job work, are to be returned to Principal or supplied from the place of business of job worker within three years of their being sent out or further extended period by the Commissioner for a maximum of two years

Q5. Under what circumstances can the Principal directly supply goods from the premises of job worker without declaring the premises of job worker as his additional place of business?

Ans. The goods can be supplied directly from the place of business of job worker without declaring it as additional place of business in two circumstances namely where the job worker is a registered taxable person or where the Principal is engaged in supply of such goods as may be notified by the Commissioner.

Q6. Is a job worker required to take registration?

Ans. Yes, as job work is a service, the job worker would be required to obtain registration, if his aggregate turnover exceeds the prescribed threshold. (i.e., Rs. 20 lac ).

Q7. Can intermediate goods also be sent for job work?

Ans. Yes. The term inputs, for the purpose of job work, includes intermediate goods arising from any treatment or process carried out on the inputs by the Principal or job worker.

Q8. Should job worker and Principal be in the same State or Union territory?

Ans. No, this is not necessary as provisions relating to job work have been adopted in the IGST Act as well as in UTGST Act, and therefore Job Worker and Principal can be located either in the same State or in same Union Territory or in different States or Union Territories.

Q9. As per Section 143, Principal has to intimate the proper officer regarding goods sent for Job work without payment of Tax. How is this intimation to be sent?

Ans. Filing of form ITC-04 will serve as the intimation as envisaged under section 143 of the CGST Act, 2017.

Related provisions of the Statute

Section or Rule	Description
Section 2(41)	Definition of Document
Section 35	Accounts and records
Section 67	Power of inspection, search and seizure

145.1 Introduction

Both the sections i.e., Section 144 dealing with "Presumption as to documents in Certain Cases" and Section 145 dealing with "Admissibility of micro films, facsimile copies of documents and computer printouts as documents and evidence" are analysed together.

145.2 Analysis

As per the Webster Dictionary, presumption means "a belief that something is true even though it has not been proved". Presumption, is an inference of a fact drawn from other known facts, unless there is contrary evidence. Matters that need to be proved are those that are disputed. In other words, matters that are not disputed need not be proved. Proof varies in the degree of evidentiary value available to establish their existence or absence. More serious a matter, more persuasive should be the evidence. Contemporaneous documents, events and records score high in evidentiary value due to their generation in the ordinary course of transactions. Special evidence produced needs to first pass the test of admissibility and then pass the test of adequacy of what it stands for as to evidence.

This presumption is rebuttable, since, any contrary evidence provided by the assessee, negates such presumption and such presumption is not a conclusive evidence. The words "shall presume" in the Act suggest that the judge cannot refuse to draw the presumption. Presumption does not mean assumption. Presumption is only a rebuttable assumption. Presumption only means that the authority may proceed expecting the thing required to be presumed to be true. That is, the authority may proceed on the supposition that the thing exists, unless disproved. Evidence produced to the contrary can displace this presumption. But evidence is that which produces a persuasion in the mind about the existence or absence of the thing that it evidences. Evidence produced that is incompatible with the innocence of the circumstances of its generation is not satisfactory. That nothing has not been satisfactorily proved, does not mean that anything has been disproved. Only when the thing has been satisfactorily established not to be existing can it be said that it has been disproved. In other words, not approved is the failure to prove and disprove is a success to prove the contrary.

In general, practice the onus of proving relevance and genuineness of documents produced as evidence is on the person producing the said documents. This chapter deals with documents produced as evidence by the prosecution. Further, this section has placed the onus of proving the contrary on the assessee i.e., the assessee has to prove that the documents provided by prosecution are not proper evidence.

Balance of probability is where the existence of a thing is admitted by substandard and circumstantial evidence that leans in favour of likelihood and not beyond reasonable doubt. The degree of proof required under the GST Laws, in matters relating to prosecution is beyond reasonable doubt and not merely the likelihood of offence. However, in matters invoking penalty, balance of probability may be applied.

Plausible explanation is not possible explanation. The reasons attributed for the failure to comply with GST law or for the delay in filing appeal within the time prescribed or any other similar matter, the 'standard of proof' is guided by the nature of wrongdoing being inquired. Plausible is possible coupled with probability in the circumstances of the case. The dismissal of evidence in one proceeding cannot expunge "that evidence" for all proceedings. For example, where income tax assessment has been carried out on the basis of best judgment after the rejection of books of accounts, the same books of accounts can still supply evidence of contemporaneous transaction in a proceeding under GST law.

The term 'document' has been defined under section 2(41) so as to include written or printed record of any sort and electronic record as defined in the Information Technology Act, 2000. Any information stored electronically or any hard copies made thereof is treated as document.

A certificate by a responsible person in relation to the operation of the computer or the management of such activities is required for identifying the document and describing the manner in which it was produced is required.

145.3 Relevant rules

It may be noted that Rule 56 of CGST Rules, mandates maintenance of specific records at related place of business as mentioned in the certificate of registration

145.4 Comparative Review

Comparison to Central Excise:

Sections 144 and 145 of the CGST Act are like Sections 36A and 36B of the Central Excise Act respectively.

In addition, Sec 12B of the Central Excise Act deals with Presumption that the incidence of duty has been passed on to the buyer.

145.5 Landmark Judgements:

- In the case of Commissioner of Central Excise and Customs, Surat - Vs. Vinod Kumar Gupta, a computer printout of the data collected on USB during a raid was adduced as an evidence against the manufacturer, and further the witnesses had disowned their statements, The Hon'ble Gujarat High Court has held that such reliance on such material was impermissible in view of the non-fulfilling of the conditions in sub-section (2) of Section 36-B of the Central Excise Act.

145.6 MCQs

- Q1. Document includes:
- (a) Written record

- (b) Printed Record
- (c) Electronic
- (d) All of the above

Ans. (d) All of the above

Statutory Provisions

146. Common Portal

The Government may, on the recommendations of the Council, notify the Common Goods and Services Tax Electronic Portal for facilitating registration, payment of tax, furnishing of returns, computation and settlement of integrated tax, electronic way bill and for carrying out such other functions and for such purposes as may be prescribed.

Related provisions

Section or Rule	Description
Section 2(26)	Definition of common portal

146.1. Introduction

This section deals with notification of common portal for various purposes upon recommendation by the GST Council. The Central government has vide Notification No. 4/2017-Central Tax dated 19-06-2017 notified www.gst.gov.in as the Common Goods and Services tax Electronic portal and www.ewaybillgst.gov.in as the Common Goods and Services Tax Electronic Portal for furnishing electronic way bill vide Notification No.09/2018 – Central Tax dated 23-01-2017.

146.2. Analysis

The common portal would facilitate registration, tax payment, filing of returns, computation and settlement of integrated tax, electronic way bill and other prescribed purposes. It is important to note that the extensive data that will reside in the common portal can facilitate preparation of analytical reports in respect of profitability, product-wise supply profile and other information that can form the basis of further investigation. The common portal is not merely a platform or a repository of invoices uploaded by taxpayers.

Nationwide E-way bill system will be driven by common portal www.ewaybillgst.gov.in. This would facilitate generation, cancellation and rejection of E-way bill, access to various reports in E-way bill, creation of various masters and other prescribed purpose.

146.3 FAQs

Q1. What are the compliances which can be done only online through GST Portal?

Ans. The Common Goods and Services Tax Electronic Portal used for facilitating registration, payment of tax, furnishing of returns, computation and settlement of integrated tax, and for carrying out such other functions and for such purposes as may be prescribed.

146.4 MCQs

Q1. The common portal can be notified based on the recommendation of:

- (a) GST Council
- (b) President of India
- (c) Union Finance Minister
- (d) Supreme Court

Ans. (a) GST Council

Statutory provision*147. Deemed Exports

The Government may, on the recommendations of the Council, notify certain supplies of goods as deemed exports, where goods supplied do not leave India, and payment for such supplies is received either in Indian rupees or in convertible foreign exchange, if such goods are manufactured in India.

Related provisions of the Statute

Section or Rule	Description
Section 2(39)	Definition of Deemed exports
Section 2(52)	Definition of Goods
Section 2(56)	Definition of India
Section 2(72)	Definition of manufacture

147.1. Introduction

This section deals with notification of certain supplies of goods as deemed exports upon recommendation by the GST Council.

The notified goods would be deemed to be exported, if such goods are manufactured in India although they do not leave India and payments are received in Indian rupees or convertible foreign exchange.

This section authorizes the government to notify transactions which will be declared to be deemed exports. Interestingly, there is no section that authorizes deemed exports to enjoy zero rated benefit except inclusion of deemed exports within the machinery provisions for claiming refund under section 54 read with rule 89. It is remarkable that all other transactions where the refunds are available such as, refunds to UIN-holders under section 55 of CGST Act, the refunds to exporters under section 16 of IGST Act, refunds in case of inverted tax-rate under section 54(3) of CGST Act, etc, are available. However, there is no section granting entitlement to refund in respect of deemed exports. The promise by the government alone provides the necessary entitlement.

147.3. Comparative Review

This is comparable to the concept of deemed exports in the Foreign Trade Policy and attendant export benefits/incentives are extended.

- Supply to 100% EOU from DTA was treated as deemed exports under excise law but these are not treated as deemed exports under GST, resulting in denial of duty free imports of inputs under “advance authorisation” scheme
- EOU are like any other suppliers under GST and all the provisions of GST will apply to it but the benefit of BCD exemption on import will continue for EOU. Supplies from EOU are not exempted from GST except zero rated like exports or supply to SEZ.

147.4 Related provisions

Section 2(39) of the CGST Act, 2017 defines the term ‘deemed exports’. This would be relevant for extending refund benefit under section 54 of the CGST Act.

147.5 Related Rules

Rule 89 of CGST Rules is relevant for claiming refund in respect of deemed exports. This rule prescribes forms & procedures for claiming refund in case of supplies made to a special economic zone.

Second proviso to Rule 89(1) says that “provided also that in respect of supplies regarded as deemed exports, the application shall be filled by recipient of deemed export supplies”.

147.6. Documents Required For Refund Under Deemed Export

1. Acknowledgment by the jurisdictional officer of the Advance Authorisation holder or Export Promotion Capital Goods Authorisation holder, as the case may be, that the said deemed export supplies have been received by the said Advance Authorisation or Export Promotion Capital Goods Authorisation holder, or a copy of the tax invoice under which such supplies have been made by the supplier, duly signed by the recipient Export Oriented Unit that said deemed export supplies have been received by it.
2. An undertaking by the recipient of deemed export supplies, that no input tax credit on such supplies has been availed of by him.
3. An undertaking by the recipient of deemed export supplies that he shall not claim the refund in respect of such supplies and the supplier may claim the refund.

Reporting in Annual Return

Deemed export transactions is to be reported in Table-4E of GSTR-9. For detailed discussion from Annual return and GST Audit perspective, refer Handbook on GST Annual return and Technical Guide on GST Audit.

147.7 FAQs

Q1. What is the time line for obtaining refund on the GST paid?

Ans The time line for provisional refund are:

- I. For 90% of the total amount claimed as refund excluding the amount of input tax credit, provisional refund will be granted within 10 days of making of application or within 7 days of issuance of acknowledgement of the application.
- II. Refund of the balance 10% will be granted after verification of documents furnished by the applicant.

Moreover, the registered person can apply for refund within 2 years from the relevant date.

Q2 Can an exporter get exemption from the payment of GST on the export product?

Ans An exporter could get exemption from the payment of GST on the final product and get refund of GST paid on inputs.

Q3. What are the GST refund options available to the exporters?

Ans An exporter would be eligible to claim refund under one of the following two options, namely - (a) He may export under bond, without payment of IGST and claim refund of unutilized input tax credit or; (b) He may export on payment of IGST and claim refund of IGST paid on goods and services exported. The SEZ developer or SEZ unit receiving zero rated supply can claim refund of IGST paid by the firm making supply to SEZ.

Q4. How will exports be treated under GST?

Ans All exports will be deemed as inter-State supplies. Exports of goods and services will be treated as zero rated supplies. The exporter has the option either to export under bond/Letter of Undertaking without payment of tax and claim refund of ITC or pay IGST by utilizing ITC or in cash at the time of export and claim refund of IGST paid.

Statutory provisions*148. Special Procedure for certain processes

The Government may, on the recommendations of the Council, and subject to such conditions and safeguards as may be prescribed, notify certain classes of registered persons, and the special procedures to be followed by such persons including those with regard to registration, furnishing of return, payment of tax and administration of such persons.

148.1. Introduction

This section deals with notification of certain classes of registered persons, who would be required to follow certain special procedures.

148.2. Analysis

The Government can notify such persons upon recommendation of the GST Council. Such notified persons would be required to follow certain special procedures inter-alia relating to registration, returns, tax payment and administration aspects. In other words, even though there may be a requirement to the CGST Act, by exercise of powers under section 148, the Government can alter the said requirement on matters relating to registration, filing of returns, tax payment and other administrative matters. The powers to vary the general prescription in these areas applies only in respect of categories of registered persons notified here.

It is very interesting that, say, provisions regarding filing of returns can be overruled, in relation to persons notified under 148. The special procedures to be applied does not enjoy non obstante powers but considering that such special procedures would only be more favourable may not be questioned unless the 'conditions' and 'safeguards' are prescribed and adhered to.

It is important to note that the power that is not delegated cannot be assumed to be vested with the delegate. Power that is exercised by the Act itself, in relation to certain persons cannot be permitted to be exercised by any delegate, in relation to certain other persons. And delegation cannot alter the nature of the compliance and any variation, at most, can be limited to matters that do not amount to substantive deviation, that is, require the same compliance but at lesser frequency or extended time for compliance.

In exercise of this power, we find certain measures having been taken by the Government, and similar provisions are simultaneously required to be taken under the respective SGST / UTGST laws so as to be in harmony. And without issuing notifications afresh, Notification No. 17/2017-UT dated 24th Oct, 2017 adopts CGST notifications mutatis mutandis in relation to matters of UT. Reference may also be had to the discussion in the context of section 168 where such deviation from standard procedures are permitted.

148.3 Analysis of the Notifications

148.3.1 Notification No 40/2017 - Central Tax dated 13th October, 2017

148.3.1.1 Class of persons notified

- Registered Person (other than persons registered under composition scheme) having aggregate turnover of less than Rs. 1.5 crores in the preceding financial year or,
- Registered Person (other than persons registered under composition scheme) whose aggregate turnover in the year of registration is likely to be less than Rs. 1.5 crores

148.3.1.2 Relaxations provided

The class of persons specified above will not be required to pay tax on advances received against supply of goods. The time of supply of goods shall be the date of issue of invoice or the last date on which the invoice is to be issued as per section 31(1). It is important to note that no special provisions have been notified in respect of time of supply of services and therefore tax would need to be paid on advances received against supply of services –

148.3.2 Notification No. 66/2017- Central Tax dated 15th November, 2017

148.3.2.1 Class of persons notified

All Registered Persons other than persons registered under composition scheme

148.3.2.2 Relaxations provided

The class of persons defined above will not be required to pay tax on advances received against supply of goods. The time of supply of goods shall be the date of issue of invoice or the last date on which the invoice is to be issued as per section 31(1). It is important to note that no special provisions have been notified in respect of time of supply of services and therefore tax would need to be paid on advances received against supply of services –The effective date of this provision is 15th November, 2017.

Therefore, w.e.f. 15th November, 2017, no tax needs to be paid on advances received by registered persons against goods supplied. W.e.f. 13th October, 2017 to 15th November, 2017, this benefit was available to suppliers having aggregate turnover of less than Rs. 1.5 crores only. It must be understood that when a beneficial notification stands superseded it will be subject to certain conditions. For instance, the Notification No. 66/2017 dated 15.11.2017 provides for such a condition which reads “except as respects things done or omitted to be done before such supersession”.

This notification superseded the Notification No 40/2017 - Central Tax dated 13th October, 2017

148.3.3. Notification No. 04/2018-Central Tax dated 25.01.2018: The notification specifies the time when the registered persons being the land owner and the developer should remit the tax on the supply of service viz., supply of works contract service by developer to the land owner and supply of development rights by the land owner to the developer inter-se. The notification specifies that the date when the possession / right in the constructed portion is transferred would be the date relevant for remittance of GST on such services.

Statutory provisions*149. Goods and Services Tax Compliance Rating

- (1) Every registered person may be assigned a goods and services tax compliance rating score by the Government based on his record of compliance with the provisions of this Act.
- (2) The goods and services tax compliance rating score may be determined on the basis of such parameters as may be prescribed.

(3) The goods and services tax compliance rating score may be updated at periodic intervals and intimated to the registered person and also placed in the public domain in such manner as may be prescribed.

149.1 Introduction

Compliance rating system is one of the new ways of tax administration. This section states that every registered person would be rated based on certain parameters. It also provides that the rating would be published in the public domain.

149.2 Analysis

With the aim of increasing governance by publishing information about the extent of compliance by each taxable person, this section provides a compliance rating that varies periodically. The proposed compliance rating system is a unique form of rating the performance of the registered persons. The parameters which would be considered for performance rating would be prescribed / notified.

Among others, the rating of a registered person would be relevant to show reliability of the supplier to pay taxes on time so that recipient of supplies can exercise some caution based on the published compliance rating of suppliers and for selection for scrutiny and other administrative / monitoring purposes.

This section provides as follows:

- Every registered person shall be rated and will be assigned a GST compliance rating score.
- The rating would be based on his record of compliance with the provisions of CGST, IGST and SGST/UTGST. The details of parameters and methodology for rating would be prescribed.
- The compliance rating score will be updated periodically and will be-
  - Intimated to the registered person; and
  - placed in the public domain.
- Presently, compliance rating is still to be operationalized.

149.3 Comparative Review

Previously there was no rating system under any of the indirect tax laws.

149.4 FAQs

Q1. What would the compliance rating be used for?

Ans. It would be for determining the eligibility for credit on inward supplies, selection of cases for audit / scrutiny, grant of benefits etc., as may be prescribed.

Q2. What are the parameters which would be considered in compliance rating?

Ans. The parameters and methodology of usage in determining compliance rating have not been prescribed yet.

149.5 MCQs

Q1. How will the compliance rating be communicated?

- (a) directly to the relevant taxable person
- (b) will be put up in the public domain

- (3) Where a person who is required to furnish information, return has not furnished the same within the time specified in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the said authority may serve upon him a notice requiring furnishing of such information return within a period not exceeding ninety days from the date of service of the notice and such person shall furnish the information return.

150.1 Introduction

This is an administrative provision. This section requires specified persons to furnish an information return with the prescribed authority.

150.2 Analysis

A return called an 'information return' would be required to be filed by specified persons. It is expected that this would be used by the Government/s for exchange of information.

Specified persons who would be required to furnish the information return:

Nature of persons who would be required to file the information return would be:	If the said persons are responsible for maintaining:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Taxable Person.</li> <li>• Local Authority, Other Public Body or Association.</li> <li>• Authority responsible for collecting VAT, Sales Tax, State Excise Duty, Central Excise Duty or Customs Duty.</li> <li>• Authority appointed under Income Tax.</li> <li>• Banking Company</li> <li>• State Electricity Board</li> <li>• Registrar or Sub-Registrar of Registration Act, 1908</li> <li>• Registrar of Companies</li> <li>• Registering authority of Motor Vehicles</li> <li>• Collector</li> <li>• Recognised Stock Exchange</li> <li>• Depository of Shares</li> <li>• Officer of Reserve Bank of India</li> <li>• Goods &amp; Service Tax Network</li> <li>• Person to whom Unique Identity Number (UIN) is granted</li> <li>• Any other specified person on recommendation of the Council</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Records of registration</li> <li>• Statement of accounts</li> <li>• Periodic returns</li> <li>• Details of payment of tax</li> <li>• Any other details of transaction of goods or services</li> <li>• Transaction relating to bank account</li> <li>• Transaction relating to consumption of electricity</li> <li>• Transaction of purchase</li> <li>• Sales</li> <li>• Exchange of goods or property</li> <li>• Right or interest in a property</li> </ul>

Implications of non-compliance

1. If the details filed are defective:
  - Defect should be intimated to the person who has furnished such information return.
  - Reasonable opportunity should be given to rectify the defect in the return.
  - Defect should be rectified within a period of 30 days from the date of such information or within such further period.

If the defect in the return is not rectified within the time prescribed, the information return should be treated as not submitted and penalty of Rs.100/- per day for each day during which the failure continues, would be payable subject to a maximum of Rs. 5,000 in terms of section 123 of the CGST Act.

2. If no return is filed:
  - Authority may serve a notice requiring him to furnish such information return.
  - It should then be filed within a period not exceeding 90 days from the date of service of notice.

Statutory provisions*151. Power to Collect Statistics

~~(1) The Commissioner may, if he considers that it is necessary so to do, by notification, direct that statistics may be collected relating to any matter dealt with by or in connection with this Act.~~

~~(2) Upon such notification being issued, the Commissioner, or any person authorised by him in this behalf, may call upon the concerned persons to furnish such information or returns, in such form and manner as may be prescribed, relating to any matter in respect of which statistics is to be collected.~~

REPLACED BY FINANCE ACT, 2021 WITH NEW PROVISION<sup>2</sup>:

151. The Commissioner or an officer authorized by him may, by an order, direct any person to furnish information relating to any matter dealt with in connection with this Act, within such time, in such form, and in such manner, as may be specified therein.

151.1 Introduction

This section authorises the Commissioner for the purpose of the Act, to collect any statistics relating to any matter that may be required.

151.2 (A) Analysis (previous provision)

- The Commissioner may, by way of a notification, direct collection of statistics for the purpose of better administration of the Act.
- After issuance of such notification, the Commissioner or any person authorised by Commissioner in this regard may call all concerned persons to furnish such information or return relating to any matter in respect of which statistics is being collected.
- The form in which the information needs to be filed, the authority to whom such return needs to be filed, the details that are captured in the return, the periodicity of filing such return have not been prescribed yet.

151.2 (B) Analysis (Revised Provision)

The revised provision is very potent inasmuch as it authorises not only Commissioner but any Officer authorized to carry out the following:

- Any person may be “directed” making it a statutory duty of person so directed and who need not be the taxable person but any person who may be believed to hold such information;

- To furnish information, which is not guided as to the nature and extent of such information that maybe called for from such person;
- In connection with this Act, which may pertain to the investigation against some other person;
- In such time, form and manner, which are not 'prescribed' in Rules but contained in the 'directions' issued by Commissioner or the Authorized Officer.

Experts express concern at the unfettered latitude allowed to call for information whether or not the person so directed is able to submit the said information in the time, form and manner as directed. Self-incrimination is not protected in tax laws as held in Tofan Singh v. State of TN (Cr.ApI No.152/2013) but here, third-parties may be directed to provide incriminating information against taxpayer. Experts caution taxpayers from readily admitting the correctness and relevance of such information secured by tax authorities and included as evidence against the taxpayer. Such provisions, unless involved in exceptional cases and with great circumspection, can come in serious consideration in judicial review.

152.1 Introduction

This Section discusses about the way in which the information obtained under Sections 150 and 151 needs to be handled.

152.2 Analysis

- Any information obtained shall not be published so as to enable any particulars to be identified as referring to a particular taxpayer, without the prior consent of the tax payer or his authorised representative. This consent should be in writing. Further, the information so obtained shall not be used for the purpose of any proceedings under this Act.
- A person who is not engaged in the collection of statistics under this Act or compliance or computerisation for the purpose of Act, shall not be permitted to see or have access to any information or any individual return.<sup>3</sup>

However, for the purpose of prosecution under the Act, or under any other Act, access to such information can be given.

- Any person who is engaged in connection with collection of statistics under Section 151 or compilation or computerisation wilfully discloses any information or contents of any return under this Section, or otherwise in execution of his duties shall be punished with imprisonment or fine or both in terms of section 133.
- Imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or fine which may extend to ₹ 25000 or with both

Any officer not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner may, having regard to the nature and complexity of the case and the interest of revenue, take assistance of any expert at any stage of scrutiny, inquiry, investigation or any other proceedings before him.

153.1 Introduction

This Section enables the Officer not below the rank of an Assistant Commissioner to take assistance of an expert at any stage of scrutiny, inquiry, investigation or any proceedings.

153.2 Analysis

This section will enable the Officer to take assistance of experts like IT professional, Lawyer, Technocrat, Chartered Accountants etc. considering the nature and complexity of the case and revenue's interest. These experts would assist the Proper Officer in scrutiny, inquiry, investigation or any other proceedings.

It is important to note that expert has a small area of authority to express professional opinion on the facts relevant to determine whether applicability of tax or credits. Experts are not required to provide an opinion about interpretation of GST law but are required to provide their professional opinion about relevant facts. This is a thin line that needs to be walked carefully in order to support any tax demand.

This Expert can only provide information and expertise to the Proper Officer and not to the Registered Person. Information and expertise of the Expert is not open for challenge by Registered Person because such information may be accepted and adopted, with or without modifications, 'as if' it were those of the Proper Officer. And it is these 'adopted conclusions', as included in the notice (issued in due course by Proper Officer) which will be open for challenge by Registered Person in adjudication and appellate proceedings.

Statutory provisions

154. Power to take samples

The Commissioner or an officer authorised by him may take samples of goods from the possession of any taxable person, where he considers it necessary, and provide a receipt for any samples so taken.

154.1 Introduction

This Section discusses about authority of the GST officers to draw sample of goods.

154.2 Analysis

Sample of any goods may be drawn by the Commissioner or any officer who is authorised by him.

The samples may be drawn wherever the officer so deems necessary and should be out of the goods in possession of the taxable person. Care must be taken to differentiate 'test purchase' under section 67(12) with 'samples' under section 154.

Once the samples are drawn, the officer should provide a receipt for the same.

154.3 FAQs

Q1. For what purposes can samples be taken?

Ans. There is no purpose which is specified in the law. However, if the specified officer deems necessary, a sample of the goods may be drawn.

Q2. Who can effect samples?

Ans. The Commissioner or any other person who is authorised by the Commissioner may draw samples out of the goods from the goods in possession of the taxable person.

Statutory provisions*155. Burden of Proof

Where any person claims that he is eligible for input tax credit under this Act, the burden of proving such claim shall lie on such person.

155.1 Introduction

This provision places the burden on the taxable person to prove his input tax claims.

155.2 Analysis

Normally, it is for the person to prove a fact which he asserts.

Following this, under this Section, the onus of correctness and eligibility of the following claim has been vested with the taxable person:

- Eligibility to claim input tax credit: Where the taxable person claims any input tax credit under Chapter V (Input Tax Credit) of the CGST Act.
- Reference may be had to the 'conditions' linked to vesting of input tax credit. Taxpayer is responsible for any input tax credit claimed.
- Doubtful or contentious credits claimed cannot go without responsibility in the form of interest and penalty for erroneous credit claim as GST is a 'self-assessment' based tax system and taxpayer is liable for all consequences (tax, interest and penalty) for all interpretations followed by taxpayer.
- Taxpayers carry the understanding that input tax credit is a 'vested and indefeasible' right. But that right is linked to 'vesting conditions' in section 16(2) (refer discussion under section 16). And read together with section 155, the burden of proving that all 'vesting conditions' are satisfied, rests on Registered Person and not on tax authorities. Person who would fail, if nothing further were to be said about it, is the one who bears the burden of proof. If Registered Person claims input tax credit and does nothing more, tax authorities are only required to 'question the credits' and sit back for Registered Person to bring all the necessary proof pertaining to satisfaction of all 'vesting conditions'. To this end, experts are of the view that section 155 attempts to overturn all decisions that had held in favour of taxpayer that ensuring compliance (discharge of tax) by Supplier's is not the responsibility of the Recipient-taxpayer.

Q1. Under what circumstances does the onus of claim by a taxable person lie with him?

Ans. The onus of proving that the taxable person is right in his claims would vest with him, where the taxable person has claimed any input tax credit under Chapter-V (Input Tax Credit) of CGST Act, 2017.

155.4 MCQs

Q1. Which of the following proposition is correct?

- (a) The Act provides for rule of burden of proof in all situations
- (b) The Act places specific burden on the assessee only in one situation
- (c) The burden of proof is always on the assessee
- (d) None of the above

Ans. (b) The Act places specific burden on the assessee only in one situation

Statutory provisions*156. Persons deemed to be public servants

All persons discharging functions under this Act shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

156.1. Introduction

This section proclaims that all persons discharging official functions under the CGST Act would be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the IPC.

156.2. Analysis

As the persons discharging official functions are deemed to be public servants, any offences against such persons and offences by such persons would be dealt with in accordance with IPC. By availing the services of officials of other departments or Ministries, all those officials will be able to exercise the authority under GST law. Purpose of this provision is to ensure that bona fide actions of tax authorities are not put in jeopardy.

156.3 Related provisions

Section 21 of the IPC defines a public servant. Chapter IX of IPC comprising of sections 166 to 171 deals with offences against and offences by public servants prescribing for punishment including imprisonment. Chapter X deals with contempt's of the lawful authority of public servants – sections 172 to 190 thereof prescribes for punishment including imprisonment.

Statutory provisions*157. Protection of action taken under this Act

- (1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against the President, State President, Members, officers or other employees of the Appellate Tribunal or any other person authorised by the said Appellate Tribunal for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or the rules made thereunder.
- (2) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any officer appointed or authorised under this Act for anything which is done or intended to be done in good faith under this Act or the rules made thereunder.

157.1 Introduction

This Section protects the GST officers and officers of GST Tribunal from legal proceedings in respect of acts done in good faith.

157.2 Analysis

Immunity from any legal or departmental proceedings is provided to the GST officers and officers of the Tribunal for the acts done in good faith under the provisions of this Act. Actions taken in exercise of official functions cannot result in liability devolving on the officers. It is this protection that officers enjoy while exercising authority vested in the law without fear or favour.

Similar Provisions as above find place under erstwhile laws as under:

Law	Distinction in the GST law
Central Excise (Sec.37E)	The provisions are similar to Sec.37E. However, in the extant Central Excise Legislation, as there is a provision to appeal directly to CESTAT against the order of Commissioner, the time limit in relation to publishing information about penalty also includes the time for appeals before CESTAT. In the GST law, there is no such provision for direct appeal to Tribunal and so time limit for appeals before Tribunal is omitted.

Law	Distinction in the GST law
Central Excise (Sec.9B)	In the extant Excise Law, as per Sec.9B, Courts have powers to publish the information about conviction of the persons and other information (as mentioned in Sec.9B). However, in the present GST legislation, no such powers are conferred on the Courts. In fact, there is a Circular No.1009/16/2015 – CX dt. 23.10.15, which insists that the power to publish information is being exercised very sparingly by the Courts and has given a clear direction that in deserving cases, the department should make a prayer to the Court to invoke this Section in respect of all persons who are convicted under the Act.
Service Tax (Sec.73D)	As per extant service tax provisions, the names and the particulars to be published and the manner in which it has to be published are as prescribed (by the Service Tax (Publication of Names) Rules 2008). In the above rules, the situations for publication and the detailed process flow along with documentation are prescribed. The words “as prescribed” do not find place in the GST law. This leaves the decision to publish solely to the discretion of the Competent Authority. Further, there are no enabling provisions u/s 164 to confer powers to the Governments to frame rules for such publication. Sec.165 has also not listed out the specific areas wherein the Board / Commissioner SGST can frame regulations.
VAT Laws	Similar provisions as that of the GST Law are enacted as part of the extant State VAT Laws, but in certain State VAT Laws, the powers can be exercised subject to such conditions as may be prescribed. (For e.g. Sec.79 of the TNVAT Act, 2006)

Statute	Section / Rule / Form	Description	Remarks
GST	Section 107	Time Limit for appeal before First Appellate Authority	Information on the penalty imposed on a person can be published only if the time limit for appeals before First Adjudicating Authority is over. So Sec.107 is relevant.

159.5 FAQs

Q1. Should prosecution proceedings alone be published?

Ans. No. Sec.159 uses the words “any proceedings or prosecution”. Hence, even a normal adjudication proceeding can be published if the competent authority thinks fit.

- Q2. Is there any guideline available for deciding the situations in which information must be published?
- Ans. No. As per the section, the Competent Authority may form his own opinion and may decide to publish the name and other particulars in such manner as it thinks fit. It is expected that the Government may frame guidelines on publishing information and manner of such publishing.
- Q3. What are the media in which the details must be published?
- Ans. Sec.159 is silent on such aspect and it gives the power to the competent authority to decide the manner in which it has to be published (Unless certain guidelines are spelt out by the government).
- Q4. Whether the publishing is to be done only after the adjudication order is passed?
- Ans. Sec.159 indicates that the Competent Authority may publish names and other particulars, in relation to any proceeding or prosecution. There is no condition that the order needs to be passed to publish the details.
- Q5. Can the names of persons alone be published by the competent authority?
- Ans. Sec.159 indicates that the names of any person and any other particulars relating to such person, in respect of such proceedings may be given. So, it is imperative to give the other relevant particulars of the proceedings also.

159.6 MCQs

- Q1. Who can publish the names and particulars?
- (a) Courts
  - (b) Appellate Authority
  - (c) Any Adjudicating Authority

- (a) After Courts Approval
  - (b) After expiry of appeal to First Appellate Authority
  - (c) At the discretion of the Competent Authority
  - (d) Cannot be published at all
- Ans. (c) At the discretion of the Competent Authority

Q3. In case of proceedings against the Companies, the details that can be published are-

- (a) Names and Addresses of the Directors
- (b) Only Names of the Directors
- (c) Details of Directors and Auditors
- (d) Photographs of the Directors

Ans. (b) Only Names of the Directors

Statutory provisions

160. Assessment proceedings, etc., not to be invalid on certain grounds

- (1) No assessment, re-assessment, adjudication, review, revision, appeal, rectification, notice, summons or other proceedings done, accepted, made, issued, initiated, or purported to have been done, accepted, made, issued, initiated in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act shall be invalid or deemed to be invalid merely by reason of any mistake, defect or omission therein, if such assessment, re-assessment, adjudication, review, revision, appeal, rectification, notice, summons or other proceedings are in substance and effect in conformity with or according to the intents, purposes and requirements of this Act or any existing law.
- (2) The service of any notice, order or communication shall not be called in question, if the notice, order or communication, as the case may be, has already been acted upon by the person to whom it is issued or where such service has not been called in question at or in the earlier proceedings commenced, continued or finalised pursuant to such notice, order or communication.

160.1 Introduction

Very often proceedings under the Act are questioned for their validity even when there are inadvertent errors. This Section saves the proceedings from such challenge when substantive conformity is found but for these errors.

160.2 Analysis

Assessment, re-assessment and other proceedings that are listed in this Section will be valid even though there may be:

- Mistake
- Defect or
- Omission

Provided they are in 'substance' and 'effect' in conformity with the intents, purposes and requirements of the Act.

Proceedings listed in this Section are:

- Assessment
- Re-assessment
- Adjudication
- Review
- Revision
- Appeal
- Rectification
- Notice
- Summons
- Other proceedings

Considering the purpose of this Section, no proceedings under the Act are excluded from the operation of this Section. It is interesting to see how such a determination will be made – whether deficiency in the proceedings was a mistake, defect or omission and that it is in substance and effect in conformity with the Act.

Further, where a notice, order or communication has been:

- Acted upon; or
- Not called into question at the earliest opportunity available, then the opportunity to call such notice, order or communication into question will not be available in the course of subsequent proceedings. Note that the deficiency that can be so called into question is limited to – notice, order or communication – and not the documents forming part of the other proceedings listed in sub-section (1). Hence, it is important to remember that care needs to be taken while making preliminary objections on jurisdiction and validity of communication.

It is very important NOT to ignore notices, communication and advisory(-ies) from the tax department. For the reason that section 160(2) places an embargo from raising objections if either those objections (as to the validity of service of notice) were taken up belatedly or replies were filed on merits leaving objections (as to the validity of service of notice) unattended.

'Service of notice' is not limited to:

- Service of notice
- Service of VALID notice
- Service of valid notice under VALID section
- Service of valid notice under valid section by VALID Proper Officer

Keeping in mind that section 169 provides different methods of 'service', it is important NOT to ignore notices, communication and advisory(ies) from the tax department.

Reference may be had to discussion under section 60 to 64 to understand the 'ingredients' for action under the GST law. Further, reference may also be had to notifications issued under section 3 to 6 of the CSGT Act which lays down the authority vested and delegated to each Proper Officer.

Also, note that in terms of section 75(12), which provides that 'undisputed arrears' do not require any further intimation in order to take recovery action under section 79 by issuing garnishee orders in Form DRC-13 to banker or customer or other person who holds monies belonging to taxpayer with undisputed arrears. Making a statement that arrears notified vide notice, communication or advisory are 'disputed' renders such arrears to be 'undisputed' and as to the merits of the dispute will now be subject to the process under respective provisions of CGST Act that will now need to be taken up.

Statutory provisions

161. Rectification of errors apparent on the face of record

Without prejudice to the provisions of section 160, and notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of this Act, any authority, who has passed or issued any decision or order or notice or certificate or any other document, may rectify any error which is apparent on the face of record in such decision or order or notice or certificate or any other document, either on its own motion or where such error is brought to its notice by any officer appointed under this Act or an officer appointed under the State Goods and Services Tax Act or an officer appointed under the Union Territory Goods and Services Tax Act or by the affected person within a period of three months from the date of issue of such decision or order or notice or certificate or any other document, as the case may be:

Provided that no such rectification shall be done after a period of six months from the date of issue of such decision or order or notice or certificate or any other document:

Provided further that the said period of six months shall not apply in such cases where the rectification is purely in the nature of correction of a clerical or arithmetical error, arising from any accidental slip or omission:

Provided also that where such rectification adversely affects any person, the principles of natural justice shall be followed by the authority carrying out such rectification.

161.1 Introduction

While the authority to issue any decision, order, summons, notice, certificate or other document is expected to be free from errors, it is the duty of the authority issuing the same to correct any errors that do not convey the outcome of the process of law resulting in its issuance. This Section provides for an opportunity to make such rectification with some caution and due process being prescribed.

161.2 Analysis

This section begins with caution in stating that:

- no prejudice will be caused to the validity of proceedings listed in Section 161 from the defects that may be present in the documents concerned;
- but overrides all other provisions of the Act that may permit calling into question any deficiency in the documents.

This Section provides for rectification of error or apparent mistake by the authority who has issued the document or on being brought to attention by CGST / SGST authority or the affected person. So, there are three ways in which action can be taken under this Section. No person is entitled to take advantage of such errors or mistakes.

The action permitted to be taken is to rectify an error or mistake apparent. Errors or mistakes apparent can cause difficulty in executing the directions contained in the document. This may require seeking the authority's intervention to rectify.

The power/jurisdiction to rectify is for any error or mistake which is apparent from record. The error must be self-evident and should not be discoverable by a long process of reasoning, where there is a possibility on points on which there may conceivably be two opinions. But the limiting aspect is that the power cannot be exercised to amend substantive part of the document concerned.

The error may be-

- (a) factual,
- (b) legal or
- (c) clerical.

All of them are rectifiable once it is shown that they are apparent on face of the record and not within the natural understanding of the authority at the time of issuance of the original document but which has crept in due to inadvertence or by reason other than exercise of judgement. Here, the assessee, on a literal interpretation, cannot bring any document or evidence, not already available on record, to substantiate his claim for rectification. However, it is important to note that 'apparent on face of record' is not one that involves (i) a conclusion that cannot be reached without taking new facts on record during rectification proceedings or (ii) requiring application of mind to existing facts or interpretation already adopted in reaching the conclusion already reached.

The time limit of 3 months is allowed for the affected person or by any officer appointed under this Act or SGST Officer or an UTGST officer to bring to attention any such error or mistake. This time limit does not apply to the very officer who has passed the said order (containing the apparent error) and voluntarily make the necessary rectification. The officer who has passed the decision/ order can make the rectification suo-moto till 6 months from the date of issue of such decision or order i.e., no such rectification is permitted after 6 months from the date of its issuance. This is to ensure that orders can be taken at the face value and proceeded with the further course of action in law. For example, 3 months is the time to file appeal under section 107(1) and 3 months is the time set in section 78 within which no recovery action is to be taken under section 79.

If any such rectification adversely affects any person, it is required that principles of natural justice be followed in these proceedings also. Once an application for rectification has been made, it must conclude in an order. This original order will be substituted by the rectified order. One may note that if the application for rectification is rejected, then the original order stands. Any time limit for preferring an appeal will be counted from the date of the original or rectified order, as the case may be. Time lost in process of rectification can impair the remedy of appeal. Rejection of application for rectification is also an appealable order but this itself does not vacate the original order. But once the rectification is ordered and a rectification order is passed, then the rectified order will replace the original order. All further appeals on matters arising from the rectified order will be counted from the date of such rectified order.

Rectification of 'apparent' errors on face of record	Decision, Order, Notice, Certification or other document		Clerical or arithmetic error
	3 months (to request rectification)	6 months (to attend to and complete rectification)	No time limit

161.3 Comparative review

Starting from Civil Procedure, all laws have provisions to rectify errors apparent on the face of the records including tax laws such as Income Tax Act, Central Excise, Customs, Service Tax and different Sales tax etc.

161.6 FAQs

Q1. What errors may be rectified under the provision?

Ans. Only those errors, which are apparent on the face of the record, may be rectified under the provision.

Q2. What is an error apparent on the face of the record?

Ans. An error is apparent on the face of the record if it is evident from the record itself and does not require long drawn out reasoning.

Q3. What are the types of errors, which can be rectified?

Ans. Any error, which is apparent on the face of the record, may be rectified. Such error can be a) factual, b) legal or c) clerical.

Q4. Is there a time limit to apply for rectification?

Ans. The time limit is 3 months to make the application for rectification and such officer is permitted to consider the application, and if satisfied, proceed to make the rectification not later than 6 months. And in case of clerical or arithmetic mistakes, the 6 months outer limit is not applicable. Such clerical error must be due to accidental slip or omission.

Q5. Who can seek rectification?

Ans. The authority itself, an officer or the affected person can seek rectification.

Q6. If a proceeding is pending before a higher forum, can rectification be sought for?

Ans. As the provision is applicable notwithstanding other provisions, pendency of proceeding before higher forums is not a bar to seek rectification.

Q7. If there is a material found out which has bearing on the decision whether rectification can be sought?

Ans. No. For that purpose, the error must be apparent on the face of the record. Therefore, outside material cannot be produced to rectify the decision.

Q8. What is the scope of rectification? Can any part of the order be rectified?

Ans. The provision expressly states that it cannot amend the substantive part of the decision etc.

Q9. Whether the assessee is to be given notice?

Ans. If there is an adverse effect then principles of natural justice have to be complied with.

Statutory provisions*162. Bar on jurisdiction of civil courts

Save as provided in sections 117 and 118, no civil court shall have jurisdiction to deal with or decide any question arising from or relating to anything done or purported to be done under this Act.

162.1 Introduction

With the advent of administrative law whereby the departmental machinery has been created to deal with disputes, civil court jurisdiction is restricted. Earlier whenever a new tax liability was created, machinery provisions to deal with disputes were also in-built. Otherwise, civil court had a jurisdiction to deal with all disputes of civil nature. Under Sections 116 and 117, appeal to High Court and Special leave to the Supreme Court are provided. These are the only instances when this bar to approach Court is not applicable, as it is a statutory appeal and only questions of law could be raised.

162.2 Analysis

The basic principle is that every dispute of civil nature can be tried by the civil court. Tax being a civil liability, its levy, imposition and collection can be challenged before the Civil Court.

Over a period of time, tribunals were created for trying disputes arising under each legislation without the rigours of Civil Procedure Code to be followed, where non-judicial members preside and persons representing are well versed in the specific domain though not always from the judiciary. In order to avoid duplication, civil court jurisdiction has been barred. The principle is that if a statute creates a new liability or obligation and provides for machinery, then this impliedly bars civil court's jurisdiction. Under GST law, it is expressly barred. This however, does not bar the writ jurisdiction and appellate jurisdiction of High Courts and Supreme Court.

The clause "any question arising from or relating to anything done or purported to be done under the Act;" makes a strict rule barring even those which are purportedly done under the Act. Except to sit in judgement about the vires of the law itself, the appellate machinery created by the law can go into any question of fact or law. However, the clause does not bar the Constitutional powers of High Court under Article 226 & 227 or Supreme Court under Article 32 & 136 etc.

Section 116 relates to appeal on substantial question of law to High Court and Section 117 a leave to appeal therefrom to Supreme Court.

162.3 Comparative Review

All erstwhile indirect tax laws bar exercise of jurisdiction by Civil Courts as the tax laws provide for an alternative and effective mechanism to deal with tax disputes.

162.4 Relevant rules

Though the civil courts do not have jurisdiction to deal with any question relating to this Act, as per Rule 146 for the purpose of recovery of tax from a defaulter the civil court will have to pass a decree on request by a proper officer.

162.5 FAQs

Q1. Why can a civil suit not be filed against an order passed under the Act?

Ans. Remedies of different nature are provided under the Act. Further, there are constitutional remedies also. Therefore, the Act bars filing of civil suits against any order passed under the Act.

Statutory provisions

163. Levy of Fee

Wherever a copy of any order or document is to be provided to any person on an application made by him for that purpose, there shall be paid such fee as may be prescribed.

163.1 Introduction

This provision empowers the Central Government to collect fees for supplying copies of the orders / documents.

163.2 Analysis

Document or order must be served on the party concerned. But to receive an authentic copy of such document or order, a fee is being prescribed. It is important to note that a new procedure of securing an authenticated copy of the document or order is provided for. This is similar to the procedure prescribed under CPC for receiving documents.

163.3 Comparative review

- (i) Under the extant legislations (Central Excise / Service Tax / VAT Laws), there is no exclusive provision to give copies of any document or order against payment of fees.
- (ii) This provision will lead to issuance of a separate notification, indicating the fees to be paid for obtaining the copies of the various orders / documents.
- (iii) This could indirectly convey the intention of the Government to give copies of any document / order against the fees.
- (iv) If an order served to the registered person is lost, the same may be obtained by paying a prescribed fee
- (v) The Right to Information law also deals with provision of information/ documents for a prescribed fee.

163.4 FAQs

Q1. Should a person pay fees for obtaining copy of Show Cause Notice?

Ans. 'Document' is not defined. It can include Show Cause Notices also.

Q2. How much fees is to be paid?

Ans. It shall be prescribed by a separate notification.

Q3. Should a person pay fees to obtain the application?

Ans. The person may have to pay fees, if prescribed by the notification.

Q4. Will this provision cover the fees for submission of appeals?

Ans. No. This provision deals only with obtaining copies of pre-existing orders / documents and not filing appeal related documents. For appeals fees, the relevant Sections must be referred to.

Q5. Can a person obtain a copy of an internal document of the department?

Ans. The intention of the provision is to obtain the copy of any order / document, to which a person is normally entitled to. He cannot access the internal communication through this provision. However, such information/document can be obtained under RTI law.

163.5 MCQs

Q1. A person need not pay fees for:

- (a) Primary copy of the Appellate Order
- (b) Copy of the Show Cause Notice (lost by the assessee)
- (c) Copy of the Adjudication Order
- (d) All of the above

Ans. (a) Primary copy of the Appellate Order

Q2. Fees must be paid

- (a) Before obtaining the Copy of Order
- (b) After obtaining the Copy of Order

Ans. (a) Before obtaining the Copy of Order

Statutory provisions

164. Power of Government to make rules

- (1) The Government may, on the recommendations of the Council, by notification, make rules for carrying out the provisions of this Act.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1), the Government may make rules for all or any of the matters which by this Act are required to be, or may be, prescribed or in respect of which provisions are to be or may be made by rules.

- (3) The power to make rules conferred by this section shall include the power to give retrospective effect to the rules or any of them from a date not earlier than the date on which the provisions of this Act come into force.
- (4) Any rules made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) may provide that a contravention thereof shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten thousand rupees.

164.1 Introduction

This is delegation of legislation to the administrative authority, which has become a regular practice and a standard feature of modern legislation. This has to be read with Section 165 regarding regulations. While under this Section the Government is given the power to make rules, under Section 165 power to make regulations is given to the Board and Commissioner of SGST. There is a general power under sub-section (1) and specific power under sub-section (2) which is also a standard structure.

164.2 Analysis

The reason for the delegation of legislation is that the Legislature cannot take care of all aspects of creating law, due to the enormous responsibility and also, that it is better to leave it to the bureaucracy / Officials to fill in the gaps, after laying down general principles.

Two important principles are:

- a) The essential legislative function i.e., laying down the policy, has to be carried out by the legislature and only lesser aspects can be left to the administration.
- b) The legislative policy behind the areas where it is delegated must be known from the legislation itself, so that the administrative authority remains within bounds while making the rules.

It is part of the separation of powers that legislative power is exercised by the legislature and executive only administers it. Delegation requires superintendence of the legislature. Although express supervisory provisions are not contained in this Section, the boundaries of delegation must be identified by the limits set from the words used to describe the topics on which rules (or regulations) are to be notified.

The general rule making power is granted to the Central and State Governments. The rule making power is subject to a procedural limitation that it can be made only when there is a recommendation by the Council. Such rule making power also includes power to issue notifications with retrospective effect under the rules.

General powers to carry into effect the purposes of this Act are provided by vesting the appropriate Government with the rule making power to fill in the gaps with expression "as may be prescribed". This does not limit the general rule making power to carry out the purposes of the Act.

Legislature has an inherent power to make retrospective laws but the delegated authority can make retrospective rules but not earlier than the date of commencement of this Chapter XXI.

Finally, in order to ensure the rules are enforceable, breach of the rules are recognized as a cause for imposing penalty not exceeding Rs. 10,000/-. It is interesting that a particular breach while being a breach of the specific rule attracting penalty may also be the breach of the substantive provision of law attracting penalty under Sections 73/74 of the Act.

164.3 Comparative review

Rulemaking power is an important adjunct of modern Administrative legislation. It features in Income Tax Act, Central Excise, Customs, Service Tax and Different Sales tax and other laws as well.

164.4 Related provisions

Statute	Section / Rule / Form	Description
Central Excise Act, 1984	Section 37: Power of Central Government to make rules.	(1) The Central Government may make rules to carry into effect the purposes of this Act. (2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for specific matters.

Ans. (c) Yes, subject to the limitation that it cannot be made beyond the date on which on provisions of this Act came into force

Statutory provisions*165. Power to make regulations

The Board may, by notification, make regulations consistent with this Act and the rules made thereunder to carry out the provisions of this Act.

165.1 Introduction

While topics for rule making are listed under Section 164 leaving the domain to the appropriate Government, topics for making regulation listed under Section 165 are reserved for the Board. These are mutually exclusive domains.

165.2 Analysis

The Board is empowered to notify regulations consistent with the objects of the Act. No recommendation of the GST Council is called for in this case.

Specific topics to issue regulations are also provided for though not listed for the time being.

Every rule made by the Government, every regulation made by the Board and every notification issued by the Government under this Act, shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made or issued, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or regulation or in the notification, as the case may be, or both Houses agree that the rule or regulation or the notification should not be made, the rule or regulation or notification, as the case may be, shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or regulation or notification, as the case may be.

166.1 Introduction

This Section lays down the general procedure of laying delegated legislations before the Parliament for a prescribed duration.

166.2 Analysis

- (a) The Act permits making of rules by Government, issuance of regulation by Board and issuance of notification by the Government.

- (b) Such rule, regulation and notification, which is a part of delegated legislation is placed before the Parliament.
- (c) It is laid before the Parliament, as soon as may be after it is made or issued, when the Parliament is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may comprise of one session or two or more successive sessions.
- (d) Before the expiry of the session or successive sessions both Houses may make suitable modifications, and they would have effect in such modified form.
- (e) However, any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or regulation or notification, as the case may be.

167. Delegation of Powers

The Commissioner may, by notification, direct that subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the notification, any power exercisable by any authority or officer under this Act may be exercisable also by another authority or officer as may be specified in such notification.

167.1 Introduction

This section enables the Competent Authority to delegate the power exercisable by one authority to another.

167.2 Analysis

The power conferred on one officer or authority under the Act can be exercised by another authority or officer if directed by the Competent Authority. This direction of the Competent Authority must be notified in the Gazette. Such power can be limited by conditions specified in the notification. Significantly, there is no condition, criterion or circumstance stated for exercising this power by the Competent Authority. It is important to note that upon notification of such direction by the Competent Authority, it does exclude the first authority or officer who was originally delegated to exercise such power.

This is an administrative power to ensure swift response to situations where an authority or officer better placed to carry out the duties (by exercising the power) has not been originally conferred with the power by delegation. In such cases, instead of awaiting the revision in delegation, the delegation is permitted to be redirected at the discretion of the Competent Authority for purposes of the Act.

168. Power to issue instructions or directions

- (1) The Board may, if it considers it necessary or expedient so to do for the purpose of uniformity in the implementation of this Act, issue such orders, instructions or directions to the central tax officers as it may deem fit, and thereupon all such officers and all other persons employed in the implementation of this Act shall observe and follow such orders, instructions or directions.
- (2) The Commissioner specified in clause (91) of section 2, sub-section (3) of section 5, clause (b) of sub-section (9) of section 25, sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 35, sub-section (1) of section 37, sub-section (2) of section 38, sub-section (6) of section 39, <sup>5</sup>~~sub-section (1)~~<sup>6</sup> of section 44, sub-sections (4) and (5) of section 52, ~~sub-section (5) of section 66~~ <sup>7</sup>[sub-section (1) of section 143, except the second proviso thereof], sub-section (1) of section 143, ~~sub-section (1) of section 151~~<sup>8</sup>, clause (l) of sub-section (3) of section 158 and section 167 shall mean a Commissioner or Joint Secretary posted in the Board and such Commissioner or Joint Secretary shall exercise the powers specified in the said sections with the approval of the Board.

168.1 Introduction

This Section empowers the Competent Authority to issue orders, instruction or directions to the lower authorities to bring uniformity in the implementation of the Act.

168.2 Analysis

There are three aspects to the provision, namely:

- authority issuing the instruction;
- persons whom it binds, and
- its efficacy.

It is the Competent Authority who is empowered to issue the orders, instruction or directions. The purpose is to bring in uniformity in the implementation of the Act; and it is binding on all GST officers.

Thus, any circular which is general or administrative in nature is binding on the assessing officer and other officers at basic level. Once the circular is cited they cannot ignore it and decide the matter independently. The circular or instruction is not binding on the assessee. However, contrary views regarding binding force of a circular which is against the legal provisions on the assessee or the Authorities are not expressly addressed in this Section. However, officers are not liable for passing orders contrary to law involving interpretation by higher judiciary if it can be shown that such orders are in conformity with orders, instruction or directions issued under this Section.

Sub-section (2) of section 168 designates the Commissioner or Joint Secretary posted in the Board for exercising certain powers conferred under specific provisions. Such powers would be exercised with the approval of the Board.

Statutory provisions*168A. Power of Government to extend time limit in special circumstances

- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Government may, on the recommendations of the Council, by notification, extend the time limit specified in, or prescribed or notified under, this Act in respect of actions which cannot be completed or complied with due to force majeure.
- (2) The power to issue notification under sub-section (1) shall include the power to give retrospective effect to such notification from a date not earlier than the date of commencement of this Act

Explanation.- For the purposes of this section, the expression "force majeure" means a case of war, epidemic, flood, drought, fire, cyclone, earthquake or any other calamity caused by nature or otherwise affecting the implementation of any of the provisions of this Act.

168A.1 Introduction

This Section was inserted to empower vide Taxation and Other Laws (Relaxation of Certain Provisions) Ordinance, 2020 to empower the Government to extend the time limit, in respect of actions which could not be completed due to force majeure, namely, war, epidemic, flood, drought, etc. or any other calamity caused by nature affecting the implementations of provisions of CGST Act, 2017.

168A.2 Analysis

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, Taxation and Other Laws (Relaxation of Certain Provisions) Ordinance, 2020 was issued on 31st March, 2020 by the President of India.

The Ordinance aims to provide relaxation in the provisions of certain Acts and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto, including extension of time limit, in the taxation and other laws; in view of the spread of pandemic COVID-19.

Thus, Chapter VII to The Taxation And Other Laws (Relaxation of Certain Provisions) Ordinance, 2020 provides for insertion of section 168A to the CGST Act, 2017 providing for the power to the Government to extend the time limit in special circumstances in respect of actions which cannot be completed or complied with due to force majeure including retrospective notifications.

So far, Notification No. 35/2020 dated 03rd April, 2020, Notification No. 40/2020 dated 05th May, 2020 and Notification No. 46/2020 dated 09th June, 2020 have been issued in exercise of the powers conferred by section 168A of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017.

- (3) When such decision, order, summons, notice or any communication is sent by registered post or speed post, it shall be deemed to have been received by the addressee at the expiry of the period normally taken by such post in transit unless the contrary is proved.

169.1 Introduction

Service of communication is an essential step of any process of law. This Section details the mode of service that is considered valid.

169.2 Analysis

- (i) Communication: Any decision, order, summons, notice or other communication under the Act or the rules. It is important to note that 'service of notice' means that it should reach the intended Notice receiver and this objective guides the 'mode' to be selected and the 'mode' must be that which ensures that the Notice reaches the intended Notice receiver promptly.
- (ii) Modes of Communication: The above documents can be served on the assessee in the following modes:
  - (a) Mode 1 – Physical Delivery:
    - Giving or tendering it directly; or
    - Delivery through a messenger including a courier;
    - The documents can be delivered to:
      - (i) The addressee / the taxpayer / to his manager;
      - (ii) The agent duly authorized / an advocate / a tax practitioner (who holds authority to appear in the proceeding on behalf of the taxpayer);
      - (iii) A person regularly employed by him in connection with the business;
      - (iv) Any adult member of family residing with the taxpayer.
  - (b) Mode 2 – Regd. Post /speed post or Courier with acknowledgement due:

It should be sent to the intended person or his authorised representative at his last known place of business or residence.
  - (c) Mode 3 – Electronic Means:

Email or notifying on common portal (GSTN).
  - (d) Mode 4 – Media: Publication in a newspaper (in the locality in which the taxpayer or the person to whom it is issued is known to have resided, carried on business or personally worked for gain)
  - (e) Mode 5 – Other Modes: If above modes fail, then it can be served by
    - Affixing it in some conspicuous place at his last known place of business or residence or
    - If above mode is not practicable, service of notice can be by affixing a copy on the notice board of the officer or authority issuing such communication.

(iii) Date of service

- Normal Cases: The above communications shall be treated as served on the date on which it is tendered or published or a copy thereof is affixed (as mentioned above)
- Registered or Speed Post: If such communications are sent by registered/ speed post, it shall be treated as received by the addressee at the expiry of the normal period taken by such post in transit (unless the contrary is proved).

169.3 Comparative review

The following are the major improvements / inclusions made in the GST Law as against the erstwhile provisions available in Central Excise / Service Tax:

Points of Distinction	Remarks
New Modes of Service included	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>— Delivery through a messenger including a courier;</li> <li>— Courier (no specific mention about whether it is approved by CBEC);</li> <li>— Electronic Means (E-mail/common portal);</li> <li>— Publication in Newspaper.</li> </ul>
Additional Addressees (if main addressee is not available)	Delivery through messenger or by courier to following persons are accepted: A person regularly employed by him in connection with the business Any adult member of family residing with the taxpayer
Deemed Delivery under registered post	A specific clause is added under the GST Law which indicates that if communication is sent by registered/speed post, it shall be treated as received by the addressee at the expiry of the normal period taken by such post in transit.
Type of communication	The proposed Section covers any communication issued under the law. In the extant Central Excise Law, Section 37C covers decision / order / summons / notice. Any communication might include intimation letters sent under the law, trade letters issued, acknowledgments issued etc.

170. Rounding off of tax, etc.

The amount of tax, interest, penalty, fine or any other sum payable, and the amount of refund or any other sum due, under the provisions of this Act shall be rounded off to the nearest rupee and, for this purpose, where such amount contains a part of a rupee consisting of paise, then, if such part is fifty paise or more, it shall be increased to one rupee and if such part is less than fifty paise it shall be ignored.

170.1 Introduction

This provision enables the tax payers and also the departmental authorities to round off the amounts calculated as per the law, if the amounts are in fraction of a rupee.

170.2 Analysis

- (i) Amounts covered: Tax, interest, penalty, fine or any other sum payable, and refund or any other sum due, under the Act.
- (ii) The above amounts shall be rounded off as under:

If amount contains a part of the rupee	Effect
≥ 50 paise	Must be increased to one rupee
< 50 paise	Part to be ignored

- (iii) The rounding off need not be done for every part of the tax contained in the invoice; only the consolidated payment due to the Government has to be rounded off.
- (iv) The above provision is applicable to the assessee, to the department (while issuing show cause notice or passing the order, etc.) and also to the Appellate Authorities.

170.3 Comparative review

Similar enabling provisions are available in Central Excise Act (Sec.37D), Service Tax Provisions (Sec.83 of the Finance Act 1994) and also in State VAT Provisions.

170.4 Related provisions

This provision shall apply to any amount calculated under the other provisions of the Act.

170.5 FAQs

Q1. If the Show Cause Notice mentions the tax as Rs.102.30 and penalty as Rs.102.30, then what is the amount payable?

Ans. As per Sec.170, if the paise is less than 50 then that part has to be ignored. Total amount payable is Rs.102 + Rs.102 = Rs.204.

Q2. Does the rounding off of provision apply to Pre-deposit?

Ans. Yes, any amount payable under the act is subject to rounding off provisions. Hence, even Pre-Deposit is rounded off as per the above Section.

Q3. If the assessee has raised multiple invoices, then the rounding off is to be made in the consolidated amount of tax or in the tax amount mentioned in each invoice?

Ans. Rounding off must be made for the tax payable under the Act. It applies to each invoice as tax is payable on each invoice. Further, the rounding off must be made in each part of tax (CGST and SGST separately).

170.6 MCQs

Q1. If the amount of tax is Rs.2,15,235.50, then the amount shall be rounded off to:

- (a) 2,15,236

- (b) “Committee” means the Standing Committee on Anti-profiteering constituted by the Council in terms of sub-rule (1) of rule 123 of these rules;

- (d) “Screening Committee” means the State level Screening Committee constituted in terms of sub-rule (2) of rule 123 of these rules.

171.1 Introduction

The objective of this section is to ensure that with the introduction of GST, taxable persons do not make excessive profits, but pass on the reduction in price to the consumers.

171.2 Analysis

The registered person is expected to reduce the price on account of availment of input tax credit or reduction in tax rates. An authority would be notified for this purpose, who would exercise powers and discharge functions in a prescribed manner.

Anti-Profiteering Rules (Rule 122 to Rule 137) as per Chapter-XV of CGST Rules, 2017 as notified by Central Government vide Notification No. 10/2017-Central tax dated 28-Jun-17 w.e.f. 1-Jul-17 provides for Powers and Duties of Anti-Profiteering Authority and Compliances of Orders Passed by the authority.

On 16th November, 2017, the Union Cabinet has approved the establishment of the National Anti-Profiteering Authority. This is in the backdrop of reduction in GST rates for various goods and services effective from 15th November, 2017 after the 23rd GST Council Meeting on 6th November, 2017.

The newly established mechanism empowers the affected consumers to apply for relief to the Screening Committee in their State citing that the reduction in rates or increase of input tax credit has not resulted in a commensurate reduction in prices. Upon examination by the State Level Screening Committee, the Screening Committee will forward the application along with its recommendations to the Standing Committee. In case, the incident of profiteering relates to an item of mass impact with 'All India Ramification', the application can directly be made to the Standing Committee. After forming a prima facie view that there is an element of profiteering, the Standing Committee will refer the matter for detailed investigation to the Directorate General of Anti-Profiteering, CBEC which will report the finding to the National Anti-Profiteering Authority. If the authority confirms the necessity to apply the anti-profiteering measure, it can order the business to reduce its prices or return the undue benefit along with interest to the recipient of goods and/or services. If the benefit cannot be passed on to the recipient, it can be ordered to be deposited with the Consumer Welfare Fund. In certain extreme cases, a penalty on the defaulting business entity and even an order for cancellation of GST registration may be issued. Its constitution aims to bolster the confidence of consumers to get the benefit of reduction in GST rates.

Department of Consumer Affairs allows change in MRP on unsold stock prior to implementation of GST till 30th September 2017

On account of implementation of GST w.e.f. 1st July, 2017, there may be instances where the retail sale price of a pre-packaged commodity is required to be changed. In this context, Ministry for Consumer Affairs, Food & Public Distribution has vide Circular No. WM-10(31)/2017 dt. 4th July 2017 allowed the manufacturers or packers or importers of pre-packaged commodities to declare the change in retail sale price (MRP) on the unsold stock manufactured/ packed/ imported prior to 1st July, 2017 after inclusion of the increased amount of tax due to GST if any, in addition to the existing retail sale price (MRP), for three months w.e.f. 1st July 2017 to 30th September, 2017. Declaration of the changed retail sale price (MRP) shall be made by way of stamping or putting sticker or online printing, as the case may be.

It is also clarified that 'for reducing the Maximum Retail Price (MRP), a sticker with the revised lower MRP (inclusive of all taxes) may be affixed and the same shall not cover the MRP declaration made by the manufacturer or the packer, as the case may be, on the label of the package'.

Use of unexhausted packaging material/wrapper has also been allowed up to 30th September, 2017 after making the necessary corrections.

The phrase "the increased amount of tax due to GST, if any" means "the effective increase in the tax liability calculated after taking into consideration extra availability of input tax credit under GST (including deemed credit available to the traders under CGST)"

Thus, the declaration of new MRP on unsold stock manufactured/packed/ imported prior to 1st July 2017 should not be done mechanically but after factoring in and taking into consideration extra availability of input tax credit under GST (including deemed credit available to traders under proviso to sub-section (3) of section 140 of the CGST Act,2017).

171.3 Decisions of National Anti-Profiteering Authority:

An application was filed before the National Anti-profiteering Authority alleging that the reduced rate of tax under GST regime was not passed on to the applicant. The application was preferred on the grounds that rate of tax applicable to motor vehicle in pre-GST regime was 51% which was reduced to 29% in GST regime and such reduced tax rate benefit was not passed on to the applicant. The Authority perusing the details of value and tax charged made an observation that applicable rate of tax in pre-GST regime was 31.254% and not 51% as claimed by the applicant. Accordingly, it was observed that the applicant was only entitled for the tax rate benefit of 2% only which was rightly passed on to the applicant by way of reduction in sale price. As such, it is held that no additional benefit on account of ITC is required to be paid by the respondent and therefore, the application was dismissed as not valid. On these lines, the Authority held that the respondent had not contravened the provisions of Section 171. [Sh. Dinesh Mohan Bhardwaj vs. M/s Vrandavaneshwree Automotive Private Limited reported in 2018-VIL-01-NAA]

An application was filed before the National Anti-Profiteering Authority on the grounds that the benefit of reduced rate of tax was not passed on to the consumers of 'India Gate Basmati Rice' since, there was an increase in MRP on the advent of GST which may have led to increase in the margin of the Respondent. The application was examined by the Standing Committee on Anti-Profiteering and was forwarded to the Director General Safeguards (DGSG) for detailed investigations. Upon perusal of the detailed report of the DGSG and the returns filed by the Respondent, it was observed that the GST rate of tax applicable to such product is 5% which was at 0% in pre-GST regime. The input tax credit was available to the Respondent in the range of 2.69% to 3% as a percentage of value of taxable supplies and post-implementation of GST the purchase price of paddy is also increased. Upon such observations, the Authority dismissed the application on the grounds that the increase in MRP of the product is attributable to the increase in rate of tax and increase in purchase price of paddy and was not on account of non-passing of the GST benefit to the consumers. [Kumar Gandharv vs. KRBL Ltd., reported in 2018 (5) TMI 760 – National Anti-Profiteering Authority]

Another important concern that is raised is whether this section applies only in respect of 'transition provisions' or will it continue to be applied to transactions initiated in GST regime. While section 171(1) does not appear to limit the scope of anti-profiteering to transition pricing, the effect of rule 137 appears to be limiting. Although the anti-profiteering authority is intended to operate in respect of transition pricing, experts believe, that although not this authority, power to inquire into profiteering by registered persons is not out-of-bounds by the Proper Officer himself. Care must be taken to address questions about profiteering especially when there is a rate reduction. Reference may be had to decision of Hon'ble SC in CCE, Pune v. Dai Ichi Karkaria 1999 (112) ELT 353 wherein it was held that cost of production and assessable value (in the context of Central Excise law) have no immediate correlation but, availment of credit or discontinuation of credit has an immediate effect on the cost of production. This principle does not become inapplicable even though GST does not consider 'assessable value'; instead it considers 'transaction value'.

171.4 Comparative Review

There is no such provision in the erstwhile tax laws. Similar provisions are there in other countries.

171.5 FAQs

Q1. Who will constitute the authority for anti-profiteering measure?

Ans. The Central Government on recommendation of the GST Council would notify.

Q2. What is the responsibility of the authority?

Ans. To examine whether :-

- a. Input tax credit availed by a taxable person has resulted in commensurate reduction in price of goods/ services;
- b. The reduction in price on account of reduction in tax rate has actually resulted in a commensurate reduction in price of goods/services.

Statutory provisions

172. Removal of difficulties

(1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any provisions of this Act, the Government may, on the recommendations of the Council, by a general or a special order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or the rules or regulations made thereunder, as may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the said difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of a period of ~~three years~~<sup>49</sup>[five years] from the date of commencement of this Act.

(2) Every order made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be, after it is made, before each House of Parliament.

172.1 Introduction

The responsibility to implement the legislations will be of the appropriate Government. In doing this, the Act empowers the appropriate Government with the necessary power to remove any difficulty that may arise.

<sup>49</sup> Substituted vide The Central Goods and Services Tax (Amendment) Act, 2020 w.e.f. 30th June, 2020

172.2 Analysis

- (i) If the Government identifies that there is a difficulty in implementation of any provision of the GST legislations, it has powers to issue a general or special order to carry out anything to remove such difficulty.
- (ii) Such activity of the Government must be consistent with the provisions of the Act and should be necessary or expedient.
- (iii) Maximum Time limit for passing such order shall be 3 years from the date of effect of the CGST Act.
- (iv) Finance Act, 2020 has extended the time limit prescribed in section 172 by 'two years', that is, up to 30th Jun 2022. It is this extension that has created hope that Government can issue an Order to address as a one-time measure to regularize bona fide lapses and save from the burden of forfeiture of credit and interest due to omission or erroneous claim of input tax credit, matching of credit, interest on belated filing of returns and restoration of cancelled registrations.

172.3 Comparative review

The above provisions are present in all tax legislations, to ensure that any practical difficulties in implementation can be addressed.

172.4 Related provisions

This is an independent Section and would be applicable to implementation of all provisions of the GST Law.

172.5 Relevant orders

The Central Government has issued Order no. 01/2017-Central Tax under the Central Goods and Services Tax (Removal of Difficulties) Order, 2017 dated 13th October, 2017. Through this order it has been clarified that if a person supplies goods and / or services referred to in clause (b) of paragraph 6 of Schedule II (restaurants, outdoor caterers etc.) and also supplies any exempt services including services by way of extending deposits, loans or advances in so far as the consideration is represented by way of interest or discount, the said person shall not be ineligible for the composition scheme subject to the fulfilment of all other conditions. It is further clarified that in computing his aggregate turnover in order to determine his eligibility for composition scheme, value of supply of any exempt services including services by way of extending deposits, loans or advances in-so- far as the consideration is represented by way of interest or discount, shall not be taken into account.

172.6 FAQs

Q1. Will the powers include the power to notify the effective date for implementation of provisions?

Ans. Yes. All powers regarding implementation of any provision of the GST law are covered.

Q2. Will the powers include bringing changes in any provision of law?

Ans. No. The Government has power only to decide on the practical implementation of law. But it cannot amend the legislation through this Section.

Q3. What is the maximum time limit for exercising the powers under Section 172?

Ans. The maximum time limit is 5 years from the date of effect of CGST Act.

Q4. Do the reasons need to be mentioned in the order?

Ans. The order is issued only when there is a necessity or expediency for it. Specific reasons may not be mentioned in the order.

172.7 MCQs

1. Who can issue the Order?

- (a) Central Government
- (b) State Government
- (c) Either
- (d) None

Ans. (a) Central Government

2. Whether Prior approval of the Parliament is necessary?

- (a) Yes
- (b) No

Ans. (b) No

3. What is the maximum period for exercising this power?

- (a) 4 years
- (b) 3 years
- (c) 2 years
- (d) 5 years

Ans. (d) 5 years

174.1 Introduction

These provisions indicate the extent of erstwhile indirect tax laws, which would continue upon introduction of CGST Act. It also provides for exceptions as to continuation of certain provisions of the erstwhile laws for the sake of smooth transition. Further, certain Acts would be repealed upon introduction of CGST Act.

174.2 Analysis

- (a) These provisions have to be read along with the Transition provisions in chapter XX.
- (b) It came into force on the date of enactment of the CGST Act i.e., 01-07-2017.
- (c) Whenever an enactment is repealed or substituted by a new enactment, the new enactment should provide for a clause relating to repeal or saving of certain provisions under the old law.
- (d) This would ensure that the rights, powers, liabilities, duties, privileges, obligations etc. created under the old laws are intact and are not affected by the enactment of new law by repealing the old laws.
- (e) Entry 84 of the Union List and Entry 54 of the State List, both forming part of the VII Schedule to the Constitution as amended by the Constitutional (101st Amendment) Act 2016 would continue to apply to certain goods.
- (f) For the said purpose, the General Sales Tax/VAT / CST laws and Central Excise Act, 1944 and Central Excise Tariff Act, 1985 would continue to apply – E.g., Certain petroleum products, tobacco products.
- (g) Thus, these laws would operate even after the GST is introduced to the extent they continue to operate in respect of goods that still remain under the earlier laws, as amended by the Taxation Laws Amendment Act, 2017.
- (h) Subject to the above comments the following laws would be repealed, as the taxes are subsumed by GST law:
  - State laws (refer section 173 of State GST Act):
    - (i) Entry Tax laws;
    - (ii) Entertainment Tax laws;
    - (iii) Luxury Tax laws;

- (iv) Value added Tax laws;
  - (v) Laws on Advertisement;
  - (vi) Laws on lottery, Betting and Gambling;
  - (vii) CST Act.
- Central laws:
- (i) Duty of Excise on Medicinal and Toilet Preparation Act;
  - (ii) Chapter V of the Finance Act, 1994 (Service Tax law);
  - (iii) Central Excise Act, 1944; (except in respect of goods included in entry 84 of the seventh schedule to the constitution)
  - (iv) Additional duties of Excise (Goods of Special Importance Act, 1957);
  - (v) Additional duties of Excise (Textile and textile products Act, 1978);
  - (vi) Additional Custom Duty (CVD);
  - (vii) Special Additional Duty of Customs (SAD).
  - (viii) Medical & toilet preparations (excise duties) Act, 1955
  - (ix) Central excise tariff Act, 1985
- (i) Note that 'repeal' is not the same as 'omission': Section 6 of General Clauses Act, 1897 which is the substantive law on interpretation in such cases. Note as per article 367, even Constitutional Amendment Acts are to be interpreted as per General Clauses Act. Now, this section 6, 'saves' all rights, privileges as well as liabilities, punishments and ongoing investigations. There has been much debate on whether earlier laws have been suddenly obliterated from the statute book or do they survive. High Courts have issued interim injunction in respect of new audits proposed to be undertaken in respect of service tax after the introduction of GST. The jurisprudence applicable here is that 'new investigations' cannot be initiated after repeal of the earlier law. But, investigations already initiated are saved by the repeal. Consider an example: goods in respect of which Cenvat Credit was availed (and utilized or any unutilized balance transitioned) is destroyed by fire after July 2017. In this case, although Cenvat Credit Rules stand repealed, the conditions attached to claim of Cenvat Credit must be satisfied until said goods are used as if there was no such repeal. To the extent credit that was availed which is now defeated (due to fire), that credit is liable to be demanded under the earlier laws and not under section 17(5)(h). Reversing GST (CGST and SGST portions) is not appropriate as credit availed is Cenvat and not GST. And section 17(5)(h) cannot be applicable in respect of any tax other than GST. Reference may be had to section 142(2) which lends the machinery provisions of GST law to be used to recover taxes payable under earlier laws. Hence, it is important to carefully understand the meaning and effect of 'saving' of earlier laws by operation of section 6 of General Clauses Act which can be pressed into service even though there is no express clause in GST law similar to article 367. The expression 'repeal' takes within itself 'saving' but not if the expression is 'omitted' against any provision or law.

- (j) Similarly, proceedings already initiated under State laws can be continued to the extent 'saved' by the repeal of earlier State laws. It is this authority that permits States from conducting re-assessments which is not a new proceeding but continuation of the assessment already concluded. All assessments are continuation of earlier proceedings. But, prosecution proceedings, proposed but kept in abeyance until final disposal, arising from assessment or re-assessment will be new proceedings and not continuation of earlier proceedings. Care must be taken to identify 'old' or 'new' proceedings under earlier laws that may be initiated in the GST regime. Where new proceedings are not challenged but acquiesced in by the assessee, Courts have not been liberal but allowed revenue to take advantage where assessee (due to lack of understanding of this concept) failed to challenge validity of new proceedings right at the time of its institution but submitted objections of merits. However, experts believe that acquiescence by assessee cannot legitimize new proceedings initiated subsequently which are not saved by repeal of earlier laws.
- (k) Now, while rights, privileges as well as liabilities, punishments and ongoing investigations, have been 'saved' that is not to say that there is unfettered authority for revenue to continue administering earlier laws 'as if' there was no repeal at all. The repeal is with restricted application that the earlier laws would not:
- Revive anything not in force or existing at the time at which the amendment or repeal takes effect. To illustrate, if a person has not taken credit in the earlier regime due to restrictions on time limit, he does not get a chance to claim it after such time limit is removed due to repeal of ST law.
  - Affect the previous operation of the amended/repealed Acts or anything duly done or suffered there under. To illustrate, if a person has duly filed returns under the old regime, proceedings to deny ineligible credits or unpaid output taxes can be initiated now but within the period of limitation as applicable under the earlier laws.
  - Affect any right, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the amended/repealed Acts. To illustrate, a right of appeal, which accrues under the old regime and duly exercised before the CESTAT or Commissioner (Appeals) does not fail due to restricted application of the old laws. Similarly, the mandatory pre-deposit made under section 35F of the Central Excise Act, 1944, to pursue an appeal cannot be claimed as refund after GST is introduced.
  - Affect any tax, surcharge, penalty, interest as are due or may become due or any forfeiture or punishment incurred or inflicted in respect of any offence or violation committed under the provisions of the amended/repealed Acts. For example, if a Central Excise case is decided by the Supreme Court after enactment of GST and the party's appeal is rejected then the liabilities can still be enforced even though the CE Act may be repealed or applied in a restricted manner.

- Affect any investigation, enquiry, assessment proceeding, any other legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such tax, surcharge, penalty, interest, right, privilege, obligation, liability, forfeiture or punishment, as aforesaid, and any such investigation, enquiry, assessment proceeding, adjudication and other legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such tax, surcharge, penalty, interest, forfeiture or punishment may be levied or imposed as if these Acts had not been so restricted or not so enacted. To illustrate, if on the date of enactment of GST law, the matter is under investigation, it can be continued and the SCN can be issued subsequently invoking the earlier provisions.
- Affect any proceeding including that relating to an appeal, revision, review or reference, instituted before the appointed day under the earlier law and such proceeding shall be continued under the earlier law as if this Act had not come into force and the said law had not been repealed. To illustrate, all the pending matters before the Commissioner (Appeals), Revisionary Authority, CESTAT, High Court and Supreme Court, would be continued and would not abate due to introduction of GST law.

Section 6 in The General Clauses Act, 1897

Effect of repeal. Where this Act, or any Central Act or Regulation made after the commencement of this Act, repeals any enactment hitherto made or hereafter to be made, then, unless a different intention appears, the repeal shall not—

- (a) revive anything not in force or existing at the time at which the repeal takes effect; or
- (b) affect the previous operation of any enactment so repealed or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or
- (c) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any enactment so repealed; or
- (d) affect any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment so repealed; or
- (e) affect any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid, and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if the repealing Act or Regulation had not been passed.

174.3 Issues and Controversies

Can ST audit be taken up now? Does it amount to new proceedings being initiated or continuation of saved actions? As ST audit is a 'new investigation', High Courts have expressed reservation that something that is 'not saved' by section 6 of General Clauses Act can derive authority if ST audits were permitted. Care must be taken to differentiate between continuation of proceedings versus commencement of new proceedings.

174.4 Comparative review

It would be interesting to refer to the Supreme Court decision in Kolhapur Cane sugar Works Limited Vs UOI, 2000 (119) ELT 257 (SC), which has explained the effect and importance of repeal or saving clause by referring to section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1887. Since there is a special provision in the GST Act, it would apply. Wherever the specific provision does not address a particular issue relating to repeal or saving, it is necessary to fall back on the provisions of General Clauses Act.
